PART 200—ORGANIZATION; CONDUCT AND ETHICS; AND INFORMATION AND REQUESTS

Change in Title of Hearing Examiners

The Commission has renamed the "Office of Hearing Examiners," so that it is now known as the "Office of Administrative Law Judges." The title "Hearing Examiner" has been changed to "Administrative Law Judge" and the title "Chief Hearing Examiner" has been changed to "Chief Administrative Law Judge." These changes were made to conform to a determination by the Civil Service Commission that on a Government-wide basis the position of "Hearing Examiner" should be retitled "Administrative Law Judge." Appropriate changes have been made in the Commission's rules of practice and the statement of organization and program management, including the rules relating to delegation of authority, as found in 17 CFR 200.1, et seq. Certain other changes were made in Part 200 of Title 17 to conform to existing practice. Articles 12, 13, 14, 15, 27, 30–8, and 30–10, as amended, are set forth below.[1]

Commission action. In conformity to the amendment effected by the U.S. Civil Service Commission in subpart B of part 930 of title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations as published at 37 F.R. 16787, and pursuant to authority conferred upon it under section 1 of Public Law 87-592, sections 19 and 21 of the Securities Act of 1933, sections 4(b) and 23(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, section 20 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, section 319 of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, section 38 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and section 211 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby amends §§ 200.12, 200.13(b), 200.14, 200.15, 200.27, 300.30–8(a), and 200.30–10 of Chapter II of Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations, to read as follows:

Unless waived by the parties, an initial decision is prepared by the administrative law judge in each case containing his conclusions as to the factual and legal issues presented and an appropriate order.

(b) The Chief Administrative Law Judge performs the duties of an administrative law judge and in addition those duties delegated to him by the Commission. He is responsible for the orderly functioning of the Office of Administrative Law Judges apart from the conduct of administrative proceedings and acts as liaison between that Office and the Commission.

The Director of the Office of Opinions and Review is responsible for assisting members of the Commission in the preparation of the opinions of the Commission, and to the Commission for the preparation of opinions and decisions on motions and certifications of questions and rulings by administrative law judges in the course of administrative proceedings, except in cases where, pursuant to a waiver by the parties of separation of function requirements, another Division or Office of the Commission's staff undertakes to prepare such Findings and Opinion, in which cases the Director may assist in such preparation. * * *

§ 200.27 The Regional Administrators.

Each Regional Administrator is responsible for executing the Commission's programs within his geographic region as set forth below (except as specified below with regard to matters arising under chapters X and XI of the Bankruptcy Act), subject to policy direction and review by the Division Directors, the General Counsel, and the Chief Accountant. The Regional Administrator's responsibilities include particularly the investigation of transactions in securities on national securities exchanges, in the over-the-counter market, and in distribution to the public; the examination of members of national securities exchanges and registered brokers and dealers, investment advisers and investment companies including the examination of reports filed under § 240.17a–5 of this chapter; the examination and processing of filings under §§ 230.251 to 230.262 of this chapter issued pursuant to section 3(b) of the Securities Act of 1933; the prosecution of injunctive actions in U.S. District Courts and administrative proceedings before Administrative Law Judges; the rendering of assistance to U.S. attorneys in criminal cases; and the making of the Commission's facilities more readily available to the public in that region. PART 201—RULES OF PRACTICE

Miscellaneous Amendments

The Securities and Exchange Commission has amended certain of its rules of practice (17 CFR Part 201) governing administrative proceedings before the agency. The amendments are part of the Commission's continuing program of refining existing practices and procedures in the interest of providing for more efficient and expeditious conduct of and disposition of administrative proceedings, encouraging settlements between the parties, achieving greater fairness in adjudicative matters, and expanding the authority of hearing officers in the conduct of hearings. The amendments announced today were adopted by the Commission after consideration of various recommendations in this area made in the report of June 1, 1972, of the Advisory Committee on Enforcement Policies and Practices.

Rule 8(d) (17 CFR 201.8(d)) is amended to make it clear that the hearing officer may in appropriate cases direct the submission or exchange of pre-trial memoranda setting forth the legal theories on which the parties rely, and may require the disclosure of the identity of witnesses and a list of the documents intended to be introduced at the hearing. Under Rule 8(d) the hearing officer has had authority to order conferences during the course of the proceedings for the exchange of information and to simplify issues and expedite the proceedings. Moreover, under Rule 7(d) (17 CFR 201.7(d)) a party has been able to file a motion for a more definite statement of specified matters of fact or law to be considered or determined. While in the past the Commission has held that a respondent is entitled to be sufficiently informed of the charges against him so that he may adequately prepare his defense, but that he is not entitled as of right to a disclosure of evidence in advance of the hearing (see, e.g., "Michael J. Meehan," 1 SEC 238 (1935); "Charles M. Weber," 35 SEC 79 (1953)), the Commission has also indicated that in the exercise of discretion in order to expedite the proceeding it may be appropriate to direct that respondents be furnished additional information even of an evidentiary nature ("e.g., Murray Securities Corporation," 37 SEC 780, 781 (1957)). There has been a trend also in orders issued by hearing officers toward requiring the disclosure of more information in advance of hearing. The present amendment to Rule 8 (d) is intended further to indicate the Commission's policy to encourage the use of formal or informal conference procedures and the exchange of relevant information where practical and reasonable to expedite proceedings, arrive at settlements or simplification of the issues and assure fairness to respondents.

The authority so granted to the hearing officer is to be used in the exercise of his sound discretion where it appears that under all the circumstances the use of some or all of these procedures would make a substantial contribution to the settlement or expeditious disposition of issues. Such procedures would be of particular benefit in those cases where there are issues of an unusually complex nature or it appears likely that the hearings will require extended periods of time. By the same token, in the exercise of his sound discretion the hearing officer would not direct any procedure which would appear to involve an unnecessary burden or delay in a particular case, undermine staff independence of action, or require the disclosure of the names of witnesses where there is a reasonable basis to anticipate that such action may lead to undesirable pressures on or harassment of witnesses or otherwise not be in the public interest.

Several other amendments are made to clarify and expand the authority of hearing officers to control the course and conduct of administrative proceedings referred to them. Rule 6(d) (17 CFR 201.6(d)) is amended to make it clear that a hearing officer may, for cause shown, grant a motion for an amendment to the matters to be considered at any time after the commencement of the hearing and prior to the filing of an possibility of obtaining stipulations and the hearing and prior to the filing of an initial decision or if no initial decison is to be filed, prior to the time fixed for the filing of final briefs with the Commission. Normally, the staff would file a motion to amend with the hearing officer where the proposed new matter is within the framework of the original order for proceedings issued by the Commission; if there is new matter which is without the framework of that order, the staff would submit its motion for amendment to the Commission.

Rule 8(a) (17 CFR 201.8(a)) is amended to specify that upon the agreement and request of the interested parties a hearing officer may in his discretion express his views regarding the appropriateness of a proposed offer of settlement with the understanding that such request constitutes a waiver of any claim of prejudice based on the hearing officer's expression of views. The hearing officer, of course, may decline to express his views on a settlement offer.

To give effect to the recent change in title made by the Civil Service Commission, Rule 11(b) (17 CFR 201.11(b)) is amended to change the designation of hearing examiner to that of administrative law judge.[1] Rule 11(d) (17 CFR 201.11(d)) is amended to state that a hearing officer in his discretion may require, in a proceeding involving more than one respondent, that the staff indicate at least 1 day before evidence is presented the respondent against whom that evidence will be presented. Rule 11(e) (17 CFR 201.11(e)) is amended to authorize the hearing officer to grant a motion to dismiss not only at the end of a proceeding but also in his discretion at the end of the staff's case.

Rules 13 and 16 (17 CFR 201.13, 201.16) are also amended to give hearing officers greater discretion in the granting of postponements or adjournments of hearings and fixing the time for the filing of proposed findings and conclusions and briefs. Likewise, Rule 22(d) (17 CFR 201.22(d)) is amended to allow a hearing officer to permit the filing of a brief exceeding 60 pages in length with that hearing officer.

Commission actions. Pursuant to authority conferred upon it under section 1 of Public Law 87–592, sections 19 and 21 of the Securities Act of 1933, sections 4(b) and 23(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, section 20 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, section 319 of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, section 38 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and section 211 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby amends Part 201 of Chapter II of Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations as set forth below.

(2) Upon the agreement and request of the interested parties, the hearing officer may express his views regarding the appropriateness of any offer of settlement, with the understanding that the request by the parties constitutes a waiver of any right to claim prejudgment by the hearing officer based on the views the hearing officer expresses, and the hearing officer in any event in his discretion may decline to express any view on the offer;

* * * * * *

(d) Conferences and prehearing memoranda. At the opening of a hearing or at any other time during the course of any proceeding, to the extent practicable, where time, the nature of the proceeding, and the public interest permit, the hearing officer shall, at the request of any party or upon his own motion, hold or order conferences for the purpose of clarifying and simplifying issues and otherwise facilitating or expediting the proceeding. At the conference or otherwise, the hearing officer, at the request of any party or upon his own motion, where he believes such action would tend to expedite the proceedings or promote fairness, may in his discretion and with due regard for the convenience and necessity of the parties or their attorneys, order a party, including the interested division, to furnish where practicable any or all of the following: An outline of its case or defense; the legal theories upon which it will rely; the identity of the witnesses who will testify on its behalf; and copies of or a list of documents which it intends to introduce at the hearing. The hearing officer shall not order any of the foregoing procedures that a party including the division can show is inappropriate under all the circumstances. Where such conference is held without the presence of the hearing officer, the hearing officer shall be advised promptly by the parties of the agreements reached. At or following the conclusion of a conference the hearing officer shall enter a ruling or order which recites the agreements reached and any procedural determinations made by the hearing officer, which may include any procedural ruling he is authorized to make during the course of a proceeding.

It is the policy of the Commission that such postponements or adjournments should normally not exceed 30 days. If the hearing officer orders a postponement or an adjournment for a period exceeding 30 days, the reasons for so doing shall be stated in his order.

PART 202—INFORMAL AND OTHER PROCEDURES

Preliminary or Formal Investigations

On September 27, 1972, the Commission issued a release describing certain informal Commission procedures relating to the commencement of enforcement proceedings and termination of staff investigations. See Release Nos. 33–5310; 34–9796; IC–7390; IA–336. Appropriate amendments have been made in the Commission's Statement of Informal and Other Procedures contained in Part 202 of Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations to reflect those procedures. The text of these amendments follows.

Commission action. Pursuant to authority conferred upon it under section 1 of Public Law 87–592, sections 19 and 21 of the Securities Act of 1933, sections 4(b) and 23(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, section 20(a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, section 319 of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, section 38 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, and section 211 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby amends paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 202.5 of Chapter II of Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations to read as follows:

(c) Persons who become involved in preliminary or formal investigations may, on their own initiative, submit a written statement to the Commission setting forth their interests and position in regard to the subject matter of the investigation. Upon request, the staff, in its discretion, may advise such persons of the general nature of the investigation, including the indicated violations as they pertain to them, and the amount of time that may be available for preparing and submitting a statement prior to the presentation of a staff recommendation to the Commission for the commencement of an administrative or injunction proceeding. Submissions by interested persons should be forwarded to the appropriate Division Director or Regional Administrator with a copy to the staff members conducting the investigation and should be clearly referenced to the specific investigation to which they relate. In the event a recommendation for the commencement of an enforcement proceeding is presented by the staff, any submissions by interested persons will be forwarded to the Commission in conjunction with the staff memorandum.

(d) In instances where the staff has concluded its investigation of a particular matter and has determined that it will not recommend the commencement of an enforcement proceeding against a person, the staff, in its discretion, may advise the party that its formal investigation has been terminated. Such advice if given must in no way be construed as indicating that the party has been exonerated or that no action may ultimately result from the staff's investigation of the particular matter.

The Commission finds that these amendments relate solely to rules of agency organization, procedure or practice, and notice and public procedures pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553 are therefore not required. The foregoing amendments are effective immediately.

PART 230—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

PART 239—FORMS PRESCRIBED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

Small Offering Exemption for Fractional Undivided Interests in Oil and Gas Rights

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted amendments to Regulation B (17 CFR 230.300 to 230.356) of its general rules and regulations under section 3(b) of the Securities Act of 1933 (Act) which will become effective on January 1, 1973. This regulation, which provides an exemption from the registration requirements of the Act for certain offerings of fractional undivided interests in oil and gas rights, has not been materially amended since 1937.

The proposed revision would retain the general structure of the regulation, although it has been revised and reordered to make it clearer and to incorporate and codify certain administrative interpretations of the existing regulation. The Commission also has adopted several important revisions of the regulation which, because of changes in economic and industry conditions and because of certain abuses in past selling practices, appear necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors. The important necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors. The important revisions include: (1) An increase in the dollar amount of an offering exempted from $100,000 to $250,000; (2) restriction on the use of sales literature and other forms of advertising; (3) a requirement for the delivery of the required offering sheet 48 hours before any sale may be made; (4) the denial on a prospective basis of the exemption to any person where he or certain related persons have been involved in violations of the Federal securities laws in connection with the sale of securities and revision of the procedure for suspension of the exemption to assist in obtaining compliance with the terms of the exemption; (5) a requirement for reports concerning the results of the offering on form 3–G (17 CFR 239.101(b)(2)); and (6) the elimination of the existing provision pertaining to offerings of less than $30,000 and in which the smallest interest offered or sold is not less than $300.

SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL AMENDMENTS

Reference is made to the attached Regulation B and forms for the full text of the amendments thereto which should be carefully considered. The Commission has received a number of comments with respect to its proposal to adopt these amendments as announced on February 14, 1972 in Securities Act Release No. 5233 (37 F.R. 16008). The Commission's decision to adopt the proposals with certain revisions and additions discussed below, reflects consideration of those comments.

1. Increase in dollar amount of exemption (Rule 302) (17 CFR 230.302).—The Commission notes that economic conditions have changed significantly since 1937, and believes it is appropriate to increase the dollar amount of offerings exempted from $100,000 to $250,000 in order to reflect increases in drilling costs. Such an increase is also consistent with the Commission's recent action increasing the dollar amount of an offering exempted pursuant to section 3(b) of the Act and Regulation A (17 CFR 230.251–230.263) thereunder.

2. Prior delivery of offering sheet (Rule 310) (17 CFR 230.310).—The registration provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 provide for a "waiting period" between the filing date and effective date of a registration statement during which written offers to sell securities may be made by means of a preliminary prospectus. The Commission has, by rule or release, taken steps to encourage dissemination of the preliminary prospectus during this period in order to afford persons effecting a distribution and persons reasonably expected to be purchasers of the securities a means of being informed about the investment merits of the offering prior to the effective date of the registration statement. The Commission believes that persons purchasing securities offered pursuant to Regulation B should have a similar opportunity to consider the material in the offering sheet. Accordingly, rule 310(d) requires delivery of the offering sheet 48 hours prior to any sale, which is a reasonable time for such consideration and is in accordance with the standard applied in Securities Act Release No. 4968 (34 F.R. 7235).[1]

3. Limitations on the use of sales literature and other forms of advertising (Rule 318) (17 CFR 230.318).—Enforcement problems have been reported to the Commission relating to frequent abuses in the use of sales literature and advertising material in connection with offerings purported to be exempt pursuant to Regulation B. Accordingly, Rule 318 provides as a condition of the exemption, that advertising and sales material should be limited to the offering sheet, "tombstone" advertisements, and any material required by State law. The Commission has added a provision to Rule 318 as proposed for comment which would permit sales material to indicate whether the well to be drilled is to be exploratory or developmental.

4. Grounds for denial of exemption and revision of suspension procedures (Rules 306, 334, 336, and 338 (17 CFR 230.306, 230.334, 230.336, and 230.338).—It appears to the Commission that where persons who propose to publicly offer securities have violated provisions of the Federal securities laws within a reasonable period prior to a proposed offering, it may not be in the public interest to allow such persons to take advantage of the exemption from registration provided by Regulation B. Accordingly, Rule 306 provides a bar to the use of the exemption by such persons which would terminate after a period of 5 years and from which the Commission could grant relief upon a showing of good cause. However, the Commission has determined that Rule 306 would apply only to operative events under the rule, such as injunctive orders or stop orders, occurring subsequent to its adoption.

The procedures for suspending the exemption accorded by Regulation B have also been amended to provide for more effective enforcement. For example, Regulation B presently would permit a person to make other offerings pursuant to the regulation, if one offering is suspended. The amendment would prohibit such a practice, and generally, would make the suspension procedures pursuant to Regulation B similar to those under Regulation A. However, the proposal as announced in Release 33–5233 has been revised to permit a temporary suspension to be lifted prior to the entry of an order for hearing to determine whether a permanent suspension should be entered when the offering sheet has been appropriately amended and the protection of investors does not appear to require a permanent suspension. (See Rule 336(c).)

5. Report of results of offering (Rule 316 (17 CFR 230.316) and Form 3–G).—A report of the results of the offering would provide information which would be useful to investors particularly in view of the fact that there is no continuous reporting requirement under Regulation B similar to section 15(d) of the Exchange Act. Such a report is required from new registrants under the Securities Act pursuant to Rule 463 (17 CFR 230.463). The report as published for comment has been simplified and shortened.

6. Deletion of the $30,000 provision (Rule 314(a) (17 CFR 230.314(a)).).—Rule 314(a) presently provides that no exemption from the regulation is available unless the operating lessee will own a working interest of a specified amount upon completion of the sale of the issue. Under paragraph (b) of the rule, however, this provision does not apply if (i) the aggregate amount at which the issue is offered to the public does not exceed $30,000 and (ii) the smallest interest which is separately offered or sold to the public is not so offered or sold for less than $300. Paragraph (b) has been deleted from proposed Rule 302(c), the successor rule to Rule 314(a) because investors in issues conforming to the limitations of present Rule 314(b) need the prophylactic protections afforded by present Rule 314(a) to the same extent as investors in larger issues.

ANALYSIS OF PROPOSED RULES

General. The rules have been renumbered by using even numbers beginning with Rule 300. Odd numbers have been reserved for use in the future adoption of other rules as deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest.

The presentation of the regulation, in general, follows this pattern:

A. Introduction.
B. Definitions.
C. Availability of the exemption.
  1. Requirements.
  2. Limitations.
D. Conditions for the exemption.
  1. Filing and use of the offering sheet, reports, sales materials.
E. The offering sheet.
  1. Form, preparation.
F. The suspension order.
  1. Reasons for suspension.
  2. Procedure.
  3. Effects of suspension.
G. Amendments.
H. Withdrawal and termination.

The more significant changes in the regulation are as follows: § 230.300 (17 CFR 230.300). The definitions in Rule 300 are based on and substantially similar to, those contained in the present Rule 300. The definition of the term "participating interest" has been extended to cover rights of participation in the oil or gas, or in the proceeds from the sale of oil or gas produced from a well or wells. Certain other revisions have been made to conform the definitions to other rules. Also, a definition of "affiliate" has been added to the rule as previously proposed.

Section 230.302 (17 CFR 230.302).—The maximum dollar amount permitted to be raised under the regulation would be increased from $100,000 to $250,000.

[1] See Rule 460 (17 CFR 230.460) under the Act, Rule 15c2–8 (17 CFR 240.15c2–8) under the Securities Exchange Act, and Securities Act Release No. 4968. See also Securities Act Release No. 5277 (37 F.R. 16008) wherein the Commission recently announced a proposal to require delivery of offering circulars used in connection with offerings exempt pursuant to Regulation A 48 hours prior to any sale.

Section 230.306 (17 CFR 230.306).—This rule, which will operate prospectively, denies the exemption to an offeror where it has been involved in violations of the Federal securities laws. Included in the rule is a relief provision where the Commission, upon a showing of good cause, may permit the use of the exemption.

Section 230.310 (17 CFR 230.310).—The waiting period for sale has been extended from 8 to 10 days. In addition, the rule requires the furnishing of the offering sheet to investors 48 hours before a sale may be made or money or other consideration accepted. Two copies of the definitive offering sheet are required to be filed under this rule. Finally, the period of time during which the offering sheet may be used has been extended from 110 to 120 days.

Section 230.316 (17 CFR 230.316).—An additional report (Form 3–G) (17 CFR 239.102(b)(2)), showing how proceeds were expended and the results of drilling, is required to be filed not later than 3 months after completion of the offering and copies of the report are required to be distributed to participants who have purchased working or participating interests. The report is not required to be distributed to persons acquiring certain royalty interests or production payments. Additional reports may be required to provide information as to a well completion. The filing of a report of sales on Form 1–G (17 CFR 239.102(b)(1)) is required after the termination of sales, rather than after each individual sale, as previously required.

Section 230.318 (17 CFR 230.318).—This rule provides that, other than the limited forms of advertisements permitted by the rule and material required by State law, no form of advertising or sales literature would be permitted under this regulation.

Section 230.326 (17 CFR 230.326).—The number of schedules on which filings may be made pursuant to the regulation has been reduced from six to four, by the rescission of Schedules E and F (17 CFR 239.101(e), 239.101(f)).

Section 230.334 (17 CFR 230.334).—The existing suspension provision has been augmented by adding as bases for suspension both violations of the antifraud provisions of the Federal securities acts in connection with the offering and failure of certain persons to cooperate with the Commission in connection with any investigation relating to the offering. The provision requiring that a temporary suspension order must be entered within 7 days after filing the offering sheet has been removed.

Section 230.336 (17 CFR 230.336).—The suspension procedure has been amended to conform substantially with the procedure specified in Regulation A. After the entry of a temporary suspension order, if no hearing is requested, the order would become permanent on the 30th day after its entry unless an appropriate amendment to the offering sheet has been filed and the protection of investors does not appear to require a permanent suspension.

Section 230.338 (17 CFR 230.338).—This rule provides that the effectiveness of an offering sheet shall be delayed or suspended until any temporary or permanent suspension order issued is vacated.

Section 230.340 (17 CFR 230.340). This rule provides that an offering sheet may not be amended if sales have been made under that offering sheet. It further provides that any offering sheet may not be amended after an order for hearing on the suspension of the exemption for that offering has been entered.

Section 230.342 (17 CFR 230.342). This rule provides for the red-lining of one copy of an amendment in order to show changes from the previous filing.

FORMS AND SCHEDULES

Forms 1–G (17 CFR 239.101(b)(1) and 3–G (17 CFR 239.101(b)(2)). As noted in the reference to Rule 316 (17 CFR 230.316), above, the Commission has amended Form 1–G to reduce the number of such filings required and has adopted Form 3–G, a report disclosing how proceeds of the offering were expended and the results of drilling. Both Forms 1–G and 3–G are self-explanatory. Some simplification of Form 3–G as previously proposed has been accomplished in light of comments received.

Rescission of Form 2–G (17 CFR 239.101(h)). Existing Rule 322 conditionally excepts certain transactions from the offering sheet requirements prescribed by existing Rule 320. Certain of such transactions were required to be reported on Form 2–G. However, it appears that over the years few, if any, such transactions have been effected in reliance on the exceptions in Rule 322, and the Commission has not received a report on Form 2–G in years. The Commission, therefore, has eliminated the exceptions set forth in Rule 322. Form 2–G does not therefore appear necessary and has been rescinded. It further appears that the type of transactions excepted in Rule 322 are of the type which might permit sales in reliance on the exemptions provided by section 4(1) or 4(2) of the Act. Where such is not the case the Commission believes that delivery of an offering sheet should be required.

Rescission of Schedules E and F (17 CFR 239.101(e) and 239.101(f)). There have been six schedules (A through F) (17 CFR 239.101 (a)–(f)) for filing of offering sheets under Regulation B. The Commission has received no filings on Schedule E or F for years. It appears from a review of the schedules that Schedules A through D (formerly 17 CFR 239.101 (a)–(d) now 17 CFR 239.101 (a) (1)–(4)) provide all that is required by way of schedules under the regulation. Any filings that might have been made on Schedules E and F may be made on Schedule C or D (17 CFR 239.101(a)(3)–(4)). The Commission has therefore rescinded Schedules E and F.

Commission action. Pursuant to authority in sections 3(b) and 19(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby rescinds all of present Regulation B (§§ 230.300 through 230.256) including the headnote thereto, and adopts a new Regulation B (§§ 230.300 through 200.346) including new headnote in Part 230 and amends § 239.101 in Part 239 of Chapter II of Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations reading as follows:

REGULATION B—EXEMPTION RELATING TO FRACTIONAL UNDIVIDED INTERESTS IN OIL OR GAS RIGHTS

Introduction. While compliance with this regulation does not require the registration of securities under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Act), the need to make filings with the Commission and to disclose certain basic information is not eliminated. Persons offering securities under this exemption, as conditions to the exemption, are still required to file prescribed documents with the Commission containing certain basic and material information and to provide prospective investors with this information with respect to such securities. The regulation and the rules provide a method for obtaining an exemption from the requirements of registration if certain conditions are met and the rules of the regulation are followed. It should also be noted that the antifraud provisions of the Federal securities laws and the civil liabilities provisions of section 12(2) of the Act remain applicable, even if the exemption is available.

Form S–10 (17 CFR 239.17) adopted pursuant to the Act is available for the registration of fractional interests in oil and gas rights should the exemption provided by this regulation be unavailable.

(a) As used in Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346), the following terms shall have the respective meanings set forth below:

(1) Fractional undivided interests. The term "fractional undivided interest in oil or gas rights" shall include fractional undivided interests in landowner's royalty interests, overriding royalty interests, working interests, participating interests, and oil and gas payments as defined in subparagraphs (2) to (6) inclusive of this paragraph.

(2) Landowner's royalty interest. The term "landowner's royalty interest" means the right in the royalty reserved by a landowner or fee owner upon the creation of an oil and gas lease.

(3) Overriding royalty interest. The term "overriding royalty interest" means the right of participation in the oil or gas, or in the proceeds from the sale of the oil or gas, produced from a specified tract or tracts, which right is limited in duration to the terms of an existing lease and is not subject to any portion of the expense of development, operation, or maintenance.

(4) Working interest. The term "working interest" means that right in an oil or gas leasehold which is subject to any portion of the expense of development,

(c) As used in this section, the term "operating lessee or lessee" shall in-or enjoining such offeror from engaging

The Commission may, however, in its discretion, authorize the commencement portion of the expense of development, operation, or maintenance.

(5) Participating interest. The term "participating interest" means the right of participation in the oil or gas, or in the proceeds from the sale of oil or gas, produced from a specified tract or tracts, or well(s), which right is limited in duration to the terms of an existing lease and is subject to any portion of the expense of development, operation, or maintenance.

(6) Oil or gas payment. The term "oil and gas payment" means the right of participation in the oil or gas, or in the proceeds from the sale of the oil or gas, produced from a specified tract or tracts, which is limited to a maximum amount fixed in barrels of oil, cubic feet of gas, or dollars.

(7) Offeror. The term "offeror" means any issuer of, underwriter of, or dealer in, any of the interests or rights offered under Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) or any other person who issues, offers, or sells, any such interest or rights.

(8) Offering sheet. The term "offering sheet" means the offering sheet required by § 230.310.

(9) Affiliate. An "affiliate" of any person is a person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with such person.

(10) The terms "person," "issuer," "underwriter," and "dealer" shall have the meanings given in section 2 of the Act.

(b) Where the terms defined in subparagraphs (1) through (10) of paragraph (a) of this section are used in an offering sheet, such terms shall not be given a meaning inconsistent with such definitions. Other technical terms used in the offering sheet should not be inconsistent with their customary usage in the oil and gas industry.

§ 230.302 Interests exempted.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Regulation B, fractional undivided interests in oil and gas rights, such as landowner's royalty interests, oil or gas payments, overriding royalty interests, participating interests, or working interests which are offered and sold in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Regulation B, shall be exempt from registration under the Act, provided the aggregate amount of the offering does not exceed $250,000.

(b) No exemption shall be available under this Regulation B unless the operating lessee or lessees will own, as a minimum amount, unencumbered in his name or their names, upon completion of the sale of the issue, a working interest in the tract or tracts involved equal to whichever of the following amounts is greater: (1) 20 percent of the total production from such tract or tracts of all oil, gas, or other hydrocarbon substances, or (2) the total percentage of production from such tract or tracts which is not subject to any portion of the expenses of development, operation, or maintenance, such as the landowner's royalty and overriding royalty.

(c) As used in this section, the term "operating lessee or lessees" shall include the lessee of record actually engaged in developing and operating the tract or tracts involved and all other owners of working interests in the tract or tracts, who are regularly engaged in the business of exploring for or producing oil or gas and who have consented in writing to the development and operation of said tract or tracts by such lessee of record.

(d) No exemption shall be available under this Regulation B for limited partnership interests, "reversionary interests," and "interests in net profits." For purposes of this paragraph the term "reversionary interests" means the right of participation in an oil and gas right after the recovery by that right of all of its drilling, completion, and operating costs; and the term "interest in net profits" means the right of participation in the proceeds from the sale of the oil or gas after deduction of all expenses of operation.

§ 230.304 Interests involving noncontiguous tracts.

(a) Interests involving noncontiguous tracts of land may be included in the same offering sheet, only if the following conditions are met:

(1) All of the interests to be offered thereunder are landowner's royalty interests; and either:

(i) All of the tracts involving such interests are currently producing oil or gas, are located wholly within the limits of the same oil or gas pool, and are being currently operated by the same operator under an oil and gas lease executed by one or more landowners, each of whom was, at the time of the execution of the lease, the owner of a fee or mineral intrest in each of the tracts involved; or

(ii) All of the tracts involving such interests are nonproducing but appear, on the basis of all past and proposed development for oil or gas, to have equal possibilities for production of oil or gas; and

(2) The purchaser of any such interest is entitled to the same fractional portion of the oil and gas produced from each tract covered by the offering sheet.

§ 230.306 Limitations on offeror.

(a) No exemption shall be available under this regulation to any offeror if such offeror or any officer, director, predecessor, or affiliate of such offeror as a result of any civil, criminal, or governmental or self-regulatory administrative proceeding, or examination commenced after January 1, 1973:

(1) Has been convicted within 10 years prior to the filing or use of such offering sheet of any crime or offense in connection with the purchase or sale of securities;

(2) Is subject to any order, judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction entered within 5 years prior to the filing or use of an offering sheet, temporarily or permanently restraining or enjoining such offeror from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security, or arising out of such person's conduct as an underwriter, broker, dealer, or investment adviser;

(3) Is subject to a United States Post Office fraud order entered within 5 years prior to the filing or use of an offering sheet;

(4) Has filed a registration statement which is the subject of any proceeding or examination under Section 8 of the Act, or is the subject of any refusal order or stop order entered thereunder within 5 years prior to the filing or use of such offering sheet;

(5) Is subject to an order of the Commission pursuant to section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or pursuant to section 203(d) or (e) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, or is suspended, or has been expelled from membership in a national or provincial securities dealers association or national securities exchange for conduct inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade, if such order has been issued, or such action has been taken within 5 years prior to the filing or use of an offering sheet; and

(6) Has made any filing pursuant to sections 3(b) or (c) of the Securities Act of 1933 which is under an order of temporary suspension, or which is and has been under an order of permanent suspension within 5 years prior to the filing or use of such offering sheet.

(b) No exemption shall be available under Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) if the offeror is in fact, a dealer and at the time of any offer to sell or any sale is not duly registered as a dealer pursuant to section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this section shall not apply to any offering if the Commission determines, upon filing of an application and showing of good cause, that it is not necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors that the exemption be denied. Any such relief granted by the Commission may be either general or on a specific filing basis. Any such determinations by the Commission shall be without prejudice to any other action by the Commission in any other proceeding or matter with respect to the offeror or any other persons.

§ 230.310 Filing and use of the offering sheet.

(a) At least 10 days prior to the commencement of the offering of any securities under this Regulation B, four copies of an offering sheet containing the information specified in § 230.326 shall be filed with the Commission by or on behalf of the offeror of the interests. At the time of filing the offering sheet, the applicant shall pay to the Commission a fee of $100, no part of which shall be refunded. Unless amended, the offering sheet shall become effective and an offering may commence on the 11th day following such filing with the Commission.

The Commission may, however, in its discretion, authorize the commencement of the offering prior to the expiration of such 10-day period.

(b) Except as provided in § 230.318, no securities shall be offered, orally or otherwise, under Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) unless at or prior to the time of the initial offer of such securities an offering sheet meeting the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section concurrently is given to the person to whom the offer is made.

(c) The offer and sale of securities under Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) shall be made through an offering sheet meeting the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section, and the information contained therein shall be as of a date not more than 120 days prior to the use of such offering sheet.

(d) No sale shall be made nor money or other consideration accepted from any person for the purchase of any security offered under this Regulation B until 48 hours after a copy of the offering sheet has been delivered to such person.

(e) If any sales under an offering sheet have been made and not rescinded, the offering sheet may be refiled only once thereafter to extend the time within which to complete the offering: Provided, That adequate disclosure was made in the offering sheet that such a refiling may be made.

(f) Within 10 days after the effective date of the offering sheet or any amendment thereto, two copies of such offering sheet shall be filed with the Commission in the exact form in which it is to be used. Each offering sheet so filed shall be dated and clearly identified in red on the first page as being a definitive copy of the offering sheet.

§ 230.312 Filing of offering sheets on behalf of other persons.

An offering sheet may be filed with the Commission for, and on behalf of, other persons, provided all such other persons are duly registered as dealers under section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and addresses of all such persons are filed with the Commission in duplicate prior to any use of such offering sheet by such other person; and the Commission may refuse to accept for filing any list which contains the name of any person who is not so registered.

§ 230.314 Delivery of evidence of title.

Prior to the making of a contract of sale with, and prior to the payment of any part of the consideration by, the purchaser of any interest offered under Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346), the offeror shall deliver to the purchaser evidence satisfactory to the purchaser of the validity of the title which he is to receive and upon which the value of his interest depends.

(a)(1) On or before the 15th day after the expiration of each effective offering sheet pursuant to Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346), or the termination of sales, whichever comes first, the offeror, or offerors collectively, if more than one, shall file with the Commission one copy of a report on Form 1–G (§ 239.101(b)(2) of this chapter) containing the information called for by that form. This report shall be filed whether or not any sales were made under the offering sheet.

(2) An additional such report on Form 1–G shall be filed on or before the 15th day after the termination of sales, or after the expiration of each additional effective offering sheet covering the same tract or tracts, whichever comes first, where such offering sheet has been refiled to extend time for the offer.

(3) These reports shall be kept confidential unless the Commission shall order otherwise.

(b) Not later than 3 calendar months after the termination of the offering, the offeror shall file with the Commission and send to purchasers of interests a report on Form 3–G (§ 239.101(b)(2) of this chapter), containing the information called for by that form. This form shall be filed and distributed at the times specified in the instructions to the form.

§ 230.318 Use of sales material.

(a) Any written advertisement or other written communication, or any radio or television broadcast, which states from whom an offering sheet meeting the requirements of Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) may be obtained and, in addition, contains no more than the following information, may be published, distributed, or broadcast at or after the commencement of the public offering to any person prior to sending or giving such person a copy of the offering sheet:

(1) The name of the offeror of the interests;

(2) The identity or type of the interests to be offered;

(3) The number of such interests to be offered;

(4) The location (county and state) of the tract or tracts involved;

(5) The price of the interest to be offered; or

(6) The type of well to be drilled, such as an exploratory or developmental well.

(b) Except for the offering sheet required by Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) and any material permitted by paragraph (a) of this section, no other advertisement, radio, or television broadcast, or written communication shall be used in connection with the offering of securities under Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346), except as required by state law.

§ 230.320 Restricting use of estimations not included in offering sheets.

A person using any estimation of the amount of oil or gas recoverable from the tract involved, or from any other tract for comparative purposes, in connection with an offer to sell any fractional undivided interest in oil or gas rights, defined in § 230.300 of this chapter, shall not be entitled to the exemption provided by Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346), and, shall not be relieved from any liability which, in the absence of the exemption provided by Regulation B, would be imposed upon such person because such security was unregistered, unless such estimation is permitted to be and is included in, and furnished as part of, an offering sheet accurately describing such security.

§ 230.322 Prohibition of certain statements.

No offering sheet or other written or oral communication used in connection with any offering under Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) shall contain any language stating or implying that the Commission has in any way passed upon the merits of, or given its approval to, the securities offered or the terms of the offering, or has determined that the securities are exempt from registration, or has made any finding that the statements in any such offering sheet or other communication are accurate or complete.

§ 230.324 Liability for unauthorized use of offering sheet.

Any person using an offering sheet in connection with an offer to sell any security described therein shall not be entitled to the exemption provided by Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346), and, shall not be relieved from any liability which, in the absence of the exemption provided by Regulation B, would be imposed upon such person because such security was unregistered, unless such offering sheet has previously been filed with the Commission by, or for, or on behalf of, such person, and is effective at the time of its use.

§ 230.326 Form and contents of offering sheets.

(a) The offering sheets required by Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) shall be filed with the Commission in the form prescribed in the schedules specifically enumerated below, which schedules, as amended and adopted, are, by reference, hereby incorporated in, and made a part of, this section.

(1) Schedule A.—If the interests offered are producing landowner's royalty interests.

(2) Schedule B.—If the interests offered are nonproducing landowner's royalty interests.

(3) Schedule C.—If the interests offered are producing overriding royalty interests, working interests, or participating interests, or are oil payments, gas payments, or oil and gas payments to be made from tracts represented to be producing at the time of the offering.

(4) Schedule D.—If the interests offered are nonproducing overriding royalty interests, working interests, or participating interests, or are oil payments, gas payments, or oil and gas payments to be made from tracts represented to be nonproducing at the time of the offering.

§ 230.328 Preparation of offering sheet.

(a) The offering sheet shall contain the information called for by all of the applicable items and required exhibits of the appropriate schedule according to the instructions thereto, but the instructions thereto shall not be repeated in the offering sheet.

(b) The information required shall be furnished as of a specified date no earlier than 30 days prior to the date of filing the offering sheet with the Commission, or as of such other date as may be indicated in the particular item or instruction of the applicable schedule. When any other date is used, such date shall be set forth with a brief statement as to the necessity for its use.

(c) If any item of information cannot be furnished, or there is reason to doubt the accuracy of all of the information available with respect thereto, the answer to the item may be omitted, but the reason for the omission must be given. In no case, however, may there be omitted information which is a matter of public record in the county, state, or other political subdivision in which the tract is located.

(d) The offering sheet which is given to the person to whom the offering is made may be printed, mimeographed, lithographed, or typewritten, or prepared by any similar process which will result in clearly legible copies. If it is printed, it shall be set in roman type at least as large as 10-point modern type, leaded at least 2 points, or if typewritten the type shall be no smaller than elite.

(e) At least one copy of the offering sheet filed with the Commission shall be manually signed by the offeror, or if there is more than one offeror by each of them. If the offering sheet is typewritten, the "original" ribbon copy shall be signed. Unsigned copies shall be conformed.

§ 230.330 Representations in offering sheets.

(a) All statements or information contained in any offering sheet or in any exhibit attached thereto or incorporated therein shall constitute continuing representations by the person filing such offering sheet to any person who may, in reliance upon a copy of such offering sheet, purchase any interest described therein, that the statements contained therein are substantially correct and that no material fact has been omitted, the inclusion of which would reasonably appear necessary, in the light of the circumstances, to make the information contained therein not misleading to the purchaser.

(b) All statements or information contained in any offering sheet shall constitute continuing representations by any offeror who shall deliver, or cause such offering sheet to be delivered, to any person who may, in reliance upon a copy of such offering sheet, purchase any interest described therein from, or through, such offeror, that such offering sheet is a true copy of an offering sheet filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in compliance with the rules and regulations of the Commission on behalf of such offeror, that such offeror has reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, that the statements contained therein are substantially correct, and, that no material fact known to the offeror has been omitted, the inclusion of which would reasonably appear necessary, in the light of the circumstances, to make the information contained therein not misleading to the purchaser.

(c) If an estimation of recoverable oil or gas, or a geological report made by someone other than the person filing the offering sheet, is included in the offering sheet, the contents thereof shall not be regarded as a representation by the person filing the offering sheet; Provided, The person filing the offering sheet has reason to believe, and does believe, that the author of such estimation or report possesses the qualifications and integrity necessary to make such estimation or report, and provided the person filing the offering sheet does not know or believe the estimation or report to be untrue or misleading in any respect.

§ 230.332 The use of the offering sheet.

Each offering sheet used, distributed, or delivered by the person making the filing with the Commission or by any other person shall be an exact copy of the offering sheet filed with the Commission (as amended, if amended).

§ 230.334 Reasons for suspension.

(a) The Commission may, at any time after the filing of an offering sheet, enter an order temporarily suspending the exemption if it has reason to believe that:

(1) No exemption is available under Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) for the securities purported to be offered hereunder, or any of the terms or conditions of this Regulation B have not been complied with, including failure to file any reports;

(2) The offering sheet, or any literature or report permitted or required by Regulation B, or used, contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading;

(3) The offering has been, or is being, made in violation of the antifraud provisions of section 17 of the Act and section 10 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;

(4) The issuer, offeror, underwriter, or any promoter, officer or director thereof has failed to cooperate or has obstructed, or refused to permit the making of an investigation by the Commission in connection with any offering made or proposed to be made hereunder.

§ 230.336 The suspension procedure.

(a) Upon the entry of an order under paragraph (a) of § 230.334, the Commission will promptly give notice to the persons on whose behalf the notification was filed (1) that such order has been entered, together with a brief statement of the reasons for the entry of the order, and (2) that the Commission, upon receipt of a written request at any time within 30 days after the entry of such order, will set the matter down for hearing within 30 days after the receipt of such request at a place to be designated and on a date to be set by the Commission. (Where a hearing is requested or is ordered by the Commission, the Commission will, after notice of and opportunity for such hearing, either vacate the order or enter an order permanently suspending the exemption.)

(b) The Commission may at any time after notice of and opportunity for hearing, enter an order permanently suspending the exemption for any reason upon which it could have entered a temporary suspension order under paragraph (a) of this section. Any such order shall remain in effect until vacated by the Commission. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, the order shall become permanent on the 30th day after its entry and shall remain in effect unless or until it is modified or vacated by the Commission.

(c) If any time before the Commission enters an order setting the matter down for hearing, it finds that an offering sheet has been amended to cure the objectives specified in any temporary suspension order entered pursuant to § 230.334, the Commission may, in its sole discretion, upon written request or upon its own motion where necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors terminate the proceedings which have been instituted by any such temporary suspension order and give notice of such action to the person who filed the offering sheet.

(d) All notices required by this section shall be given by personal service, registered or certified mail, or confirmed telegraphic notice to the person or persons on whose behalf the offering sheet was filed at the addresses of such persons given in the offering sheet.

§ 230.338 Effect of suspension order.

(a) An offering sheet complying with the requirements of Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) shall become effective on the 11th day after the date upon which it is received by the Commission for filing except that (1) if the Commission shall enter a temporary suspension order, the offering sheet shall not become effective, or if effective shall no longer be effective until the temporary suspension order expires or is vacated; (2) if the Commission shall enter a permanent suspension order, the offering shall not become or shall no longer be effective.

§ 230.340 When offering sheet may be amended.

(a) Any person who has filed an offering sheet may, subject to the provisions of § 230.342, file amendments thereto, but only under the following conditions and in the following instances:

(1) In the event none of the securities referred to in said offering sheet have been sold and the person filing the offering sheet shall so represent to the Commission in writing.

(2) In the event a temporary suspension order is in effect and a hearing with respect thereto has not been ordered.

§ 230.342 How offering sheet may be amended.

(a) Any amendment to an offering sheet shall be filed in accordance with this section and shall become and be effective only as hereinafter provided:

(1) An amendment shall be made either by filing or substituting a wholly corrected offering sheet, or by filing or substituting entire exhibits or pages, as amended.

(2) Four copies of the amendment shall be filed with the Commission, and each copy shall bear the signature of the person who filed the offering sheet as well as every other person whose estimations or statements are modified or affected by such amendment. Where the amendment is made by filing or substituting exhibits or pages, each such exhibit or page shall be signed by the persons whose signatures are required by this subparagraph.

(3) Any amendment complying with the requirements of Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346) shall become effective at such time as the Commission may order.

(4) One copy of any amendment filed shall be notated in red to indicate any changes from the previous filing.

§ 230.344 Withdrawal.

An offering sheet or any amendment or exhibit thereto may be withdrawn upon application if none of the interests described therein have been sold, if all persons on whose behalf the offering sheet was filed and who have received copies thereof have been notified in writing of the intention to withdraw it and the Commission, finding such withdrawal consistent with the public interest and protection of investors consents thereto. Application for the order shall be signed by the person who filed the offering sheet and shall establish the foregoing conditions necessary to the withdrawal.

§ 230.346 Termination.

The Commission will enter an order terminating the exemption if all persons on whose behalf the offering sheet was filed and who have received copies thereof have been notified in writing of the intention to terminate it, and if the Commission shall find it otherwise appropriate in the public interest to do so. Application for the order shall be in the form of an affidavit by the person who filed the offering sheet and shall establish the foregoing conditions necessary to the termination.

§ 239.101 Schedules and forms for offering sheets pertaining to fractional undivided interests in oil or gas rights offered pursuant to exemption under Regulation B (§§ 230.300–230.346 of this chapter).

(a) An offeror of fractional undivided interests in oil or gas rights pursuant to §§ 230.300–230.346 of this chapter shall file an offering sheet, in accordance with § 230.310 or 230.312 of this chapter, upon the applicable schedule listed below:

(2) Schedule B. If the interests offered are nonproducing landowners' royalty interests.

(3) Schedule C. If the interests offered are producing overriding royalty interests, working interests, or participating interests, or are oil payments, gas payments, or oil and gas payments to be made from tracts represented to be producing at the time of the offering.

(4) Schedule D. If the interests offered are nonproducing overriding royalty interests, working interests, or participating interests, or are oil payments, gas payments, or oil and gas payments to be made from tracts represented to be nonproducing at the time of the offering.

(b) An offeror will also have the obligation of filing the following reports in accordance with § 230.316 of this chapter:

(1) Form 1–G. One copy of this report will be filed with the Commission within 15 days after the expiration of the offering sheet or the termination of sales, whichever date is earlier. This form will report the sales of oil or gas interests pursuant to §§ 230.300–230.346 of this chapter.

(2) Form 3–G. Four copies of this report will be filed with the Commission within 3 calendar months after the termination of any offering pursuant to §§ 230.300–230.346 of this chapter. This form will report the results of the offering.

NOTE: Copies of amended Form 1–G and newly adopted Form 3–G have been filed with the Office of Federal Register as part of this document and are available upon request at the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549.

The Commission has taken the foregoing action pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, particularly sections 3(b) and 19(a) thereof. Such action shall become effective on January 1, 1973, but shall not apply to offering sheets filed prior to that date.

Chapter V—Manpower Administration, Department of Labor

PART 615—EXTENDED UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

Determination of National and State Indicators

Part 615 of Chapter V of Title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by revising § 615.13(d) to effectuate section 501 of H.R. 16810, approved by the President on October 27, 1972.

The provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553 which require notice of proposed rulemaking and delay of effective date are not applicable because this amendment is needed on an emergency basis to implement section 501 of H.R. 16810 designed to permit States to pay, under stated conditions, extended compensation for weeks of unemployment beginning after October 27, 1972 and before July 1, 1973. Accordingly, I find that delay in the effective date would be contrary to the public interest.

The amendment shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11–9–72).

As amended, § 615.13 reads as follows:

§ 615.13 Determination of national and State indicators.

* * * * *

(d) There is a State "off" indicator for a State for a week if the head of the State agency determines, in accordance with § 615.14(b), that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the total rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted)—

(1) Was less than 120 percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13-week period ending in each of the preceding 2 calendar years, or

(2) Was less than 4 percent.

Provided, however, That if a State by law so provides, an "off" indicator in the State resulting from the application of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be disregarded and the determination of whether there has been a State "off" indicator ending any extended benefit period shall be made under this section as if it did not contain subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; if there is no such State "off" indicator, the extended benefit period shall be deemed to continue and extended compensation shall be payable in the State of individuals entitled thereto but only for weeks of unemployment beginning after October 27, 1972 (or, if later, the date established pursuant to State law) and beginning before July 1, 1973; if there is such State "off" indicator, the extended benefit period shall end as provided in § 615.15(b): Provided further, That with respect to extended compensation for weeks of unemployment beginning after June 30, 1973, the determination of whether there has been a State "off" indicator ending any extended benefit period shall be made by the application of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph.

PART 148e—ERYTHROMYCIN

Erythromycin Stearate; Change in Moisture Content

In a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 8, 1972 (37 F.R. 4967), the Commissioner of Food and Drugs proposed to amend the antibiotic drug regulations by raising the moisture limit for erythromycin stearate from 3.0 to 4.0 percent.

One comment was received from a manufacturer in response to the proposal. The firm supported the revision to 4.0 percent, but requested the data upon which the proposed 4 percent limit was based. A summary of such data was provided the firm.

A compilation of certification data for the then current fiscal year (July 1971 to June 1972) shows that the moisture content of all erythromycin stearate produced meets the proposed 4 percent limit.

After consideration of the comment received and the relevant manufacturing data, the Commissioner concludes that the proposal should be adopted without change.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 357) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120), § 148e.6 Erythromycin stearate is amended in paragraph (a)(1)(iii) by changing the moisture content from "3.0" to "4.0" percent.

Effective date. This order shall be effective 30 days after its date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Title 40—PROTECTION OF ENVIRONMENT

Chapter I—Environmental Protection Agency

SUBCHAPTER C—AIR PROGRAMS

PART 52—APPROVAL AND PROMULGATION OF IMPLEMENTATION PLANS

Significant Deterioration of Air Quality

On April 30, 1971, pursuant to section 109 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, the Administrator promulgated national primary and secondary ambient air quality standards. The Act requires that the primary standards protect public health, with an adequate margin of safety, and that the secondary standards protect public welfare from any known or anticipated adverse effect. Under section 110 of the Act, States are required to prepare and submit to the Administrator plans for implementing the national ambient air standards in each air quality control region in the State. The Administrator published on May 31, 1972, his initial approvals and disapprovals of State implementation plans developed and submitted under these provisions of Federal law.

On May 30, 1972, the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia decided the case of "Sierra Club v. Ruckelshaus" (Civil Action No. 1031-72) and issued an order which interpreted the Clean Air Act as requiring that, in addition to the attainment of the national standards, the Environmental Protection Agency was to prevent "significant deterioration" of air quality in those areas of the country in which air quality was already better than the standards. The order of the court specifically required the Administrator to again review State implementation plans to determine whether the plans permitted "significant deterioration of existing air quality in any portion of any State where the existing air quality is better than one or more of the secondary (ambient air quality) standards promulgated by the Administrator." The order also required that the Administrator announce his approval or disapproval of plans with respect to this issue within 4 months of the decision. Finally, it required that the Administrator promulgate regulations which were necessary to prevent "significant deterioration" for any State which lacked the necessary laws by December 1, 1972. In accordance with the court's order, a review of State plans was completed on September 30, 1972.

The review of State plans pursuant to the court order dealt with a number of factors which are pertinent to the prevention of "significant deterioration" of air quality. Among these factors were States' legal authority to prevent deterioration, the manner in which States provided for growth, the extent to which States intended to achieve ambient air quality standards more stringent than the national standards, and the extent to which State plans included procedures implementing a policy or requirement prohibiting "significant deterioration."

The review indicated that a majority of the State plans mentioned "nondegradation" of air quality in some manner, either as a statement of policy or as part of their regulations. However, no State included detailed provisions in its enforcement procedures or regulations for implementing such a policy. Accordingly, it has been determined that all State plans must be disapproved to the extent that they do not contain provisions which will effectively prevent "significant deterioration" of air quality. It should be understood, however, that some of the State plans disapproved in this action may in fact fulfill the requirements of the court order as that order is finally implemented.

The action taken herein to disapprove State implementation plans with respect to their provisions for "significant deterioration" is not intended to and should not be construed as affecting the validity of prior approvals or promulgations of State plans by the Administrator. Provisions of approved or promulgated plans remain in effect and are enforceable by the State and/or Federal Government in accordance with the provisions of the Clean Air Act.

To implement the requirement of the Clean Air Act, as interpreted by the court order, in a reasonable manner, the Administrator must resolve a number of complex, interrelated legal, technical, and social issues. The Environmental Protection Agency is proceeding toward resolution of these issues on a priority basis and expects to publish, as soon as possible, proposed regulations setting forth appropriate requirements for modification of State implementation plans.

The amendment set forth below is effective on the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11-9-72), because prior notice, public participation, and deferral of effective date are impracticable. The Agency finds that good cause exists for not issuing notice and providing opportunity to comment on this amendment and for making it effective immediately upon publication, since the amendment is made pursuant to a court order which required the Agency to "* * * disapprove (by September 30, 1972) any portion of a State plan which fails to effectively prevent the significant deterioration of existing air quality in any portion of any State." "Sierra Club v. Ruckelshaus," 344 F.Supp. 253 (D.C.D.C., May 30, 1972).

Dated: November 7, 1972.

WILLIAM D. RUCKELSHAUS,
Administrator, Environmental Protection Agency.

Subpart A of Part 52, Chapter I, Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by adding § 52.21 as follows:

§ 52.21 Significant deterioration of air quality.

Subsequent to May 31, 1972, the Administrator reviewed State implementation plans to determine whether or not the plans permit or prevent significant deterioration of air quality in any portion of any State where the existing air quality is better than one or more of the secondary standards. The review indicates that State plans generally do not contain regulations or procedures specifically addressed to this problem. Accordingly, all State plans are disapproved to the extent that such plans lack procedures or regulations for preventing significant deterioration of air quality in portions of States where air quality is now better than the secondary standards. The disapproval applies to all States listed in Subparts B through DDD of this part. Nothing in this section shall invalidate or otherwise affect the obligations of States, emission sources, or other persons with respect to all portions of plans approved or promulgated under this part.

PART 52—APPROVAL AND PROMULGATION OF IMPLEMENTATION PLANS

Approval of Plan Revisions

On May 31, 1972 (37 F.R. 10842), the Administrator approved certain portions of the implementation plan submitted by the State of Massachusetts for attainment and maintenance of national ambient air quality standards in accordance with the Clean Air Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1857 et seq.). On July 27, 1972, a revision to the approved plan was submitted to the Administrator by the State after notice and public hearing. The revision modifies the compliance schedules as they relate to the source identified in the regulation set forth below.

The Administrator has determined that the revision in part is consistent with the requirements of the Clean Air Act and 40 CFR Part 51 and that part is approved as stipulated in the regulation set forth below. A copy of the implementation plan, as revised, is available for public inspection at the Environmental Protection Agency, 401 M Street SW., Washington, DC; at the Agency's Regional Office, John F. Kennedy Building, Boston, Mass.; and at the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, Division of Environmental Health, 600 Washington Street, Room 320, Boston, MA. This regulation is effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11-9-72). The Agency finds that good cause exists for not publishing the regulation as a notice of proposed rule making and for making it effective immediately upon publication, for the following reasons:

1. The implementation plan revision was adopted in accordance with procedural requirements of State and Federal law, which provided for adequate public participation through notice and public hearings and comments, and consequently further public participation is unnecessary.

2. Immediate effectiveness of the approval enables the source involved to proceed with certainty in conducting its affairs, and persons wishing to seek judicial review of the approval may do so without delay.

Dated: November 3, 1972.

Administrator, Environmental Protection Agency.

SUBCHAPTER E—PESTICIDES PROGRAMS

PART 180—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

2-Chloro-1-(2,4-dichlorophenyl)vinyl Diethyl Phosphate

A petition (PP OF0991) was filed by William Cooper & Nephews, Inc. (now Cooper U.S.A., Inc.), 1909 North Clifton Avenue, Chicago, IL 60614, in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 346a) proposing establishment of tolerances for residues of the insecticide 2-chloro-1-(2,4-dichlorophenyl) vinyl diethyl phosphate in the raw agricultural commodities milk and the meat, fat, and meat byproducts of cattle at 0.002 part per million and in eggs and the meat, fat, and meat byproducts of poultry at 0.001 part per million.

Subsequently, the petitioner amended the petition by (a) changing the proposed tolerance of 0.002 part per million in milk to 0.1 part per million in milk fat (reflecting negligible residues in milk), (b) by increasing the proposed tolerances of 0.002 part per million in meat, fat, and meat byproducts of cattle and 0.001 part per million in eggs and the meat, fat, and meat byproducts of poultry to 0.005 part per million, and (c) by extending this new 0.005 part per tolerance to cover the meat, fat, and meat byproducts of goats, hogs, horses, and sheep.

Based on consideration given data submitted in the petition and other relevant material, it is concluded that:

1. The pesticide is useful for the purpose for which the tolerances are being established.

2. Since residues of the pesticide concentrate in fat, a tolerance adequate to cover residues in fat is sufficient; separate tolerances are not required on meat, meat byproducts, or whole milk.

3. The tolerance of 0.15 part per million recently established for residues of this insecticide in the fat of cattle and sheep is adequate to cover residues resulting from this proposed use as well.

4. The tolerances established by this order will protect the public health.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408(d)(2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U.S.C. 346a(d)(2)), the authority transferred to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency (35 F.R. 15623), and the authority delegated by the Administrator to the Deputy Assistant Administrator for Pesticides Programs (36 F.R. 9038), § 180.322 is revised to read as follows:

§ 180.322 2-Chloro-1-(2,4-dichlorophenyl)vinyl diethyl phosphate; tolerances for residues.

Tolerances are established for residues of the insecticide 2-chloro-1-(2,4-dichlorophenyl)vinyl diethyl phosphate in or on raw agricultural commodities as follows:

0.15 part per million in the fat of cattle and sheep from dermal application (minimum preslaughter interval 3 days).

0.1 part per million in milk fat (reflecting negligible residues in whole milk).

0.005 part per million in eggs.

0.005 part per million in the fat of goats, hogs, horses, and poultry.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time within 30 days after its date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Environmental Protection Agency, Room 3902A, Fourth and M Streets SW., Waterside Mall, Washington, D.C. 20460, written objections thereto in quintuplicate. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. PART 180—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

2-[α-Naphthoxy)-N,N-diethylpropionamide

A petition (PP 2F1194) was filed by Stauffer Chemical Co., 1200 South 47th Street, Richmond, CA 94804, in accordance with provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 346a), proposing establishment of tolerances (40 CFR Part 180) for negligible residues of the herbicide 2-(α-naphthoxy)-N,N-diethylpropionamide in or on the raw agricultural commodities almonds, citrus fruits, fruiting vegetables, small fruits, and stone fruits at 0.1 part per million.

Based on consideration given data submitted in the petition and other relevant material, it is concluded that:

1. The herbicide is useful for the purpose for which the tolerances are being established.

2. There is no reasonable expectation of residues in eggs, meat, milk, or poultry, and § 180.6(a)(3) applies.

3. The tolerances established by this order will protect the public health.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408(d)(2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U.S.C. 346a(d)(2)), the authority transferred to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency (35 F.R. 15623), and the authority delegated by the Administrator to the Deputy Assistant Administrator for Pesticides Programs (36 F.R. 9038), Part 180 is amended by adding the following new section to Subpart C:

§ 180.328 2-(α-Naphthoxy)-N,N-diethylpropionamide; tolerances for residues.

Tolerances are established for negligible residues of the herbicide 2-(α-naphthoxy)-N,N-diethylpropionamide in or on the raw agricultural commodities almonds, citrus fruits, fruiting vegetables, small fruits, and stone fruits at 0.1 part per million.

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 19360; FCC 72-971]

PART 81—STATIONS ON LAND IN THE MARITIME SERVICES AND ALASKA-PUBLIC FIXED STATIONS

Duplication of Service by Public Coast Stations

Memorandum opinion and order. In the matter of amendment of Part 81 of the rules concerning the duplication of service by Public Coast Stations; to require justification for assignment of more than one working frequency to Public and Limited Coast Stations; and to require listening watches by Limited Coast Stations on working frequencies, Docket No. 19360.

1. The American Telephone and Telegraph Co. (A.T. & T.) and A. W. Brothers (Brothers) have filed petitions for reconsideration of our report and order in this docket released July 5, 1972 (FCC 72-557, 37 F.R. 13548, July 11, 1972). The petitioners complain, essentially, that the changes in §§ 81.303(b)(2) and 81.304(f) of the rules promulgated by that report and order containing criteria for establishing additional VHF public correspondence services are too stringent and prevent relief in situations where assigned frequencies are heavily overloaded.

2. More specifically, A.T. & T. asserts that:

a. In § 81.303(b)(2), the required channel occupancy of 40 percent to qualify for an additional working frequency for an existing station (or 50 percent for the establishment of a new station) for a 12-hour daily period over any three 5-day operational periods, should be for a 3-hour period for any 4 days in a 10-day period;

b. The definition of "boating locality" in that rule section as a port, harbor, or marina with facilities for the specified number of vessels equipped with radio, should be amended by specifying that the vessels be equipped with radio to operate on public correspondence channels; and

c. The specified 30 miles in § 81.303(b)(2) beyond which new stations could be authorized under the enumerated conditions should be deleted, or at least increased to 50 miles so that greater protection would be afforded to an existing licensee.

3. Brothers, essentially, repeats the argument and recommendation made in his earlier comment filed in response to the notice of proposed rule making in this docket. Brothers repeats that the channel load should be 10 percent to justify establishment of additional facilities. He again referred to the technical data for the Rural Electrification Administration furnished with his earlier comment, which we rejected for the reasons explained in our report and order in this docket.

4. On the basis of the additional information and traffic studies furnished by A.T. & T., we will grant petitioners' requests to the extent of adopting the channel occupancy criteria recommended by A.T. & T., as set forth in the attached appendix. We believe this will substantially provide both A.T. & T. and Brothers with a measure of relief. In making this change, we have some concern that this more liberalized criteria for assigning additional working frequencies may prematurely exhaust all nine of the available VHF public correspondence frequencies and thereby prevent the establishment of service in new areas later in the 1970's when the VHF conversion program is fully implemented. On the other hand, there appears to now be an urgent need for additional frequencies to provide service, especially in congested areas where service is obtained only after unreasonably long periods of as much as several hours. Of these two considerations, we believe the present, rather than the potential, need is more paramount and necessitates remedial action now. In determining the number of months that must be included in any channel traffic study used as a basis for establishing additional facilities, we are specifying a 2-month period for an existing station licensee when requesting an additional frequency, and 3 months for an applicant for a new station based on channel use by an existing station. This will allow an existing licensee a reasonable opportunity to remedy a situation where inadequate service exists before an application for a new competing station may be filed.

5. With respect to A. T. & T.'s assertion that the new-rule provision permitting the establishment of a new station at least 30 miles from an existing station, under the conditions specified, should be deleted or increased to 50 miles, we do not agree. As stated in paragraph 8 of our subject report and order, this new 30-mile provision provides substantially more protection for an existing station than before, and for reasons fully explained in that paragraph, we do not believe that more protection is desirable at this time when this VHF maritime service is in a process of being developed incidental to a general conversion from the medium to the very high frequency band in the maritime service bands. As this conversion is completed later in this decade, the matter can be reviewed in the light of information then available to determine if greater protection for existing stations is needed in order for the stations to remain economically viable to provide adequate service in the public interest. A. T. & T.'s petition, insofar as it is related to this provision, will therefore be denied.

6. We are not persuaded that A.T. & T.'s suggestion is reasonable or desirable that the definition of a boating locality be changed to specify that the required number of vessels that must be equipped with radio, must be further equipped to operate on public correspondence channels. Such a provision could impose a requirement on an applicant to furnish information which he may have no ability to acquire. Information concerning the number and types of nontransient vessels in a boating locality may usually be easily obtained from the port or marina operators, whereas information concerning the channels on which such vessels are equipped to operate would ordinarily be obtainable only from a vessel owner who may, or may not, be cooperative in furnishing such information. Such a provision could be counter productive in our program to establish adequate VHF public coast facilities. Ordinarily a vessel operator would not equip his ship station to operate on local public correspondence channels when there is no nearby coast station with which to communicate. The vessel operator would not know which of the nine public coast channels to install, and he may, until a coast station is in operation, prefer to use his available channels for other purposes. Under these circumstances, to require a coast station applicant, as a condition precedent to the filing of an application, to show that vessels are equipped to operate on local public correspondence frequencies could, in effect, impose a condition which could never be met as a practical matter and thereby prevent the establishment of any new stations. For these reasons we will not adopt A.T. & T.'s suggestion that our definition of a "boating locality" include a requirement that boats be equipped to to operate on public correspondence channels.

7. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That the Petitions for Reconsideration filed by American Telephone and Telegraph Co., Inc., and A. W. Brothers are granted to the extent that the criteria is changed for determining channel occupancy as a basis for applying for additional working frequencies for VHF Public Coast stations, or for new stations of this class, as shown in the attached appendix and in all other respects the Petitions are denied.

8. It is further ordered, Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4(i) and 303 (b), (f), and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, Part 81 of the Commission Rules is amended, effective December 15, 1972, as set forth below.

9. It is further ordered, That this proceeding is terminated.

§ 81.303 Duplication of service.

* * * * *

(b) When calculated in accordance with Subpart R of this part, the service areas of two or more Class III-B public coast stations shall not be duplicated in more than 20 percent of the navigable waters within the service area of any station: Provided, however, That, (1) an application may be filed for a station to serve a boating locality in which no station is located and which is at least 30 miles from an existing station serving primarily another locality, and for purposes of this rule section a boating locality is defined as a port, marina, or harbor with docking or servicing facilities for not less than 10 commercial or 50 noncommercial vessels that are equipped with radio; or (2) an application may be filed for a station having a service area which duplicates more than 20 percent of the service area of an existing station if the assigned channel occupancy of the existing station exceeds 50 percent during the station's specified busiest hours of operation. An application based on channel use of an existing station and proposing duplication of more than 20 percent of the coverage area of the existing station, shall be accompanied by a record of monitorings or other satisfactory information to show that for any 4 days within a 10-consecutive-day period of station operation in each of 3 months immediately prior to the filing of the application, the assigned frequency, or frequencies, was in use for exchanging communications at least 50 percent of the 3 busiest hours of each day, of which not more than half of the use time may consist of waiting or setup time.

PART 97—AMATEUR RADIO SERVICE

Issuance of Permit

Order. In the matter of amendment of § 97.307(a) of the Commission's amateur radio service rules to allow alien permittees to continue operating pending action on their application for renewal.

Public Law 88-313 authorizes the Commission to grant permits to aliens temporarily residing in the United States to allow them to operate an amateur station. These permits are issued for a period of 1 year or less and are renewable.

5 U.S.C. section 558 and 47 U.S.C. section 307(d) provide that when a licensee makes timely and sufficient application for a renewal of a license, a license of a continuing nature will not expire until the application has been determined. Pursuant to Public Law 88-313, the provisions of Administrative Procedure Act and the Communications Act are not applicable to alien permit applications. Thus, when an alien's permit expires, his authority to operate his amateur station ceases even though he has filed a timely and sufficient renewal application.

Under the provisions of Public Law 88-313 when the Commission receives an initial or renewal application, the Commission must notify the appropriate government agencies. Before any further action can be taken on these applications, these agencies must submit any information they may have regarding the application compatibility with national security. The time in which these responses are received from these agencies varies between several days and months. The Commission believes that there is no legitimate reason in the case of renewal application to require an alien permittee to cease operation while the Commission obtains the required clearance from the appropriate agencies in light of the fact that clearance has been previously obtained within a year of the permit's expiration date. To prevent undue hardship to the alien permittee, Part 97 of the Commission's rules is being amended to allow the alien permittee to continue operating his amateur station pending Commission action on his renewal application, provided the application is timely and sufficiently filed.

While the Congress in Public Law 88-313 provided that the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act and the Communications Act would not be applicable to alien permits, it also gave the Commission broad authority to administer the public law under any rules the Commission deems appropriate. Our action in this order is both within the scope of our authority granted by Public Law 88-313 and within the intent and purpose of the Congress.

We have notified the appropriate government agencies of our proposed rule amendment and they have voiced no objection. No other public interest will be served by any other form of public notice. Accordingly, under these circumstances, public notice and an opportunity to file comments are not required.

In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That effective December 15, 1972, § 97.307(a) is amended as shown below.

(Secs. 4, 303, 48 Stat., as amended, 1066, 1082; 47 U.S.C. 154, 303)

Adopted: November 1, 1972.

Released: November 6, 1972.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,[1]

[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE, Secretary.

Part 97 of the Commission's rules is amended as follows:

1. Section 97.307(a) of the Commission's rules is amended to read as follows:

§ 97.307 Issuance of permit.

(a) The Commission may issue a permit to an alien amateur under such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate. If a change in the terms of a permit is desired, an application for modification of the permit is required. If operation beyond the expiration date of a permit is desired, an application for renewal of the permit is required. In any case in which the permittee has, in accordance with the provisions of this subpart, made a timely and sufficient application for renewal of an unexpired permit, such permit shall not expire until the application has been finally determined. Application for modification or for renewal of a permit shall be filed on FCC Form 610-A.

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Over the past 18 months, the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs has received numerous requests and suggestions for simplifying the process by which a researcher can be registered to handle Schedule I substances. In September of 1971, the Bureau amended its regulations to eliminate multiple registrations of researchers and consolidate use of order forms by researchers. Since then, other recommendations have been made to further ease the administrative burdens imposed on research by the Controlled Substances Act. In response to these requests, the Bureau and Food and Drug Administration, in consultation with the Special Action Office for Drug Abuse Prevention, have developed new regulations governing the procedures for submitting and processing applications to conduct research with Schedule I controlled substances.

The major change is the drafting of a new section (§ 301.33) to describe the form and content of research protocols. Section 301.33(a) sets forth the form and required contents for research protocols. Paragraph (b) provides a mechanism to be used when clinical research is involved, whereby an IND is submitted to the Food and Drug Administration in lieu of a protocol. Paragraph (c) describes the process of amending an approved protocol to increase the quantity of the substance being used. Paragraph (d) sets forth a procedure for supplemental protocols which cover controlled substances not included in the researcher's approved protocol.

Section 301.42 details the procedures for processing applications and protocols. The Bureau will forward a copy of all materials to the Food and Drug Administration within 7 days after being submitted by the researcher. The FDA will review the protocol and within 21 days (30 days if an IND is involved) render a decision to approve or deny the protocol. If a protocol is defective, the researcher will be requested by FDA to correct the defects, again within the 21-day limit. Within 10 days of the protocol's being approved by FDA, the Bureau will issue the certificate of registration authorizing the researcher to begin his activities. If a protocol is denied by FDA, the Bureau will notify the researcher within 10 days and provide him with an opportunity for a hearing. If any delays or difficulties arise in processing an application or protocol, the researcher will be promptly notified.

Section 301.32(a)(6) requires a conforming amendment to incorporate the above proposals.

The Bureau believes that these new regulations will assure the research community of its right to prompt and responsible action on requests to conduct research. The Bureau has consistently tried to minimize the burdens imposed upon researchers, including administrative delays in processing applications and protocols. Of the 310 Schedule I research protocols approved as of October 1, 1972, over 84 percent were granted within 60 days of receipt by BNDD, and all but one were approved within 90 days. Of the 38 applications pending at that time, only nine have been delayed over 60 days and in each case the researcher has been notified of the specific reason for delay.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Attorney General by sections 301, 302(f) and 501(b) of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970 and redelegated to the Director, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, by § 0.100 of Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the Director hereby proposes that Part 301 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations be amended with the following changes:

1. By amending § 301.32 by revising paragraph (a)(6) to read as follows:

§ 301.32 Application forms; contents signature.

(6) To conduct research with controlled substances listed in schedule I, he shall apply on BNDD Form 225, with three copies of a research protocol as described in § 301.33(a) attached to the form, or, in the case of a clinical investigation, with three copies of a certificate of submission of an IND as described in § 301.33(b) attached to the form (the researcher also submitting to the Food and Drug Administration three copies of a Notice of Claimed Investigational Exemption for a New Drug as required in § 301.33(b));

• • • • •

2. By adopting a new § 301.33 to read as follows:

§ 301.33 Research protocols.

(a) A protocol to conduct research with controlled substances listed in Schedule I shall be in the following form and contain the following information where applicable:

(1) Investigator:

(2) Research project:

(i) Title of project.

(ii) Statement of the purpose.

(iii) Name of the controlled substances or substances involved and the amount of each needed.

(iv) Description of the research to be conducted, including the number and species of research subjects, the dosage to be administered, the route and method of administration, and the duration of the project.

(v) Location where the research will be conducted.

(vi) Statement of the security provisions for storing the controlled substances (in accordance with § 301.75) and for dispensing the controlled substances in order to prevent diversion.

(3) Authority:

(i) Institutional approval.

(ii) Approval of a Human Research Committee for human studies.

(iii) Indication of an approved active Notice of Claimed Investigational Exemption for a New Drug (number).

(iv) Indication of an approved funded grant (number).

(b) In the case of a clinical investigation with controlled substances listed in Schedule I, the applicant shall submit three copies of a Notice of Claimed Investigational Exemption for a New Drug (IND) together with a statement of the security provisions (as prescribed in paragraph (a)(2)(v) of this section for a research protocol) to, and have such submission approved by, the Food and Drug Administration as required in 21 U.S.C. 355(i) and § 130.3 of this title. Submission of this Notice and statement to the Food and Drug Administration shall be in lieu of a research protocol to the Bureau as required in paragraph (a) of this section. The applicant, when applying for registration with the Bureau, shall indicate that such notice has been submitted to the Food and Drug Administration by submitting to the Bureau with his BND Form 225 three copies of the following certificate:

I hereby certify that on _____, pursuant (Date)
to 21 U.S.C. 355(i) and 21 CFR 130.3,

(c) In the event that the registrant desires to increase the quantity of a controlled substance used for an aproved research project, he shall submit a request to the Registration Branch, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, Post Office Box 28083, Central Station, Washington, D.C. 20005, by registered mail, return receipt requested. The request shall contain the following information: BNDD registration number; name of the controlled substance or substances and the quantity of each authorized in the approved protocol; and the additional quantity of each desired. Upon return of the receipt, the registrant shall be authorized to purchase the additional quantity of the controlled substance or substances specified in the request. The Bureau shall review the letter and forward it to the Food and Drug Administration together with the Bureau comments. The Food and Drug Administration shall approve or deny the request as an amendment to the protocol and so notify the registrant. Approval of the letter by the Food and Drug Administration shall authorize the registrant to use the additional quantity of the controlled substance in the research project.

(d) In the event the registrant desires to conduct research beyond the variations provided in the registrant's approved protocol (excluding any increase in the quantity of the controlled substance requested for his research project as outlined in paragraph (c) of this section), he shall submit three copies of a supplemental protocol in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section describing the new research and omitting information in the supplemental protocol which has been stated in the original protocol. Supplemental protocols shall be processed and approved or denied in the same manner as original research protocols.

3. By deleting § 301.42 in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

§ 301.42 Action on applications for research in Schedule I substances.

(a) In the case of an application for registration to conduct research with controlled substances listed in Schedule I, the Director shall process the application and protocol and forward a copy of each to the Secretary within 7 days after receipt. The Secretary shall determine the qualifications and competency of the applicant, as well as the merits of the protocol (and shall notify the Director of his determination) within 21 days after receipt of the application and complete protocol, except that in the case of a clinical investigation, the Secretary shall have 30 days to make such determination and notify the Director. The Secretary, in determining the merits of the protocol, shall consult with the Director as to effective procedures to safeguard adequately against diversion of such controlled substances from legitimate medical or scientific use.

(b) An applicant whose protocol is defective shall be notified by the Secretary within 21 days after receipt of such protocol from the Director (or in the case of a clinical investigation within 30 days), and he shall be requested to correct the existing defects before consideration shall be given to his submission.

(c) If the Secretary determines the applicant qualified and competent and the research protocol meritorious, he shall notify the Director in writing of such determination. The Director shall issue a certificate of resignation within 10 days after receipt of this notice, unless he determines that the certificate of registration should be denied on a ground specified in section 304(a) of the Act (21 U.S.C. 824(a)). In the case of a supplemental protocol, a replacement certificate of registration shall be issued by the Director.

(d) If the Secretary determines that the protocol is not meritorious and/or the applicant is not qualified or competent, he shall notify the Director in writing setting forth the reasons for such determination. If the Director determines that grounds exist for the denial of the application, he shall within 10 days issue an order to show cause pursuant to § 301.48 and, if requested by the applicant, hold a hearing on the application pursuant to § 301.51. If the grounds for denial of the application include a determination by the Secretary, the Secretary or his duly authorized agent shall furnish testimony and documents pertaining to his determination at such hearing.

(e) Supplemental protocols will be processed in the same manner as original research protocols. If the processing of an application or research protocol is delayed beyond the time limits imposed by this section, the applicant shall be so notified in writing.

All interested persons are invited to submit their comments and objections in writing regarding this proposal. Comments and objections should be submitted in quintuplicate to the Hearing Clerk, Office of Chief Counsel, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, Department of Justice, Room 611, 1405 I Street NW., Washington, DC 20537, and must be received no later than December 15, 1972.

Dated: November 3, 1972.

TOBACCO

Determinations on Marketing Quotas for 1973–74, 1974–75, and 1975–76 Marketing Years

Pursuant to and in accordance with the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1281 et seq., hereinafter referred to as the "Act"), the Secretary is preparing (1) with respect to Fire-cured (type 21), Fire-cured (type 22–24) and Dark air-cured tobacco, to proclaim national marketing quotas for the 1973–74, 1974–75, and 1975–76 marketing years, and to conduct within 30 days after the proclamation of such national marketing quotas referenda of farmers engaged in the 1972 production of each of such kinds of tobacco to determine whether they favor or oppose marketing quotas for such years; and (2) with respect to Fire-cured (type 21), Fire-cured (types 22–24), Dark air-cured, Virginia sun-cured, Cigar-binder (types 51 and 52), and Cigar-filler and Binder (types 42–44, 53–55) tobacco, to determine and announce the national marketing quotas for the 1973–74 marketing year; to convert such marketing quotas into national acreage allotments and announce the allotments; to apportion such allotments, less reserves of not to exceed 1 percent of each respectively, through the local committees among old farms and to apportion the reserves for use in (a) establishing acreage allotments for new farms and (b) making corrections and adjusting inequities in old farm allotments.

The Act (7 U.S.C. 1312(a)) requires the Secretary to proclaim marketing quotas, not later than February 1, 1973, for Fire-cured and Dark air-cured tobacco for the 3 marketing years beginning October 1, 1973, because the 1972–73 marketing year is the last year of the 3 consecutive years for which marketing quotas previously proclaimed will be in effect.

The Secretary has previously proclaimed quotas and conducted referenda for the various kinds of tobacco with results as follows: Fire-cured for the 1970–71, 1971–72, and 1972–73 marketing years, approved by growers (35 F.R. 4945); Dark air-cured for the 1970–71, 1971–72, and 1972–73 marketing years, approved by growers (35 F.R. 4945); Virginia sun-cured for the 1971–72, 1972–73, and 1973–74 marketing years, approved by growers (36 F.R. 6734); Cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) for the 1972–73, 1973–74, and 1974–75 marketing years, approved by growers (37 F.R. 3422); and Cigar-filler and Binder (types 42–44, 53–55) for the 1972–73, 1973–74, and 1974–75 marketing years, approved by growers (37 F.R. 3422).

Section 301(b)(15) of the Act (7 U.S.C. 1301(b)(15)) defines "tobacco" as each one of the kinds of tobacco listed below comprising the types specified as classified in Service and Regulatory Announcement No. 118 (Part 30 of this title) of the former Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the Department:

Flue-cured tobacco, comprising types 11, 12, 13, and 14;
Fire-cured tobacco, comprising type 21;
Fire-cured tobacco, comprising types 22, 23, and 24;
Dark air-cured tobacco, comprising types 35 and 36;

V37-217 NOV 9 72 XUM

Virginia sun-cured tobacco, comprising type 37;
Burley tobacco, comprising type 31;
Maryland tobacco, comprising type 32;
Cigar-filler and Cigar-binder tobacco, comprising types 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 51, 52, 53, 54, and 55; and Cigar-filler tobacco, comprising type 41.

Section 301(b)(15) also provides that any one or more of the types comprising any such kind of tobacco shall be treated as a "kind of tobacco" for the purposes of the Act if the Secretary finds that there is a difference in supply and demand conditions as among such types of tobacco which results in a difference in the adjustments needed in the marketings thereof in order to maintain supplies in line with demand. Pursuant to this authority, the Secretary has determined (15 F.R. 8214) that type 46 tobacco shall be treated as a separate kind of tobacco for purposes of marketing quotas and price supports. Pursuant to such authority, the Secretary has also determined (22 F.R. 367) that Cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco, beginning with the 1957–58 marketing year, shall be treated as a separate kind of tobacco for purposes of marketing quotas and price supports. Type 45 tobacco is no longer grown. No further action under this section is contemplated at this time.

Section 312(b) of the Act (7 U.S.C. 1312(b)) provides that the Secretary shall determine and announce, not later than the first day of February 1973 with respect to kinds other than Flue-cured tobacco, the amount of the national marketing quota which will be in effect for the 1973–74 marketing year in terms of the total quantity of tobacco which may be marketed which will make available during such marketing year a supply of each kind of tobacco equal to the reserve supply level. Section 312(b) provides further that the amount of the 1973–74 national marketing quota (determined pursuant to such section) may, not later than March 1, 1973, be increased by not more than 20 percent if the Secretary determines that such increase is necessary in order to meet market demands or to avoid undue restrictions of marketings in adjusting the total supply to the reserve supply level.

The Act (7 U.S.C. 1301(b)) defines the "total supply" of tobacco for any marketing year as the carryover at the beginning of the marketing year (on January 1 of such marketing year in the case of Maryland tobacco), plus the estimated production in the United States during the calendar year in which such marketing year begins. "Reserve supply level" is defined as the normal supply plus 5 percent thereof. "Normal supply" is defined as a normal year's domestic consumption and exports, plus 175 percent of a normal year's domestic consumption and 65 percent of a normal year's exports. A "normal year's domestic consumption" is defined as the yearly average quantity produced in the United States and consumed in the United States during the 10 marketing years immediately preceding the marketing year in which such consumption is determined, adjusted for current trends in such consumption. A "normal year's exports" is defined as the yearly average quantity produced in the United States which was exported from the United States during the 10 marketing years immediately preceding the marketing year in which such exports are determined, adjusted for current trends in such exports.

The Act (7 U.S.C. 1312(c)) requires that within 30 days after national marketing quotas are proclaimed under section 312(a) of the Act for a kind of tobacco, the Secretary shall conduct a referendum of farmers engaged in the production of the crop of such kind of tobacco harvested immediately prior to the holding of the referendum to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to quotas for the next 3 succeeding marketing years. If more than one-third of the farmers voting in a referendum for a kind of tobacco oppose the quotas, such results shall be proclaimed by the Secretary and the national marketing quotas so proclaimed shall not be in effect but such results shall in no way affect or limit the subsequent submission to a referendum, as otherwise provided in section 312 of the Act (7 U.S.C. 1312), of national marketing quotas.

The Act (7 U.S.C. 1313(g) authorizes the Secretary to convert the national marketing quota into a national acreage allotment on the basis of the national average yield for the 5 years immediately preceding the year in which the national marketing quota is proclaimed, and to apportion the national acreage allotment (less a reserve of not to exceed 1 percent thereof for new farms and for making corrections and adjusting inequities in old farm allotments) among old farms.

The subjects and issues involved in making the determinations described in this notice are:

1. The amount of the reserve supply level for Fire-cured (type 21), Fire-cured (types 22–24), Dark air-cured, Sun-cured, Cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) and Cigar-filler and Binder (types 42–44, 53–55) tobacco.

2. The amount of the national marketing quota for each of these kinds of tobacco for the 1973–74 marketing year.

3. The national factors for apportioning national acreage allotments to old farms.

4. The amounts of the national acreage allotments to be reserved for new farms, and for making corrections and adjusting inequities in old farm allotments.

5. The date(s) or period(s) of the two referenda on quotas for the 1973–74, 1974–75, and 1975–76 marketing years for Fire-cured and Dark air-cured tobacco, and whether either or both of the referenda should be conducted at polling places rather than by mail ballot (31 F.R. 12011).

Consideration will be given to data, views, and recommendations pertaining to the proposed determinations covered by this notice which are submitted in writing to the Director, Tobacco Division, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250. All written submissions made pursuant to the notice will be made available for public inspection from 8:15 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., Monday through Friday, in Room 3741, South Building, 14th and Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C. All submissions must, in order to be sure of consideration, be postmarked not later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on November 3, 1972.

A copy of the revised REA Bulletin, including related forms and attachments may be secured in person or by written request from the Director, Power Supply, Management and Engineering Standards Division.

The summary of the proposed revision of REA Bulletin 115–1 is as follows:

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CHANGES IN REVISED BULLETIN 115–1

1. The title of the bulletin has been changed from "Sales of Property by Electric Borrowers" to "Sales of Capital Assets by Electric Borrowers" to more closely conform this terminology to that in the loan security documents.

2. The distribution and accounting for the proceeds from the sale, less out-of-pocket expense incident to the sale, have been clarified to assure understanding of requirements that net proceeds from sales of capital assets shall be distributed and accounted for as follows:

(a) To the "Cash-Construction-Fund Trustee" account to be used in a manner and for a purpose for which REA loan funds may be used, or

(b) If the borrower has no concurrent loans outstanding, to the Rural Electrification Administration as a special payment to be applied to the note or notes designated by the borrower or REA, or

(c) To REA and a secured supplemental lender if the borrower has concurrent loans outstanding, by application of such funds as a prepayment on the notes of both lenders pro rata according to the aggregate unpaid principal of the notes then outstanding, as designated by the noteholders, or

(d) In the case of disposition of equipment, materials or scrap to the "Cash-General" account to be used for the purchase of materials, equipment, supplies, or property used in the mortgagor's business which shall be subject to the lien of the mortgage.

3. Provision has been made for the handling of sales to be paid for by the purchaser in installments. For such sales a Sales-Purchase Agreement will be executed by the borrower and the purchaser and assigned to the U.S. Government and supplemental lenders, if applicable. Copies of such assigned agreements will be submitted to REA and the supplemental lenders, if applicable, together with REA Form 369, Request for Approval to Sell Capital Assets, and with other supporting data as set forth in the bulletin. Partial releases of lien will not be executed by REA or supplemental lenders, if applicable, until the final installment has been paid by the purchaser.

UNINSPECTED TOWING VESSELS

Licensing of Operators; Extension of Time for Comments

In the August 11, 1972, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 16374), the Coast Guard proposed regulations governing the issuance of licenses for the operation of uninspected towing vessels to implement the Towing Vessel Operator Licensing Act, Public Law 92–339, R.S. 4427, as amended, 46 U.S.C. 405(b) (July 7, 1972).

The Coast Guard held four public hearings on the proposed regulations: On September 13, 1972, in Seattle, Wash.; on September 20, 1972, in New York, N.Y.; on September 26, 1972, in New Orleans, La.; and on September 27, 1972, in St. Louis, Mo. In addition, interested persons were given until October 17, 1972, to submit comments.

The Coast Guard has received several requests for extension of the comment period from towboat operators whose duties prevented them from participating in any of the public hearings and from meeting the October 17 deadline. The Coast Guard found the requests justified and extended the period of comments to October 31, 1972.

Since then, the Coast Guard has received additional requests for extension of the comment period from interested parties who have had insufficient time to fully document oral or written comments submitted at the public hearings.

The Coast Guard finds that the request for additional time in which to comment on the proposed regulations is appropriate and hereby extends the period for such comments to November 30, 1972. All relative comments received by that time will be considered.

Interested persons may participate in this proposed rule making by submitting written data, views, or arguments to the Executive Secretary, Marine Safety Council (GCMC/82), Room 8234, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, DC 20590, phone: 202—426–1477. 2. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition (RM-1936) filed by Theta-Com of California [1] requesting rule making: (1) To provide an alternative channel arrangement for local distribution service (LDS) stations in the cable television relay service, and (2) clarifying the rules to make clear the situations in which nonadjacent channels may be used for LDS station operations. Responsive pleadings were filed by a number of parties all supporting Theta-Com's proposal. In addition a number of parties request that the proceeding be expanded to consider the adoption of a frequency plan for channels of return communication.

ALTERNATIVE LDS CHANNEL ARRANGEMENT

3. Theta-Com's concern is basically that the vestigial sideband AM transmission LDS frequency channelling plan specified in the rules be compatible with possible frequency plans within cable television systems. Two difficulties are presented by the existing rules. First, the existing channel plan (§ 78.18(a)(2)) was developed to facilitate the relay of up to 18 channels over two or more hops, and to provide frequency space for additional systems serving the same general area.[2] The available channels are divided into two nonduplicating groups of 18 channels. The existing channel plan is shown in Appendix A. Each group is arranged so that block processing of all channels is facilitated and there is no need for individual processing of channels between the LDS receiver and the cable interface. If more than 20 channels are to be relayed, as will clearly be necessary in connection with modern high capacity cable television systems,[3] channels from both groups must be used. Because the channels in the second group (Group D) are not contiguous with those in the first group (Group C) individual channel processing at the cable interface becomes necessary.[4] This individual processing, Theta-Com indicates, degrades the signals involved, reduces the reliability of the system as a whole, adds unnecessary expense, and causes maintenance problems that largely nullify the inherent advantages of the single sideband type of operation. According to Theta-Com the need to process each signal individually would double or triple the cost of each receiving site. To overcome the need for individual channel processing and facilitate the relay of more than 18 channels at a time, Theta-Com has suggested an alternative channel plan for use in non-repeatered operations that simply divides that available frequency space into 40 evenly spaced 6 MHz channels.[5]

4. In response to Theta-Com's rule making petition, the National Cable Television Association filed comments agreeing in theory with the rule making request but suggesting that the Commission leave the specific cable channel allocations unstructured. That would be left as a detail to be described by each applicant. NCTA points out that there is as yet no industrywide standard for within-cable frequency allocations, so that it is difficult to devise an LDS frequency allocation plan compatible with all of the possible cable allocation plans. Comments were also filed by Cox Cable Communications, Inc., Buckeye Cablevision, Inc., Oak Electro/Netics Corp., Cypress Communications Corp., TelePrompTer Corp., Athena Communications Corp., and Varian/Micro-Link. All indicate their support for a change in the rules to facilitate the relay of a greater number of channels.

5. We believe that Theta-Com's petition has merit and are accordingly issuing this notice proposing for adoption the channel allocation plan submitted by Theta-Com.[6] We are also interested in receiving comments with respect to the destructured approach proposed by the NCTA.[7] We believe, however, at least initially that a structured approach facilitates the processing of applications and is desirable for that reason. We intend in any case to retain provision for case-by-case consideration of non-standard channel proposals.

ADJACENT CHANNEL USE

6. The second matter raised in Theta-Com's petition is a request for clarification of the rules to indicate specifically those situations in which adjacent channel use will not be required. Although the rules do not now require adjacent channel use, we did state in adopting the LDS rules that adjacent channel use was "encouraged." [8] The reason for encouraging adjacent channel use is that it is difficult for other users of the available frequency space to make use of isolated channels surrounded by channels in use by other station licensees. Theta-Com points out, however, that there are a number of situations in which adjacent channel use is inefficient (for the first user) because it requires individual rather than block processing of signals at the interface between the LDS receiver and the cable system. We are asked to amend the rules to specifically indicate that adjacent channel operation is not required:

a. When the channels to be transmitted via LDS are not all adjacent to one another either when received off the air or when carried on the CATV system; or

b. Where there is a potential for radio frequency interference problems; or

c. When the LDS system is required to transmit CATV originated or translated

[1] Theta-Com is a developer and manufacturer of LDS microwave equipment.

[2] The existing plan was suggested by Theta-Com's parent corporation in response to our Notice of Proposed Rule Making in Docket 18542, 16 FCC 2d 433 (1969). See Report and Order in Docket 18542, 20 FCC 2d 415 (1969) paragraph 12, (1969).

[3] The rules now require some cable television systems to have a greater than 20 channel capacity. See § 76.251.

[4] Existing rules, § 78.18(e), already recognize this problem to some extent by permitting alternative channel arrangements "on a case-by-case basis in order to avoid interference or to permit a more efficient use."

[5] Plus pilot channels. An additional plan following the same theory but offset to some extent and involving a smaller number of channels is also suggested for use where local interference factors prohibit use of its first suggested alternative.

[6] See Appendix B, § 78.18(a)(2).

[7] See Appendix C, § 78.18(k) for this alternative approach.

[8] Report and Order in Docket 18542, supra. Note 2 at page 420.

UHF channels or other programing on nonadjacent channels which are to be inserted in nonadjacent "empty frequency" slots on the CATV system.

7. Although the existing rules permit the use of nonadjacent channels when there is good cause therefor, we agree with Theta-Com that it would be useful to indicate with particularity those situations where nonadjacent channel usage will not be questioned. Section 78.18(e) as proposed in Appendix B contains essentially the language suggested by Theta-Com.

RETURN COMMUNICATION CHANNELS

8. In responding to Theta-Com's request for rule making, a number of parties requested that we also clarify the rules as they apply to return communications and adopt a frequency plan applicable to channels used for this purpose. Both TelePrompTer and Theta-Com (in a reply comment) suggest that seven 6 MHz channels between 12,711.45 MHz and 12,753.5 MHz be added to Theta-Com's suggested alternate Group D channel plan.[9] Under the rules as they now stand no distinction is drawn between channels that are used for forward and channels that are used for return communications. The CAR service frequencies are available for stations used to relay return communications and these stations may use any of the channels and methods of transmission permitted by the rules.

9. While we are not proposing any specific rule changes in connection with return channels at this time we are, in light of the comments received in response to Theta-Com's petition, requesting comments as to the need for clarification or amendments in the rules to account for any technical or administrative problems unique to return communications channel paths or stations. This would include, but not be limited to, the need for new channel groupings as suggested by TelePrompTer and Theta-Com, possible bandwidth limitations (6 MHz), and the possibility that, when LDS stations are used, both forward and return communication paths should be included in the same application or filed concurrently.

12.5 MHZ BANDWIDTH LIMITATION FOR INTRACITY STATIONS

10. On our own motion we are including in this proceeding a proposal to limit all stations in the CAR service that do not use the frequency-division multiplexed/FM (FDM/FM) system of transmission and that are used for intracity communications to a 12.5 MHz bandwidth.[10] Included among the intracity stations would generally be local distribution service (LDS) stations, studio to headend link (SHL) stations, pickup stations, as well as conventional CAR stations that are used for communication within the confines of a single cable television system community.[11] We believe this proposal is timely both in terms of the potential for congestion being created by these intracity stations in our major cities and in terms of the developing technology which it appears will make this bandwidth reduction both technically and economically feasible over the distances involved in typical intracity applications.[12] Comments on both the economic and technical costs that this change would require are requested. In making this proposal we recognize that the CARS band must accommodate two distinct modes of operation. A microwave service which is (a) intercity, relaying what is generally a small number of television channels to a cable system headend from a reception or interconnection point 30 or more miles away and which frequently involves several hops, and (b) is intracity, involving relatively short-haul stations that bridge gaps within a cable network or supply short-distance feeds to the network, and which likely involve a larger number—possibly several dozen—of program channels.

11. Our intention here is to retain the rules as they are for intercity stations but to limit stations which are used for intracity transmission to a bandwidth of 12.5 MHz and thus to conserve spectrum space where congestion is most likely to occur.

DOUBLE SIDEBAND AM TRANSMISSION

12. We are also proposing on our own motion, a channel assignment plan and specific frequency tolerance provisions applicable to stations using double sideband AM transmission. Section 78.103(a) of the rules specifies that a cable television relay station may be authorized "to employ any type of emission, for which there are technical standards incorporated in Subpart D of this part, suitable for the simultaneous transmission of visual and aural television signals." Stations using double sideband AM emission systems have been type accepted and appear to be more conservative in their use of spectrum space than those using conventional FM emission.[13] We are accordingly proposing rules to permit authorization of stations of this type.[14]

CONCLUSION

13. Authority for the proposed rule making instituted herein is contained in sections 4(i), 303, and 403 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

14. All interested persons are invited to file written comments on the rule making proposals on or before December 15, 1972, and reply comments on or before December 29, 1972. In reaching a decision in this matter, the Commission may take into account any other relevant information before it, in addition to the comments invited by this notice.

15. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.419 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all comments, replies, pleadings, briefs, or other documents filed in this proceeding shall be furnished to the Commission. Responses will be available for public inspection during regular business hours in the Commission's Public Reference Room at its headquarters in Washington, D.C.

[9] Designated D(2) in proposed 78.18(a)(2) in Appendix B.

[10] See Appendix B, § 78.18(1). Existing operations would be appropriately grandfathered. It is not proposed that this limitation apply to FDM/FM stations at this time because different technical factors are applicable to these stations.

[11] In the alternative the limitation might be made applicable to all CAR stations located in the areas most likely to be congested (e.g., the major television markets as defined in § 76.5(g) of the rules) that have relatively short transmission paths (e.g. 10 miles or less).

[12] It should be noted that a 12.5 MHz channel spacing was initially proposed in the Notice of Proposed Rule Making in Docket 15586, FCC 64-720, 29 F.R. 11458, paragraph 24. After reviewing the comments concerning this narrow band proposal, the Commission, in the Second Report and Order in Docket 15586, 11 FCC 2d 709 (1968), stated: "We note also the strong objection to the proposed technical standards calling for widths limited to 12.5 Mc/s. These objections are found persuasive because the number of hops and route distances contemplated by CATV operators are considerably greater than those originally contemplated for this service, and also because relay operators place heavy reliance upon standard techniques and readily available equipment for effecting economical piecemeal expansion of their facilities." It would appear that these considerations are not applicable to the intracity stations to which the limit would now be applied.

[13] Stations using double sideband AM transmission are authorized to use 12.5 MHz bandwidth. Conventional FM stations in the CAR service have used 25 MHz.

[14] See Appendix B, §§ 78.18(a)(4), 78.18(g), and 78.111(c). The channel assignment plan proposed would also be available for FM stations operating with an authorized bandwidth of 12.5 MHz.

(e) For cable television relay stations using vestigial sideband AM transmission, channels from only Group C, only Group D, only Group C(2) or only Group D(2) will normally be assigned a station. In situations where the number or the arrangement of channels available in either group is not adequate, or in order to avoid potential interference, or in order to achieve the required VHF channelization arrangement on the CATV system, or for repeatered operation, or for two-way transmission, or upon the showing of other good cause, the use of channels in Groups C and D, or in alternate Groups C or D, may be authorized. Applicants are encouraged to apply for adjacent channels within each group of channels, except that different channel arrangements may be authorized when required to conform to the required channelization arrangement at VHF on the CATV system, when it is necessary to transmit nonadjacent off-the-air channels or signals intended to fill nonadjacent slots in the spectrum, or to avoid potential interference, or upon other showing of good cause.

(g) For cable television relay (CAR) stations using double sideband AM transmission or FM transmission requiring a necessary bandwidth of no more than 12.5 MHz, channels from only Group I or Group J normally will be assigned a station, although upon adequate showing variations in the use of channels in Groups I and J may be authorized on a case-by-case basis in order to avoid potential interference or to permit a more efficient use. The use of channels in both Groups I and J may be authorized where the number of channels in one group is insufficient to accommodate the services proposed to be provided on the cable system, if the Commission finds that such use of channels in both groups is feasible and would serve the public interest.

(h) For double sideband AM transmission, the assigned visual carrier frequency for each channel listed in Group I or J shall be 6.25 MHz above the lower boundary frequency for each channel, and the side frequencies corresponding to the carrier frequency of the accompanying FM aural signal shall be 4.5 MHz above and below the visual carrier frequency.

(i) Unless frequency-division multiplexed/FM transmission is used, Local Distribution Service (LDS) stations, Studio to Headend Link (SHL) stations, Relay Pickup Stations, and other Cable Television Relay stations that are used for communication within the confines of a single cable television community shall employ no more than 12.5 MHz bandwidth per channel.

2. In § 78.103, paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 78.103 Emissions and bandwidth.

• • • • • •

(b) Any emission appearing on a frequency outside of the channel authorized for a transmitter shall be attenuated below the peak power of emission in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) For stations using other than vestigial sideband AM transmission:

(i) On any frequency above the upper channel limit and below the lower channel limit by between zero and 50 percent of the assigned channel width: At least 25 decibels;

(ii) On any frequency above the upper channel limit or below the lower channel limit by more than 50 percent and up to 150 percent of the assigned channel width: At least 35 decibels; and

(iii) On any frequency above the upper channel limit or below the lower channel limit by more than 150 percent of the channel width: At least $43+10 \log_{10}$ (power in watts) decibels.

• • • • • •

3. Section 78.111 is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

§ 78.111 Frequency tolerance.

• • • • • •

(c) The frequency of the visual carrier of a station using double sideband AM transmission shall be maintained within 0.005 percent of the assigned frequency; the side frequencies corresponding to the carrier frequency of the accompanying aural signal shall be maintained 4.5 MHz±1 kHz above and below the visual carrier frequency.

4. In § 78.115, paragraph (c) is added new to read as follows:

§ 78.115 Modulation limits.

• • • • • •

(c) For stations that are authorized to use FM transmission with a bandwidth of 12.5 MHz, the total excursion of the radio frequency carrier under modulation shall not exceed 1.5 MHz and the maximum modulating frequency shall not be greater than 4.525 MHz.

APPENDIX C

The following amendment would achieve the de-structured channel approach suggested in the comments of the National Cable Television Association.

A substitute paragraph (k) for § 78.18 is suggested as follows:

§ 78.18 Frequency assignments.

• • • • • •

(k) Notwithstanding the frequency assignment plans applicable to cable television relay (CAR) stations in paragraphs (a)(2) and (4) of this section, Local Distribution Service (LDS) stations, Studio to Headend Link (SHL) stations, and Relay Pickup stations using either vestigial sideband or double sideband AM transmission may apply for any frequency assignment plan which is compatible with the frequency usage on the associated cable television system and which does not cause interference to existing authorized microwave systems. If either FM or FM/FDM transmission is used, the frequencies assignable to such stations shall conform to the plans listed in paragraphs (a)(1) and (3) of this section, as applicable.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[18 CFR Parts 3, 260]

[Docket No. R-457]

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS OF NATURAL GAS

Proposed Annual Report Form

NOVEMBER 6, 1972.

Notice is given pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553 and sections 3, 10, 14, and 16 of the Natural Gas Act (52 Stat. 822, 826, 828, 830; 15 U.S.C. 717b, 717i, 717m, 717o) that the Commission proposes to amend:

A. Part 260 of its Regulations—Statements and Reports (Schedules); Subchapter G—Approved Forms, Natural Gas Act; Chapter I, Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations to prescribe the addition of a new § 260.4, Form No. 14, Annual Report For Importers and Exporters of Natural Gas, for the reporting year 1972 and thereafter;

B. Part 3 of its rules of practice and procedure, Subchapter A, Chapter I, Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations to add Form 14 to the list in § 3.170—Approved Forms, etc.

To date, the Commission has granted numerous authorizations under section 3 of the Natural Gas Act for the import and export of natural gas, both as gas and as liquid. Where procedures for reporting volumes transported under these authorizations have been prescribed, it has been on a case-by-case basis undertaken by ordering condition attached to the authorization granted pursuant to section 3 of the Natural Gas Act, or informally at the request of the Commission staff. This approach to reporting has resulted in nonuniformity of the data reported thereunder. The increasing number and importance of natural gas imports and exports makes it appropriate in the proper administration of the Natural Gas Act that the reporting of data relating to the import and export of natural gas by parties with such authorizations be placed on a periodic, uniform and formalized basis. We therefore propose to establish an annual reporting requirement together with a new form, FPC Form No. 14. This report form is not intended to supersede or limit any other present reporting requirements of the Commission.

This reporting requirement will apply to all persons, whether or not a natural gas company, who now have or who receive, in the future, authorization pursuant to section 3 of the Natural Gas Act (15 U.S.C. 717b). Section 3 provides that the Commission may, in granting authorization thereunder, do so "with such modification and upon such terms and conditions as the Commission may find necessary or appropriate • • •." Each presently effective authorization pursuant to section 3 has been granted subject to a condition generally to the effect that the Commission may order the filing of reports with respect to such imports or exports as it may from time to time require. This regulation shall therefore apply to any person importing or exporting natural gas during the reporting period under existing authorizations as well as under authorizations received in the future. Any person having authorization to import or export natural gas but not exercising such privilege during the reporting year must also file the report with this Commission.

It is desirable, and we are proposing, that the report:

a. Apply to all natural gas imports and exports;

b. Be filed by all persons holding authorization pursuant to section 3 of the Natural Gas Act for each such authorization, or where more than one geographic point of entry into or exit from the United States relates to a single authorization, then data for each geographic point of entry or exit shall be reported;

c. (2) Which types of filings under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 should be allowed, or be required, to contain such estimates, forecasts or projections, if any, and whether follow-up reporting should be required;

(3) Whether guidelines or rules should be adopted relating to estimates, forecasts or projections which are disseminated to the public through the communications media by companies whose securities are publicly traded;

(4) Whether standard assumptions underlying such estimates, forecasts or projections are feasible, and if so, what types of assumptions are necessary;

(5) What format for presentation should be required;

(6) Whether certification or some other form of independent verification or report on such estimates, forecasts or projections should be required, and if so, in what form and whether standards for qualification of persons certifying, verifying or reporting on such estimates should be adopted; and

(7) The effect of the civil and criminal liability provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 on estimates, forecasts or projections filed with the Commission.

The hearings will concentrate on projections and estimates of economic performance and will not include a consideration of such subjects as valuation accounting.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs

NARCOTICS AND COCAINE

Aggregate Production Quotas

Section 306 of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970 (21 U.S.C. 826) requires that the Attorney General establish aggregate production quotas for all controlled substances in schedules I and II.

On October 5, 1972, the Bureau published the proposed aggregate production quotas for 1973 for narcotics and cocaine (37 F.R. 20993). All interested parties were provided the opportunity to submit written comments or objections. No comments or objections were submitted to the Bureau.

In determining the narcotic and cocaine aggregate production quotas for 1973 which are adequate to provide for the estimated medical, scientific, research, and industrial needs of the United States, lawful export requirements and establishment and maintenance of reserve stocks, the Bureau has considered the following as required by section 306 of the CSA (21 U.S.C. 826) and § 303.11 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations:

(1) Total net disposal by all manufacturers during the current and preceding 2 years and trends in the national rate of net disposal;

(2) Total actual (or estimated) inventory of narcotics and cocaine and of all substances manufactured from them and trends in inventory accumulation; and

(3) Projected demand as indicated by procurement quotas requested pursuant to § 303.13 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Based upon consideration of the above factors, the Director, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, under the authority vested in the Attorney General by § 306 of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970 (21 U.S.C. 826) and redelegated to the Director, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs by § 0.100 of Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations, orders that the aggregate production quotas for 1973 for narcotics and cocaine, expressed in grams in terms of their respective anhydrous bases, be established as follows:

PHENMETRAZINE (PRELUDIN)

Aggregate Production Quota

On July 6, 1972, a notice of Proposed Aggregate Production Quotas was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 13279). The notice proposed that the aggregate production quota for 1972 for phenmetrazine be established at 2,672 kilograms expressed in terms of the anhydrous alkaloid. The notice invited all interested persons to submit their comments and objections in writing regarding this proposal. Subsequently a hearing was requested by Boehringer Ingelheim Ltd. and by the Narcotics Guidance Council of Huntington, Long Island, N.Y. Comments also were received from other sources with respect to the notice.

On October 7, 1972, the Director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs determined that Boehringer Ingelheim Ltd., had standing to request a hearing and ordered that a hearing be held on November 9, 1972, for the purpose of determining the quota and published a notice of the hearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 21359). Following publication of this notice of hearing, the Bureau met with representatives of Boehringer Ingelheim Ltd. and the Huntington Council.

Boehringer Ingelheim Ltd., informed the Bureau that, although it believed the proposed quota to be inadequate, it would not be meaningful to bring the dispute to hearing in view of the lateness in the year for which the quota was to be set. Therefore, by letter dated October 20, 1972, Boehringer Ingelheim Ltd., withdrew its request for a hearing on the proposed aggregate production quota.

The Narcotics Guidance Council of the Town of Huntington, Long Island, N.Y., also withdrew its request for a hearing on the proposed 1972 aggregate production quota for phenmetrazine, by letter dated October 24, 1972, for the same reasons set forth above.

The Bureau has agreed with both parties who filed requests for a hearing on the proposed aggregate production quota that, if they wished to request a public hearing on the 1973 aggregate production quota for phenmetrazine, when proposed, on the issue of the proper determination of legitimate medical need, the Bureau would hold such a public hearing.

Therefore, because all persons requesting a hearing on this matter have withdrawn their requests, the Director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs hereby orders that the public hearing previously ordered for November 9, 1972, for the purpose of determining the aggregate production quota for phenmetrazine be canceled.

Other comments were received by the Bureau, only one of which asserted that the aggregate production quota was too high. The Bureau has considered all comments received and has determined that the proposed quota is appropriate in light of their comments.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs by the Attorney General by section 306 of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970 (21 U.S.C. 826) and redelegated to the Director, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs by § 0.100 of Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations, orders that the aggregate production quota for 1972 for phenmetrazine, expressed in kilograms of the anhydrous alkaloid, be established as follows:

Basic class	Produced-1971	Requested-1972	Granted 1972
Phenmetrazine	4,638	6,174	2,672

This order is effective upon the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11-9-72).

Dated: November 3, 1972.

Director, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs.

HUMANELY SLAUGHTERED LIVESTOCK

Identification of Carcasses; List of Establishments

Pursuant to section 4 of the Act of August 27, 1958 (7 U.S.C. 1904), and the statement of policy thereunder in 9 CFR 391.1, the following table lists the establishments operating under Federal inspection pursuant to the Federal Meat Inspection Act, as amended (21 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) which were officially reported as humanely slaughtering and handling the species of livestock respectively designated for such establishments in the table. Additions to and deletions from the list will be made from time to time, as the facts may warrant, by notices published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The establishment number given with the name of the establishment is branded on each carcass of livestock inspected at that establishment. The table should not be understood to indicate that all species of livestock slaughtered at a listed establishment are slaughtered and handled by humane methods unless all species are listed for that establishment in the table. Nor should the table be understood to indicate that the affiliates of any listed establishment use only humane methods.

FELAP G.m.b.H. and KURT BAERHOLD

Order Denying Export Privileges

In the matter of Felap G.m.b.H. (Fabrikation Elektronischer Apparate Und Bauteile) and Kurt Baerhold Furtenbachstrasse 26, 85 Nuernberg-Reichelsdorf, Federal Republic of Germany, Respondent, Case No. 437.

By charging letter dated March 3, 1972, the respondents Felap G.m.b.H. and Kurt Baerhold were charged by the Director, Compliance Division, Office of Export Control, with violations of the regulations issued under the Export Administration Act of 1969. The charging letter was duly served. The respondents replied to the charging letter and requested an oral hearing but they did not answer the allegations of the charging letter in the manner required by § 388.5 of the Export Control Regulations. Their failure to deny or controvert material allegations in the charging letter is deemed an admission of such allegations.

The respondents did not avail themselves of the opportunity to participate in an oral hearing in Washington, D.C., either by personal attendance or through an attorney or other representative. The Hearing Commissioner held an informal hearing on October 19, 1972, without the respondents being present. Evidence in support of the charges was presented on behalf of the Compliance Division.

The Hearing Commissioner considered the evidence which included invoices, shipping documents, a statement signed by Baerhold, and also his reported statements. The Hearing Commissioner submitted to the undersigned a report which summarizes the essential evidence, considers the various charges, and which includes findings of fact and conclusions. He also recommended the sanction that should be imposed.

After considering the record in the case, I adopt the following findings of fact made by the Hearing Commissioner.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The respondent Felap G.m.b.H. (acronym for Fabrikation Electronischer Apparate Und Bauteile) located in Nuernberg, Federal Republic of Germany, is dealer and exporter of electronic components and it also manufactures telephone amplifiers, radios, and tape recorders. The respondent Kurt Baerhold is the principal shareholder in the company and is its manager. In the transaction hereinafter described he acted in the name of and on behalf of the company.

2. Under the Foreign-Based Warehouse Procedure of the Export Control Regulations (§ 373.4) the respondent Felap was an approved customer of a Switzerland based distributor of U.S.-origin electronic components and parts, including tubes and semiconductors. The said distributor was a subsidiary of a U.S. exporter. As a prerequisite to obtaining the status as an approved customer, the respondent Baerhold, on behalf of Felap, executed a Multiple Transactions Statement by Customer of Distributor of United States Commodities Stocked Abroad, Form FC–243.

3. In said Form FC–243 the respondents on August 6, 1970, expressly certified and represented: (a) That they would not sell the commodities received under the Foreign-Based Warehouse Procedure outside of the Federal Republic of Germany; (b) that the commodities would be used by Felap in the manufacture of wireless sets in the Federal Republic of Germany; (c) that except as specifically authorized by the U.S. Export Control Regulations they would not reexport or sell such commodities without obtaining prior written approval of the U.S. Government. In reliance on these certifications and representations, the Office of Export Control on September 16, 1970, approved Felap as an FC–243 customer of the above-mentioned distributor.

4. Subsequent to September 16, 1970, Felap made three purchases of semiconductor diodes from the Swiss distributor, which commodities had an aggregate value of approximately $6,700. The invoices from the said distributor to Felap were dated respectively, October 6, 1970, December 9, 1970, and April 27, 1971. The commodities on each occasion were shipped by airfreight from Switzerland to Felap in Nuernberg and were received by it.

5. Each of the invoices mentioned in the previous finding bore the following destination control notice, "These commodities licensed for ultimate destination West Deutschland. Reexport without * * * authorization prohibited."

6. Notwithstanding the certifications and the representations in the Form FC–243 mentioned in Finding 3, and contrary to the prohibition against reexportation appearing on the invoices, the respondents knowingly reexported the diodes from West Germany to Poland without requesting or obtaining prior written approval of the Office of Export Control. By failing to request such approval the Office of Export Control was precluded from determining whether the ultimate consignee should be approved for receipt of the diodes. Based on the foregoing, I have concluded that respondents: (1) Violated § 387.4 of the U.S. Export Control Regulations in that they sold and disposed of U.S.-origin commodities with knowledge that it was a violation of said regulations to do so; (2) violated § 387.6 of said regulations in that without authorization from the Office of Export Control they knowingly reexported U.S.-origin commodities contrary to representations made by them and contrary to notification of prohibition against such reexportation.

The evidence shows that the respondent Baerhold is the sole proprietor of the firm known as "Ing. Kurt Baerhold Industrie-Vertretungen Gross-und Aussenhandel mit Rundfunk-Elektro-und Fernsegeraeten", located in Nuernberg. The name indicates that Baerhold, an engineer, is engaged as a representative in wholesale and export activities for radio, electronic and television equipment. The order issued in this case is also effective against this firm.

Now, after considering the record in the case and the report and recommendation of the Hearing Commissioner and being of the opinion that his recommendation as to the sanction that should be imposed is fair and just and calculated to achieve effective enforcement of the law: It is hereby ordered,

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which respondents appear or participate in any manner or capacity are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of International Commerce for cancellation.

II. Except as qualified in Paragraph IV hereof, the respondents for the period of 5 years are hereby denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any transactions involving commodities or technical data exported from the United States in whole or in part, or to be exported, or which are otherwise subject to the Export Control Regulations. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, participation prohibited in any such transaction, either in the United States or abroad, shall include participation: (a) As a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application; (b) in the preparation or filing of any export license application or reexportation authorization, or document to be submitted therewith; (c) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control documents; (d) in the carrying on of negotiations with respect to, or in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, storing, using, or disposing of any commodities or technical data; (e) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such commodities or technical data.

III. Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the respondents, but also to their successors, representatives, agents, and employees, and also to but also to their successors, representatives, agents, and employees, and also to any person, firm, corporation, or other business organization with which they now or hereafter may be related by affiliation, ownership, control, position of responsibility or other connection in the conduct of trade or services connected therewith. Included within the foregoing is the firm Ing. Kurt Baerhold Industrie-Vertretungen Gross-und Aussenhandel mit Rundfunk-Elektro-und Fernsehgerraeten.

IV. Three years after the effective date of this order the respondents may apply to have the effective denial of their export privileges held in abeyance while they remain on probation. Such applications as may be filed by said respondents shall be supported by evidence showing their compliance with the terms of this order and such disclosure of their import and export transactions as may be necessary to determine their compliance with this order. Such applications will be considered on their merits and in the light of conditions and policies existing at that time. The respondents' export privileges may be restored under such terms and conditions as appear to be appropriate.

V. During the time when the respondents or other parties within the scope of this order are prohibited from engaging in any activity within the scope of Part II hereof, no person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, without prior disclosure to and specific authorization from the Bureau of International Commerce, shall do any of the following acts, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, on behalf of or in any association with the respondents or other parties denied export privileges within the scope of this order, or whereby the respondents or such other parties may obtain any benefit therefrom or have any interest or participation therein, directly or indirectly: (a) Apply for, obtain, transfer, or use any license, Shipper's Export Declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, by, to, or for any such respondents or other person denied export privileges within the scope of this order; or (b) order, buy, receive, use, sell, deliver, store, dispose of, forward, transport, finance or otherwise service or participate in any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States.

Dated: November 1, 1972.

This order shall become effective November 9, 1972.

Director,
Office of Export Control.

U.S. CERTIFICATED CARRIERS

Order Granting Motion Regarding Amenities and Services for Delayed Passengers

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on 3d day of November 1972.

By motion filed October 11, 1972, Wien Consolidated Airlines, Inc. (Wien), requests that the Board dismiss it as a party to this proceeding. Wien had filed a similar motion on September 8, 1972, indicating that its rules governing amenities and services for delayed passengers were detailed in its tariffs and such provisions did not discriminate as to class of passenger. The carrier also stated that Order 72-9-1, dated September 1, 1972, which instituted this proceeding, did not include Wien's tariffs as being subject to this investigation.

Wien's motion was denied by Order 72-9-97, dated September 26, 1972. The omission of Wien's tariff provisions in gether with all advisory committees, in-omission of Wien's tariff provisions in Appendix A of Order 72-9-1 was an inadvertence which was corrected by Order 72-9-97. In denying the motion, we also noted that Wien's tariff provisions governing the availability of complimentary services to delayed passengers denied such amenities to standby passengers who had been cleared for boarding. Since standby passengers, once they are cleared for boarding, are generally treated similarly to other passengers in the same class of service, this distinction on its face appeared questionable. In its renewed motion, Wien states that its tariff rules have now been amended; and, in the case of interrupted flights, standby passengers cleared for boarding will be entitled to the same amenities and services as passengers holding confirmed reservations.

Wien's motion will be granted. As noted in its motion, Wien's tariff provisions no longer contain the infirmities which are of concern in this investigation. Wien advises travelers whose trips have been interrupted that various courtesy services are made available to them and does not distinguish among first class, coach, and standby passengers who have been cleared for boarding in the courtesy services made available.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a), 403, 404, and 1002 thereof:

It is ordered, That:

The motion of Wien Consolidated Airlines, Inc., to be dismissed as a party to Docket 24717 is hereby granted.

This order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Secretary.

NOVEMBER 7, 1972.

Take notice that on October 30, 1972, Atlantic Richfield Co. (Applicant), Post Office Box 2819, Dallas, TX 75221, filed in Docket No. CI73-312 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to Texas Eastern Transmission Corp. from formations down to 1,600 feet underlying acreage in the Rhode Ranch Field, McMullen County, Tex., all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that it commenced the sale of natural gas on October 12, 1972, within the contemplation of § 157.29 of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.29) and that it proposes to continue said sale for 1 year from the end of the 60-day emergency period within the contemplation of section 2.70 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations (18 CFR 2.70). Applicant proposes to sell up to 4,000 Mcf of gas per day, plus additional volumes which may be available and for which pipeline capacity exists, at 35 cents per Mcf at 14.65 p.s.i.a.

It appears reasonable and consistent with the public interest in this case to prescribe a period shorter than 15 days for the filing of protests and petitions to intervene. Therefore, any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before November 17, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, DC 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commision on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

MAINE YANKEE ATOMIC POWER CO.

Notice of and Order Accepting Initial Rate Schedule for Filing With Condition

NOVEMBER 6, 1972.

On October 10, 1972, Maine Yankee Atomic Power Co. (Maine Yankee) tendered for filing a proposed initial rate schedule consisting of a Composite Power Contract dated as of May 20, 1968, between Maine Yankee and 11 utility company customers with provisions for service to be rendered to additional customers as the volume of service increases.

The company's transmittal letter states that:

> The proposed rate is to be based upon the total costs of operation of the unit except that prior to commercial operation incidental power produced intermittently in connection with final testing and preliminary operation will be delivered to the purchasers at 3.75 mills.

The proposed effective date is November 10, 1972, or such earlier date as deliveries may begin.

On October 27, 1972, counsel for a group of nonsponsoring municipal utility systems and electric cooperatives [1] which have been given the opportunity to purchase entitlements in the Maine Yankee plant, filed an objection to the effective date of November 10, 1972, proposed by Maine Yankee, claiming that the date should be postponed "until such time that all related contracts under which power from Maine Yankee is to be sold, resold by Maine Yankee sponsor companies, transmitted and delivered to the various participating utilities have been tendered for filing to the Commission" to avoid "serious legal disputes." Our review of counsel's objections and the tendered filing indicates that the filing is complete and meets all of the requirements of § 35.12 of the Commission's regulations under the Federal Power Act and that the requested delay in effective date would not be appropriate.

Due to an oversight this filing was not noticed and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Therefore, this order shall also serve as notice and we shall accept the tendered rate schedule for filing, to become effective on November 10, 1972, on the condition that the Commission reserves the right to review and adjust or modify the filing based on any complaint raised within the comment period provided below and on the further condition that Maine Yankee and the 11 utility customers named in the filing shall file consent motions to this condition on or before November 10, 1972.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.18, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before November 13, 1972. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining whether the appropriate action has been taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of the application are on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.

The Commission finds:

It is reasonable and appropriate in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the Federal Power Act that Maine Yankee's tendered rate schedule be accepted for filing as hereinafter ordered and conditioned.

The Commission orders:

(A) Maine Yankee's tendered rate schedule filed on October 10, 1972, is accepted for filing to become effective November 10, 1972, subject to further Commission review and adjustment or modification of the filing based upon comments received on or before November 13, 1972: And provided, That Maine Yankee and the 11 utility customers named in the filing shall file motions consenting to this condition on or before November 10, 1972.

(B) Any change in the capital structure of Maine Yankee affecting capital costs and resulting in a rate of return on common stock equity in excess of 10 percent or a common stock equity ratio in excess of 40 percent will constitute a change in filed rate schedule requiring timely filing.

(C) The request for extension of the effective date of the filing by counsel for parties listed in Appendix A is hereby denied.

(D) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this document to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

ORANGE AND ROCKLAND UTILITIES, INC., AND ROCKLAND ELECTRIC CO.

Order Accepting and Suspending Proposed Rate; Increase and Providing for Hearing and Consolidating Proceedings for Limited Purpose

NOVEMBER 3, 1972.

On June 2, 1972, Orange and Rockland Utilities, Inc. (O&R) tendered for filing proposed amendments to its cost of service agreements with Rockland Electric Co. (Rockland) and Pike County Light & Power Co. (Pike). These amendments to Rockland's and Pike's agreements were made to increase O&R's rate of return from 7.5 percent to 9 percent. Rockland and Pike each certified its concurrence in this increase.

O&R requested waiver of the filing requirements of § 35.3(b)(4)(iv) of the Commission's regulations under the Federal Power Act except for the most recent balance sheet, income statement, and Statement G. By letter from the Secretary on June 28, 1972, this request was denied. Subsequently, on October 6, 1972, O&R supplied the remaining statements required under the aforementioned regulation. Since 30 days is adequate time for review of the filing a proposed effective date of November 6, 1972, has been assigned to the filing.

Accompanying O&R's filing of October 6, 1972, was an additional amendment to its Rockland and Pike agreements which adds to the O&R plant investment allocable to Rockland and Pike respectively a portion of O&R's construction work in progress, allocated on a demand basis. Rockland proposes to take no interest on such amount, but to take interest on only the amount by which construction work in progress exceeds such allocated total in any month. Both Rockland and Pike have certified their concurrence in this proposed amendment.

The proposed rate increase is based on the calendar year 1971 test period and would result in an increase in revenue of $751,734 from Rockland and $5,175 from Pike.

On October 10, 1972, O&R requested waiver of the Commission's notice requirements to permit acceptance of both sets of proposed amendments to become effective August 1, 1972. O&R states that the primary reason for its request is to meet its interest coverage requirements.

In a related case in Docket No. E-7739, the Commission in an order issued July 31, 1972, suspended a proposed rate increase by Rockland [1] to the Borough of Park Ridge (Park Ridge). Since a major portion of Rockland's increase is based on its increased cost of purchased power from O&R in Docket No. E-7737, the amount of the increase ultimately allowed O&R has a direct bearing on Rockland's charges to Park Ridge. The rate charged by O&R to Rockland in Docket No. E-7737 and the purchased power cost charged by Rockland to Park Ridge in Docket No. E-7739 may raise common issues of law and fact. We will accordingly order consolidation of these dockets for the limited purpose of determining this issue. Consistent with this action, we will amend our order of July 31, 1972, in Docket No. E-7739 to provide procedural dates reflecting our action herein.

No petitions to intervene or protests have been filed in this proceeding.

Review of the filing indicates that it raises certain issues which may require development in an evidentiary hearing. The proposed increases in rates and charges have not been shown to be just and reasonable and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise unlawful.

In view of the fact that the proposed rate increase is based upon a test period of calendar year 1971 and we are herein suspending the increase until April 6, 1973, the Presiding Administrative Law Judge should determine whether, based upon equitable considerations, an updated test period is required.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Federal Power Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates and charges contained in O&R's Rate Schedules, as proposed to be amended in this docket, and that the tendered increases be suspended as hereinafter provided.

(2) The disposition of this proceeding should be expedited in accordance with the procedure set forth below.

(3) In the event this proceeding is not concluded prior to the termination of the suspension period herein ordered, the placing of the rate changes applied for in this proceeding into effect, subject to refund with interest, while pending Commission determination as to their justness and reasonableness, is consistent with the purpose of the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended.

(4) Good cause has not been shown to waive the notice provisions of the Commission's regulations nor to permit the proposed increase filed herein to become effective on August 1, 1972.

(5) Consistent with our action consolidating issues of law and fact identical to Docket Nos. E-7737 and E-7739 the procedural dates in our July 31, 1972, order in the latter docket should be amended.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Federal Power Act, particularly section 205(e) thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Federal Power Act (18 CFR Chapter I), a public hearing shall be held, commencing with a prehearing conference on March 22, 1973 at 10 a.m., e.s.t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, DC 20426, concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications and services contained in O&R's Rate Schedules as proposed to be revised in Docket No. E-7737.

(B) At the prehearing conference on March 22, 1973, O&R's prepared testimony (Statement P), together with its entire filing shall be admitted to the record as its complete case-in-chief subject to appropriate motions, if any, by parties to the proceeding. All parties will be expected to come to this conference prepared to effectuate the provisions of §§ 1.18 and 2.59 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(C) On or before March 2, 1973, the Commission staff shall serve its prepared testimony and exhibits. The prepared testimony and exhibits of any or all intervenors shall be served on or before March 16, 1973. Any rebuttal evidence by O&R shall be served on or before March 30, 1973, cross-examination of the evidence filed will commence on April 10, 1973.

(D) A Presiding Administrative Law Judge to be designated by the Chief Administrative Law Judge for that purpose (18 CFR 3.5(d)), shall preside at the hearing in this proceeding, shall prescribe relevant procedural matters not herein provided, and shall control the proceeding in accordance with the policies expressed in § 2.59 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(E) Pending hearing and a final decision in Docket No. E-7737 O&R's Rate Schedules tendered originally on June 7, 1972, and officially filed on October 6, 1972, and the use thereof will be deferred until April 6, 1973.

(F) O&R's request for waiver of the notice requirements of the Commission's regulations and request that the rates be made effective August 1, 1972, is denied.

(G) Our order of July 31, 1972, in Docket No. E-7739 is amended to provide the following procedural dates: Staff evidence to be served on March 2, 1973; intervenor evidence to be served on March 16, 1973; Rockland rebuttal evidence to be served on March 30, 1973; prehearing conference to be held on March 22, 1973; hearing on the issues consolidated with Docket No. E-7737 to commence on April 10, 1973; and hearing on remaining issues in Docket No. E-7739 to commence on April 17, 1973.

(H) Because of issues of law and fact identical to Dockets Nos. E-7737 and E-7739 those dockets are hereby consolidated for the limited of purpose of determining the rate charged by O&R to Rockland in the former docket and the purchased power cost charged by Rockland in Docket No. E-7739.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Dockets Nos. CS72-203, CS73-158]

PETRO-LEWIS FUNDS, INC., AND PARTNERSHIP PROPERTIES CO.

Notice of Petition for Declaratory Order or for Waiver of Regulations

NOVEMBER 3, 1972.

Take notice that on October 24, 1972, Petro-Lewis Funds, Inc., 1224 Denver Club Building, Denver, Colo. 80202, certificate holder in Docket No. CS72-203, and Partnership Properties Co., 1600 Broadway, Denver, CO 80202, certificate applicant in Docket No. CS73-158, filed a petition for a declaratory order holding that the acquisition of certain interests from which gas was dedicated to the interstate market by Amerada Hess Corp. (Amerada) did not involve the purchase of developed reserves in place within the contemplation of § 157.40(c) of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.40(c)), or, in the alternative, for waiver in part of § 157.40(c), all as more fully set forth in the petition which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Petitioners state that Amerada Hess Corp., a large producer certificate holder in Docket No. CI61-1650, assigned to Petro-Lewis Corp., a portion of Amerada's interest in the Robert Jacob Hoxbar Gas Unit, West Velma Field, Stephens County, Okla., from which gas was dedicated to Amerada's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 94. Petro-Lewis Corp. conveyed an undivided 94 percent of said interest to Partnership Properties Co. as nominee for Petro-Lewis Funds, Inc.

Petitioners state that at the time of Petro-Lewis Corp.'s purchase of Amerada's interest there were no wells capable of commercial production of gas from said interest and no known commerical reserves included in said interest. They state further that there are presently no wells capable of commercial production of gas from said interest and that there are presently no known commercial reserves included in said interest. Based upon a letter from Lone Star Gas Co. to Amerada, petitioners allege that the well that had been producing gas from the subject interest had been disconnected in 1965. Accordingly, petitioners request either that the Commission find that they did not acquire developed reserves in place from Amerada or, in the alternative, that the Commission waive, with respect to sales from the subject interest, that portion of § 157.40(c) which proscribes sales under small producer certificates from developed reserves acquired in place by small producers from large producers.

Petitioners submit that without any current prospect of income from the subject interest, requiring further administrative action with respect to said interest represents an unproductive financial burden on them which eventually will be borne by the ultimate consumers of gas and, further, that because there are no known commercial reserves of gas in the subject interest, waiver of the regulation will further rather than subvert the Commission's intention in promulgating § 157.40.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition should on or before November 27, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, DC 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

PHILLIPS PETROLEUM CO.

Notice of Application

NOVEMBER 6, 1972.

Take notice that on October 27, 1972, Phillips Petroleum Co. (Applicant), Bartlesville, Okla. 74004, filed in Docket No. CI73-308 on application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to Transwestern Pipeline Co. in Gray County, Tex., from production in the Panhandle-Hugoton Area of Texas, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that it intends to commence the sale of natural gas within the contemplation of § 157.29 of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.29) and proposes to continue said sale for 6 months from the end of the 60-day emergency period within the contemplation of § 2.70 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations (18 CFR 2.70). Applicant proposes to sell up to 30,000 Mc.f. of gas per day at 39 cents per Mc.f. at 14.65 p.s.i.a.

It appears reasonable and consistent with the public interest in this case to prescribe a period shorter than 15 days for the filing of protests and petitions to intervene. Therefore, any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before November 16, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

(Trunkline) filed in Docket No. CP72-111 a petition to amend the order issuing a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act in said docket on May 2, 1972 (47 FPC ——), by authorizing Petitioners to exchange natural gas for additional time, all as more fully set forth in the petition to amend which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The order of May 2, 1972, authorizes Petitioners to exchange gas pursuant to an agreement between them dated October 11, 1971, on file with the Commission as Rate Schedule X-35 in Sixth Revised Volume No. 2 of Tennessee's Gas Tariff. Said agreement provides that Tennessee, from November 1, 1971, through October 31, 1972, shall deliver on a best efforts basis and Trunkline shall receive at an existing point of interconnection near Kinder, Louisiana, or other mutually agreeable points, daily volumes up to 127,500 Mcf at 14.73 p.s.i.a. of natural gas. The agreement provides further that Trunkline, from November 1, 1973, through October 31, 1977, shall redeliver to Tennessee at Kinder or other points a volume of gas equal to that delivered by Tennessee, at a rate up to 31,875 Mcf at 14.73 p.s.i.a. per day.

Petitioners state that inasmuch as the Commission order authorizing the subject exchange was issued on May 2, 1972, and initial delivery was made by Tennessee on May 15, 1972, Trunkline was unable to receive gas during the full 12-month period as contemplated. Accordingly, Petitioners have amended the exchange agreement to provide for deliveries by Tennessee to Trunkline through October 31, 1973, and to provide for redeliveries by Trunkline to Tennessee from November 1, 1974, through October 31, 1978. The amendment also provides that deliveries and redeliveries may be made by means of Trunkline's existing facilities at the tailgate of the Texaco Inc. Henry gas plant in Vermilion Parish, La.

Petitioners submit that continuation of the delayed exchange under the amended agreement will increase their flexibility in the southwest Louisiana supply area and will be beneficial by permitting each company to use its gas supplies and facilities more efficiently.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition to amend should on or before November 27, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

Notice of Petition To Amend

NOVEMBER 3, 1972.

Take notice that on October 30, 1972, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corp. (Petitioner), Post Office Box 1396, Houston, TX 77001, filed in Docket No. CP69-199 a petition to amend the order issued pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act in said docket on June 21, 1971 (45 FPC 1190), as amended April 24, 1972 (47 FPC ——), by authorizing the continuation of an interruptible transportation service at an adjusted rate, all as more fully set forth in the petition to amend which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Petitioner is presently authorized to transport for and deliver to Southern Natural Gas Co. (Southern) up to 5,000 Mcf of natural gas per day through January 29, 1973, at the rate of 6.25 cents per Mcf at 15.025 p.s.i.a. The gas is received by Petitioner at its Happytown purchase meter station on its Happytown lateral in Pointe Coupee Parish, La., and transported to existing points of interconnection between the systems of the two companies near Selma, Ala., and Jonesboro, Ga. The gas which is the subject of the transportation is normally purchased by Southern in the Bayou Henry Field, Iberville Parish, La., and taken through Southern's Bayou Bouillon-East Happytown line and thence into its main transmission system. Southern's line has been out of service as the result of two breaks at the Whiskey Bay Pilot Channel, and the authorized transportation by Petitioner was initiated at Southern's request in order to avoid the flaring of the Bayou Henry oil well gas.

Petitioner states that Southern has now determined that, given the expected life of the reserves in question, it would not be economic to make repairs in its line and has requested Petitioners to extend the interruptible transportation service, for a period of ten years or until such earlier date as Southern's Bayou Henry reserves are depleted. Petitioner proposes to charge an increased rate of 8.0 cents per Mcf. Petitioners states that the 6.25-cent rate was equal to 50 percent of the CD-1 rate at 100 percent load factor in effect at the time of the original agreement and that the new 8.0-cent rate is equal to 50 percent of the CD-1 rate at 100 percent load factor in effect at the present time.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition to amend should on or before November 27, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

ATLANTIC RICHFIELD CO. ET AL.

Order Providing for Hearing on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rates, and Allowing Rate Changes To Become Effective Subject to Refund [1]

NOVEMBER 2, 1972.

Respondents have filed proposed changes in rates and charges for jurisdictional sales of natural gas, as set forth in Appendix A hereof.

The proposed changed rates and charges may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is in the public interest and consistent with the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings regarding the lawfulness of the proposed changes, and that the supplements herein be suspended and their use be deferred as ordered below.

The Commission orders:

(A) Under the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15, the regulations pertaining thereto (18 CFR Ch. I), and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, public hearings shall be held concerning the lawfulness of the proposed changes.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, the rate supplements herein are suspended and their use deferred until date shown in the "Date Suspended Until" column. Each of these supplements shall become effective, subject to refund, as of the expiration of the suspension period without any further action by the respondent or by the Commission. Each respondent shall comply with the refunding procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and § 154.102 of the regulations thereunder.

(C) Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, neither the suspended supplements, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered, shall be changed until disposition of these proceedings or expiration of the suspension period, whichever is earlier.

By the Commission.

The proposed increases filed herein do not exceed the corresponding rate filing limitation imposed in Southern Louisiana and therefore are suspended for 1 day after termination of the 60 day notice period or for 1 day after the contractual due date, whichever is later.

The producers' proposed increased rates and charges exceed the applicable area price levels for increased rates as set forth in the Commission's statement of general policy No. 61-1, as amended (18 CFR 2.56).

CERTIFICATION OF ABBREVIATED SUSPENSION

Pursuant to § 300.16(1)(3) of the Price Commission Rules and Regulations, 6 CFR Part 300 (1972), the Federal Power Commission certifies as to the abbreviated suspension period in this order as follows:

(1) This proceeding involves producer rates which are established on an area rather than company basis. This practice was established by Area Rate Proceeding, Docket No. AR61-1, et al., Opinion No. 468, 34 FPC 159 (1965), and affirmed by the Supreme Court in Permian Basin Area Rate Case, 390 U.S. 747 (1968). In such cases as this, producer rates are approved by this Commission if such rates are contractually authorized and are at or below the area ceiling.

(2) In the instant case, the requested increases do not exceed the ceiling rate for a one day suspension.

(3) By Order No. 423 (36 F.R. 3464) issued February 18, 1971, this Commission determined as a matter of general policy that it would suspend for only one day a change in rate filed by an independent producer under section 4(d) of the Natural Gas Act [15 U.S.C. 717c(d)] in a situation where the proposed rate exceeds the increased rate ceiling, but does not exceed the ceiling for a 1 day suspension.

(4) In the discharge of our responsibilities under the Natural Gas Act, this Commission has been confronted with conclusive evidence demonstrating a natural gas shortage. (See Opinions Nos. 595, 598, and 607, and Order No. 435). In these circumstances and for the reasons set forth in Order No. 423 the Commission is of the opinion in this case that the abbreviated suspension authorized herein will be consistent with the letter and intent of the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended, as well as the rules and regulations of the Price Commission, 6 CFR Part 300 (1972). Specifically, this Commission is of the opinion that the authorized suspension is required to assure continued, adequate and safe service and will assist in providing for necessary expansion to meet present and future requirements of natural gas.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

[GSA Bulletin FPMR A-32; General Supplement 2]

SHIPMENT OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES' HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Use of Commuted Rate Schedule or Actual Expense Method

To: Heads of Federal agencies.

1. Purpose. This supplement informs agencies of additional carriers who have filed rate quotations for shipments of household goods of Government employees. These rate quotations provide bases for predetermining packing and accessorial charges and enable agencies to obtain, before making such shipments, valid cost comparisons on a "total basis" between use of the commuted rate schedule and the actual expense (Government bill of lading) method.

2. Expiration date. This supplement contains material of a continuing nature and will remain in effect until canceled.

3. Background. Supplement 1, dated May 9, 1972, to GSA Bulletin FPMR A-32 provides in Attachment A thereto, a list of individual household goods carriers who have filed rate quotations containing predeterminable packing charges, and states that additions or deletions to this list will be published by supplements, annually or as appropriate.

4. Additional carriers quoting predeterminable packing charges. More than 2,000 additional carriers now quote predeterminable packing charges under the following issuances:

a. All carriers participating in the Household Goods Carriers' Bureau Military and Government Rate Tariff (HGCB M&GRT) No. 1-F (ICC No. 30) now provide a basis for predetermining packing charges. Supplement No. 7 (effective July 15, 1972) to this tariff, in Item 105, contains a maximum packing schedule covering all packing and unpacking services except for the use of wooden boxes or wooden crates.

b. All carriers participating in the Movers' & Warehousemen's Association of America, Inc., Government Rate Tender (M&WAA, Inc., GRT) ICC No. 1-W now provide a basis for predetermining packing charges. Supplement No. 5 (effective July 15, 1972) to this tariff, in Item 120, contains a maximum packing schedule covering all packing and unpacking services except for the use of wooden boxes or wooden crates.

c. Cartwright Van Lines, Inc., Grandview, Mo., has filed an individual rate quotation, dated May 19, 1972, under which packing and unpacking charges may be predetermined.

5. Recommended action. a. Make the following additions to the list of carriers contained in GSA Bulletin FPMR A-32, Supplement 1, Attachment A:

HGCB M&GRT No. 1-F (All participating carriers).
M&WAA, Inc., GRT ICC No. 1-W (All participating carriers).
Cartwright Van Lines, Inc., Grandview, Mo.

b. When a cost comparison is being made between the commuted rate schedule and the actual expense (Government bill of lading or GBL) method and the rate quotation of the carrier being considered provides separately stated charges for accessorial services (such as piano carry and servicing appliances), the actual expense (GBL) computation should reflect such charges to the extent they apply to the particular shipment under consideration. The comparative cost computation by the commuted rate schedule requires no similar adjustment since the line-haul transportation allowances contained in this schedule include all packing, unpacking, and related accessorial services.

Dated: October 10, 1972.

Commissioner, Federal Supply Service.

DELMARVA POWER & LIGHT CO.

Notice of Filing and Order for Consolidated Hearing

NOVEMBER 2, 1972.

Notice is hereby given that Delmarva Power & Light Co. (Delmarva), 800 King Street, Wilmington, DL 19899, a registered holding company and a public-utility company, has filed an application pursuant to section 3(a)(2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (Act) seeking exemption from all the provisions thereof except section 9(a)(2). All interested persons are referred to the application, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the facts.

Delmarva (formerly Delaware Power & Light Co.) is incorporated under the laws of Delaware and maintains its principal offices in Wilmington, Del. It is engaged within the State of Delaware in the generation, transmission and distribution of electric energy, in the retail distribution of gas, and in the steam business and is a joint owner of electric generation and transmission facilities in the States of New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Delmarva has two wholly owned subsidiary companies: Delmarva Power & Light Co. of Maryland (Del-Md), a Maryland corporation engaged exclusively in the electric utility business in Maryland, and Delmarva Power & Light Co. of Virginia (Del-Va), a Virginia corporation engaged exclusively in the electric utility business in Virginia. Delmarva's utility operations in Delaware are subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission of Delaware. The electric utility businesses of its subsidiaries in Maryland and Virginia are subject, respectively, to the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission of Maryland and the State Corporation Commission of Virginia.

The service areas of the three companies, all located on the "Delmarva Peninsula," are interconnected and comprise an aggregate of approximately 4,700 square miles, having a total population in excess of 842,000. Delmarva is affiliated with the Pennsylvania-New Jersey-Maryland (PJM) Interconnection System. In 1971, the system companies generated a total of 6,050,000 mw.-hr., of which 92 percent was generated by Delmarva, 7.8 percent by Del-Md and less than 1 percent by Del-Va, and for that year, system electric sales were 5,748,000 mw.-hr., of which 77 percent was sold by Delmarva, 20 percent by Del-Md and 3 percent by Del-Va.

The consolidated gross operating revenues of the Delmarva system for the year ended December 31, 1971, amounted to $129,505,193, consisting of $104,741,538 from the sale of electricity; $19,279,943 from the sale of gas; and the balance ($5,483,712) from steam and electric service to a nonaffiliated oil refinery in the State of Delaware. Of the consolidated electric revenues (including steam revenues), about 75 percent were applicable to Delmarva, 21 percent to Del-Md and 4 percent to Del-Va. As of December 31, 1971, the consolidated plant account amounted to $630,957,530 (of which 86 percent was electric plant, 7.8 percent was gas, 3.5 percent was steam, and 2.7 percent denominated as common property), to which was applied an aggregate accumulated depreciation reserve of $135,417,987.

The Delmarva system renders retail electric service in twelve municipalities, of these municipalities, six are in Delaware, two in Maryland and four in Virginia. The system also renders wholesale electric service to 12 other municipalities, three cooperatives and two nonaffiliated utility companies. Of these wholesale customers, many of which purchase 100 percent of their electric energy requirements from the Delmarva system, nine municipalities and one cooperative are located in Delmarva; three municipalities, one cooperative and the two nonaffiliated utilities are located in Maryland; and one cooperative is in Virginia.

As of June 30, 1972, the aggregate capacity of generating units owned by Delmarva was 1,083,500 kilowatts; while that of Del-Md was 290,500 kw., and that of Del-Va was 43,700 kw.

Delmarva has under construction a 400,000 kilowatt steam-electric generating unit at Edge Moor, Del., scheduled for completion in 1973; a joint-owned nuclear generating station in Peach Bottom, Pa., in which it will have a 160,000 kilowatt entitlement, scheduled for completion in 1973–74 and a jointly owned nuclear generating station in Salem, N.J., in which it will have 163,000 kilowatt entitlement, scheduled for completion in 1974–75. Delmarva has, also, executed a purchase order for two 770,000 kilowatt nuclear units for a generating station in Delaware, at a site yet to be determined, for completion in 1979–82.

Delmarva's Delaware City station supplied steam and electricity to an unaffiliated oil refinery under contract and generates electricity for system requirements. The refinery has an option to purchase the plant on November 1, 1976, and at 5-year intervals thereafter.

Delmarva conducts the entire gas utility business of the Delmarva system. This gas utility business is conducted in New Castle County, Del., within territory served by Delmarva with electricity. In 1971, Delmarva provided gas service to about 73,613 customers in an area, including the city of Wilmington, of about 275 square miles having a total population of 382,000. The maximum 24-hour gas system capability is 131,914,000 cubic feet. Delmarva sold 16,634,659 mcf of gas in 1971.

Natural gas is distributed through approximately 983 miles of gas mains, and is supplemented with propane-air gas during periods of high usage. Delmarva has under construction a storage facility for liquefied natural gas with a storage capacity of 250,000 mcf equivalent, and an output capability of 50,000 mcf per day, scheduled to be in operation for the storage of gas in the winter of 1972–73.

On April 5, 1972, the Commission instituted a proceeding with respect to Delmarva under section 11(b)(1) of the Act (Holding Company Act Release No. 17530, File No. 59–114, Administrative Proceeding File No. 3–3640). In this notice and order for hearing, the Commission specified, as the principal issue, whether Delmarva may retain within its holding-company system, its gas properties along with its electric properties. In its answer, filed on May 22, 1972, Delmarva has supported its claim for retention by asserting, inter alia, that it is entitled to an exemption under section 3(a)(2) of the Act.

A hearing in the section 11(b)(1) proceeding was held at 1100 L Street NW., Washington, DC 20549, before Warren E. Blair, Chief Administrative Law Judge; said hearing was adjourned to December 4, 1972.

It appearing to the Commission that common questions of law and fact exist in these two proceedings, and that pursuant to Rule 10 of the Commission's rules of practice it is appropriate that these separate proceedings be consolidated; that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a public hearing be held with respect to the issues noted below:

It is ordered, Accordingly, that the proceeding with respect to Delmarva's application under section 3(a)(2) be, it hereby is, consolidated with proceeding under section 11(b)(1) and that the application for exemption be, and it hereby is, made part of Delmarva's answer it has heretofore filed in the section 11(b)(1) proceeding.

It is further ordered, That the Chief Administrative Law Judge shall preside at the hearing in these consolidated proceedings. This officer, as heretofore authorized, is to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18(c) of the Act and to an administrative law judge under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That with respect to the exemption application particular attention be directed in the hearing to the following matters:

(a) Whether Delmarva meets the requirements for an exemption specified in section 3(a)(2) of the Act;

(b) Whether Delmarva should be granted such exemption, without first complying with section 11(b)(1);

(c) Whether the granting of any exemption under section 3(a)(2) should be subject to terms and conditions, including compliance with section 11(b)(1).

It is further ordered, That any person, other than the applicant, desiring to be heard in connection with this proceeding or proposing to intervene therein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before November 27, 1972, a written request relative thereto as provided in Rule 9 of the Commission's rules of practice. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicants at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. Persons filing an application to participate or be heard will receive notice of the date of hearing or any adjournment thereof as well as other actions of the Commission involving the subject matter of these consolidated proceedings.

GEORGIA POWER CO.

Proposed Issue and Sale of First Mortgage Bonds at Competitive Bidding

NOVEMBER 3, 1972.

Notice is hereby given that Georgia Power Co. (Georgia), 270 Peachtree Street NW., Atlanta, GA 30303, an electric utility subsidiary company of The Southern Co., a registered holding company, has filed an application with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (Act), designating section 6(b) of the Act and Rule 50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the following proposed transaction. All interested persons are referred to the application, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transaction.

Georgia proposes to issue and sell, subject to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule 50 under the Act, up to $150 million principal amount of its first mortgage bonds, — percent series, to mature not less than 5 years and not more than 30 years from the second day of the calendar month within which the bonds are issued. Georgia will decide on the maturity of the bonds after the date of public invitation for proposals and subsequently notify prospective bidders not less than 72 hours prior to the time of the bidding. The interest rate (which will be a multiple of one-eighth percent) and the price, exclusive of accrued interest, to be paid to Georgia (which will be not less than 99 percent nor more than 102¾ percent of the principal amount thereof) will be determined by the competitive bidding. The bonds will be issued under an indenture, dated as of March 1, 1941, between Georgia and Chemical Bank, as trustee, as heretofore supplemented, including the supplemental indenture dated October 25, 1972, modifying the $1 billion limitation on the principal amount of bonds which may be outstanding under the indenture (Holding Company Act Release No. 17684, Oct. 10, 1972) and as to be further supplemented by a supplemental indenture to be dated as of December 1, 1972, which includes a prohibition until December 1, 1977, against refunding the bonds with or in anticipation of the proceeds from borrowings at a lower cost.

Georgia will apply the proceeds from the sale of the bonds, together with other funds, to reduce indebtedness evidenced by short-term notes payable and 2-year notes payable contemplated by Georgia to be incurred in connection with its construction program (which for 1972 is estimated at $465,683,000). The estimated aggregate amount of such notes payable is $318 million, after giving effect to the full amounts contemplated in previous filings with the Commission (see Holding Company Act Release No. 17645, July 13, 1972). Georgia estimates that following the sale of the full $150 million principal amount of the proposed new bonds, the aggregate of its notes payable will be reduced to $16,200,000 as at December 31, 1972.

It is stated that the Georgia Public Service Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed issuance and sale of the bonds by Georgia and that the requisite order of that Commission will be filed by amendment. It is further stated that no other State commission and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction. A statement of the fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the transaction will be supplied by amendment.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 27, 1972, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicant at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the application, as filed or as it may be amended, may be granted as provided in Rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

Centre, 700 West Georgia Street, Vancouver 1, BC, Canada, a British Columbia corporation, has filed an application for an order of the Commission pursuant to section 3(b)(2) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (Act) declaring that it is primarily engaged in a business or businesses other than that of investing, reinvesting, owning, holding or trading in securities either directly or (A) through majority-owned subsidiaries or (B) through controlled companies conducting similar types of businesses, or, in the alternative, for an order pursuant to section 6(c) of the Act exempting Applicant from all provisions of the Act. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations made therein which are summarized below.

Applicant was incorporated on June 7, 1950, under the laws of British Columbia and has since then been engaged in the business of mining and exploring for various minerals, almost exclusively in the Province of British Columbia. It was incorporated under a British Columbia statute available only to companies engaging in the mining, oil or natural gas business. Applicant states that its charter does not contemplate or permit investment company activity.

Applicant's sole significant source of revenues is from a British Columbia mine (the Giant Nickel Mine) where it produces nickel-copper concentrates. The activities and background of Applicant's officers are oriented to the mining business. Applicant employs no security analyst, trading staff or investment departments and has never publicly held itself out as having any investment expertise or as having the intention of making investments in minority interests of other companies.

In 1970, Applicant acquired an approximately 4.52 percent equity interest in Panarctic Oils Ltd. (the Consortium), a Canadian corporation holding extensive/petroleum and natural gas rights in Canada's Arctic islands. The Consortium was formed in 1966 under Federal letters patent. The Canadian Federal Government owns 45 percent of the equity and the balance of the Consortium's shares are held by 19 private interests, including Applicant, none of which owns more than approximately 9 percent of the shares. The Consortium's shares are not publicly traded and are transferable only upon the prior approval of the holders of at least 60 percent of the Consortium's outstanding equity. By agreement among the Consortium's participants, each participant is entitled to representation on the Consortium's Board of Directors and its Exploration Committee. This form of syndicate for the exploration of oil and gas properties is commonly used in Canada in lieu of the co-ownership arrangement used in the United States to explore oil or gas fields too large for any one company to explore alone. For Canadian income tax purposes, contributions to the Consortium for oil and gas exploration constitute deductible exploration expenditures for most of the participants, rather than capital expenditures for acquiring stock.

As of June 30, 1972, Applicant's interest in the Consortium was valued at Cdn. $12,105,309, which represented as of such date 45.39 percent of Applicant's total assets (exclusive of U.S. Government securities and cash items.)

Applicant has never received any income from its interest in the Consortium and has no expectation of doing so for several years at least. Its interest in the Consortium is contended not to be of the kind contemplated by the Act's definition of investment security. A summary of Applicant's assets as of June 30, 1972, is as follows:

Item	Value	Percentage of applicant's total assets (exclusive of cash items) (percent)
Mining properties and natural gas interest held by applicant and its wholly owned subsidiaries and other tangible assets (Canadian)	$13,939,631	52.28
Investment in majority owned subsidiary, Mascot Nickel Plate Mines, Ltd. (75.47 percent interest)	229,684	.86
Investment in and advances to controlled corporation, Giant Explorations, Ltd. (N.P.L.) (27.87 percent interest)	365,663	1.37
Securities guaranteed by the Province of British Columbia at cost	27,472	.10
Interest in Panarctic Oils, Ltd.	12,105,309	45.39
Total assets (excluding cash items) (Canadian)	26,667,759	100
Cash items	538,241
Total assets (Canadian)	27,206,000

Section 3(a)(3) of the Act provides that an "investment company" for purposes of the Act includes an issuer which "is engaged or proposes to engage in the business of investing, reinvesting, holding or trading in securities, and owns or proposes to acquire investment securities having a value exceeding 40 per centum of the value of such issuer's total assets (exclusive of Government securities and cash items) on an unconsolidated basis." For purposes of section 3(a)(3), the term "investment securities" includes all securities except U.S. Government securities and securities issued by majority-owned subsidiaries which are not themselves investment companies. Section 3(b)(2) excludes from the definition of "investment company":

(2) Any issuer which the Commission, upon application by such issuer, finds and by order declares to be primarily engaged in a business or businesses other than that of investing, reinvesting, owning, holding, or trading in securities either directly or (A) through majority-owned subsidiaries or (B) through controlled companies conducting similar types of businesses.

Section 6(c) of the Act authorizes the Commission upon application to exempt any person from any provision or provisions of the Act conditionally or unconditionally if and to the extent such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is given that any interested person may, not later than November 24, 1972, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the Applicant at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in the case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the Application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the information stated in said application unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing, or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered, will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

HEARING DATES AND FILING OF BRIEFS

Postponements and Extensions of Time

The Commission desires to remind all parties to proceedings before it that delays resulting from undue requests for postponement of hearings and brief dates result in unnecessary expense and inconvenience to the parties as well as to the Government. By notice issued April 26, 1965, the Commission advised that a more restrictive policy was to be adopted in respect to such requests and that a closer scrutiny thereof would be made by officials authorized to grant or deny them. The processing of unnecessary requests results in inefficient employment of personnel, is equally burdensome upon all parties who must consider and reply thereto, and cannot be allowed to continue to grow.

As in the past, every effort will be made to assign hearings and to establish due dates for briefs and other pleadings with a view toward giving sufficient time for all parties to prepare. However, the occurrence of a conflict of dates will not, standing alone, be considered as an adequate reason for postponement. Similarly, the press of other work will not necessarily be regarded as a sufficient reason to warrant an extension of time. The press of matters before this Commission is also of great importance.

Those participating in proceedings before the Commission will be expected to be prepared for hearings on the dates they are assigned and to refrain from requesting extensions of time except where absolute necessity dictates such a request and warrants an extension. The Commission deems strict administrative disposition of all such requests to be a matter best serving the overall public interest.

The full cooperation of all practioners in effectuating this policy will be expected.

MOTOR CARRIER, BROKER, WATER CARRIER AND FREIGHT FORWARDER APPLICATIONS

NOVEMBER 3, 1972.

The following applications (except as otherwise specifically noted, each applicant (on applications filed after March 27, 1972) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application), are governed by Special Rule 1100.247[1] of the Commission's general rules of practice (49 CFR, as amended), published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of April 20, 1966, effective May 20, 1966. These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after date of notice of filing of the application is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest under these rules should comply with section 247(d)(3) of the rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describing in detail the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one (1) copy of the protest shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of section 247(d)(4) of the special rules, and shall include the certification required therein.

Section 247(f) of the Commission's rules of practice further provides that each applicant shall, if protests to its application have been filed, and within 60 days of the date of this publication, notify the Commission in writing (1) that it is ready to proceed and prosecute the application, or (2) that it wishes to withdraw the application, failure in which the application will be dismissed by the Commission.

Further processing steps (whether modified procedure, oral hearing, or other procedures) will be determined generally in accordance with the Commission's general policy statement concerning motor carrier licensing procedures, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of May 3, 1966. This assignment will be by Commission order which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication except for good cause shown, and restrictive amendments will not be entertained following publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of a notice that the proceeding has been assigned for oral hearing.

Title 3—The President

DETERMINATION OF NOVEMBER 8, 1972

Presidential Determination

THE WHITE HOUSE,

Washington, November 8, 1972

I hereby determine that it is in the national interest for the Export-Import Bank of the United States to guarantee, insure, extend credit and participate in the extension of credit in connection with the purchase or lease of any product or service by, for use in, or for sale or lease to the Polish People's Republic, in accordance with Section 2(b)(2) of the Export-Import Bank Act of 1945, as amended.

Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER E—DETERMINATION OF SUGAR COMMERCIALLY RECOVERABLE

[Rev. 1, Supp. 9, Amdt. 1]

PART 831—BEET SUGAR AREA

1972 Crop; Rates of Recoverability

Pursuant to section 302(a) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, § 831.19 is amended by revising the table at the end of paragraph (c) to read as follows:

§ 831.19 Rates of recoverability, 1972 crop.

• • • • • •

	1965–71 average sugar content (percent)
Sugar companies and settlement areas:
Amalgamated Sugar Co:
Nyssa-Nampa district	15.20
American Crystal Sugar Co.:
Mason City, Iowa factory	14.56
Utah-Idaho Sugar Co.:
Toppenish-Moses Lake district	15.61
Utah and Idaho district	15.57

Statement of bases and considerations. The rates of recoverability for the 1972 crop of sugar beets inadvertently listed the Utah district and the Idaho district of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Co., as separate settlement areas with the 1965–71 average sugar content percentage computed as 15.37 and 15.72, respectively. In order that the settlement area used as the basis for determining Sugar Act payments will be the same as the settlement area used by the Utah-Idaho Sugar Co., in settling with growers, this amendment combines the 7-year average sugar content of the two districts into one settlement area for the 1972 crop.

A notice of proposed rule making was not given for this determination as it follows mathematical formulas which make use of actual operating and production data reported by the sugar factories involved. Therefore, no discretionary decisions are involved and a public recommendation would not change the data. Public notice is, therefore, unnecessary.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing determination will effectuate the applicable provisions of the Act.

(Secs. 302, 303, 304, 403, 61 Stat. 930, as amended, 932; 7 U.S.C. 1132, 1133, 1134)

Effective date: Date of publication (11–10–72).

Signed at Washington, D.C., on November 6, 1972.

E. J. PERSON,
Deputy Administrator, State and County Operations, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Chapter X—Agricultural and Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders; Milk), Department of Agriculture

PART 1121—MILK IN THE SOUTH TEXAS MARKETING AREA

Rescission of Order Terminating Order

Findings. (a) On July 16, 1971, an order was issued by the Assistant Secretary (36 F.R. 13369) which would terminate on August 1, 1971, all of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the South Texas marketing area (7 CFR Part 1121) except that part of § 1121.1 incorporating §§ 1000.4 (c) and (d), 1000.5 (b) and (c), and 1000.6 of the general provisions.

(b) The order terminating the South Texas order was based on a determination by the Assistant Secretary that termination of the South Texas order was favored by a majority of the producers engaged in the production of milk for sale in the South Texas marketing area in the representative period of May 1971, and that such producers produced more than 50 percent of the milk produced for sale in the South Texas marketing area in such representative period. Section 608c(16)(B) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), requires that if a majority of the producers engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area in a representative period determined by the Secretary favors termination of the order, and such producers produced more than 50 percent of the milk produced for sale in the marketing area in such period, the order shall be terminated at the end of the current marketing period. The current marketing period was determined to be July 1971.

(c) On July 30, 1971, the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia issued, on the basis of a civil action before it, a preliminary injunction restraining the Secretary from effectuating the termination order pending a further hearing by the court on the authority of the Secretary to terminate the order in the manner contemplated. On the basis of this injunction, the effective date of the termination order was suspended by the Assistant Secretary on July 30, 1971 (36 F.R. 14312).

(d) On October 12, 1972, a cooperative association representing a majority of the producers on the South Texas market filed with the Department a request that the order terminating the South Texas order be rescinded. Such action thereby removes any basis for invoking the provisions of 608c(16)(B) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

(e) Following the submission of the cooperative association's request for rescission, the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia vacated its preliminary injunction and dismissed the aforesaid civil action.

RESCISSION ORDER

In view of the above findings, it is hereby ordered that the order issued July 16, 1971, terminating the South Texas order (7 CFR Part 1121) be rescinded.

(Secs. 1–9, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Effective date: Upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11–10–72).

Signed at Washington, D.C. on November 6, 1972.

RICHARD E. LYNG,
Assistant Secretary.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Transportation

[Airworthiness Docket No. 72–WE–18–AD; Amdt. 39–1553]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

North American Rockwell NA–265

There has been one instance of a fatigue crack and one instance of prior damage in the trunnion area of the main landing gear strut on North American Rockwell NA–265 Sabreliner airplanes. In each case, a failure and collapse of the landing gear resulted.

Since the condition is likely to exist or develop in other airplanes of the same type design, an airworthiness directive is being issued to require inspections and any necessary rework of the main landing gear shock strut on North American Rockwell NA–265 airplanes.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of this regulation, it is found that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and ductions to the airspace proposed in the have been received and the proposed

In § 75.100 (37 F.R. 2382) Jet Route No. 71 is amended to read as follows:

V37-218 NOV 10 72 XUM

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 F.R. 13697) § 239.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

NORTH AMERICAN ROCKWELL. Applies to Sabreliner Model NA-265-40, Serial Nos. 282-1 through 282-97; Model NA-265-50, Serial No. 287-1; and Model NA-265-60, Serial Nos. 306-1 through 306-63.

Compliance required within the next 100 hours' time in service, but not later than 90 days after the effective date of this AD, whichever occurs first, unless already accomplished within the last 2,300 hours' time in service, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 2,400 hours' time in service or 2,400 landings, whichever occurs first, from the last inspection.

To detect and remove cracks, tool marks, nicks, scratches, rust, or other minor surface blemishes, inspect and rework the main landing gear outer strut cylinder and inner trunnion (cone shaped) surface in accordance with the inspection and rework provisions of North American Rockwell Sabreliner Service Bulletin No. 72-15 dated October 30, 1972, or later FAA-approved revision, or an equivalent procedure approved by the Chief, Aircraft Engineering Division, FAA Western Region.

This amendment becomes effective November 11, 1972.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Control Zone and Transition Area

On June 3, 1972, a notice of proposed rule making (NPRM) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 11186) stating that the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) was considering amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would alter the Point Barrow, Alaska, control zone and transition area.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the proposed rule making through the submission of comments. No comments were received.

Subsequent to the publication of the notice of proposed rule making, the Point Barrow RBN (PBA) was decommissioned and the Browerville RBN (NMT) substituted therefor in the description of control zone and transition area. This resulted in minor adjustments and reductions to the airspace proposed in the notice. Since these changes are minor in nature and less restrictive than the proposed amendment, further notice and public procedure thereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0901 G.m.t., January 4, 1973, as hereinafter set forth.

1. In § 71.171 (37 F.R. 2056) the Point Barrow control zone is amended to read:

POINT BARROW, ALASKA

Within a 5-mile radius of the Point Barrow AFS Airport (latitude 71°20'21" N., longitude 156°37'45" W.); within a 5-mile radius of the Wiley Post-Will Rogers Memorial Airport (latitude 71°17'11" N., longitude 156°46'15" W.); within 3 miles each side of the Point Barrow RBN (PTR) 051° bearing extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 10 miles northeast of the RBN (PTR); within 2.5 miles each side of the Barrow RBN (BRW) 090° bearing, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 10 miles east of the RBN; within 2.5 miles each side of the Barrow RBN (BRW) 226° bearing, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 10 miles southwest of the RBN; and within 2.5 miles each side of the Barrow RBN (BRW) 270° bearing, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 10.5 miles west of the RBN.

2. In § 71.181 (37 F.R. 2143) the Point Barrow transition area is amended to read:

POINT BARROW, ALASKA

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within 3 miles each side of the Browerville RBN (NMT) 155° bearing, extending from the control zone to 10 miles south of the RBN; and that airspace extending upward from 1,200 feet above the surface within a 22-mile radius of latitude 71°18'00" N., longitude 156°43'00" W.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on November 3, 1972.

CHARLES H. NEWPOL,
Acting Chief, Airspace and Air Traffic Rules Division.

[Airspace Docket No. 72-WE-36]

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Control Zone

On September 28, 1972, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 20258) stating that the Federal Aviation Administration was considering amendments to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would designate a new control zone for Chino, Calif. Airport and alter the description of the Ontario, Calif., control zone.

Interested persons were given 30 days in which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections. No objections have been received and the proposed amendments are hereby adopted without change.

Effective date. These amendments shall be effective 0901 G.m.t., December 18, 1972.

(Sec. 307(a), Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, 49 U.S.C. 1348(a); sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1655(c))

Issued in Los Angeles, Calif., on October 31, 1972.

CHARLES J. WINGER,
Acting Director, Western Region.

In § 71.171 (37 F.R. 2056) the following control zone is added:

CHINO, CALIF.

Within a 3-mile radius of the Chino, Calif. Airport (latitude 33°58'30" N., longitude 117°38'10" W.). This control zone shall be effective during the specific dates and times established in advance by a Notice to Airmen. The effective date and time will thereafter be continuously published in the Airman's Information Manual.

In § 71.171 (37 F.R. 2056) the description of the Ontario, Calif., control zone is amended to read as follows:

ONTARIO, CALIF.

Within a 5-mile radius of Ontario International Airport (latitude 34°03'25" N., longitude 117°36'30" W.); within 2 miles each side of the Ontario ILS localizer east course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 3 miles east of the OM, and within a 3-mile radius of Chino, Calif., excluding the portion within the Chino control zone when it is effective.

PART 73—SPECIAL USE AIRSPACE

Alteration of Special Use Airspace

The purpose of these amendments to Parts 71 and 73 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (FAR's) is to divide and redentify R-6408 as R-6408A for the northern portion and R-6408B for the southern portion. The lateral/vertical dimensions of R-6408A and R-6408B combined will be identical to the present R-6408.

The purpose of this alteration to R-6408 is to permit use of only the northern portion of present R-6408 for LOKI meteorological missile operations, thus minimizing impact on other airspace users and tourist activities in the Canyonlands National Park area.

Since these amendments are minor in nature and no substantive change in the regulation or its effect upon the operation of aircraft is effected, notice and public procedure thereon are unnecessary, and good cause exists for making these amendments effective on less than 30-day notice. However, since it is necessary that sufficient time be allowed to permit appropriate changes to be made on aeronautical charts, these amendments will become effective January 4, 1973.

In consideration of the foregoing, Parts 71 and 73 of the Federal Aviation Regulations are amended, effective 0901 G.m.t., January 4, 1973, as hereinafter set forth.

1. Section 71.151 (37 F.R. 2045) is amended as follows:

a. "R-6408 Indian Creek, Utah" is deleted.

b. "R-6408A Indian Creek, Utah" is added.

c. "R-6408B Indian Creek, Utah" is added.

2. Section 73.64 (37 F.R. 2373) is amended as follows:

a. R-6408 is deleted.

PART 135c—NEW ANIMAL DRUGS IN ORAL DOSAGE FORMS

Levamisole Hydrochloride

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs has evaluated a supplemental new animal drug application (45-513V) filed by American Cyanamid Co., Post Office Box 400, Princeton, NJ 08540, proposing revised labeling regarding the safe and approximately 12 milligrams of the clindamycin phosphate sample into a 50-promulgated under section 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, with respect to approval of the antibiotic drug clindamycin phosphate.

He concludes that data supplied by the manufacturer concerning the subject antibiotic drug is adequate to establish its safety and efficacy when used as directed in the labeling and that the regulations should be amended to provide for the certification of this drug.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 357) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120), Parts 141 and 149u (21 CFR 141 and 149u) are amended as follows:

1. Part 141 is amended:

* * *	* * *	* * *	* * *

c. By adding a new section as follows:

§ 141.574 Clindamycin phosphate vapor phase chromatography.

(a) Equipment. Gas chromatograph equipped with an electronic integrator and with a flame ionization detector that has a sensitivity of at least 1×10^{-10} amperes: Hewlett-Packard 7600 or equivalent.

(b) Reagents. (1) Trifluoroacetic anhydride.

(2) Intestinal alkaline phosphatase.

(3) pH 9.0 borate buffer: Transfer 3.1 grams of boric acid into a 1-liter volumetric flask containing 500 milliliters of water, mix, and add 21 milliliters of 1.0*N* sodium hydroxide and 10 milliliters of 0.1*M* magnesium chloride. Dilute to volume with water and mix well.

(4) Internal standard: Prepare a chloroform solution containing approximately 0.45 milligram hexacosane per milliliter.

(5) Anhydrous sodium carbonate.

(c) Typical conditions. (1) Column: 2 feet × 3 millimeters ID, glass, with 1 percent SE-30 on Diaoport S (80/100 mesh), or equivalent. (2) Temperatures: Column, 180° C., detector, 215° C., injection port, ambient temperature. (3) Carrier gas: Helium approximately 60 milliliters per minute. (4) Detector: Hydrogen flame—hydrogen flow at 40 milliliters per minute. Air flow at 400 milliliters per minute. (5) Sensitivity: 1×10^{-9} amperes.

(d) Preparation of clindamycin phosphate sample solution. Accurately weigh approximately 12 milligrams of the clindamycin phosphate sample into a 50-milliliter glass-stoppered centrifuge tube. Pipet 25 milliliters of the pH 9.0 borate buffer into the centrifuge tube. Add 10 milliliters chloroform and shake vigorously for 15 minutes. Centrifuge the resulting mixture and pipet a 20-milliliter aliquot of the aqueous phase into a 35-milliliter centrifuge tube. Add a weighed amount of intestinal alkaline phosphatase equivalent to 50 units of activity [1] and allow the solution to stand until the enzyme has completely dissolved. Place the tube into a water bath at 37° C.±2° C. for 2.5 hours. After the 2.5-hour hydrolysis, allow the solution to cool and proceed as directed in paragraph (f) of this section.

(e) Preparation of the clindamycin hydrochloride standard solution. Accurately weigh approximately 9 milligrams of the clindamycin hydrochloride working standard into a 35-milliliter glass-stoppered centrifuge tube and dissolve in 20 milliliters of pH 9.0 borate buffer. Proceed as directed in paragraph (f) of this section.

(f) Procedure. Add 10 milliliters of the internal standard solution to each sample and standard solution. Shake the centrifuge tubes vigorously for 30 minutes and centrifuge. Remove the aqueous layer and discard. Shake the tubes again; mix in an ultrasonic mixer for 2 minutes, then centrifuge. No emulsion should be present at this stage. Remove the remaining aqueous layer by suction and transfer a 3-milliliter aliquot of the chloroform layer to a 1-dram tablet vial containing approximately 1 gram of anhydrous sodium sulfate. Swirl the vial to dry the chloroform and transfer a 1-milliliter aliquot to another 1-dram tablet vial. Using a 0.25-milliliter pipet, add 0.25 milliliter of trifluoracetic anhydride to each of the vials and place into a water bath at 45° C.±2° C. for 30 minutes. Remove the vials from the bath, add about 10 granules of anhydrous sodium carbonate to each vial, and allow to stand for approximately 30 minutes. Centrifuge the vials for approximately 10 minutes at 5,000 r.p.m. Inject 2 microliters of each of the resulting solutions into the gas chromatograph. Use the conditions and materials listed in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section. The elution order is: Internal standard, clindamycin, and epiclindamycin (if present). Calculate the clindamycin content as directed in paragraph (g) of this section.

(g) Calculations. Calculate the clindamycin content of the sample as follows:

$$\text{Micrograms of clindamycin per milligram} = \frac{R_s \times W_s \times f}{R_t \times W_s}$$

where:

R_s = Area of the clindamycin sample peak (at a retention time equal to that observed for the clindamycin standard); / Area of internal standard peak

R_t = Area of the clindamycin standard peak; / Area of internal standard peak

W_s = Weight of the clindamycin working standard in milligrams;

W_s = Weight of the sample in milligrams;

f = Potency of the clindamycin working standard in micrograms per milligram.

2. Part 149u is amended to provide for the certification of the antibiotic clindamycin phosphate by adding the following two new sections:

§ 149u.4 Sterile clindamycin phosphate.

(a) Requirements for certification—(1) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Sterile clindamycin phosphate is a water-soluble ester of clindamycin and phosphoric acid. It occurs as a white to off-white powder. It is so purified and dried that:

Its clindamycin content is satisfactory if it is not less than 90 percent and not more than 120 percent of the number of milligrams of clindamycin that it is represented to contain. It is sterile. It is nonpyrogenic. It passes the safety test. It contains no histamine nor histamine-like substances. Its pH is not less than 5.5 and not more than 7. The clindamycin phosphate used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 149u.4(a)(1).

(2) Labeling. It shall be labeled in accordance with the requirements of § 148.3 of this chapter.

(3) Requests for certification; samples. In addition to complying with the requirements of § 146.2 of this chapter, each such request shall contain:

(i) Results of tests and assays on:

(a) The clindamycin phosphate used in making the batch for clindamycin content, microbiological activity, moisture, pH, crystallinity, and identity.

(b) The batch for clindamycin content, sterility, pyrogens, safety, histamine, and pH.

(ii) Samples required:

(a) The clindamycin phosphate used in making the batch: 10 packages, each containing approximately 300 milligrams.

(b) The batch:

(1) For all tests except sterility: A minimum of 10 immediate containers.

(2) For sterility testing: 20 immediate containers, collected at regular intervals throughout each filling operation.

(b) Tests and methods of assay—(1) Clindamycin content (vapor phase chromatography). Proceed as directed in § 141.574 of this chapter, except prepare the sample for assay as follows: Shake the sample and dilute a portion with pH 9.0 borate buffer to obtain a solution containing the equivalent of approximately 0.4 milligram of clindamycin per milliliter. Place 25 milliliters of this solution into a 50-milliliter stoppered centrifuge tube. Add 10 milliliters of chloroform. Shake vigorously for 15 minutes and centrifuge. There should be no emulsion present after centrifugation. Transfer 20 milliliters of the aqueous phase from the tube into a 35-milliliter stoppered centrifuge tube. Add to the tube a weighed amount of intestinal alkaline phosphatase equivalent to 50 units of activity[1] and allow to stand until the phosphatase has dissolved completely. Place the centrifuge tube into a water bath at 37° C.±2° C. for 2.5 hours. After the 2.5-hour hydrolysis, allow the solution to cool.

(2) Sterility. Proceed as directed in § 141.2 of this chapter, using the method described in paragraph (e)(1) of that section.

(3) Pyrogens. Proceed as directed in § 141.4(a) of this chapter, using a solution containing the equivalent of 24 milligrams of clindamycin per milliliter.

(4) Safety. Proceed as directed in § 141.5 of this chapter.

(5) Histamine. Proceed as directed in § 141.7 of this chapter.

(6) pH. Proceed as directed in § 141.503 of this chapter, using the undiluted drug.

Since the conditions prerequisite to providing for certification of subject antibiotic have been complied with and since the matter is noncontroversial, notice and public procedures and delayed effective date are not prerequisites to this promulgation.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11–10–72).

PART 1005—PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICES FOR THE INVESTIGATION AND VOLUNTARY DISPOSITION OF LOSS AND DAMAGE CLAIMS AND PROCESSING SALVAGE

Processing of Loss and Damage Claims

Order. At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 15th day of September 1972.

Upon consideration of the record in the above-entitled proceeding, including the report and order at 340 I.C.C. 515, and of:

(1) Petition of the trustees of the property of the Penn Central Transportation Co., respondents, filed July 31, 1972, for waiver of Rule 101(e) of the Commission's general rules of practice, embracing a tendered petition for modification of paragraph 2 of 49 CFR 1005.3 (acknowledgment of claims);

(2) Petition (letter) of American Trucking Associations, Inc., on behalf of member motor common carriers of property, respondents, filed August 15, 1972, conditionally in support of the petition in (1) above;

It appearing, that although petitioners seek to have modified the second paragraph of 49 CFR 1005.3 assertedly in order better to accommodate the provisions thereof to their utilization of electronic computers, data recording media, and microfilm processes for recording and filing shipping orders and delivery receipts, their proposed modification would not be wholly consistent with the purposes intended to be served by said second paragraph (as specifically set forth in the answer to question No. 6 in the appendix to the order entered herein on Apr. 13, 1972); that, in addition, petitioners' proposals would serve only to disclose, and not prevent, duplicate claims payments; and that the modification of the said paragraph set forth in the third ordering paragraph below will enable the utilization of modern recordkeeping techniques in keeping with the original purposes and intent of the said rule, and is consistent with the public interest and the national transportation policy;

It further appearing, that the Commission has become aware of a growing concern that the present form of paragraph (c) of 49 CFR 1005.4 would allow carrier respondents arbitrarily to deny legitimate shortage claims and that modification thereof would therefore be in the public interest; and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That the tendered petitions be, and they are hereby, accepted for filing.

It is further ordered, That the petitions in (1) and (2) above be, and they are hereby, denied for the reasons that the requested modification of the order of February 3, 1972, served February 24, 1972, as modified, would not be in the public interest for the reasons expresed above.

It is further ordered, That the second paragraph of 49 CFR 1005.3 be, and it is hereby, modified by substituting in lieu thereof the following:

The carrier shall at the time each claim is received create a separate file and assign thereto a successive claim file number and note that number on all documents filed in support of the claim and all records and correspondence with respect to the claim, including the written acknowledgment of receipt. At the time such claim is received the carrier shall cause the date of receipt to be recorded on the face of the claim document, and the date of receipt shall also cause the claim file number to be noted appear in the carrier's written acknowledgment of receipt to the claimant. The carrier shall also cause the claim file number to be noted on the shipping order, if in its possession, and the delivery receipt, if any, covering such shipment, unless the carrier has established an orderly and consistent internal procedure for assuring (a) that all information contained in shipping orders, delivery receipts, tally sheets, and all other pertinent records made with respect to the transportation of the shipment on which claim is made, is available for examination upon receipt of a claim; (b) that all such records and documents (or true and complete reproductions thereof) are in fact examined in the course of the investigation of the claim (and an appropriate record is made that such examination has in fact taken place); and (c) that such procedures prevent the duplicate or otherwise unlawful payment of claims.

It is further ordered, That paragraph (c) of 49 CFR 1005.4 be, and it is hereby modified by substituting in lieu thereof the following:

(c) Verification of Loss. When an asserted claim for loss of an entire package or an entire shipment cannot be otherwise authenticated upon investigation, the carrier shall obtain from the consignee of the shipment involved a certified statement in writing that the property for which the claim is filed has not been received from any other source.

It is further ordered, That the modifications in the first and second preceding paragraphs be, and they are hereby, made effective on October 16, 1972, and shall apply to all claims received by respondents on and after that date.

It is further ordered, That Title 49 Subtitle B, Chapter X, Subchapter A, Part 1005, of the Code of Federal Regulations be, and it is hereby, amended in the manner set forth in the second and third preceding paragraphs. (Authority: 24 Stat. 380 (this section and subsequent citations designated with an asterisk, as amended), 383*, 386: 34 Stat. 595*, 44 Stat. 1450*; 49 Stat. 546*, 550*, 558*, 560*, 561*, 563*, 52 Stat. 1237; 54 Stat. 900, 922, 933, 934*, 935, 944*, 946; 56 Stat. 285, 286, 287, 294*, 295, 297, 746*; 62 Stat. 472; 63 Stat. 486; and 64 Stat. 1114*, 49 U.S.C. 1, 5, 5b, 6, 12, 20, 304, 305, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 904, 905, 906, 913, 916, 1003, 1004, 1005, 1009, 1012, 1013, and 1017.).

And it is further ordered, That notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

By the Commission.

NOTE: This decision is not a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

Secretary.

6. Section 1001.905–50 is amended by revising paragraphs (b), (d), (e), and (g) to read as follows:

§ 1001.905–50 Air Force contractor experience list.

* * * * *

(b) Purpose. The purpose of the AFCEL is to identify contractors, including nonappropriated fund contractors, who have not performed satisfactorily or who have encountered difficulties that might endanger future performance. The AFCEL alerts contracting officers to these difficulties prior to placing new business with listed contractors. It also serves to identify conditions which the contractor must correct to justify removal from the AFCEL.

* * * * *

(d) Reasons for listing contractors. Contractors with one or more of the following letter coded deficiencies will be considered for the AFCEL.

(1) Code D—Contractors who have a less than satisfactory record in meeting contract delivery schedules on one or more contracts.

(2) Code Q—Contractors who fail to meet quality standards established by the contract.

(3) Code T—Contractors who have had one or more contracts terminated for default.

(4) Code F—Contractors whose contract performance has become unsatisfactory because of financial problems.

(5) Code M—Contractors whose performance is considered unsatisfactory or whose responsibility is questioned for other specific reasons.

(e) Procedures. (1) The procedures outlined below apply to initial recommendations for AFCEL listing and also to the addition of codes to an already listed contractor. Both purchasing and contract administration offices, as well as nonappropriated fund purchasing offices, may initiate recommendations for the AFCEL. The purchasing office will coordinate the intended AFCEL action with the contract administration office, or vice versa, as applicable, and will obtain supporting information needed to substantiate the recommendation:

(2) To initiate an AFCEL case, the chief of the purchasing or contract administration office (or higher level authority as determined by the major command concerned) will notify the contractor by letter of the proposed AFCEL recommendation. For nonappropriated fund cases, the notification letter will be signed by the chief of the central purchasing office, or by the base commander, as appropriate. Notification letters to contractors will identify the specific deficiencies in performance or financial condition and, except as indicated below, request a reply within 15 days to permit the contractor to present reasons why he should not be recommended for AFCEL listing. For Code T and Code F (bankruptcy or receivership) no request for reply will be made. For Code F, other than bankruptcy or receivership, the contractor will be requested to reply.

(3) If the contractor does not respond within 15 days, or if the response is considered unsatisfactory, immediately advise the contractor that he is being recommended for the AFCEL. Simultaneously submit the recommendations to HQ USAF/LGP through procurement channels. Recommendations for Code T and for Code F (bankruptcy or receivership) will be submitted simultaneously with the issuance of the notification letter specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. The major command will forward the recommendation within 15 days to HQ USAF with concurrence/nonconcurrence unless there are valid reasons for delay.

(4) Recommendations should be brief, but complete and factual. Copies of contracts and other lengthy documents are normally not required. All recommendations should include at least the following information:

(i) Complete identity of contractor, including name of firm, name of president or owner, address, and product line. If only one part of a company is recommended, specifically identify and indicate the relationship to the parent office.

(ii) Purchasing and contract administration offices, including autovon phone number.

(iii) Code(s) for which the contractor is recommended. See paragraph (d) of this section.

(iv) Contract number, effective date, type of contract, dollar value, items covered, and unusual pertinent provisions.

(v) Brief narrative of contract requirements not met, and the contractor's actual performance, or other reasons for the recommended listing. If contractor's performance is considered less than satisfactory for only certain product lines or services, identify such qualification specifically in the recommendation.

(vi) Brief outline of previous corrective actions taken by the contracting officer, such as "show cause" or "cure" notices, including dates such actions were taken and results obtained.

(vii) State whether a preaward survey was conducted and if the recommendation was affirmative or negative.

(viii) Copy of notification(s) to contractor.

(ix) For Code D give original contract delivery dates and changes thereto, including reasons therefor, action taken to assure that delivery schedules are current and realistic, and a brief summary of the frequency, duration, and seriousness of late deliveries considered to be the fault of the contractor.

(x) For Code Q provide a brief current evaluation of the contractor's quality control system in addition to identifying the specific quality deficiency.

(xi) For Code T include reasons for the default termination and results of any appeal or other disposition of the case, if available.

(xii) For Code F describe how contractor's financial problems caused unsatisfactory contract performance. In cases of bankruptcy or receivership, provide latest known data.

(xiii) AFCEL recommendations from purchasing activities will include a copy of a statement from the cognizant contract administration office providing current performance evaluation on the specific contracts involved, pertinent overall performance, background information, and concurrence or nonconcurrence with the recommendation.

(5) The AFCEL Review Board at HQ USAF will review all recommendations prior to final approval by the Director of Procurement policy, HQ USAF/LGP.

(6) HQ USAF/LGP will advise the contractor by letter of the decision on AFCEL listing, with copies to all offices concerned.

(7) HQ USAF/LGP will publish an updated AFCEL quarterly and will distribute it to all major commands, DSA, and Navy for distribution to their procuring activities, including those dealing with nonappropriated funds. Interim changes will be published as required.

(8) AFCEL Review: (i) Each contractor on the current AFCEL will be reviewed by the recommending activity each quarter to keep the listing current and to determine if removal or retention is warranted. If the purchasing office is the recommending activity, contact the appropriate contract administration activity to obtain an evaluation of the contractor's current overall performance.

Promptly recommend removal when the contractor has corrected the deficiency for which he was placed on the AFCEL and no other major deficiencies exist. Specifically substantiate recommendations. If retention is recommended, also validate the letter coding.

(ii) Forward results of quarterly reviews by letter through procurement channels to arrive at HQ USAF/LGP by the 10th of February, May, August, and November of each year. HQ USAF/LGP will advise the contractor by letter if removal is approved, with copies to all offices concerned.

(iii) Recommend removal of a contractor who no longer has or seeks Government contracts after 1 year on the list unless there are valid reasons for retention.

(iv) Recommend removal of a contractor who is subsequently included in the Joint Consolidated List of Debarred, Ineligible, and Suspended Contractors (AFR 70–23).

(v) Do not recommend removal of a contractor who has appealed any matter which caused AFCEL listing, other than Code T, until final resolution of the appeal with the contractor's position substantially upheld.

(vi) Do not recommend removal of a contractor who has listed for Code T until the termination for default is converted to a termination for convenience, the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals substantially upholds the contractor's position, or until other contractor actions such as demonstrated improvement in overall delivery performance, financial condition or corrective action to preclude future default determinations for the same reason as that which caused AFCEL action, warrant removal consideration.

(vii) Do not recommend removal of a contractor who was listed under Code F for filing a petition of bankruptcy or for receivership until such proceedings have been completed and the contractor has reestablished his financial capability or has been legally dissolved.

(viii) Whenever a listed contractor changes his name or address promptly notify HQ USAF/LGP. Identify whether the new name or address replaces or is in addition to the present listing. This includes contractors listed on the Navy or DSA CELs.

(g) Letters to contractors. The following are formats for letters to contractor top management.

(1) Formats for initial notice to contractors for Codes D, Q, M and F (except bankruptcy or receivership).

Dear Mr. ---------- (president): The Air Force maintains a listing of contractors whose performance record or financial condition has been determined to be unsatisfactory. This list is the Air Force Contractor Experience List (AFCEL). Further information on the AFCEL is contained in Air Force ASPR Supplement 1–905.50.

This is to notify you that (recommending activity) considers the (performance or financial condition) of your company to be unsatisfactory for the following reasons: (State specific deficiencies). We are considering recommending your firm for placement on the AFCEL (or for placement on the AFCEL for deficiencies other than those currently listed), based on the above unsatisfactory conditions. However, you are being afforded the opportunity at this time to provide reasons why this action should not be taken. Please provide your written response to this office within 15 days.

Sincerely

(2) Format for notice to contractor of recommendation to HQ USAF.

(i) For Codes D, Q, M, and F (except bankruptcy or receivership).

Dear Mr. ---------- (president): Your response of (date) has been carefully reviewed (or: no response has been received to my letter of (date)) and the basis for recommending your firm for the Air Force Contractor Experience List (AFCEL) is still considered appropriate. Therefore, I have recommended that your firm be placed on the AFCEL. If approved by HQ USAF, your firm will be listed in the next AFCEL publication. Your listing will be carefully reviewed at least quarterly, and at such time as there is assurance that you have taken effective action to correct the unsatisfactory condition, we will recommend that your company be removed from the AFCEL.

Being listed on the AFCEL will not prevent your firm from bidding on or submitting proposals for future contracts. However, the list will alert contracting officers to companies whose performance or financial conditions has been determined to be currently unsatisfactory.

We sincerely hope that you soon correct the condition(s) that prompted this recommendation.

Sincerely

(ii) For Code T and F (bankruptcy or receivership).

Dear Mr. ---------- (president): The Air Force maintains a listing of contractors whose performance record or financial condition has been determined to be unsatisfactory. This is the Air Force Contractor Experience List (AFCEL). Further information regarding the AFCEL is contained in Air Force ASPR Supplement 1–905.50.

This is to notify you that the (recommending activity) considers the (performance or financial condition) of your company to be unsatisfactory for the following reasons: (State specific deficiencies). Therefore, I have recommended that your firm be placed on the AFCEL. If this recommendation is approved by HQ USAF, your firm will be listed in the next AFCEL publication. The basis for listing your firm will be carefully reviewed at least quarterly, and at such time as conditions warrant, we will recommend that the name of your company be removed from the AFCEL.

Being listed on the AFCEL will not prevent your firm from bidding on or submitting proposals for future contracts. However, the list will alert contracting officers to companies whose performance or financial condition has been determined to be currently unsatisfactory.

We sincerely hope that you correct the condition(s) that prompted this recommendation.

Sincerely

Title 6—ECONOMIC STABILIZATION

Chapter II—Pay Board

PART 201—STABILIZATION OF WAGES AND SALARIES

Prospective Discontinuance of Merit Exception

The purpose of the amendments set forth below is to provide for discontinuance of the exception with respect to qualified merit plans. The effect of this action is not to prevent merit plans from operating, but to require them to operate subject to the 5.5-percent general wage and salary standard.

Before taking this action, the Pay Board conducted a review of cases submitted to the Board during Phase II in order to assess the economic impact the merit exception has had on the goals of the Economic Stabilization Program. Further, the Board considered the fact that the full year's operation of the exception has served the purpose of accomplishing an orderly and equitable transition for employees under qualified merit plans into the control program. In view of these and other considerations, the Board has concluded that stabilization of wages and salaries can now be accomplished more effectively and equitably by eliminating the exception, thereby making merit plans—whether or not "qualified"—subject to the 5.5-percent general wage and salary standard and other applicable regulations.

Discontinuance of the merit exception is consistent with the Board's previous action in discontinuing the life of certain pay practices previously set forth. Under present Pay Board regulations such practices are scheduled to expire on November 13, 1972. This action is also consistent with the previous discontinuance of the exception for "catch-up" increases generally scheduled to expire on November 13, 1972.

In order to avoid disruptions in the course of current control years the discontinuance of the merit exception will not be effective until the start of the next control year for the appropriate employee unit involved. In a great many instances, this will be the calendar year beginning January 1, 1973. However, the merit exception will not be available for any control year beginning after November 13, 1972. Accordingly, appropriate employee units with control years beginning November 14, 1972, will be subject to the change in treatment for qualified merit plans.

Since these amendments are essential to the expeditious implementation of the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended, and Executive Order No. 11640, amended, the Board finds that the time for submission of written comments by interested persons in accordance with the usual rule making procedure is impracticable and that good cause exists for promulgating these amendments in Section 201.11(a)(5) is amended by revising subdivisions (i) and (iii) to read as follows:

§ 201.11 Criteria for exceptions.

(a) In general. * * *

(5) Merit increases—(i) Exception for qualified merit plans contained in successor employment contracts or successor pay practices. Wage and salary increases granted pursuant to a qualified merit plan (as defined in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph), provided for in an employment contract or pay practice previously set forth which existed prior to November 14, 1971, and which is continued in a successor employment contract or successor pay practice effective after November 13, 1971, without any changes of terms or administrative practice may (subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section) be permitted as an exception to the general wage and salary standard: Provided, however, That such exception shall apply only with respect to a control year beginning prior to November 14, 1972. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a change in the maximum or minimum terminal points of a pay rate range in a qualified merit plan shall not be deemed a change of terms if the ratio of such maximum to such minimum terminal point is not increased. For purposes of this subparagraph, a qualified merit plan provided for in a pay practice which meets all of the criteria set forth in the first sentence of this subdivision, except that such pay practice is not "previously set forth" within the meaning of § 201.14(b) because the aggregate amount to be expended cannot be documented as being finally and formally decided prior to November 14, 1971, shall be treated as a successor pay practice otherwise eligible for the exception provided in this subparagraph.

* * * * *

(iii) Special rules. Wage and salary increases granted pursuant to a merit plan provided for in an employment contract existing prior to November 14, 1971, and continued in a successor employment contract entered into prior to April 19, 1972, shall be excluded from the computation of the annual aggregate increase in the base-compensation rate in any control year beginning prior to November 14, 1972. Such merit plan may continue to operate according to the following rules: Any increases applied to a rate range under such merit pay plan shall be considered a general increase in wages and salaries under the regulations in this chapter. However, individual increases within the rate range under such plans shall not be considered a wage and salary increase under such regulations in any control year beginning prior to November 14, 1972.

Chapter III—Price Commission

PART 300—PRICE STABILIZATION

Delegation of Authority to District Directors of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Tex., and Austin, Tex.

The purpose of this amendment is to delegate authority to the District Directors of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Tex., and Austin, Tex., to make decisions and issue orders in price cases, consider and grant or deny exceptions to this part, review and determine the correctness of reported price increases, issue orders in connection therewith, and order and supervise investigations and make findings and determinations with respect thereto.

Section 300.507 currently limits the delegated authority of District Directors to cases involving exceptions for providers of health services and price Category III firms other than public utilities. Similarly, § 301.108(e) of the rent regulations delegates exception authority with respect to rents to District Directors.

It has been determined by the Commission that the Dallas and Austin District Offices should have the delegated authority, on a pilot basis, to handle the broad range of price and exceptions cases at places convenient to persons whose legal residence, principal place of business, or principal office or agency is located within their respective areas. Because of the Price Commission's desire to provide more convenient and expeditious service on price and exception matters, the delegation provides for the broad exercise of functions and duties respecting those matters for persons located in the Dallas and Austin Districts. The delegation will, unless extended, expire at the close of February 10, 1973.

This amendment has been approved by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to § 300.511.

Because the purpose of this amendment is to provide immediate guidance and information as to economic stabilization program matters, and procedures with respect thereto, it is hereby found that notice and public procedure thereon is impracticable and unnecessary and that good cause exists for making it effective less than 30 days after publication.

(Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended, Public Law 91-379, 84 Stat. 799, Public Law 91-558, 84 Stat. 1468; Public Law 92-8, 85 Stat. 13; Public Law 92-15, 85 Stat. 38; Economic Stabilization Act Amendments of 1971, Public Law 92-210; Executive Order No. 11640, 37 F.R. 1213, Jan. 27, 1972; Cost of Living Council Order No. 4, 36 F.R. 20202, Oct. 16, 1971)

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 300 of Title 6 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by adding the following new section after § 300.507, effective November 13, 1972:

§ 300.509 Authority of District Directors of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Tex., and Austin, Tex.

(a) There is hereby delegated to the District Directors of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Tex., and Austin, Tex., the authority to perform the following functions and duties with respect to firms whose legal residence, principal place of business, or principal office or agency is located within their respective districts:

(1) Make decisions and issue orders with respect to individual requests for price increases or adjustments.

(2) Consider, and grant or deny, in whole or in part, any request for an exception to any provision of this part.

(3) Review and determine the correctness of reported price increases or adjustments and issue appropriate orders with respect thereto.

(4) Order and supervise investigations to determine whether persons are in compliance with the regulations, decisions, and orders issued under this chapter, and make findings and determinations with respect thereto.

(b) This section expires at the close of February 10, 1973.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on November 7, 1972.

[SEAL] C. JACKSON GRAYSON, JR.,
Chairman, Price Commission.

Delegation approved: October 31, 1972.

Secretary of the Treasury.

PART 305—PROCEDURAL REGULATIONS

Appeals From Actions of District Directors of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Tex., and Austin, Tex.

The purpose of this amendment to § 305.21 of the regulations of the Price Commission is to provide that, during the period November 13, 1972, through February 10, 1973, appeals to the Price Commission from adverse actions, other than interpretations, by the District Directors of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Tex., and Austin, Tex., will not be permitted. Such appeals will, however, be authorized to the extent provided in Part 401 of Title 6 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Effective November 13, 1972, the Commission has delegated authority to the District Directors of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Tex., and Austin, Tex., on a pilot basis, to make decisions and issue orders in price cases, consider and grant or deny exceptions to Part 300 of the Price Commission regulations, review and determine the correctness of reported price increases, issue orders in connection therewith, and order and supervise investigations and make findings and determinations with respect thereto. The purpose of the delegation, which, unless extended, will expire at the close of February 10, 1973, is to determine the feasibility of providing expeditious service on price and exceptions matters to persons at a place convenient to their legal residences, principal place of business, or principal office or agency.

The amendment to § 305.21, proscribing appeal to the Commission from actions, other than interpretations, of the Texas District Directors, will insure that this pilot project is a realistic one and is in accordance with the Commission's intent that the Dallas, Tex., and Austin, Tex., District Directors, and other offices of the Internal Revenue Service, have full and final authority over the matters delegated.

Because the purpose of this amendment is to provide immediate guidance and information as to the procedures of the economic stabilization program, it is hereby found that notice and public procedure thereon is impracticable and unnecessary and that good cause exists for making it effective less than 30 days after publication.

(Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended, Public Law 91-379, 84 Stat. 799; Public Law 91-558; 84 Stat. 1468; Public Law 92-8, 85 Stat. 13; Public Law 92-15, 85 Stat. 38; Economic Stabilization Act Amendments of 1971, Public Law 92-210; Executive Order No. 11640, 37 F.R. 1213, Jan. 27, 1972; Cost of Living Council Order No. 4, 36 F.R. 20202, Oct. 16, 1971)

In consideration of the foregoing, § 305.21 of Part 305 of Title 6 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended to read as follows, effective November 13, 1972:

§ 305.21 Who may appeal.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, any person aggrieved by an adverse action by IRS or the Chief Counsel's Office for IRS, issued pursuant to Part 401 of this title, other than a person who seeks to appeal from a notice of violation or apparent liability issued by IRS under Part 401 of this title, may file an appeal with the Commission.

(b) No person aggrieved by an adverse action, other than an interpretation, by the District Directors of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Tex., or Austin, Tex., during the period beginning on November 13, 1972, and ending at the close of February 10, 1973, may file an appeal with the Commission.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on November 1, 1972.

General Counsel,
Price Commission.

Establishment of new part. Part 411—Temporary Procedural Rules Relating to Certain Internal Revenue Districts is added to Chapter IV, Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations. The purpose of this new part is to prescribe the procedures to be used by the Internal Revenue Service in exercising the delegation of authority granted by new Price Commission Reg. § 300.509, 37 F.R. 23914 (1972).

Because the purpose of these regulations is to provide immediate guidance as to procedures applicable after November 12, 1972, it is hereby found impracticable to issue this regulation with notice and public procedure thereon under 5 U.S.C., section 553(b), or subject to the effective date limitation of 5 U.S.C., section 553(d).

Title 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER A—INCOME TAX

[T.D. 7217]

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

Deductibility of Treble Damage Payments Under the Antitrust Laws

On May 27, 1971, notice of proposed rule making with respect to the amendment of the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) under sections 162, 212, and 471 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to conform the regulations to section 902 of the Tax Reform Act of 1969 (Public Law 91-172, 83 Stat. 710) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (36 F.R. 9637). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed under section 162(g) of such code, the amendments of the regulations as set forth in paragraphs 1 and 4 of the appendix to the notice of proposed rule making are hereby adopted subject to the changes set forth below:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 1.162-21, as set forth in paragraph 4 of the appendix to the notice of proposed rule making, is revised as set forth below.

PAR. 2. Section 1.162-22, as set forth in paragraph 4 of the appendix to the notice of proposed rule making, is amended by revising paragraph (a) as set forth below.

(Sec. 7805, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805)

[SEAL] JOHNNIE M. WALTERS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: November 6, 1972.

FREDRIC W. HICKMAN,
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

In order to conform the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) under section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to section 902 of the Tax Reform Act of 1969 (Public Law 91-172, 83 Stat. 710), such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 1.162 is amended by revising section 162(c), by redesignating section 162(f) as section 162(h), by inserting after section 162(e) new section 162 (f) and (g), and by revising the historical note. These amended and added provisions read as follows:

§ 1.162 Statutory provisions; trade or business expenses.

SEC. 162. Trade or business expenses. • • •

(c) Bribes and illegal kickbacks—(1) Illegal payments to government officials or employees. No deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) for any payment made, directly or indirectly, to an official or employee of any government, or of any agency or instrumentality of any government, if the payment constitutes an illegal bribe or kickback or, if the payment is to an official or employee of a foreign government, the payment would be unlawful under the laws of the United States if such laws were applicable to such payment and to such official or employee. The burden of proof in respect of the issue, for the purposes of this paragraph, as to whether a payment constitutes an illegal bribe or kickback (or would be unlawful under the laws of the United States) shall be upon the Secretary or his delegate to the same extent as he bears the burden of proof under section 7454 (concerning the burden of proof when the issue relates to fraud).

(2) Other bribes or kickbacks. If in a criminal proceeding a taxpayer is convicted of making a payment (other than a payment described in paragraph (1)) which is an illegal bribe or kickback, or his plea of guilty or nolo contendere to an indictment or information charging the making of such a payment is entered or accepted in such a proceeding, no deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) on account of such payment or any related payment made prior to the date of the final judgment in such proceeding.

(3) Statute of limitations. If a taxpayer claimed a deduction for a payment described in paragraph (2) which is disallowed because of a final judgment entered after the close of the taxable year for which the deduction was claimed, and if the proceeding was based on an indictment returned or an information filed prior to the expiration of the period for the assessment of any deficiency for such taxable year, the period for the assessment of any deficiency attributable to the deduction of such payment shall not expire prior to the expiration of one year from the date of such final judgment, and such deficiency may be assessed prior to the expiration of such one-year period notwithstanding the provision of any other law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment.

(f) Fines and penalties. No deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) for any fine or similar penalty paid to a government for the violation of any law.

(g) Treble damage payments under the antitrust laws. If in a criminal proceeding a taxpayer is convicted of a violation of the antitrust laws, or his plea of guilty or nolo contendere to an indictment or information charging such a violation is entered or accepted in such a proceeding, no deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) for two-thirds of any amount paid or incurred—

(1) On any judgment for damages entered against the taxpayer under section 4 of the Act entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes", approved October 15, 1914 (commonly known as the Clayton Act), on account of such violation or any related violation of the antitrust laws which occurred prior to the date of the final judgment of such conviction, or

(2) In settlement of any action brought under section 4 on account of such violation or related violation.

§ 1.162-21 [Reserved]

§ 1.162-22 Treble damage payments under the antitrust laws.

(a) In general. In the case of a taxpayer who after December 31, 1969, either is convicted in a criminal action of a violation of the Federal antitrust laws or enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to an indictment or information charging such a violation, and whose conviction or plea does not occur in a new trial following an appeal of a conviction on or before such date, no deduction shall be allowed under section 162(a) for two-thirds of any amount paid or incurred after December 31, 1969, with respect to—

(1) Any judgment for damages entered against the taxpayer under section 4 of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 15), as amended, on account of such violation or any related violation of the Federal antitrust laws, provided such related violation occurred prior to the date of the final judgment of such conviction, or

(2) Settlement of any action brought under such section 4 on account of such violation or related violation.

For the purposes of this section, where a civil judgment has been entered or a settlement made with respect to a violation of the antitrust laws and a criminal proceeding is based upon the same violation, the criminal proceeding need not have been brought prior to the civil judgment or settlement. If, in his return for any taxable year, a taxpayer claims a deduction for an amount paid or incurred with respect to a judgment or settlement described in the first sentence of this paragraph and is subsequently convicted of a violation of the antitrust laws which makes a portion of such amount unallowable, then the taxpayer shall file an amended return for such taxable year on which the amount of the deduction is appropriately reduced. Attorney's fees, court costs, and other amounts paid or incurred in connection with a controversy under such section 4 which meet the requirements of section 162 are deductible under that section. For purposes of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the amount paid or incurred in settlement shall not include amounts attributable to the plaintiff's costs of suit and attorney's fees, to the extent that such costs or fees have actually been paid.

(b) Conviction. For purposes of paragraph (a) of this section, a taxpayer is convicted of a violation of the antitrust laws if a judgment of conviction (whether or not a final judgment) with respect to such violation has been entered against him, provided a subsequent final judgment of acquittal has not been entered or criminal prosecution with respect to such violation terminated without a final judgment of conviction. During the pendency of an appeal or other action directly contesting a judgment of conviction, the taxpayer should file a protective claim for credit or refund to avoid being barred by the period of limitations on credit or refund under section 6511.

(c) Related violation. For purposes of this section, a violation of the Federal antitrust laws is related to a subsequent violation if (1) with respect to the subsequent violation the United States obtains both a judgment in a criminal proceeding and an injunction against the taxpayer, and (2) the taxpayer's actions which constituted the prior violation would have contravened such injunction if such injunction were applicable at the time of the prior violation.

(d) Settlement following a dismissal of an action or amendment of the complaint. For purposes of paragraph (a)(2) of this section, an amount may be considered as paid in settlement of an action even though the action is dismissed or otherwise disposed of prior to such settlement or the complaint is amended to eliminate the claim with respect to the violation or related violation.

(e) Antitrust laws. The term "antitrust laws" as used in section 162(g) and this section shall include the Federal acts enumerated in paragraph (1) of section 1 of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 12), as amended.

(f) Examples. The application of this section may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). In 1970, the United States instituted a criminal prosecution against X Co., Y Co., A, the president of X Co., and B, the president of Y Co., under section 1 of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, 15 U.S.C. 1. In the indictment, the defendants were charged with conspiring to fix and maintain prices of electrical transformers from 1965 to 1970. All defendants entered pleas of nolo contendere to these charges. These pleas were accepted and judgments of conviction entered. In a companion civil suit, the United States obtained an injunction prohibiting the defendants from conspiring to fix and maintain prices in the electrical transformer market. Thereafter, Z Co. sued X Co. and Y Co. for $300,000 in treble damages under section 4 of the Clayton Act. Z Co.'s complaint alleged that the criminal conspiracy between X Co. and Y Co. forced Z Co. to pay excessive prices for electrical transformers. X Co. and Y Co. each paid Z Co. $85,000 in full settlement of Z Co's action. Of each $85,000 paid, $10,000 was attributable to court costs and attorney's fees actually paid by Z Co. Under section 162(g), X Co. and Y Co. are each precluded from deducting as a trade or business expense more than $35,000 of the $85,000 paid to Z Co. in settlement

$$\left($10{,}000+\frac{$85{,}000-$10{,}000}{3}\right)$$

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1) except that Z Co.'s claim for treble damages was based on a conspiracy to fix and maintain prices in the sale of electrical transformers during 1983. Although the criminal prosecution of the defendants did not involve 1963 (a year barred by the applicable criminal statute of limitations when the prosecution was instituted), Z Co.'s pleadings alleged that the civil statute of limitations had been tolled by the defendants' fraudulent concealment of their conspiracy. Since the United States has obtained both a judgment in a criminal proceeding and an injunction against the defendants in connection with their activities from 1965 to 1970, and the alleged actions of the defendants in 1963 would have contravened such injunction if it were applicable in 1963, the alleged violation in 1963 is related to the violation from 1965 to 1970. Accordingly, the tax consequences to X Co. and Y Co. of the payments of $85,000 in settlement of Z Co.'s claim against X Co. and Y Co. are the same as in example (1).

Example (3). Assume the same facts as in example (1) except that Z Co.'s claim for treble damages was based on a conspiracy to fix and maintain prices with respect to electrical insulators for high-tension power poles. Since the civil action was not based on the same violation of the Federal antitrust laws as the criminal action, or on a related violation (a violation which would have contravened the injunction if it were applicable), X Co. and Y Co. are not precluded by section 162(g) from deducting as a trade or business expense the entire $85,000 paid by each in settlement of the civil action.

PART 3—CAPITAL CONSTRUCTION FUND

Deposits

The following regulations relate to the application of section 607 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936 (46 U.S.C. 1177) as amended by section 21(a) of the Merchant Marine Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 1026) and to the requirement thereof with respect to deposits in capital construction funds for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1970, and before January 1, 1972. The regulations set forth herein are temporary and are designed to provide transitional rules with respect to deposits in capital construction funds for such years. The regulations are effective until the issuance of final regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and approved by the Secretary or his delegate and prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce or his delegate. These regulations have been issued jointly by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Commerce and also appear under 46 CFR Part 390.

In order to extend the time within which deposits may be made in capital construction funds with respect to income reported on certain taxpayer's 1971 Federal income tax returns, § 3.1 of chapter I of 26 CFR is amended by redesignating paragraph (c) thereof as paragraph (c)(1) and by adding a new subparagraph (2) to such paragraph (c), to read as follows:

§ 3.1 Capital construction fund.

(c)(1) • • •

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1970, and ending prior to January 1, 1972, deposits made later than the last date permitted under subpararaph (1) of this paragraph but on or before January 9, 1973, in a capital construction fund pursuant to an agreement with the Secretary of Commerce, acting by and through the Administrator of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, shall be deemed to have been made on the date of the actual deposit or as of the close of business of the last regular business day of such taxable year, whichever is earlier.

• • • • •

Because this Treasury decision merely extends the time within which certain deposits into a capital construction fund may be made it is found unnecessary to issue it with notice and public procedure thereon under subsection (b) of section 553 of title 5 of the United States Code or subject to the effective date limitation of subsection (d).

[T.D. 7215]

Subpart I—Tax on Investment Income of and Denial of Exemption to Certain Private Foundations

Deductibility of Treble Damage Payments Under the Antitrust Laws

On May 27, 1971, notice of proposed rule making with respect to the amendment of the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) under sections 162, 212, and 471 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to conform the regulations to section 902 of the Tax Reform Act of 1969 (Public Law 91-172, 83 Stat. 710) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (36 F.R. 9637). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed under section 162(g) of such code, the amendments of the regulations as set forth in paragraphs 1 and 4 of the appendix to the notice of proposed rule making are hereby adopted subject to the changes set forth below:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 1.162-21, as set forth in paragraph 4 of the appendix to the notice of proposed rule making, is revised as set forth below.

PAR. 2. Section 1.162-22, as set forth in paragraph 4 of the appendix to the notice of proposed rule making, is amended by revising paragraph (a) as set forth below.

(Sec. 7805, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805)

[SEAL] JOHNNIE M. WALTERS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: November 6, 1972.

FREDRIC W. HICKMAN,
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

In order to conform the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) under section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to section 902 of the Tax Reform Act of 1969 (Public Law 91-172, 83 Stat. 710), such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 1.162 is amended by revising section 162(c), by redesignating section 162(f) as section 162(h), by inserting after section 162(e) new section 162 (f) and (g), and by revising the historical note. These amended and added provisions read as follows:

§ 1.162 Statutory provisions; trade or business expenses.

SEC. 162. Trade or business expenses. • • •

(c) Bribes and illegal kickbacks—(1) Illegal payments to government officials or employees. No deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) for any payment made, directly or indirectly, to an official or employee of any government, or of any agency or instrumentality of any government, if the payment constitutes an illegal bribe or kickback or, if the payment is to an official or employee of a foreign government, the payment would be unlawful under the laws of the United States if such laws were applicable to such payment and to such official or employee. The burden of proof in respect of the issue, for the purposes of this paragraph, as to whether a payment constitutes an illegal bribe or kickback (or would be unlawful under the laws of the United States) shall be upon the Secretary or his delegate to the same extent as he bears the burden of proof under section 7454 (concerning the burden of proof when the issue relates to fraud).

(2) Other bribes or kickbacks. If in a criminal proceeding a taxpayer is convicted of making a payment (other than a payment described in paragraph (1)) which is an illegal bribe or kickback, or his plea of guilty or nolo contendere to an indictment or information charging the making of such a payment is entered or accepted in such a proceeding, no deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) on account of such payment or any related payment made prior to the date of the final judgment in such proceeding.

(f) Fines and penalties. No deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) for any fine or similar penalty paid to a government for the violation of any law.

(g) Treble damage payments under the antitrust laws. If in a criminal proceeding a taxpayer is convicted of a violation of the antitrust laws, or his plea of guilty or nolo contendere to an indictment or information charging such a violation is entered or accepted in such a proceeding, no deduction shall be allowed under subsection (a) for two-thirds of any amount paid or incurred—

(2) In settlement of any action brought under section 4 on account of such violation or related violation.

After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, the amendment of the regulations as proposed is hereby adopted, subject to the changes set forth below:

Subpart I—Tax on Investment Income of and Denial of Exemption to Certain Foreign Organizations

§ 53.4948 Statutory provisions; tax on investment income and denial of exemption.

SEC. 4948. Application of taxes and denial of exemption with respect to certain foreign organizations.—(a) Tax on income of certain foreign organizations. In lieu of the tax imposed by section 4940, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year on the gross investment income (within the meaning of section 4940(c)(2)) derived from sources within the United States (within the meaning of section 861) by every foreign organization which is a private foundation for the taxable year a tax equal to 4 percent of such income.

(b) Certain sections inapplicable. Section 507 (relating to termination of private foundation status), section 508 (relating to special rules with respect to section 501(c)(3) organizations), and this chapter (other than this section) shall not apply to any foreign organization which has received substantially all of its support (other than gross investment income) from sources outside the United States.

(c) Denial of exemption to foreign organizations engaged in prohibited transactions.—(1) General rule. A foreign organization described in subsection (b) shall not be exempt from taxation under section 501(a) if it has engaged in a prohibited transaction after December 31, 1969.

(2) Prohibited transactions. For purposes of this subsection, the term "prohibited transactions" means any act or failure to act (other than with respect to section 4942(e)) which would subject a foreign organization described in subsection (b), or a disqualified person (as defined in section 4946) with respect thereto, to liability for a penalty under section 6684 or a tax under section 507 if such foreign organization were a domestic organization.

(3) Taxable years affected.

(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), a foreign organization described in subsection (b) shall be denied exemption from taxation under section 501(a) by reason of paragraph (1) for all taxable years beginning with the taxable year during which it is notified by the Secretary or his delegate that it has engaged in a prohibited transaction. The Secretary or his delegate shall publish such notice in the Federal Register on the day on which he so notifies such foreign organization.

(B) Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, any foreign organization described in subsection (b) which is denied exemption from taxation under section 501(a) by reason of paragraph (1) may, with respect to the second taxable year following the taxable year in which notice is given under subparagraph (A) (or any taxable year thereafter), file claim for exemption from taxation under section 501(a). If the Secretary or his delegate is satisfied that such organization will not knowingly again engage in a prohibited transaction, such organization shall not, with respect to taxable years beginning with the taxable year with respect to which such claim is filed, be denied exemption from taxation under section 501(a) by reason of any prohibited transaction which was engaged in before the date on which such notice was given under subparagraph (A).

(4) Disallowance of certain charitable deductions. No gift or bequest shall be allowed as a deduction under section 170, 545(b)(2), 556(b)(2), 642(c), 2055, 2106(a)(2), or 2522, if made—

(A) to a foreign organization described in subsection (b) after the date on which the Secretary or his delegate publishes notice under paragraph (3)(A) that he has notified such organization that it has engaged in a prohibited transaction, and

(B) in a taxable year of such organization for which it is not exempt from taxation under section 501(a) by reason of paragraph (1).

[Sec. 4948 as added by sec. 101(b), Tax Reform Act 1969 (83 Stat. 518)]

§ 53.4948-1 Application of taxes and denial of exemption with respect to certain foreign organizations.

(a) Tax on income of certain foreign organizations. (1) In lieu of the tax imposed by section 4940 and the regulations thereunder, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1969, on the gross investment income (within the meaning of section 4940(c)(2) and the regulations thereunder) derived from sources within the United States (within the meaning of section 861 and the regulations thereunder) by every foreign organization which is a private foundation (within the meaning of section 509 and the regulations thereunder) and exempt from taxation under section 501(a) for the taxable year a tax equal to 4 percent of such income, except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph. The tax (if any) will be reported on the form the foundation is required to file under section 6033 for the taxable year, at the time prescribed for filing such annual return (determined without regard to any extension of time for filing). For purposes of this section, the term "foreign organization" means any organization which is not described in section 170(c)(2)(A).

(2) With respect to the deduction and withholding of tax imposed by section 4948(a), see section 1443(b) and the regulations thereunder.

(3) Whenever there exists a tax treaty between the United States and a foreign country, and a foreign private foundation subject to section 4948(a) is a resident of such country or is otherwise entitled to the benefits of such treaty (whether or not such benefits are available to all residents), if the treaty provides that any item or items (or all items with respect to an organization exempt from income taxation) of gross investment income (within the meaning of section 4940(c)(2)) shall be exempt from income tax, such item or items shall not be taken into account by such foundation in computing the tax to be imposed under section 4943(a) for any taxable year for which the treaty is effective.

(b) Certain sections inapplicable. Section 507 (relating to termination of private foundation status), section 508 (relating to special rules with respect to section 501(c)(3) organizations), and chapter 42 (other than section 4948) of the Code shall not apply to any foreign organization which from the date of its creation has received at least 85 percent of its support (as defined in section 509(d), other than section 509(d)(4)) from sources outside the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, gifts, grants, contributions, or membership fees directly or indirectly from a United States person (as defined in section 7701(a)(30)) are from sources within the United States.

(c) Denial of exemption to foreign organizations engaged in prohibited transactions.—(1) In general. A foreign private foundation described in section 4948(b) and paragraph (b) of this section shall not be exempt from taxation under section 501(a) if it has engaged in a prohibited transaction (within the meaning of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) after December 31, 1969.

(2) Prohibited transactions. (i) For purposes of this section, the term "prohibited transaction" means any act or failure to act (other than with respect to section 4942(e), relating to minimum investment return) which would subject a foreign private foundation described in paragraph (b) of this section, or a disqualified person (as defined in section 4946) with respect thereto, to liability for a penalty under section 6684 (relating to assessable penalties with respect to liability for tax under chapter 42) or a tax under section 507 (relating to termination of private foundation status) if such foreign private foundation were a domestic private foundation.

(ii) For purposes of subdivision (i) of this subparagraph—

(a) Approval by an appropriate foreign government of grants by the foreign private foundation to individuals is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of section 4945(g) and the regulations thereunder.

(b) In determining whether a grantee of the foreign organization is a private foundation which is not an operating foundation for purposes of section 4942(g)(1)(A)(ii) or is an organization which is not described in section 509(a)(1), (2), or (3) for purposes of section 4945(d)(4) and (h), a determination made by such foreign organization will be accepted if such determination is made in good faith after a reasonable effort to identify the status of its grantee.

(iii) For purposes of subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, in order for an act or failure to act (without regard to section 4942(e)) to be treated as a prohibited transaction under section 4948(c)(2) by reason of the application of section 6684(1), there must have been a prior act or failure to act (without regard to section 4942(e)), which—

(a) Would have resulted in liability for tax under chapter 42 (other than section 4940 or 4948(a)) if the foreign private foundation had been a domestic private foundation, and

(b) Had been the subject of a warning from the Commissioner that a second act or failure to act (without regard to section 4942(e)) would result in a prohibited transaction.

The second act or failure to act (with respect to which a warning described in subparagraph (3)(i) of this paragraph is given) need not be related to the prior act or failure to act with respect to which a warning from the Commissioner was given under (b) of this subdivision.

(3) Taxable years affected. (i) Except as provided in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, a foreign private foundation described in paragraph (b) of this section shall be denied exemption from taxation under section 501(a) by reason of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for all taxable years beginning with the taxable year during which it is notified by the Commissioner that it has engaged in a prohibited transaction. The Commissioner shall publish such notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER on the day on which he so notifies such foreign private foundation. In the case of an act or failure to act (without regard to section 4942(e)) which would result in a penalty under section 6684(1) if the foreign private foundation were a domestic private foundation, before giving notice under this subdivision the Commissioner shall warn such foreign private foundation that such act or failure to act may be treated as a prohibited transaction. However, such act or failure to act will not be treated as a prohibited transaction if it is corrected (within the meaning of chapter 42 and the regulations thereunder) within 90 days after the making of such warning.

(ii) (a) Any foreign private foundation described in paragraph (b) of this section which is denied exemption from taxation under section 501(a) by reason of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may, with respect to the second taxable year following the taxable year in which notice is given under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph (or any taxable year subsequent to such second taxable year), file a request for exemption from taxation under section 501(a) on Form 1023. In addition to the information generally required of an organization requesting exemption as an organization described in section 501(a), a request under this subdivision must contain or have attached to it a written declaration, made under the penalties of perjury, by a principal officer of such organization authorized to make such declaration, that the organization will not knowingly again engage in a prohibited transaction.

(b) If the Commissioner is satisfied that such organization will not knowingly again engage in a prohibited transaction and that the organization has satisfied all other requirements under section 501, the organization will be so notified in writing. In such case the organization shall not, with respect to taxable years beginning with the taxable year with respect to which a request under this subdivision is filed, be denied exemption from taxation under section 501(a) by reason of any prohibited transaction which was engaged in before the date on which notice was given under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph. Section 4948(c) provides that an organization denied exemption under such section will not be exempt from taxation under section 501(a) for the taxable year in which notice of loss of exemption is given and at least one immediately subsequent taxable year.

(d) Disallowance of certain charitable deductions. No gift, bequest, legacy, devise, or transfer shall be allowed as a deduction under section 170, 545(b)(2), 556(b)(2), 642(c), 2055, 2106(a)(2), or 2522, if made:

(1) To a foreign private foundation described in paragraph (b) of this section after the date on which the Commissioner publishes notice under paragraph (c)(3)(i) of this section that he has notified such organization that it has engaged in a prohibited transaction, and

(2) In a taxable year of such organization for which it is not exempt from taxation under section 501(a) by reason of paragraph (c)(1) of this section.

For purposes of this paragraph, a bequest, legacy, devise, or transfer under section 2055 or 2106(a)(2) shall be treated as made on the date of death of the decedent. For example, assume that an individual gives money to a foreign private foundation described in section 4948(b) in January 1970, January 1971, and January 1972. The organization has a taxable year from June 1 through May 31. In February 1970, notice is duly published that the foreign organization has engaged in a prohibited transaction. In December 1970, the organization duly submits a request for exemption under paragraph (c)(3)(ii)(a) of this section which is granted for the taxable year ending May 31, 1972. The January 1970 gift is allowable as a deduction under section 2522 since it was made before the notice (February 1970). The January 1971 gift is not allowable as a deduction because the taxable year ending May 31, 1971, is a nonexempt year (the first taxable year subsequent to the taxable year of the notice) for the foreign organization. The January 1972 gift is allowable as a deduction under section 2522 because the taxable year ending May 31, 1972, is an exempt year for the organization.

(a) The General Counsel shall assign each request to the ACTION Classification Review Committee which will consist of the Associate Director of International Operations, the Director of Public Affairs, and the General Counsel and will be chaired by the Associate Director of International Operations.

(b) Every effort will be made to complete action on each request within 30 days of receipt of the request. If action cannot be completed within 30 days, the requester will be so advised by the General Counsel along with reasons for the need for additional time. If the requester does not receive a decision on his request within 60 days from the date of receipt of his request by ACTION, or from the date of the most recent receipt of his response to an ACTION request for more particulars, he may appeal to the Interagency Classification Review Committee as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) In the event the ACTION Classification Review Committee determines that requested information must remain classified by reason of the provisions of Executive Order 11652, the requester shall be given prompt notification of that decision and whenever possible shall be provided with a brief statement as to why the information or material cannot be declassified. He shall also be advised that if he desires he may appeal that determination to the Interagency Classification Review Committee established under section 7A of Executive Order 11652. Such appeals should be in writing and addressed to the Interagency Classification Review Committee, Executive Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20500.

(d) For purposes of administrative determinations under this section, the burden of proof is on ACTION to show that continued classification is required under the terms of Executive Order 11652.

JOSEPH H. BLATCHFORD,
Director.

[26 CFR Parts 1, 13]

FOREIGN PRIVATE FOUNDATIONS

Withholding of Tax

Notice is hereby given that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing (preferably six copies) to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: CC:LR:T, Washington, D.C. 20224, by December 12, 1972. Any written comments or suggestions not specifically designated as confidential in accordance with 26 CFR 601.601(b) may be inspected by any person upon written request. Any person submitting written comments or suggestions who desires an opportunity to comment orally at a public hearing on these proposed regulations should submit his request, in writing, to the Commissioner by December 12, 1972. In such case, a public hearing will be held, and notice of the time, place, and date will be published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER, unless the person or persons who have requested a hearing withdraw their requests for a hearing before notice of the hearing has been filed with the Office of the Federal Register. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805).

[SEAL] JOHNNIE M. WALTERS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to provide rules for the withholding of the tax imposed by section 4948(a) of the Code, the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) under section 1443(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 101(j)(22)(B) of the Tax Reform Act of 1969 (83 Stat. 528), relating to income subject to section 4948, are hereby amended. Temporary Treasury Regulation 13.14, 35 F.R. 17331 (T.D. 7067, 1970) is repealed.

Section 1.1443-1 is amended by adding thereto a new paragraph (b). This added provision reads as follows:

§ 1.1443-1 Foreign tax-exempt organizations.

* * * * *

(b) Income subject to section 4948—(1) In general—(i) Application of withholding provisions. Except as provided in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, in the case of a foreign private foundation which is subject to the tax imposed by section 4948(a) and the regulations thereunder, the withholding provisions of Chapter 3 of the Code and the regulations thereunder shall apply with respect to the gross investment income (as defined in section 4940(c)(2)) of such foundation from sources within the United States (within the meaning of section 861 and the regulations thereunder) as if the excise tax imposed by section 4948(a) were a tax imposed by Chapter 3 of the Code, except that the deduction and withholding shall be at the rate of 4 percent. The withholding requirements imposed by this paragraph are in addition to the requirements otherwise applicable to a withholding agent, such as the depositary requirements of section 6302 and the regulations thereunder. Similarly, the requirements of this paragraph do not obviate a private foundation's obligation to file any return required by law with respect to such an organization, such as the form the foundation is required to file under section 6033 for the taxable year.

(ii) Special rule with respect to certain tax treaties. Whenever there exists a tax treaty between the United States and a foreign country, and a foreign private foundation which is subject to the tax imposed by section 4948(a) and the regulations thereunder is a resident of such country or is otherwise entitled to the benefits of such treaty (whether or not such benefits are available to all residents), if the treaty provides that any item or items (or all items with respect to an organization exempt from income taxation) of gross investment income (within the meaning of section 4940(c)(2)) shall be exempt from income tax, the withholding provisions of Chapter 3 of the Code and the regulations thereunder shall not apply to such item or items.

(2) Return on Form 1042. Every withholding agent required to deduct and withhold any amount by virtue of the provisions of this paragraph shall make a return of the amount required to be deducted and withheld by completing and filing a Form 1042 with the Internal Revenue Service in accordance with the instructions accompanying that form and submitting the balance due (if any). In addition, in any case in which any amount is so withheld, the withholding agent shall prepare and submit to the foreign private foundation one of the copies of the Form 1042S showing the tax withheld under this paragraph in addition to any tax otherwise shown on such form.

(3) Claims for refund and credits. Claims for refund of or credit for amounts overpaid shall be made on a Form 843 or 1042 or other appropriate form, which shall be filed with the Mid-Atlantic Service Center on or after January 1, 1973. Claims filed prior to January 1, 1973, shall be filed with the Director of International Operations. In determining whether a claim for refund is appropriate and, if appropriate, who should make the claim, the provisions of section 1464 and the regulations thereunder shall apply.

(4) Identification of foreign private foundations; general rule. (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (6) of this paragraph, where a foreign organization does not have a ruling or determination letter that it is an organization described in section 509(a)(1), (2), (3), or (4), any person required under section 1443(b) and this paragraph to deduct and withhold any tax imposed by section 4948(a) on such foreign organization (if it were a private foundation) shall not be liable for such tax if prior to the day on which the person deposits or pays to the Internal Revenue Service any amount required to be withheld, such person has made a good faith determination that the foreign organization is an organization described in section 509(a)(1), (2), (3), or (4). For purposes of this subdivision, such a "good faith determination" ordinarily will be considered as made where the determination is based on an affidavit of the foreign organization or an opinion of counsel (of the withholding agent or the foreign organization) that the foreign organization is an organization described in section 509(a)(1), (2), (3), or (4). Such an affidavit or opinion must set forth sufficient facts concerning the operations and support of the foreign organization for the Internal Revenue Service to determine that such organization would be likely to qualify as an organization described in section 509(a)(1), (2), (3), or (4).

(ii) For special transitional rules relating to the identification of foreign private foundations, see subparagraph (5) of this paragraph.

(iii) Nothing in this paragraph relieves any foreign private foundation of the liability for the tax (including interest and penalties) imposed by section 4948(a).

(5) Special transitional rules relating to identification of foreign private foundations. (i) Any person required under section 1443(b) and this paragraph to deduct and withhold any tax imposed by section 4948(a) on any foreign organization for any period after December 31, 1969, and before the 90th day after publication of final regulations under section 508 in the FEDERAL REGISTER shall not be liable for such tax if such person receives a certified statement from the foreign organization prior to the day on which with the approval of the Secretary of the Code, or to postpone or interfere

Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the payment of the tax or any installment thereof unless specified to the con- a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, the addition to the tax will not organization prior to the day on which the person deposits or pays to the Internal Revenue Service any amount required to be withheld stating that either—

(a) Such foreign organization has properly filed the notice described in section 508(b) and the regulations thereunder and has not been notified by the Commissioner or his delegate by the 30th day after the day on which the notice is filed that such notice has failed to establish that such foreign organization is not a private foundation, or

(b) The presumption contained in section 508(b) does not apply to such foreign organization by reason of section 508(c) and the regulations thereunder.

(ii) If a certified statement described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph is not received prior to the day on which a deposit or payment of any amount withheld in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph must be made by any person required to deduct and withhold any tax imposed by section 4948(a) with respect to any foreign organization, except as provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph such person shall be liable for all such tax imposed (including interest and penalties) for the period being returned by such person on Form 1042, to the extent that such person incurs liability to the foreign organization for gross investment income, as defined in section 4940(c)(2).

(iii) Any foreign organization to which section 508 by reason of section 4948(b) does not apply because such organization has received substantially all of its support (other than gross investment income, as defined in section 4940(c)(2)) from sources outside the United States may nevertheless receive the benefits of subdivision (i) of this subparagraph by following the procedure set forth in such subdivision.

(6) Effect of notice by Internal Revenue Service concerning organization's statement. Subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph shall have no effect with respect to a withholding agent as to a particular foreign organization on or after the earlier (i) the date on which such agent acquires knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service has given notice to such foreign organization that its notice or statement has failed to establish that it is not a private foundation, (ii) the date on which the Internal Revenue Service makes notice to the public that such foreign organization has failed to establish that it is not a private foundation, or (iii) the date on which the Internal Revenue Service makes notice to the public that such foreign organization is a private foundation.

REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION OF REGISTRATIONS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing (preferably six copies) to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: CC:LR:T, Washington, D.C. 20224, by December 12, 1972. Any written comments or suggestions not specifically designated as confidential in accordance with 26 CFR 601.601(b) may be inspected by any person upon written request. Any person submitting written comments or suggestions who desires an opportunity to comment orally at a public hearing on these proposed regulations should submit his request, in writing, to the Commissioner by December 12, 1972. In such case, a public hearing will be held, and notice of the time, place, and date will be published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER unless the person or persons who have requested a hearing withdraw their requests for a hearing before notice of the hearing has been filed with the Office of the Federal Register. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 4222(c) and 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (72 Stat. 1285, 68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 4222(c) and 7805).

[SEAL] JOHNNIE M. WALTERS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to prescribe temporary rules relating to the revocation or suspension of the registration of any person to sell or purchase articles free of any tax imposed under Chapter 32 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, § 148.1–3 of the temporary regulations under the Excise Tax Technical Changes Act of 1958 (26 CFR Part 148) is amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph (j) which reads as follows:

§ 148.1–3 Temporary procedures for tax-free sales and purchases.

* * * * *

(j) Revocation or suspension of registration—(1) Revocation or suspension by district director or Director of International Operations. Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the district director or the Director of International Operations, as the case may be, is authorized to revoke or temporarily suspend the registration of any person and the right of such person to sell or purchase articles tax free under section 4221 of the Code (or under any section specified in section 4222(d) to which the provisions of section 4222 have been extended) in any case in which he finds that—

(i) The registrant is not a bona fide manufacturer, or a purchaser reselling direct to manufacturers or exporters;

(ii) The registrant is for some other reason (including a change in the law relating to an exemption to which section 4222 applies) not eligible to retain a certificate of registry;

(iii) The registrant has unlawfully used his registration to avoid the payment of any tax imposed by Chapter 32 of the Code, or to postpone or interfere in any manner with the collection of such tax;

(iv) Such revocation or suspension is necessary to protect the revenue; or

(v) The registrant failed to comply with the requirements of paragraph (f) of this section, relating to evidence required in support of a tax-free sale.

Written notice of such revocation or suspension shall be sent by mail to the registrant's last known address. Such notice shall specify the grounds for the revocation or suspension and state the effective date of revocation or suspension. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (e) (1) or (2) of this section, any person whose registration is revoked or suspended must reregister in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e)(3) of this section before selling or purchasing articles tax free on or after the effective date of revocation or suspension. The revocation or suspension of registration is in addition to any penalty which may apply under the law for any act or failure to act.

(2) Blanket revocation and reregistration. The Commissioner is authorized to revoke the registration of every person and the right of every person to sell or purchase articles tax free under section 4221 of the Code (or under any section specified in section 4222(d) to which the provisions of section 4222 have been extended) when he finds that a blanket revocation is necessary to protect the revenue. Notice of blanket revocation shall be given by publication of such notice in the Internal Revenue Bulletin at least 60 days prior to the effective date of revocation. Notwithstanding the first sentence of this paragraph, the published notice may specify that the blanket revocation is to apply only to registrations made prior to a particular date provided in such notice, and may limit application of the blanket revocation to a defined group or classification of persons who are registered to sell or purchase tax free under any exemption provision to which section 4222 applies. In any case, persons registering during the period beginning with the date of publication of notice of revocation and ending with the effective date shall be excluded from the blanket revocation. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (e) (1) or (2) of this section, persons who are affected by the blanket revocation shall be required to reregister in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e)(3) of this section before selling or purchasing articles tax free on or after the effective date of revocation.

PROCEDURE AND ADMINISTRATION

Extension of Time for Corporations To Pay Tax

Notice is hereby given that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing (preferably six copies) to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: CC:LR:T, Washington, D.C. 20224, by December 12, 1972. Any person submitting written comments or suggestions who desires an opportunity to comment orally at a public hearing on these proposed regulations should submit his request, in writing, to the Commissioner by December 12, 1972. In such case, a public hearing will be held, and notice of the time, place, and date will be published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER, unless the person or persons who have requested a hearing withdraw their request for a hearing before notice of the hearing has been filed with the Office of the Federal Register. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805).

[SEAL] JOHNNIE M. WALTERS,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to provide that an automatic extension of time to file a corporation income tax return does not operate to extend the time for payment of tax due on such return and to specify that reasonable cause for any underpayment of such tax will be presumed if certain conditions are satisfied, the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) under sections 6081 and 6161 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the Procedure and Administration Regulations (26 CFR Part 301) under section 6651 of such code are hereby amended as follows, effective for returns with respect to taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1972:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 1.6081–1 is amended by revising paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 1.6081–1 Extension of time for filing returns.

(a) In general. District directors and directors of service centers are authorized to grant a reasonable extension of time for filing any return, declaration, statement, or other document which relates to any tax imposed by Subtitle A of the code and which is required under the provisions of Subtitle A or F of the code or the regulations thereunder. However, other than in the case of taxpayers who are abroad, such extensions of time shall not be granted for more than 6 months. Except in the case of an extension of time pursuant to § 1.6081–2, an extension of time for filing an income-tax return shall not operate to extend the time for the payment of the tax or any installment thereof unless specified to the contrary in the extension. In the case of an extension of time pursuant to § 1.6081–2, an extension of time for filing an income-tax return shall operate to extend the time for the payment of the tax or any installment thereof unless specified to the contrary in the extension. For extension of time for filing of declarations of estimated tax, see § 1.6073–4. For rules relating to extension of time for paying tax, see § 1.6161–1.

* * * * *

PAR. 2. Section 1.6081–3 is amended by redesignating paragraph (c) as paragraph (d) and by adding a new paragraph (c) reading as follows:

§ 1.6081–3 Automatic extension of time for filing corporation income tax returns.

* * * * *

(c) Special rule for the extension of time for the payment of tax. Notwithstanding the application of § 1.6081–1(a), any automatic extension of time for filing a corporation income tax return granted under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall not operate to extend the time for payment of any tax due on such return.

* * * * *

§ 1.6161–1 [Amended]

PAR. 3. Section 1.6161–1 is amended by deleting paragraph (a)(3).

PAR. 4. Section 301.6651–1 is amended by revising subparagraph (1) of paragraph (c) and by adding a new subparagraph (4) to such paragraph, to read as follows:

§ 301.6651–1 Failure to file tax return or to pay tax.

* * * * *

(c) Showing of reasonable cause. (1) Except as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, a taxpayer who wishes to avoid the addition to the tax for failure to file a tax return or pay tax must make an affirmative showing of all facts alleged as a reasonable cause for his failure to file such return or pay such tax on time in the form of a written statement containing a declaration that it is made under penalties of perjury. Such statement should be filed with the district director or the director of the service center with whom the return is required to be filed; Provided, That where special tax returns of liquor dealers are delivered to an alcohol, tobacco and firearms officer working under the supervision of the Regional Director, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, such statement may be delivered with the return. If the district director, the director of the service center, or, where applicable, the Regional Director, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, determines that the delinquency was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, the addition to the tax will not be assessed. If the taxpayer exercised ordinary business care and prudence and was nevertheless unable to file the return within the prescribed time, then the delay is due to a reasonable cause. A failure to pay will be considered to be due to reasonable cause to the extent that the taxpayer has made a satisfactory showing that he exercised ordinary business care and prudence in providing for payment of his tax liability and was nevertheless either unable to pay the tax or would suffer an undue hardship (as described in § 1.6161–1(b) of this chapter) if he paid on the due date. In determining whether the taxpayer was unable to pay the tax in spite of the exercise of ordinary business care and prudence in providing for payment of his tax liability, consideration will be given to all the facts and circumstances of the taxpayer's financial situation, including the amount and nature of the taxpayer's expenditures in light of the income (or other amounts) he could, at the time of such expenditures, reasonably expect to receive prior to the date prescribed for the payment of the tax. Thus, for example, a taxpayer who incurs lavish or extravagant living expenses in an amount such that the remainder of his assets and anticipated income will be insufficient to pay his tax, has not exercised ordinary business care and prudence in providing for the payment of his tax liability. Further, a taxpayer who invests funds in speculative or illiquid assets has not exercised ordinary business care and prudence in providing for the payment of his tax liability unless, at the time of the investment, the remainder of the taxpayer's assets and estimated income will be sufficient to pay his tax or it can be reasonably foreseen that the speculative or illiquid investment made by the taxpayer can be utilized (by sale or as security for a loan) to realize sufficient funds to satisfy the tax liability. A taxpayer will be considered to have exercised ordinary business care and prudence if he made reasonable efforts to conserve sufficient assets in marketable form to satisfy his tax liability and nevertheless was unable to pay all or a portion of the tax when it became due.

* * * * *

(4) If, for a taxable year ending on or after December 31, 1972, a corporate taxpayer satisfies the requirements of § 1.6081–3 (a) or (b) (relating to an automatic extension of time for filing a corporation income tax return), reasonable cause shall be presumed, for the period of the extension of time to file, with respect to any underpayment of tax if—

(i) Not less than the amount of tax that would be required as the first installment under section 6152(a)(1), if the taxpayer elected to pay the tax in installments, is paid on or before the regular due date of the return and the second installment is paid on or before 3 months after such date,

HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES FOR HOUSEHOLD USE MARKETED IN CONTAINERS IDENTIFIABLE AS FOOD, DRUG, OR COSMETIC CONTAINERS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Investigations by the Food and Drug Administration reveal that hazardous substances for household use, particularly cleaners, waxes, and polishes, are being introduced into interstate commerce with labels bearing pictorial equivalents or references to food products. In some instances, the product also has a scent corresponding with a food. Such hazardous substances are also being marketed in containers associated with food contents, such as gable-top containers and pull-ring cans commonly used for milk, fruit juice beverages, beer, soft drinks, etc. Such products present the obvious hazard of nonfood contents being mistaken by a child or inattentive adult as food contents. Small children in particular, reacting to picture, scent, and/or container shape and unaware of printed labeling, are subject to injury by such products.

Section 4(f) of the Federal Hazardous Substances Act prohibits the introduction or delivery for introduction into interstate commerce, or the receipt and subsequent delivery or proffered delivery for pay or otherwise, of a hazardous substance in a container identifiable as a food, drug, or cosmetic container by its labeling or by other identification. Section 5(a) of the act prescribes penalties for violators of any provision of section 4.

In view of the above, the Commissioner of Food and Drugs concludes that to promote consumer protection and safety a regulation regarding said provision of section 4(f) of the act should be established as proposed below.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Hazardous Substances Act (secs. 4(f), 5(a), 10(a), 74 Stat. 375, 376, 378; 15 U.S.C. 1263(f), 1264(a), 1269(a)) and under authority delegated to him (21 CFR 2.120), the Commissioner proposes that a new section be added to Part 191, as follows:

§ 191.5a Hazardous substances marketed in containers identifiable as food, drug, or cosmetic containers.

(a) Section 4(f) of the Federal Hazardous Substances Act prohibits the introduction or delivery for introduction into interstate commerce, or the receipt and subsequent delivery or proffered delivery for pay or otherwise, of a hazardous substance in a container identifiable as a food, drug, or cosmetic container by its labeling or by other identification. Section 5(a) of the act prescribes penalties for violators of any provision of section 4 of the act.

(b) Investigations by the Food and Drug Administration reveal that hazardous substances for household use, such as cleaners, waxes, and polishes, have been introduced or delivered for introduction into interstate commerce in containers that may be mistakenly identified as food containers by their labeling or other identifying characteristics. The container label may bear a pictorial equivalent of a food product, or the contents may have a scent associated with food, or the product may be in a type of container usually associated with food contents (such as a gable-top container or pull-ring can commonly used for beverages). Such products present the obvious hazard of nonfood contents being mistaken by a child or inattentive adult as food contents. Small children in particular, reacting to picture, scent, and/or container shape and unaware of printed labeling, are subject to injury by such products.

(c) To reduce reasonably foreseeable injuries deriving from accidental misuse of misleading packaged hazardous substances, no container that resembles a food, drug, or cosmetic container by virtue of its shape, size, color, label vignette, label design, illustration, content appearance (if visible), content fragrance, closure design, or any combination of these, may be used for a hazardous substance. In applying this regulation, consideration shall be given to such factors as the impression an article will make on a child or casual adult, historical package usage in the home environment, and market ratios, particularly where the container has been used predominantly as a food container.

(d) Examples of household articles subject to this regulation are:

(1) Containers of hazardous substances with labeling that bears pictorial equivalents, vignettes, or illustrations of any food, drug, or cosmetic substance.

(2) Hazardous substances in metal cans with the "pull-ring" throwaway tab openings commonly used on soft drink, beer, and fruit juice cans.

(3) Hazardous substances in gable-top type containers commonly used for milk and other beverages.

Interested persons may, within 60 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 6-88, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20852, written comments (preferably in quintuplicate) regarding this proposal. Comments may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. Received comments may be seen in the above office during working hours, Monday through Friday.

Dated: November 1, 1972.

Commissioner of Food and Drugs.

[Airspace Docket No. 72-GL-57]

TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations so as to alter the transition area at Detroit, Mich.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Great Lakes Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, 2300 East Devon Avenue, Des Plaines, IL 60018. All communications received within 30 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Administration officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief. Any data, views, or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

A public docket will be available for examination by interested persons in the Office of the Regional Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, 2300 East Devon Avenue, Des Plaines, IL 60018.

A review of the transition area in the Detroit, Mich. area indicated a requirement for additional 700-foot transition area to protect instrument approach procedures at Ann Arbor Airport. The review also indicated that the transition area in this location has been built up in individual airspace actions and was covered under six citations. The chart showing these transition areas is difficult for both the pilot and controller to read and to determine when the aircraft is in, or out of the controlled airspace. It would be advantageous to the public and air traffic controllers to combine these into one citation and eliminate the small areas not covered by the transition area. This would also make charting much easier.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Federal Aviation Administration proposes to amend Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations as hereinafter set forth:

In § 71.181 (37 F.R. 2143), the following transition areas are deleted:

Port Huron, Mich.
Mt. Clemens, Mich.
Pontiac, Mich.
Detroit City, Mich.
Ann Arbor, Mich.

In § 71.181 (37 F.R. 2143), the following transition area is amended to read:

DETROIT, MICH.

COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLES

Proposed General Requirements for Liquid Fuel Systems

The Director of the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety is considering issuing amendments to §§ 393.65 and 393.67 of the Motor Carrier Safety Regulations. These sections contain general requirements for liquid fuel systems. They are part of Subpart E of the Bureau's rules pertaining to parts and accessories of commercial motor vehicles (49 CFR Part 393). On August 6, 1971, the Director issued a complete revision of Subpart E (36 F.R. 15444) and, on February 14, 1972, he specified that that revision would become effective on January 1, 1973 (37 F.R. 4340).

The primary objective of the amendments under consideration is to move certain provisions of §§ 393.67 to 393.65. Those provisions deal with design and installation of fuel lines and with excess flow valves. As a result of these changes, § 393.67 would contain only provisions relating to the design and construction of liquid fuel tanks.

Paragraph (f) of § 393.67 specifies that liquid fuel tanks must be certified that they meet all requirements in §§ 393.65 and 393.67. A number of fuel tank manufacturers have expressed concern about the certification requirement, saying that they should not be compelled to certify the correctness of installation of their products on motor vehicles. The tank manufacturers point out that they do not normally install the tanks in completed vehicles and, therefore, exercise no control over how the installation work is done.

It was not the purpose of the certification requirement to compel any person, including a manufacturer, to certify the correctness of work he neither performs nor supervises. That is why § 393.67(f) explicitly provided for partial and conditional certifications. In light of the comments, however, the Director believes that the best policy may be to redistribute certain of the provisions of § 393.67 so that the section will deal exclusively with fuel tanks. He is also proposing to amend § 393.67(f) to make it clear that certification does not apply to installation work. There appears to be no need to have installation work certified, because a visual inspection can easily determine whether that work, the requirements for which are spelled out in § 393.65, has been properly done.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Director of the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety proposes to amend §§ 393.65 and 393.67 of Subchapter B in Chapter III of Title 49, CFR, as set forth below. It is proposed to make these amendments effective on January 1, 1973.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, or arguments pertaining to the proposed amendments. Comments must identify the docket number and notice number appearing at the top of this document and must be submitted in three copies to the Director, Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety, Washington, D.C. 20590. All comments received before the close of business on December 1, 1972, will be considered before further action is taken. All comments will be available for examination in the docket room of the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety, Room 4136, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, DC, both before and after the closing date for comments.

This notice of proposed rule making is issued under the authority of section 204 of the Interstate Commerce Act, 49 U.S.C. 304, section 6 of the Department of Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1655, and the delegations of authority by the Secretary of Transportation and the Federal Highway Administrator in 49 CFR 1.48 and 389.4, respectively.

Issued on November 6, 1972.

ROBERT A. KAYE,
Director,
Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety.

OPTICAL CHARACTER RECOGNITION

Notice of Two Proposed Federal Information Processing Standards

Under the provisions of Public Law 89–306, the Secretary of Commerce is authorized to make appropriate recommendations to the President relating to the establishment of uniform Federal automatic data processing standards.

Two proposed standards relating to optical character recognition are being recommended by the National Bureau of Standards, (1) Character Set for Handprinting, and (2) Optical Character Recognition Character Sets. These standards, at such time as they may be approved by the Office of Management and Budget, will be published as Federal Information Processing Standards.

Prior to the submission of the final endorsement of these proposals to the OMB, it is essential to assure that proper consideration is given the needs and views of manufacturers, the public, and State and local governments. The purpose of this notice is to solicit such views.

Proposed Federal Information Processing Standards contain two basic sections: (1) An announcement section which provides information concerning the applicability, implementation, and maintenance of the standard, and (2) a specification section which details the technical requirements of the standard. A copy of the technical specifications for both of these proposed standards is available without cost from the Office of Information Processing Standards, Center for Computer Sciences and Technology, National Bureau of Standards, Washington, D.C. 20234. The title of the document should be cited in the request.

Interested parties may submit comments to the Associate Director, ADP Standards, Center for Computer Sciences and Technology, National Bureau of Standards, Washington, D.C. 20234, within 90 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

LAWRENCE M. KUSHNER,
Acting Director.

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

Request for Information on Certain Airborne Dust Contaminants and Chemical Agents

Section 20(a)(3) of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (29 U.S.C. 669(a)(3)) provides that the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, on the basis of information available to him, shall develop criteria dealing with toxic materials and harmful physical agents and substances which will describe exposure levels that are safe for various periods of employment. Section 22(c) of the Act authorizes the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health to develop recommended occupational safety and health standards and to perform all functions of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, under sections 20 and 21 of the Act. The Institute is currently collecting information and data on a number of chemical substances including:

1. Acetone.
2. Aniline.
3. Copper and copper compounds.
4. Cyanides.
5. Methyl chloride
6. Methyl ethyl ketone.
7. Methyl isobutyl ketone.
8. Nitrous oxide.
9. Styrene.
10. Zinc and zinc compounds.

The information and data collected for each substance will be analyzed and evaluated relative to the nine areas listed below:

1. Establishment of safe occupational environment levels for such agents, including levels for acute and chronic exposure to airborne concentrations of the chemical substances, as well as safe practices concerning direct contact with such substances.

2. Establishment of biologic standards; i.e., the levels of such substances, metabolites, or other effects of exposure which may be present within man without his suffering ill effects, taking into consideration (a) the correlation of airborne concentrations of, and extent of exposure to such substances with effects on specific biologic systems of man, such as the circulatory, respiratory, urinary, and nervous system, and (b) the analytical methods for determining the amount of the substance which may be present within man.

3. Engineering controls, including ventilation, environmental temperature, humidity, and housekeeping and sanitation procedures, with attention to the technological feasibility of such controls.

4. Specifications for the conditions under which personal protective devices should be required.

5. Methodology, including instrumentation, for air sampling and sample analysis of chemical substances.

6. The need for medical examinations for workers exposed to such substances, the frequency of such examinations, and the specific diagnostic tests which should be used, and the rationale for their selection.

7. Work practices or procedures which may be instituted for control of the workplace environment in normal operations, and those which may be instituted when environmental levels are temporarily exceeded, or where peak concentrations of chemical substances in man are reached.

8. The types of records concerning occupational exposure to such substances that employers should be required to maintain.

9. Warning devices and labels which should be required for the prevention of occupational diseases and hazards caused by such substances.

Any person having information or data which is not readily available in "open scientific literature" in any of the nine areas listed, or in other areas which the person considers relevant to the establishment of a safe and healthful occupational environment involving the substances set forth above, is invited to submit such information, with accompanying documentation, to the Assistant Director for Research and Standards Development, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health, Room 10-28, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852, within 60 days after publication of this notice.

All information received concerning any substance will be available for public inspection after the development of the respective research analysis report or criteria document.

Dated: November 3, 1972.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-334]

DUQUESNE LIGHT CO. ET AL.

Notice of Receipt of Application for Facility Operating License; Notice of Hearing; Notice of Consideration of Issuance of Facility Operating License and Opportunity for Hearing

In the matter of Duquesne Light Co., Ohio Edison Co., and Pennsylvania Power Co. (Beaver Valley Power Station Unit No. 1).

Duquesne Light Co., Ohio Edison Co., and Pennsylvania Power Co. (the applicants), pursuant to section 104(b) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, have filed an application, which was docketed on October 18, 1972, together with a final safety analysis report, for a license to operate the Beaver Valley Power Station, Unit No. 1, a pressurized water nuclear reactor (the facility), located at the Beaver Valley Power Station, an approximately 449-acre site on the south bank of the Ohio River in Shippingport Borough, Beaver County, Pa.

The Atomic Energy Commission (the Commission) will consider the issuance of a facility operating license to the applicant which would authorize the applicants to possess, use, and operate Beaver Valley Power Station Unit No. 1 at reactor core power levels not to exceed 2,660 megawatts thermal in accordance with the provisions of the license and the technical specifications appended thereto. The license would be issued upon the completion of a favorable safety evaluation of the application by the Commission's Directorate of Licensing, the completion of the environmental review required by the Commission's regulations in 10 CFR Part 50, Appendix D, the receipt of a report on the applicant's application for a facility operating license by the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards, and a finding by the Commission that the application for the facility license, as amended, complies with the requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (Act), and the Commission's regulations in 10 CFR Chapter 1. Construction of the facility was authorized by Construction Permit No. CPPR-75 issued by the Commission on June 26, 1970.

Prior to issuance of any operating license, the Commission will inspect the facility to determine whether it has been constructed in accordance with the application, as amended, and the provisions of Construction Permit No. CPPR-75. In addition, the license will not be issued until the Commission has made the findings, reflecting its review of the application under the Act which will be set forth in the proposed license, and has concluded that the issuance of the license will not be inimical to the common defense and security or to the health and safety of the public. Upon issuance of the license, the applicants will be required to execute an indemnity agreement as required by section 170 of the Act and 10 CFR Part 140 of the Commission's regulations.

In addition to the above, the facility is subject to the provisions of section B of Appendix D to 10 CFR Part 50, which sets forth procedures applicable to review of environmental considerations for production and utilization facilities for which construction permits or operating licenses were issued in the period January 1, 1970–September 9, 1971. These provisions require that a hearing be held to consider whether the construction permit should be continued, modified, terminated, or appropriately conditioned to protect environmental values. With respect to this consideration, notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Act and the regulations in 10 CFR Part 2, rules of practice, and Appendix D to 10 CFR Part 50, "Implementation of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969," that a hearing will be held in the captioned proceeding by an Atomic Safety and Licensing Board (Board) at a time and place to be fixed by subsequent order of the Board to consider and make determinations on the matters set forth below.

1. In the event that this proceeding is not a contested proceeding as defined by 10 CFR 2.4(n) of the Commission's rules of practice, the Board will without conducting a de novo evaluation of the application determine whether the environmental review conducted by the Commission's regulatory staff pursuant to Appendix D of 10 CFR Part 50 has been adequate.

2. In the event that this proceeding is a contested proceeding, the Board will decide any matters in controversy among the parties within the scope of Appendix D to 10 CFR Part 50, with regard to whether, in accordance with the requirements of Appendix D to 10 CFR Part 50, the construction permit should be continued, modified, terminated or appropriately conditioned to protect environmental values.

3. Regardless of whether the proceeding is contested or uncontested, the Board will, in accordance with section A.11 of Appendix D of 10 CFR Part 50, (a) determine whether the requirements of section 102(2) (C) and (D) of NEPA and Appendix D to 10 CFR Part 50 of the Commission's regulations have been complied with in this proceeding; (b) independently consider the final balance among conflicting factors contained in the record of the proceeding with a view toward determining the appropriate action to be taken; and (c) determine, after weighing the environmental, economic, technical, and other benefits against environmental costs and considering available alternatives, whether the construction permit should be continued, modified, terminated, or appropriately conditioned to protect environmental values.

The Board will be designated by the Atomic Energy Commission. Notice as to its membership will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Within thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this present notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the applicant may file a request for a hearing with respect to issuance of the facility operating license and any person whose interest may be affected by this proceeding may file a petition for leave to intervene (1) with respect to the issuance of the facility operating license; or (2) with respect to whether, considering those matters covered by Appendix D to 10 CFR Part 50, the construction permit should be continued, modified, terminated, or appropriately conditioned to protect environmental values. Requests for a hearing and petitions for leave to intervene shall be filed in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice in 10 CFR Part 2.

A petition for leave to intervene must be filed under oath or affirmation in accordance with the provisions of 10 CFR 2.714. As required by 10 CFR 2.714, a petition for leave to intervene shall set forth the interest of the petitioner in the proceeding, how that interest may be affected by the results of the proceeding, and any other contentions of the petitioner including the facts and reasons why he should be permitted to intervene, with particular reference to the following factors: (1) The nature of the petitioner's right under the Act to be made a party to the proceeding; (2) the nature and extent of the petitioner's property, financial, or other interest in the proceeding; and (3) the possible effect of any order which may be entered in the proceeding on the petitioner's interest. Any such petition shall be accompanied by a supporting affidavit identifying the specific aspect or aspects of the subject matter of the proceeding as to which the petitioner wishes to intervene and setting forth with particularity both the facts pertaining to his interest and the basis for his contentions with regard to each aspect on which he desires to intervene. A petition that sets forth contentions relating only to matters outside the jurisdiction of the Commission will be denied.

A request for a hearing or a petition for leave to intervene must be filed with the Office of the Secretary of the Commission, U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, DC 20545, Attention: Chief, Public Proceedings Staff, or may be delivered to the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, DC, not later than thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A petition for leave to intervene which is not timely will not be granted unless the Commission determines that the petitioner has made a substantial showing of good cause for failure to file on time and after the Commission has considered those factors specified in 10 CFR 2.714 (a).

If a request for a hearing or petition for leave to intervene with respect to the issuance of a facility operating license is filed within the time prescribed in this notice, the Commission will issue a notice of hearing or an appropriate order.

Any person who does not wish to, or is not qualified to become a party to this proceeding, concerning continuation, modification, termination, or conditioning the construction permit, may request permission to make a limited appearance pursuant to the provisions of 10 CFR 2.715. A person making a limited appearance may only make an oral or written statement on the record, and may not participate in the proceeding in any other way. Limited appearances will be permitted at the time of the hearing in the discretion of the Board, within such limits and on such conditions as may be fixed by the Board. Persons desiring to make a limited appearance are requested to inform the Secretary of the Commission, U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, DC 20545, not later than thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

A person permitted to make a limited appearance does not become a party, but may state his position and raise questions which he would like to have answered, to the extent that the questions are within the scope of the hearing as specified in the issues set out above.

In the event that this proceeding concerning continuation, modification, termination, or conditioning the construction permit is not contested, the Board will convene a prehearing conference of the parties within sixty (60) days after this notice of hearing or such other time as may be appropriate, at a time and place to be set by the Board. It will also set the schedule for the evidentiary hearing. Notice of the prehearing conference and the hearing will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In the event that this proceeding concerning continuation, modification, termination, or conditioning the construction permit, becomes a contested proceeding, the Board will convene a special prehearing conference of the parties to the proceeding and persons who have filed petitions for leave to intervene, or their counsel, to be held within sixty (60) days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or within such other time as may be appropriate, at a place to be set by the Board for the purpose of dealing with the matters specified in 10 CFR 2.751a.

The Board will convene a prehearing conference of the parties, or their counsel, to be held subsequent to any special prehearing conference and within sixty (60) days after discovery has been completed, or within such other time as may be appropriate, at a place to be set by the Board for the purpose of dealing with the matters specified in 10 CFR 2.752.

Notices of the dates and places of the special prehearing conference, the prehearing conference and the hearing will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

For further details pertinent to the matters under consideration, see the application for the facility operating license docketed October 18, 1972, as amended, and the applicants' Environmental Report dated September 24, 1971, which are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, DC, and at the Beaver, Area Memorial Library, 100 College Avenue, Beaver, PA 15009. As they become available, the following documents also will be available at the above locations: (1) The safety evaluation prepared by the Directorate of Licensing; (2) the Commission's draft detailed statement on environmental considerations pursuant to 10 CFR 50, Appendix D; (3) the Commission's final detailed statement on environmental considerations; (4) the report of the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards on the application for facility operating license; (5) the proposed facility operating license; and (6) the proposed technical specifications, which will be attached to the proposed facility operating license. CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 24884; Order 72-11-5]

AIR TRAFFIC CONFERENCE OF AMERICA

Order Deferring Action and Requesting Comments Regarding Bonding of Travel Agents

Issued under delegated authority November 2, 1972.

The Air Traffic Conference of America (ATC), on behalf of its air carrier members, has filed with the Board under section 412 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (the Act), two agreements which, in part, propose to alter the ATC bonding requirements applicable to sales agents.[1]

The first agreement (CAB 5044–A154) amends the ATC Agency Resolution to require that agents' sales of air transportation between the Continental United States, Alaska, and Hawaii be included in determining agents' sales of air transportation for the sake of determining bond coverage.[2] At present, agents are required to include only those sales of air transportation wholly within each of these geographical areas.

Upon consideration of the matter, we have decided to defer action temporarily to allow an opportunity for air carriers, agents, and other interested persons to file written comments in support of or in opposition to approval of the proposed change. Accordingly, in connection with this aspect of Agreement CAB 5044–A154 the following information is desired:

1. What circumstances prompted adoption of the above-mentioned change in bonding coverage?

2. Is the proposed expansion of bond coverage related to or affected by the ATC proposal, set forth in Agreement CAB 16874–A29, to expand the use of Standard Agent's Tickets under the Standard Agent's Ticket and Area Settlement Plan? If so, explain the relationship.

The second agreement (CAB 16874–A29) increases the minimum amount of the bond to be maintained by agents from $10,000 to $15,000 and the maximum amount from $50,000 to $75,000. Thus, it is apparent that the air carrier members of ATC are proposing significant increases in the amount of bond coverage to be maintained by their agents. In this connection, the Board, in Order 72–4–114, April 20, 1972, expressed the view that any proposal, advanced by carriers or agents, for either an upward or downward adjustment in the bonding requirement be fully documented. The air carriers have not submitted any specific factual data, reasons for adoption, or justification with respect to the proposal now before the Board. Accordingly, the Board is left without any basis for proceeding on such proposal. In this light, it has also been decided to defer action on this particular aspect of Agreement CAB 16874–A29 in order to allow the air carrier members of ATC a further opportunity to submit factual data in support of their proposal, and to allow other interested persons to file written comments in support of or in opposition to approval of such proposal. It would be helpful if the air carrier members of ATC set out in their comments the basic philosophy behind the proposed increases in the agents' bonds, i.e., what objectives are the increases intended to achieve, and what portion of the costs associated with the desired objectives are to be borne by the agents?[3]

In addition to the foregoing, any response of the air carrier members of ATC to this order should include, inter alia, for each calendar year 1962 through 1972 (January through September 1972):

(a) The number of ATC-approved agents as of December 31.

(b) The dollar amount of domestic air transportation sales attributable to ATC-approved travel agents.

(c) The number of travel agency defaults.

(d) Total gross losses from defaults to carriers participating in the ATC agency program both prior to and after adoption of the Settlement Plan.

(e) The portion of gross losses from defaults recovered from bonding companies.

(f) The portion of gross losses from defaults recovered from agents.

(g) The net carrier losses from defaults.

(h) Information with respect to bond premium costs for ATC-approved agents including (1) average premium cost per $1,000 for ASTA agents and non-ASTA agents (2) total number of ASTA agents and non-ASTA agents, and (3) average premium cost per $1,000 for ATC-approved agents.

(i) The average (1) dollar amount per default, (2) amount of the bond maintained by defaulting agents at the time of default and (3) amount collected from the surety.

(j) The number of defaults by agents carrying (1) minimum bonds and (2) maximum bonds.

(k) The average amount of defaults by agents carrying (1) minimum bonds and (2) maximum bonds.

(l) The number of agents bonded at the minimum- and maximum-bond amounts.

(m) The average amount of bond carried by ATC-approved agents.

(n) A table setting forth default experience information relative to the Settlement Plan, including for each year (a) the loss exposure periods and (b) the number of defaults within such loss exposure periods.

The air carrier members of ATC should also include in their response the technical basis for the selection of the new minimum- and maximum-bond amounts of $15,000 and $75,000, respectively.

Acting pursuant to authority duly delegated by the Board in the Board's Regulations, 14 CFR 385.3, it is concluded that it is in the public interest to defer action on those provisions of Agreements CAB 5044–A154 and CAB 16874–A29 discussed herein in order to permit interested persons to file comments as provided for herein.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That:

1. Action on those specific provisions of Agreements CAB 5044–A154 and CAB 16874–A29 as discussed herein be and it hereby is deferred;

2. The air carrier members of the ATC may file comments on those specific provisions of Agreements CAB 5044–A154 and CAB 16874–A29 as discussed herein within 21 days from the date of this order;

3. All other interested persons are afforded a period not exceeding 35 days from the date of this order to file comments in support of or in opposition to approval of those provisions of Agreements CAB 5044–A154 and 16874–A29 discussed herein;[4]

4. Rebuttal comments may be filed by those persons filing initial comments pursuant to paragraph 2 hereof within 42 days of the date of this order;

5. This order shall be served upon the Air Traffic Conference of America, and each air carrier member thereof, Pan American World Airways, Inc., the American Society of Travel Agents, the Association of Retail Travel Agents, and the Department of Justice;

6. Comments filed pursuant to ordering paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 shall be served on all persons named in ordering paragraph 5;[5]

7. Rebuttal comments filed pursuant to ordering paragraph 4 shall be served upon all persons filing initial comments pursuant to ordering paragraph 3; and

8. This proceeding shall be assigned Docket 24884.

This order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Persons entitled to petition the Board for review of this order pursuant to the Board's regulations, 14 CFR 385.50, may file such petitions within 10 days after the date of this order.

This order shall be effective and become the action of the Civil Aeronautics Board upon expiration of the above period unless within such period a petition for review thereof is filed, or the Board gives notice that it will review this order on its own motion.

[SEAL] HARRY J. ZINK,
Secretary.

[FR Doc.72-19370 Filed 11-9-72;8:51 am]

[1] The proposed changes in the ATC bonding requirements are intended to be effective 60 days after their approval by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[2] At the present time agents must procure and maintain a bond for the benefit of ATC members in the basic minimum amount of $10,000, such amount to be increased (to a basic maximum amount of $50,000) whenever necessary to cover the average of the three highest months (of the last 12) gross sales of air transportation for the accounts of ATC members.

[3] It is hoped that any comments as to the philosophy behind the proposed increases will explain the relationship thereof to the purposes of the bonding program which, as the Board noted in Order 72–4–114, reflected a strong desire on the part of the Board for the carriers to turn away from broad and indefinite standards in judging agents' qualifications in favor of more objective requirements. (The same order also pointed out that bonding expedites ATC's review of agent's qualifications.)

[4] We note that the Association of Retail Travel Agents has already filed comments concerning the agreements. These comments, as well as such additional comments as may be filed pursuant to this ordering paragraph, will be considered in reaching a final decision in this proceeding.

[5] An original and 2 copies of all comments filed pursuant to ordering paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 hereof shall be filed with the Board's Docket Section.

TWIN FAIR, INC. ET AL.

Order Granting Exemptions and Tentative Approval for Exemption or Approval of Control Relationships

Issued under delegated authority November 1, 1972.

By joint application, as amended, Twin Fair, Inc. (Twin Fair), Aero Spacelines, Inc. (ASI), ASI Aircraft Corp. (New ASI), TIFS, Inc. (TIFS) and LTH, Inc. (LTH) request approval without hearing under, or exemption from, section 408 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (the Act), of certain control relationships arising from a corporate reorganization involving ASI and New ASI, and the acquisition of all the outstanding stock of TIFS by Twin Fair.

The applicants further request, pursuant to Part 287 of the Board's economic regulations, exemption from section 409 of the Act with respect to certain interlocking relationships resulting from the above-mentioned transactions[1] and approval of the transfer of exemption authority now held by ASI [2] to New ASI or, alternatively, to reissue such exemption to New ASI.

Twin Fair, a New York corporation, owns and operates discount department stores and manufactures iron castings for use in the electrical, automotive and construction industries through subsidiary corporations.

ASI, a California-based corporation wholly owned by Twin Fair,[3] manufactures (by modifying other aircraft) and operates aircraft (known as Guppy aircraft) for the carriage of outsize cargo pursuant to exemption authority granted by the Board.[4]

New ASI is presently an inactive corporation wholly owned by ASI and created solely for the purpose of the proposed corporate reorganization discussed below.

TIFS, wholly owned by Twin Fair, is a corporation organized to manufacture total in-flight simulation aircraft for training purposes. TIFS has had no sales and is presently inactive.

LTH, wholly owned by Twin Fair,[5] is a corporation which formerly performed aircraft maintenance and overhaul services but has since sold substantially all its assets, properties and business interests to Modern Air Transport, Inc.[6] and is presently inactive.

The applicants state that the purpose of the proposed corporate reorganization is to eliminate certain California State sales and use taxes now imposed on the Guppy aircraft that are manufactured and operated in California by ASI.[7]

The applicants' plan of reorganization contemplates the activation of New ASI upon Board approval and the assumption by New ASI of the exemption authority now held by ASI to operate as a specialized air cargo carrier as well as the lease by ASI of all of its operational aircraft to New ASI.[8] ASI will, according to the applicants, thenceforth cease to be an air carrier and engage only in the business of manufacturing, modifying and repairing aircraft.[9] After the reorganization is effected, ASI will continue to own all of the stock of New ASI and the officers and directors of both companies will be identical. In addition, the applicants state that upon completion of the reorganization New ASI will do business as "Aero Spacelines." [10]

In support of their request, the applicants state that except for the formality of ASI's separation into two corporations, one for manufacturing and one for operations, there will be no substantive changes in ASI's operations; ASI and New ASI will continue to be engaged in the same business, in the same manner, and with the same facilities as ASI heretofore has been,[11] but without the burden of the existing California State sales/use taxes.

With respect to the acquisition of TIFS by Twin Fair, the applicants state that TIFS is not an air carrier and may not be considered as presently engaged in any phase of aeronautics within the meaning of section 408 of the Act since it has had no sales and is presently inactive.[12]

No comments or requests for a hearing have been received.

It is found that upon completion of the reorganization and transfer of exemption authority, New ASI will, for all practical purposes, be the same corporation as ASI and will operate with the same persons who also serve as officers and directors with ASI. It appears that the reorganization will not interrupt, increase or diminish the air carrier activities of ASI but will simply permit ASI to take advantage of tax benefits it would otherwise be ineligible for while continuing control of its air carrier activities through New ASI. While the Board has indicated its concern with the potential deleterious consequences of air carrier reorganizations and is currently investigating such schemes when undertaken by certificated carriers,[13] neither ASI nor New ASI are certificated carriers, and therefore do not have the obligations and responsibilities which warrant a closer look at corporate reorganization and diversification. In any event, we shall retain jurisdiction over the transaction.

Upon consideration of the foregoing, it is concluded that Twin Fair is a person controlling both an air carrier and persons engaged in phases of aeronautics and that ASI and New ASI are air carriers and TIFS and LTH are persons engaged in phases of aeronautics, all within the meaning of section 408 of the Act,

[1] Applicants have requested a waiver from § 287.3(e) of the Board's economic regulations which contains a proviso that no interlocking relationship shall be exempted involving transactions between an air carrier and a person engaged in a phase of aeronautics which exceed $100,000 per year.

[2] By Order E-26532, March 18, 1968, ASI was granted an exemption from the provisions of section 401 of the Act for a temporary period of 5 years to engage in worldwide transportation of outsize cargo in planeload charter service, subject to certain conditions.

[3] Ownership and control of ASI by Twin Fair (formerly Unexcelled, Inc.) was approved by Board Order E-26533, Mar. 18, 1968.

[4] See footnote 2, supra.

[5] Control of LTH (formerly American Airmotive Corp.) by Twin Fair and resultant interlocking relationships with ASI were approved by Order E-26533, Mar. 18, 1968.

[6] See Order 70-5-36, May 8, 1970.

[7] According to the applicants, ASI can be exempted from such sales/use taxes under California law if it sells or leases the aircraft to a common carrier of persons or property. In this connection, the lease of Guppy aircraft by ASI to New ASI (as the common carrier) would be exempt from tax as would components and materials purchased by ASI for the manufacture of Guppy aircraft sold or leased to New ASI. The applicants estimate a tax benefit of $1125,000 per aircraft as a result of such exemption

[8] Applicants note that a condition attendant to ASI's exemption authority prohibits it from selling or leasing aircraft to any air carrier without prior Board approval. However, applicants state that since the reorganization will not affect ASI's manufacturing and marketing decisions and is a matter solely of corporate formality, the lease between the parent (ASI) and the wholly owned subsidiary (New ASI) is of no economic consequence and should be approved.

[9] The applicants request that the Board disclaim jurisdiction over ASI if the application for reorganization and attendant transactions is approved or exempted since according to the applicants ASI would then cease to be an air carrier upon the transfer of its exemption authority to New ASI and, thus would no longer be subject to the Act or to Board Order E-26533.

[10] Applicants submit that since ASI will no longer be an air carrier after the reorganization, the use of this name presents no problems under Part 215 of the Board's economic regulations. In any event, the applicants state that ASI consents to the use of the name "Aero Spacelines" by New ASI.

[11] The applicants state that after the reorganization New ASI will hold the same noncertificated air carrier status as ASI.

[12] The joint applicants submit that Twin Fair's ownership of TIFS does not result in creating a monopoly, nor tend to restrain competition, and is in the public interest.

and that the above-described corporate reorganization and acquisition of control involving ASI and New ASI and Twin Fair and TIFS,[14] respectively, are subject to that section. However, it is further concluded that the reorganization described herein will not result in creating a monopoly and thereby restrain competition or jeopardize another air carrier; nor does it appear that the transaction will be inconsistent with the public interest or that the conditions of section 408 will be unfulfilled. No person disclosing a substantial interest is requesting a hearing and it is concluded that the public interest does not require a hearing. Therefore, exemption of the control relationship from the provisions of section 408 pursuant to the proviso contained in subsection (a)(5) is in the public interest, and the reorganization shall be so exempted pursuant to 14 CFR 385.13.

With respect to the reissuance of ASI's exemption authority to New ASI, it appears that New ASI will be substantially the same company as ASI with the same officers and directors. In this light the bases for the exemption granted to new ASI's predecessor in Order E-26532 remain, and for the reasons therein stated we find that enforcement of section 401 of the Act or of any applicable rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation would be an undue burden on New ASI by reason of the limited extent of, or the unusual circumstances affecting, its operations and that enforcement of such provisions is not in the public interest. Accordingly, pursuant to section 416(b) of the Act, the exemption authority held by ASI is terminated and such exemption authority is reissued to New ASI.[15]

With respect to the applicants' request that the Board disclaim jurisdiction over ASI after the reorganization, we conclude that ASI will essentially remain the same corporate entity performing the same business activities as prior to the reorganization and will, therefore, continue to be subject to the same conditions, including continuing Board jurisdiction, as described in Order E-26533. Accordingly, we will deny the applicants' request and continue to apply the terms and conditions of Order E-26533 to ASI as well as to New ASI upon its assumption of ASI's existing exemption authority.

Turning to the interlocking relationships described herein, it has been concluded that such come within the scope of the exemption from the provisions of section 409 afforded by § 287.2 of the Board's economic regulations and, therefore, to the extent that the application requests exemption of such relationships, it is dismissed.[16]

Regarding the acquisition of control of TIFS by Twin Fair, it is determined that such relationship is within the meaning of section 408(a)(6) of the Act. However, it is tentatively concluded that such acquisition of control may be approved without hearing under the third proviso of section 408(b) of the Act. It appears that the acquisition of TIFS by Twin Fair does not affect the control of an air carrier directly engaged in the operation of aircraft in air transportation, does not result in creating a monopoly, and does not tend to restrain competition. Moreover, no person disclosing a substantial interest is currently requesting a hearing and it is concluded that the public interest does not require a hearing. In its final order the Board will reserve jurisdiction generally over the control relationships which it will approve. Accordingly, under section 408 of the Act and pursuant to the Board's regulations, 14 CFR 385.13, this order constitutes, among other things, notice of the Board's tentative findings, and will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Interested persons will be afforded an opportunity to file comments or request a hearing on the Board's tentative decision.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That:

1. The reorganization involving Aero Spacelines, Inc. and ASI Aircraft Corp. be and it hereby is exempted from the provisions of section 408(a)(5) of the Act pursuant to the proviso thereof;

2. The exemption authority described in Order E-26532 held by Aero Spacelines, Inc. be and it hereby is terminated;

3. The use of the trade name "Aero Spacelines" by ASI Aircraft Corp. be and it hereby is authorized;

4. The lease of aircraft by Aero Spacelines, Inc. to ASI Aircraft Corp. be and it hereby is approved;

5. ASI Aircraft Corp., doing business as "Aero Spacelines" be and it hereby is exempted from the provisions of section 401 of the Act insofar as they would otherwise prevent it from engaging in world-wide transportation of outsize cargo, as defined in the margin below [17]

6. The exemption granted in ordering paragraph 3, supra, shall be effective on the effective date of this order and shall continue in effect until March 18, 1973;

7. Jurisdiction on this proceeding is retained for the purpose of taking such further action as may be required by the public interest;

8. The acquisition of control of TIFS, Inc. by Twin Fair, Inc. be and it hereby is tentatively approved;

9. Interested persons are hereby afforded a period of ten (10) days from the date of issuance of this order within which to file comments or request a hearing with respect to the Board's proposed action described in ordering paragraph 8; [18] and

10. The Attorney General of the United States be furnished a copy of this order within 1 day of publication.

Persons entitled to petition the Board for review of this order pursuant to the Board's regulations, 14 CFR 385.50, may file such petitions within 10 days after the date of this order.

This order shall be effective and become the action of the Civil Aeronautics Board upon expiration of the above period unless within such period a petition for review thereof is filed or the Board gives notice that it will review this [14] Although the acquisition of control of TIFS by Twin Fair has already been accomplished, it has been determined that exceptional circumstances exist within the meaning of Sherman Control and Interlocking Relationships, 14 CAB 876 (1952) and that there is no impediment to processing this application on its merits.

[15] For similar reasons we also approve the lease of aircraft between ASI and New ASI and the use by New ASI of the name "Aero Spacelines."

[16] We have decided to waive the $100,000 yearly limitation pertaining to transactions between ASI and New ASI under § 287.3(e) of the Board's economic regulations since the lease of aircraft and other transactions between ASI and New ASI, while involving more than $100,000 per calendar year, will not materially alter the present arrangement whereby ASI manufactures and then operates its own aircraft through its subsidiary New ASI.

[17] (a) Outsize cargo is a unit which by virtue of its dimensions and/or shape when enclosed in any packaging or protective covering necessary for its transportation cannot be accommodated on any other aircraft used in commercial cargo operations by any other air carrier including, but not limited to, the following aircraft: DC-6A, DC-7C, L-1049H, CL-44, DC-8F, "stretch" DC-8, C-130E, B-727, B-737 (when available), and B-747 (when available).

(b) Outsize cargo includes a reasonable number of integral accessorial component parts, appurtenances, spare parts, and tools, and a reasonable amount of fuel, which are necessary to the functioning and/or utilization of the unit, described in paragraph (a) above, during its transportation and/or at its destination even though such component parts, appurtenances, spare parts, tools, and fuel would not, alone or in the aggregate, satisfy the definition in paragraph (a).

(c) Outsize cargo does not include a unit which consists of a containerized aggregate of separate items no one of which would alone satisfy the definition in paragraph (a).

[18] Comments shall conform to the requirements of the Board's rules of practice (14 CFR Part 302). Further, since an opportunity to file comments is being provided, petitions for reconsideration of this order will not be entertained.

Ray R. Heinke, Manager, Terminal Division, Port of Tacoma, Post Office Box 1837, Tacoma, WA 98401.

Agreement No. T-[illegible]706, between the Port of Tacoma (Port) and Continental Grain Corp. (Continental), is a lease-agreement whereby the Port will construct a grain storage terminal facility and lease it to Continental for a 30-year term with renewal options. The facility is to be operated by Continental as a public agricultural products facility for the receipt and storage of dry agricultural products. Continental's rental for the facility is to be computed in accordance with a formula set forth in detail in the agreement based on the amortization of final construction costs. Under the terms of the agreement, Continental will have the exclusive right to establish and assess tariff charges and promulgate rules and regulations governing the facility. With respect to dockage charges, however, Continental is to become a "Participating Terminal" under the Tacoma Terminals Tariff. All charges are to be generally competitive with charges assessed by similar facilities in the area.

By order of the Federal Maritime Commission.

Dated: November 7, 1972.

Secretary.

[Docket No. 72-59]

TRANSAMERICAN TRAILER TRANSPORT INC.

Order of Investigation and Suspension

On October 6, 1972, Transamerican Trailer Transport, Inc. (TTT) filed various revised pages to its tariff FMC-F No. 1, proposing extension of service to include the Port of Baltimore, Md., effective November 5, 1972. Included in those revised pages, on sixth revised page 43, is Rule 621 covering "Wharfage charges at Baltimore, Maryland." The rule is similar to those of Sea-Land Service, Inc., and Seatrain Lines, Inc., currently under investigation in Docket No. 72-25, and provides for a "top wharfage" charge against cargo which moves to or from the pier in other than railroad car service.[1] There appears to be no parallel charge levied by TTT in New York on similar cargo.

Upon review of the above-rule, the Commission is of the opinion that the proposed charge may constitute an unreasonable preference to cargo moving in railroad car service and that it also may be unduly prejudicial to shippers in and the Port of Baltimore as opposed to their New York counterparts in contravention of section 16 First of the Shipping Act, 1916 (46 U.S.C. 815).

Good cause appearing, therefore:

It is ordered, That pursuant to the authority of section 22 of the Shipping Act, 1916, and sections 3 and 4 of the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, an investigation is hereby instituted into the lawfulness of said tariff rule for the purpose of making such findings and orders as the facts and circumstances warrant. In the event that the subject rule is further changed, or reissued, such matter is hereby ordered to be included in this investigation.

It is further ordered, That pursuant to section 3, Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, Rule 621 on sixth revised page 43 of Transamerican Trailer Transport Inc.'s tariff FMC-F No. 1 is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred to and including March 4, 1973, unless otherwise ordered by this Commission.

It is further ordered, That there shall be filed immediately with this Commission by Transamerican Trailer Transport Inc. a consecutively numbered supplement to the aforesaid tariff which supplement shall bear no effective date, shall reproduce the portion of this order wherein the suspended matter is described and shall state that the aforesaid matter is suspended and may not be used until March 5, 1973, unless otherwise authorized by this Commission and that the suspended matter may not be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, whichever comes first, unless otherwise ordered by this Commission.

It is further ordered, That pursuant to section 16 First of the Shipping Act, 1916, a determination shall be made as to whether the subject rule gives any unreasonable preference or advantage to shippers who utilize railroad car service or who ship via New York, or whether it subjects the Port of Baltimore, or shippers who do not utilize railroad car service, to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage.

It is further ordered, That copies of this order shall be filed with the said tariff schedule in the Bureau of Compliance of the Federal Maritime Commission.

It is further ordered, That Transamerican Trailer Transport Inc. be named as respondent in this proceeding.

It is further ordered, That this proceeding be assigned for public hearing before an administrative law judge of the Commission's Office of Administrative Law Judges and that the hearing be held at a date and place to be determined by that presiding officer.

It is further ordered, That: (i) A copy of this order be forthwith served upon the respondent herein and upon this Commission's Bureau of Hearing Counsel, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and (ii) the respondent and Hearing Counsel be duly served with notice of time and place of the hearing.

All persons (including individuals, corporations, associations, firms, partnerships, and public bodies) having an interest in this proceeding and desiring to intervene therein, should notify the Secretary of the Commission promptly and file petitions for leave to intervene in accordance with Rule 5(1) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (46 CFR 502.72) with a copy to all parties to this proceeding.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] FRANCIS C. HURNEY,
Secretary.

[Docket No. CI73-323]

OHB CO., LTD.

Notice of Application

NOVEMBER 8, 1972.

Take notice that on November 3, 1972, the OHB Co., Ltd. (Applicant), Post Office Box 126, Refugio, TX 78377, filed in Docket No. CI73-323 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to Trunkline Gas Co. from the O'Brien Ranch Field, Goliad County, Tex., all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to sell up to 10,000 Mcf at 14.65 p.s.i.a. of gas per day at 35.0 cents per Mcf for 1 year within the contemplation of § 2.70 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations (18 CFR 2.70).

It appears reasonable and consistent with the public interest in this case to prescribe a period shorter than 15 days for the filing of protests and petitions to intervene. Therefore, any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before November 20, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, DC 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

[Docket No. CP73-20]

TRANSCO ENERGY CO.

Notice of Application for Disclaimer of Jurisdiction or for Temporary Certificate

NOVEMBER 8, 1972.

Take notice that on November 2, 1972, Transco Energy Co. (Applicant), Post Office Box 1396, Houston, TX 77001, filed in Docket No. CP73-20 an application for an order of the Commission disclaiming jurisdiction over the SNG facility which is the subject of the application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity filed pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act in the instant docket, or, in the alternative, for a temporary certificate authorizing the construction and operation of said facility, all as more fully set forth in the instant application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that, as shown in the companion application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity of Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corp. (Transco) in Docket No. CP73-21, it is estimated that Transco's domestic gas supply will fall short of meeting its certificated firm requirements by 267,513,000 Mcf in the year 1975 unless the additional supply of 87,500,000 Mcf to be provided by Applicant's SNG plant is available. Applicant states that this shortfall, which reflects the assumption that Transco will be able to contract for new supplies each year during the interim period with about 100,000 Mcf per day of deliverability, represents a curtailment of approximately 25 percent of the firm certificated requirements on Transco's system and that, even with the SNG facility on stream, the gas supply deficiency in 1975 is estimated to be 180,013,000 Mcf which is approximately 16 percent of the firm certificate requirements on Transco's system. Applicant alleges that, unless there is a substantial and presently unforeseen upturn in domestic production in Transco's gas supply area between now and 1975, there is no possibility of relief from the gas supply shortage by that time other than by the SNG facility proposed in the instant proceeding. Applicant states that, in order for the SNG facility to be ready for operation by the 1974-75 winter, site preparation must commence by February 1, 1973, and actual construction of the plant must commence by April 1, 1973.

Applicant submits that, although the Commission has not yet ruled on the question of its jurisdiction over naphtha-based SNG plants, the administrative law judge in Algonquin SNG, Inc., et al., Docket No. CP72-35, et al., has held that the Commission does not have jurisdiction over such a facility and no party to that case contended that the Commission does have jurisdiction; and, therefore, the Commission should issue an order disclaiming jurisdiction over Applicant's proposed SNG plant in order that Applicant may commence construction on schedule. In the alternative, Applicant requests a temporary certificate in order to assure maintenance of adequate service to Transco's customers.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application for disclaimer or temporary certificate should on or before November 27, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

COMMERCE BANCSHARES, INC.

Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

Commerce Bancshares, Inc., Kansas City, Mo., a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire 80 percent or more of the voting shares of Commerce Bank of St. Louis, National Association, St. Louis, Mo. (Bank), a proposed new bank.

Notice of receipt of the application has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act, and the time for filing comments and views has expired. The Board has considered the application and all comments received in the light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)) and finds that:

Applicant, the third largest bank holding company and banking organization in Missouri, has 21 subsidiary banks which control $985.9 million in deposits, representing 7.8 percent of total deposits in commercial banks in the State. (All banking data are for December 31, 1971, unless otherwise noted.)

Bank, which Applicant states would not be opened for business were the application to be denied, would be located in downtown St. Louis. Commerce Bancshares has four subsidiary banks within the relevant market which is considered to include St. Louis City, St. Louis County, and portions of Jefferson and St Charles Counties. These present subsidiary banks are all located in the suburban areas of St. Louis and are not significant factors in the market. Together they control less than 2 percent of market deposits. As bank is a proposed new bank consummation of the proposal would eliminate no existing competition, but rather would increase competition for corporate accounts in Bank's proposed service area, downtown St. Louis. While population in the proposed service area has been declining, there is still a higher ratio of population to banking offices than in the suburban areas and it appears that the area can support an additional banking alternative. Since 1967 the downtown banks have shown good deposit growth, and net income per share and net operating income per share for the four largest banks in St. Louis have increased an average of 22.8 percent and 16 percent respectively. The Board concludes that consummation of the proposal would not eliminate existing or potential competition, nor would it have adverse effects on any competing bank.

Considerations relating to the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Applicant and Bank are satisfactory and consistent with approval of the application. While Applicant proposes to orient Bank toward the provision of wholesale banking services, there is no evidence on the record that any significant banking needs are going unserved in the proposed service area. Applicant will, however, provide an alternative source of banking services. Considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the communities to be served are consistent with approval of the application.

A contention has been raised that the acquisition of Bank by Applicant would be in violation of the branch banking restrictions of the State of Missouri. As the Board stated in connection with its approval of the recent application of Boatmen's Bancshares, Inc., to acquire a proposed new bank in St. Louis County, "a State's restrictive branch banking laws do not, in light of the legislative history of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, prohibit the formation or expansion of a bank holding company in that State" (1972 Bulletin 923).

In addition, a protesting bank has petitioned that the system conduct a survey to determine whether there is a need for an additional wholesale bank in St. Louis. The bank further petitioned the Board to conduct either a formal or informal hearing on the application pursuant to the Board's rules of procedure, § 262(3)(f)(2, 3). In view of the fact that the Comptroller of the Currency recommended approval of the application, no hearing is required by the Act. (It might be noted that the Comptroller held a hearing prior to granting the charter for Bank and the protesting party appeared at that proceeding.) Further, it does not appear to the Board that there are any issues concerning the application on which a formal hearing or oral presentation would be useful. The petition is hereby denied with respect to the above requests. A request that the application be acted on by the Board rather than the Reserve Bank under delegated authority (12 CFR 265.2(f)(24)) was granted.

It is the Board's judgment that the proposed acquisition would be in the public interest and should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be consummated (a) before the 30th calendar day following the effective date of this order or (b) later than 3 months after the effective date of this order; and (c) Commerce Bank of St. Louis, National Association, St. Louis, Mo., shall be opened for business not later than 6 months after the effective date of this order. Each of the periods described in (b) and (c) may be extended for good cause by the Board, or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City pursuant to delegated authority.

By order of the Board of Governors,[1] effective November 3, 1972.

[SEAL] TYNAN SMITH,
Secretary of the Board.

BANK SHARES INC.

Application for Acquisition of O.C.B. Agency, Inc.

Bank Shares Inc., Minneapolis, Minn., has applied, pursuant to section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and section 225.4(b)(2) of the Board's Regulation Y, for permission to acquire voting shares of O.C.B. Agency, Inc., Rochester, Minn. Notice of the application was published on September 23, 1972, in Rochester Post-Bulletin, a newspaper circulated in Rochester, Minn.

Applicant states that the proposed subsidiary would engage in the activities of an insurance agency for the following types of insurance: (i) Insurance for the holding company and the subsidiaries, (ii) (a) insurance directly related to extensions of credit by a bank or bank related firm of the kind described in Regulation Y of the Federal Reserve Board of Governors, or (b) to directly related to the provision of other financial services by a bank or a bank related firm, or (c) insurance which is otherwise sold as a matter of convenience to the purchaser, so long as the premium income from sales within subdivision (ii)(c) does not constitute a significant portion of the aggregate insurance premium income of the holding company sold pursuant to subdivision (ii). Among the types of insurance applicant is presently selling are: credit life; accident and health; auto; fire; casualty; workmen's compensation; surety license and fidelity bonds; and term and whole life insurance. Certain insurance agency activities have been specified by the Board in section 225.4(a)(9) of Regulation Y as permissible for bank holding companies, subject to Board approval of individual proposals in accordance with the procedures of section 225.4(b). Applicant has stated that the activities of O.C.B. Agency not in compliance with section 225.4(a)(9) of Regulation Y will be eliminated.

Interested persons may express their views on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any request for a hearing on this question should be accompanied by a statement summarizing the evidence the person requesting the hearing proposes to submit or to elicit at the hearing and a statement of the reasons why this matter should not be resolved without a hearing.

The application may be inspected at the offices of the Board of Governors or at the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis.

Any views or requests for hearing should be submitted in writing and received by the Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551, not later than November 30, 1972.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, November 3, 1972.

VERMONT DEVELOPMENTAL PLAN

State Occupational Safety and Health Standards and Their Enforcement; Notice of Informal Hearing

1. Submission and description of plan. Pursuant to section 18 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (29 U.S.C. 667) and § 1902.11 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, notice is hereby given that an Occupational Safety and Health Plan for the State of Vermont has been submitted to the Assistant Secretary of Labor for Occupational Safety and Health. The Assistant Secretary has preliminarily reviewed the plan, and hereby gives notice that the question of the approval of the plan is in issue before him

The plan designates the Department of Labor and Industry as the agency responsible for administering the plan throughout the State. It proposes to define the occupational safety and health issues covered by it as defined by the Secretary of Labor in 29 CFR 1902.2(c)(1). All occupational safety and health standards promulgated by the U.S. Secretary of Labor will be adopted under the plan, except those found in 29 CFR Parts 1915, 1916, 1917, and 1918 (shiprepairing, shipbuilding, shipbreaking, longshoring), and after public hearings will become effective July 1, 1973. However, any standards promulgated by the U.S. Department of Labor after December 31, 1972, will not be immediately adopted as State standards but instead will be promulgated within 1 year from the date of the original promulgation by the U.S. Secretary of Labor.

Within the plan there is the Vermont Occupational Safety and Health Code which became law on July 1, 1972. The Act as enacted gives the Department of Labor and Industry the statutory authority to implement an Occupational Safety and Health Plan modeled after the Federal Act. It provides for the coverage of all employees within the States including employees of State agencies and municipalities. There are provisions within it granting the Commissioner of Labor and Industry the authority to inspect workplaces and to issue citations for the abatement of violations and there is also included a prohibition against advance notice of any such inspection. Further, there is a provision made for judicial review as well as for the creation of an Occupational Safety and Health Review Board. Imminent danger situations are to be promptly restrained and a system of penalties for violation of the Act is included within it. Thus, the Act sets forth the general authority and scope for implementing the Vermont plan, but at the same time, the plan is developmental within 29 CFR 1902.2(b) in that specific rules and regulations must be adopted to carry out the plan and to make it fully operative. There is set forth in the proposed plan a timetable providing for the future drafting of various administrative rules, regulations, and procedures. The timetable covers such general areas as the development and enforcement of occupational health and safety standards, administrative rules and regulations governing the operation of the Occupational Safety and Health Review Board, inspection rules and procedures including employer-employee representation during the inspection process, the rules governing imminent danger situations, rules and procedures controlling the granting of variances, the creation of a State informational program, the development of programs for employees exposed to toxic materials, the formulation of a voluntary compliance program, and the development of specific administrative procedures for implementing the plans within the State agencies. The plan also contains a comprehensive description of personnel employed under the State's merit system as well as its proposed budget and resources. Finally, attached to the plan is a copy of the Governor's support and approval of it.

2. Location of plan for inspection and copying. A copy of the plan may be inspected and copied during normal business hours at the following locations: Office of State Programs, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Room 500, Railway Labor Building, 400 First Street NW., Washington, DC 20210; Regional Administrator, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 18 Oliver Street, Fourth Floor, Boston, MA 02110; Department of Labor and Industry, State Office Building, Montpelier, Vt. 05602.

3. Public participation. Interested persons are hereby given 30 days from the date of this publication in which to submit to the Assistant Secretary written data, views, and arguments concerning the plan. The submissions are to be addressed to the Director, Office of State Programs, Room 500, Railway Labor Building, 400 First Street NW., Washington, DC 20210. The written comments will be available for public inspection and copying at the above address.

Any interested person(s) may request an informal hearing concerning the proposed plan, or any part thereof, whenever particularized written objections thereto are filed within the 30 days specified above. If the Assistant Secretary finds that substantial objections are filed, he shall hold a formal or informal hearing on the subjects and issues involved.

The Assistant Secretary of Labor for Occupational Safety and Health shall thereafter consider all relevant comments and arguments presented and issue his decision as to approval or disapproval of the plan.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 6th day of November 1972.

G. C. GUENTHER,
Assistant Secretary of Labor.

Upon consideration of the record in the above-entitled proceeding, and of:

(1) Joint petition of All-American Transport, Inc., C W Transport, Inc., Courier-Newsom Express, Inc., and Dohrn Transfer Co., protestants, filed May 22, 1972, for reconsideration or, alternatively, oral hearing or receipt of additional evidence;

It further appearing, that the evidence of record, when considered in light of the pleadings, discloses that the grant made by the review board herein would authorize the institution of a new competitive service to an extent not warranted by the record; that the service description should be altered as indicated below to conform to the evidence of record; and that the findings of the board should be modified accordingly; and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That said stay decision and order of March 14, 1972, be, and it is hereby, modified, in the section entitled "Service Authorized" of the appendix thereto, by substituting for the phrase, "O'Hare Field, Chicago, Ill., on the one hand, and on the other, points in the Chicago, Ill., commercial zone," the phrase "the plantsite of American Greeting Corp. near Danville, Ky., on the one hand, and on the other, Chicago, Ill., restricted to the transportation of traffic originating at or destined to the said plantsite.";

MINIMUM WAGES FOR FEDERAL AND FEDERALLY ASSISTED CONSTRUCTION

Area Wage Determination Decisions, Modifications and Supersedeas Decisions

Area wage determination decisions. Area Wage Determination Decisions of the Secretary of Labor specify, in accordance with applicable law and on the basis of information available to the Department of Labor from its study of local wage conditions and from other sources, the basic hourly wage rates and fringe benefit payments which are determined to be prevailing for the described classes of laborers and mechanics employed in construction activity of the character and in the localities specified therein.

The determinations in these decisions of such prevailing rates and fringe benefits have been made by authority of the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act of March 3, 1931, as amended (46 Stat. 1494, as amended, 40 U.S.C. 276a) and of other Federal statutes referred to in 29 CFR 1.1 (including the statutes listed at 36 F.R. 306 following Secretary of Labor's Order No. 24–70) containing provisions for the payment of wages which are dependent upon determinations by the Secretary of Labor under the Davis-Bacon Act; and pursuant to the provisions of Part 1 of Subtitle A of Title 29 of Code of Federal Regulations, Procedure for Predetermination of Wage Rates (37 F.R. 21138), and of Secretary of Labor's Orders 12–71 and 15–71 (36 F.R. 8755, 8756). The prevailing rates and fringe benefits determined in these decisions shall, in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing statutes, constitute the minimum wages payable on Federal and federally assisted construction projects to laborers and mechanics of the specified classes engaged on contract work of the character and in the localities described therein.

Good cause is hereby found for not utilizing notice and public procedure thereon prior to the issuance of these determinations as prescribed in 5 U.S.C. 553 and not providing for delay in effective date as prescribed in that section, because the necessity to issue construction industry wage determinations frequently and in large volume causes procedures to be impractical and contrary to the public interest.

Area Wage Determination Decisions are effective from their date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER without limitation as to time and are to be used in accordance with the provisions of 29 CFR, Parts 1 and 5. Accordingly, the applicable decision together with any modifications issued subsequent to its publication date shall be made a part of every contract for performance of the described work within the geographic area indicated as required by an applicable Federal prevailing wage law and 29 CFR, Part 5. The wage rates contained therein shall be the minimum paid under such contract by contractors and subcontractors on the work.

There is set forth below Area Wage Determination Decision No. AP–31 of the Secretary of Labor for Du Page County, Ill.

Modifications and supersedeas decisions to area wage determination decisions. Modifications and Supersedeas Decisions to Area Wage Determination Decisions for specified localities in the States of California, Illinois, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Nevada, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, Texas, and Wyoming.

These modifications and/or supersedeas decisions are based upon information obtained concerning changes in prevailing hourly wage rates and fringe benefit payments since these determinations were issued.

The determinations of prevailing rates and fringe benefits made in these modifications and/or supersedeas decisions have been made by authority of the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act of March 3, 1931, as amended (46 Stat. 1494, as amended, 40 U.S.C. 276a) and of other Federal statutes referred to in 29 CFR 1.1 (including the statutes listed at 36 F.R. 306 following Secretary of Labor's Order No. 24–70) containing provisions for the payment of wages which are dependent upon determination by the Secretary of Labor under the Davis-Bacon Act; and pursuant to the provisions of Part 1 of Subtitle A of Title 29 of Code of Federal Regulations, Procedure for Predetermination of Wage Rates (37 F.R. 21138), and of Secretary of Labor's Orders 13–71 and 15–71 (36 F.R. 8755, 8756). The prevailing rates and fringe benefits determined in the foregoing area wage determination decisions, as hereby modified, and/or superseded shall, in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing statutes, constitute the minimum wages payable on Federal and federally assisted construction projects to laborers and mechanics of the specified classes engaged in contract work of the character and in the localities described therein.

The modifications and/or supersedeas decisions are effective from their date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER and are to be used in accordance with the provisions of 29 CFR Parts 1 and 5.

Any person, organization, or governmental agency having an interest in the wages determined as prevailing is encouraged to submit wage rate information for consideration by the Department. Further information and self-explanatory forms for the purpose of submitting this data may be obtained by writing to the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment Standards Administration, Office of Special Wage Standards, Division of Wage Determinations, Washington, D.C. 20210. The cause for not utilizing the rule-making procedures prescribed in 5 U.S.C. 553 is set forth in the document being modified.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 3d day of November 1972.

Administrator,

[Navel Orange Reg. 273, Amdt. 1]

PART 907—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 907, as amended (7 CFR Part 907), regulating the handling of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California.

(b) Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraphs (b)(1) (i) and (iii) of § 907.573 (Navel Orange Regulation 273, 37 F.R. 23323) during the period November 3 through November 9, 1972, are hereby amended to read as follows:

PART 910—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

of the recommendations and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on November 7, 1972.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period November 12, through November 18, 1972, is hereby fixed at 175,000 cartons.

(2) As used in this section, "handled", and "carton(s)" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

PART 991—HANDLING OF HOPS OF DOMESTIC PRODUCTION

Subpart—Administrative Rules and Regulations

MINIMUM QUALITY STANDARDS

Notice was published in the October 12, 1972, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 21539) of a proposal recommended by the Hop Administrative Committee to amend the Subpart — Administrative Rules and Regulations (7 CFR 991.130–991.601). The subpart is operative pursuant to Order No. 991, as amended (7 CFR Part 991), regulating the handling of hops of domestic production, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674).

Section 991.31 contains the authority for promulgation of such minimum quality standards for hops in terms of their leaf and stem content and other quality factors as are required to effectuate the objectives of the order and the declared policy of the act. Currently, § 991.231 of the administrative rules and regulations prescribes minimum quality standards for hops. These standards prescribe the maximum permissible percentage of leaf and stem content that may be present in hops. Lupulin, and lupulin sweepings, appropriately packaged and identified, are exempt from these standards. This amendment adds a new paragraph (b) to § 991.231 which establishes quality standards for lupulin and lupulin sweepings. Hence, this amendment is consistent with action already taken with respect to baled hops and provides quality standards for all hops, including lupulin and lupulin sweepings. The amendment would insure a consistent quality of lupulin including lupulin sweepings by eliminating extraneous matter. These quality standards were developed after consultation with the Federal-State Inspection Service.

The notice afforded interested persons opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments with respect to the proposal. None were received.

After consideration of all relevant matter presented, including that in the notice, the information and recommendations submitted by the Committee, and other available information, it is hereby found that this action prescribing additional quality standards pursuant to said Order No. 991, as amended, and thereby providing for quality regulations of hops, including lupulin and lupulin sweepings, would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Therefore, Subpart — Administrative Rules and Regulations is amended by revising § 991.231 to read as follows:

§ 991.231 Minimum quality standards.

(a) Hops. No handler shall acquire, use, or sell, nor the Committee accept for reserve pooling, hops which have a leaf and stem content of more than 8 percent, as determined by the Federal-State Inspection Service: Provided, That lupulin, including lupulin sweepings, that have been packaged and so identified by Committee approved seals or stencils, shall be exempt from this leaf and stem requirement.

(b) Lupulin, including lupulin sweepings. No handler shall acquire, use, or sell, nor the Committee accept for reserve pooling, lupulin, including lupulin sweepings, unless 95 percent by weight of such lupulin, including lupulin sweepings, will pass through a number 10 mesh screen as determined by the Federal-State Inspection Service.

It is further found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective time of this action until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) and for making this action effective at the time hereinafter provided in that: (1) Most 1972 crop hops and lupulin are baled and are now beginning to enter the channels of commerce, and the industry desires that the quality standards prescribed herein apply to as much of the remaining lupulin and lupulin sweepings as possible; and (2) hops, including lupulin, in excess of producers' allotments became reserve on November 1 and the industry desires to have any lupulin or lupulin sweepings that are placed in the reserve pool meet these quality standards.

Dated: November 8, 1972, to become effective November 15, 1972.

PAUL A. NICHOLSON,
Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

Chapter X—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders; Milk), Department of Agriculture

[Milk Order 133; Docket No. AO–275–A25]

PART 1133—MILK IN THE INLAND EMPIRE MARKETING AREA

Order Amending Order

Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of the said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Inland Empire marketing area.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than December 1, 1972. Any delay beyond that date would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area.

The provisions of this order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Regulatory Programs, was issued October 6, 1972, and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order was issued October 30, 1972. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective December 1, 1972, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (Sec. 553(d), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 551–559).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in sec. 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order, amending the order, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

ORDER RELATIVE TO HANDLING

It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Inland Empire marketing area shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended, as follows:

1. In § 1133.8, the introductory text is revised to read as follows:

§ 1133.8 Pool plant.

"Pool plant" means any plant described in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, other than the plant of a producer-handler or a plant with respect to which the handler is exempt pursuant to § 1133.61, which is approved by an appropriate health authority for the receiving of milk qualified for distribution as Grade A milk in the marketing area. If a portion of such plant is physically separated from the Grade A part of such plant, is operated separately, and is not approved by any health authority for the receiving, processing, or packaging of any fluid milk product for Grade A disposition, it shall not be considered as part of a pool plant pursuant to this section.

* * * * * *

2. In § 1133.12, paragraph (c) is revised to read as follows:

§ 1133.12 Producer milk.

* * * * * *

(c) With respect to diversions to nonpool plants:

(1) A cooperative association may divert for its account, under paragraph (b)(1) of this section, the milk of any member-producer eligible for diversion. The total quantity of milk so diverted may not exceed 50 percent in any of the months of September through March, and 70 percent in any of the months of April through August, of its total member milk received at all pool plants or diverted therefrom during the month. Two or more cooperative associations may have their allowable diversions computed on the basis of the combined deliveries of milk by their member producers if each association has filed in writing with the market administrator a request for such computation;

(2) A handler operating a pool plant may divert for his account under paragraph (a)(2) of this section, milk of any producer eligible for diversion, other than a member of a cooperative association which diverts milk under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. The total quantity of milk so diverted may not exceed 50 percent in any of the months of September through March and 70 percent in any of the months of April through August, of the milk received at or diverted from such pool plant during the month from producers who are not members of a cooperative association that diverts milk under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph;

(3) Milk diverted in excess of the limits specified shall not be considered as producer milk, and the diverting handler shall specify the producers whose milk is ineligible as producer milk. If a handler fails to designate such producers, producer milk status shall be forfeited with respect to all milk diverted by the handler;

(4) Producers eligible for diversion are those whose milk has been received at the pool plant prior to diversion from such plant (but not necessarily in the current month). Producers eligible for diversion in the months of September, October, or November must in addition have at least 2 days' production received at a pool plant in the respective month; and

(5) For the purpose of location adjustments pursuant to §§ 1133.53 and 1133.81, diverted milk shall be considered to have been received at the location of the plant to which diverted.

3. In § 1133.81, paragraph (a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 1133.81 Location adjustments to producers and on nonpool milk.

(a) In making payments pursuant to § 1133.80 the market administrator shall reduce the uniform price computed pursuant to § 1133.71 by the location adjustment applicable at the plant where the milk was first physically received from producers, and the uniform price of producer milk diverted to a nonpool plant according to the location of the nonpool plant, each at the rates set forth in § 1133.53.

In § 76.2, in paragraph (e)(8) relating to the State of Tennessee, a new subdivision (i) relating to Hamblen and Jefferson Counties is added to read:

(e) * * *

(8) Tennessee. (i) The adjacent portions of Hamblen and Jefferson Counties bounded by a line beginning at the junction of U.S. Highway 25 E, State Highway 32, and Secondary Road 2488 in Hamblen County; thence, following U.S. Highway 25 E, State Highway 32 in a southeasterly direction to the north bank of the Broad River in Jefferson County; thence, following the north bank of the Broad River in a generally southwesterly direction to State Highway 92; thence, following State Highway 92 in a northwesterly direction to U.S. Highway 11 E; thence, following U.S. Highway 11 E in a northeasterly direction to the north bank of the Mossy Creek; thence, following the north bank of the Mossy Creek in a generally northwesterly direction to the east bank of the Cherokee Lake; thence, following the east bank of the Cherokee Lake in a generally northeasterly direction to Secondary Road 2488 in Hamblen County; thence, following Secondary Road 2488 in a southeasterly direction to its junction with U.S. Highway 25 E, State Highway 32 in Hamblen County.

Effective date. The foregoing amendment shall become effective upon issuance.

The amendment quarantines portions of Hamblen and Jefferson Counties in Tennessee because of the existence of hog cholera. This action is deemed necessary to prevent further spread of the disease. The restrictions pertaining to the interstate movement of swine and swine products from or through quarantined areas as contained in 9 CFR Part 76, as amended, will apply to the quarantined areas.

The amendment imposes certain further restrictions necessary to prevent the interstate spread of hog cholera, and must be made effective immediately to accomplish its purpose in the public interest. It does not appear that public participation in this rulemaking proceeding would make additional relevant information available to the Department.

Accordingly, under the administrative procedure provisions in 5 U.S.C. 553, it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable, unnecessary, and good cause is found for making it effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Title 10—ATOMIC ENERGY

Chapter I—Atomic Energy Commission

PART 170—FEES FOR FACILITIES AND MATERIALS LICENSES UNDER THE ATOMIC ENERGY ACT OF 1954, AS AMENDED

Removal of Exemption From Fees for Licenses Issued to Government Agencies for Nuclear Power Plants

On October 4, 1972, the Atomic Energy Commission published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 20871) a proposed amendment to its regulations in 10 CFR Part 170 to remove the exemption from payment of fees for a construction permit or license applied for by, or issued to, a Government agency for a reactor producing power on a commercial basis. Interested persons were invited to submit written comments and suggestions for consideration within 15 days after publication of the notice of proposed rule making in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No comments were received. The Commission has adopted the amendment in the form set forth in the notice of proposed rule making.

On June 16, 1972, legislation was enacted amending the Atomic Energy Act by adding a new subsection 161.w., which authorized the Commission to:

> w. Prescribe and collect from any other Government agency, which applies for or is issued a license for a utilization facility designed to produce electrical or heat energy pursuant to section 103 or 104b, any fee, charge, or price which it may require, in accordance with the provisions of section 483a of title 31 of the United States Code or any other law, of applicants for, or holders of, such licenses.

The amendment which follows implements the new statutory authority by amending § 170.11(a)(5) of Part 170 to remove the exemption for Government agencies which apply for or are issued a license to operate a nuclear reactor producing power for sale.

Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and sections 552 and 553 of title 5 of the United States Code, the following amendment to Title 10, Chapter 1, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 170, is published as a document subject to codification to be effective thirty (30) days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Subparagraph (5) of § 170.11(a) of 10 CFR Part 170 is amended to read as follows:

170.11 Exemptions.

(a) No application filing fees, license fees, or annual fees shall be required for:

* * * * * *

(5) A construction permit or license applied for by, or issued to, a Government agency, except for a utilization facility designed to produce electrical or heat energy pursuant to section 103 or 104b of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

(Sec. 501, 65 Stat. 290; 31 U.S.C. 483a)

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Transportation

[Docket No. 72-SO-110, Amdt. 39-1554]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Teledyne Continental Engine Models IO-346-A, IO-520-B, IO-520-C and TSIO-520-B, TSIO-520-E and TSIO-520-J Engine Oil Filter Adapter

Amendment 39-1215 (36 F.R. 9241, 9242), AD 71-11-4, as amended by Amendments 39-1256 (39 F.R. 14127) and 39-1289 (39 F.R. 18373) requires inspection and replacement, if necessary, of the oil filter housing base plate on Teledyne Continental engine Models IO-346-A, IO-520-B, IO-520-C, and TSIO-520-B, TSIO-520-E and TSIO-520-J engines models with improved Teledyne Continental Part No. 633750 or AC Part No. 6437508 (Package No. 6436627) base plate. In addition, this amendment established requirements for inspection of the oil filter adapter and installation procedures for the oil filter housing assembly until such time as a strengthened replacement adapter has been installed. Since the issuance of this amendment, several configurations of strengthened oil filter adapters were produced; however, certain of these redesigned adapters were reported to have failed. Consequently, the requirement to install oil filter adapter Teledyne Continental Part No. 631645 or AC Part No. 5579663 identified with ½-inch-tall raised letter "A" and raised dot directly above it (cast into the adapter) was deleted from AD 71-11-4. Subsequently, Teledyne Continental has produced a satisfactory adapter which is now on new production engines and AC has produced a new strengthened adapter which has accumulated considerable satisfactory service.

Therefore, Airworthiness Directive 71-11-4 is being superseded by a new airworthiness directive that reinstitutes the replacement of oil filter adapters with either the Teledyne Continental adapter or the improved AC adapter at next overhaul and retains the inspection provisions of Amendment 39-1289 only until an improved adapter is installed.

Since this amendment is in part relaxatory in nature, provides clarification, and is in the interest of safety, it is found that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (39 F.R. 13697), § 39.13 or Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following airworthiness directive:

TELEDYNE CONTINENTAL: Applies to Models IO-346-A, IO-520-B and IO-520-C and TSIO-520-B, TSIO-520-E, and TSIO-520-J engines having Teledyne Continental Part No. 631645 oil filter adapter installed, used with AC OF-9-A oil filter assembly.

Compliance required as indicated, unless already accomplished. To prevent loss of oil accomplish the following or an equivalent procedure approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, Southern Region, Atlanta, Ga.:

(A) Not later than next engine overhaul, replace Teledyne Continental Part No. 631645 oil filter adapter with strengthened Teledyne Continental Part No. 632881 (Kit Part No. 637584A1) in accordance with Teledyne Continental Service Bulletin M70-16 or AC Part No. 5579663 (Package No. 6437861) in accordance with AC Instruction Sheet 6439067. NOTE: The correct AC part may be identified by a cast-in insignia "Ā" (raised letter A with a raised bar over the letter A). All other AC adapters are ineligible, including those identified by a plain-raised letter "A" and a raised letter "A" and a raised dot (A) directly above. The Teledyne Continental adapter is identified by part number only.

(B) Within 25 hours' time in service from the effective date of the amendment, unless already accomplished under AD 71-11-4, paragraph (B) inspect the base plate to determine whether the gasket retaining seat is wedge-shaped or rectangular. If the gasket seat is wedge-shaped, replace this part with improved Teledyne Continental Part No. 633750 or AC Part No. 6437508 (Package No. 6436627) base plate having a rectangular-shaped gasket retaining seat.

NOTE: The required base plate can be identified by the presence of a thin sheet metal, square-shouldered retaining ring, spot welded around the gasket groove to hold the gasket in place.

(C) Unless already accomplished within the last 50 hours' of service prior to date of this amendment, accomplish the following within the next 25 hours' time in service and at every oil filter element change thereafter:

(1) Visually inspect the upper surface of the oil filter adapter face using a light and mirror for indications of radial cracks inward from the outer edge. Replace any cracked adapters with serviceable parts prescribed in paragraph (A).

(2) After placing filter element in housing in accordance with oil filter element manufacturers' instructions, install assembled housing and base plate to adapter as follows:

(a) Clean all gasket and seal surfaces.

(b) Lubricate new gasket well, on both sides using engine oil.

(c) Install assembly on adapter and turn center stud to a light seal contact by hand.

(d) Visually inspect base plate to adapter seal for proper positioning and seating.

(e) Torque center studs to 15–18 lb. ft. If torque wrench is not available or center stud is inaccessible to torque wrench, tighten center stud 1¾ turns beyond point of initial seal contact.

(f) Reattach upper bracket and resafety.

(g) Operate engine for approximately 5 minutes at 1,000–2,000 r.p.m. Check for oil

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, having evaluated the data in a petition (FAP 1B2629) filed by Quaker Chemical Corp., Conshohocken, Pa. 19428, and other relevant material, concludes that the food additive regulations should be amended as set forth below to provide for the safe use of tridecanol as a component of surface lubricants employed in the manufacture of metallic articles that contact food. The Commissioner further concludes that the tridecanol food additive should be identified as a synthetic primary alcohol mixture of straight- and branched-chain alcohols that contain at least 99 percent primary alcohols consisting of the following: Not less than 70 percent normal alcohols; not less than 93 percent C_{12}—C_{18} alcohols; not more than 5 percent C_{14}—C_{15} alcohols; and not more than 2.5 percent alpha, omega C_{18}—C_{19} diols.

§ 1706.1 Purpose.

To set forth those provisions of the Office of Emergency Preparedness Physical Security Regulations to the extent they affect the general public.

§ 1706.2 Authority to classify.

(a) Personal and nondelegable: Classification authority may be exercised only by those officials who are designated by, or in writing pursuant to, section 2 of Executive Order 11652. Such officials may classify information or material only at the level authorized or below. This authority vests only to the official designated and may not be delegated.

(b) The authority to originally classify information or material as Top Secret shall be exercised only by:

(1) Director.

(2) Deputy Director.

(3) Assistant Director.

(4) Assistant to the Director for Administration.

(c) The authority to originally classify information or material as Secret shall be exercised by those officials having Top Secret classification authority and the following:

(3) Assistant to the Director for Planning Review.

(4) Health Adviser.

(5) Assistant to the Director for Congressional and Public Affairs.

(6) Assistant to the Director for Administration Chief, Security Division.

(b) Chief, Information Systems Division.

(10) All Regional Directors.

(d) The authority to originally classify information or material as Confidential shall be exercised by all of the above.

(e) Observance of classification: Whenever information or material classified by an official designated under paragraph (a) of this section is incorporated in another document or other material by any person other than the classifier, the previously assigned security classification category shall be reflected thereon together with the identity of the classifier.

(f) Identification of classifier: The person at the highest level authorizing the classification must be identified on the face of the information or material classified, unless the identity of such person might disclose sensitive intelligence information. In the latter instance OEP shall establish some other record by which the classifier can readily be identified.

(g) Record requirement: The Office of Emergency Preparedness shall maintain a listing by name of the officials who have been designated in writing to have Top Secret, Secret, and Confidential classification authority. The listings and records shall be compiled beginning July 1, 1972, and updated at least on a quarterly basis.

(h) Resolution of doubts: If the classifier has any substantial doubt as to which security classification category is appropriate, or as to whether the material should be classified at all, he should designate the less restrictive treatment.

§ 1706.3 Review of classified material for declassification purposes.

(a) Mandatory review of exempted material. All classified information and material originated in OEP after June 1, 1972, which is exempt from the General Declassification Schedule shall be subject to a classification review by the originating office at any time after the expiration of 10 years from the date of origin provided:

(1) A department or agency or member of the public requests a review;

(2) The request describes the record with sufficient particularity to enable OEP to identify it; and

(3) The record can be obtained with only a reasonable amount of effort.

Information or material which no longer qualifies for exemption shall be declassified. Information or material continuing to qualify under the Exemptions Schedule shall be so marked and, unless impossible, a date for automatic declassification shall be set.

(b) Systematic reviews. All information and material originating in OEP and classified after the effective date of Executive Order 11652 and determined in accordance with Chapter 21, 44 U.S.C. (82 Stat. 1287) to be of sufficient historical or other value to warrant preservation shall be systematically reviewed on a timely basis by OEP for the purpose of making such information and material publicly available in accordance with the determination regarding declassification made by the classifier under Executive Order 11652. During each calendar year OEP shall segregate to the maximum extent possible all such information and material warranting preservation and becoming declassified at or prior to the end of such year. Promptly after the end of such year OEP, or the Archives of the United States if transferred thereto, shall make the declassified information and material available to the public to the extent permitted by law.

(c) Review for declassification of classified material over 10 years old. The OEP Security Division is designated the office to which members of the public or departments may direct requests for mandatory review for declassification. This office shall in turn assign the request to the appropriate office for action. In addition, the office which has been assigned action shall immediately acknowledge receipt of the request in writing. If the request requires the rendering of services for which fair and equitable fees should be charged pursuant to title 5 of the Independent Offices Appropriations Act, 1952, 65 Stat. 290, 31 U.S.C. 483a the requester shall be notified. The action office shall thereafter make a determination within 30 days of receipt or shall explain the reasons why further time is necessary. If at the end of 60 days from receipt of the request for review no determination has been made, the requester may apply to the OEP Classification Review Committee for a determination. Should the office assigned action on a request for review determine that under the criteria set forth in Executive Order 11652 continued classification is required, the requester shall promptly be notified, and whenever possible, provided with a brief statement as to why the requested information or material cannot be declassified. The requester may appeal any such determination to the OEP Classification Review Committee and the notice of determination shall advise him of this right.

(d) Departmental committee review for declassification. The OEP Classification Review Committee shall establish procedures to review and act within 30 days upon all applications and appeals regarding requests for declassification. The Director, OEP, acting through the Classification Review Committee shall be authorized to overrule previous determinations in whole or in part when, in its judgment, continued protection is no longer required. If the OEP Classification Review Committee determines that continued classification is required, it shall promptly so notify the requester and advise him that he may appeal the denial to the Interagency Classification Review Committee.

(e) Review of classified material over 30 years old. A request by a member of the public or by a department to review for declassification OEP documents more than 30 years old shall be referred directly to the Archivist of the United States, and he shall have the requested documents reviewed for declassification. If the OEP information or material requested has not been transferred to the General Services Administration for accession into the Archives, the Archivist shall, together with the Director of OEP, have the requested documents reviewed for declassification. Classification shall be continued in either case only where the Director of OEP makes at that time the personal determination required by section 5(E)(1) of Executive Order 11652. The Archivist shall promptly notify the requester of such determination and of his right to appeal the denial to the Interagency Classification Review Committee.

(f) Burden of proof for administrative determinations. For purposes of administrative determinations under paragraph (c), (d), or (e) of this section, the burden of proof is on the originating department to show that continued classification is warranted within the terms of the order.

(g) Availability of declassified material. Upon a determination of paragraph (c), (d), or (e) of this section that the requested material no longer warrants classification it shall be declassified and made promptly available to the requester, if not otherwise exempt from disclosure under section 552(b) of title 5 U.S.C. (Freedom of Information Act) or other provision of law.

(h) Classification review requests. As required by section 5(C) of the order, a request for classification review must describe the document with sufficient particularity to enable OEP to identify it and obtain it with a reasonable amount of effort. Whenever a request is deficient in its description of the record sought, the requester should be asked to provide additional identifying information whenever possible. Before denying a request on the ground that it is unduly burdensome, the requester should be asked to limit his request to records that are reasonably obtainable. If nonetheless the requester does not describe the records sought with sufficient particularity, or the record requested cannot be obtained with a reasonable amount of effort, the requester shall be notified of the reasons why no action will be taken and of his right to appeal such decision.

§ 1706.4 Historical research and access by former Government officials.

(a) The Director, OEP, upon written request may permit persons outside the executive branch performing functions in connection with historical research projects to have access to classified information if it is determined that (1) access to the information will be clearly consistent with the interests of national security, and (2) the persons to be granted access have the apropriate security clearances on record with the OEP Security Office.

(b) Every applicant for access shall beforehand agree in writing to the following:

(1) The historical researcher agrees to safeguard the information or material in a manner consistent with Executive Order 11652 and directives thereunder.

(2) The information or material requested is reasonably accessible and can be located and compiled with a reasonable amount of effort.

(3) The historical researcher agrees to authorize a review of his notes and manuscript for the sole purpose of determining that no classified information or material is contained therein.

(c) Access granted a person by reason of his having previously occupied a policymaking position shall be limited to those papers which the former official originated, reviewed, signed, or received while in public office.

(d) These requirements and procedures shall have no application to Restricted Data or formerly Restricted Data since access to such information may only be granted by the Atomic Energy Commission.

The purpose of the amendment is to elliminate the clause "which tour did not originate within 500 miles of the park boundaries" from the first sentence of paragraph (f) as an unnecessary restriction on operation of passenger-carrying motor vehicles in the park and to substitute the clause "on which the visit to the park is an incident to such tour." In addition, the phrase "at or outside the park" has been deleted from the last sentence of paragraph (f) as misleading and unnecessary since no such services outside the park are provided pursuant to a contract with the Secretary of the Interior.

It is the policy of the Department of the Interior, whenever practicable, to afford the public an opportunity to participate in the rulemaking process. However, due to immediate need for this change, the amendment will take effect immediately on publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11–11–72).

Section 7.13 of Title 36 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended to read as follows:

• • • • •

(f) Commercial automobiles and buses. The prohibition against the commercial transportation of passengers by motor vehicles in Yellowstone National Park contained in § 5.4 of this chapter shall be subject to the following exception: Motor vehicles operated on an infrequent and nonscheduled tour on which the visit to the park is an incident to such tour, carrying only round trip passengers traveling from the point of origin of the tour will, subject to the conditions set forth in this paragraph, be accorded admission to the park for the purpose of delivering passengers to a point of overnight stay in the park and exit from the park. After passengers have completed their stay, such motor vehicles shall leave the park by the most convenient exit station, considering their destinations. Motor vehicles admitted to the park under this paragraph shall not, while in the park, engage in general sightseeing operations. Admission will be accorded such vehicles upon establishing to the satisfaction of the superintendent that the tour originated from such place and in such manner as not to provide in effect a regular and duplicating service conflicting with, or in competition with, the services provided for the public pursuant to contract authorization from the Secretary. The superintendent shall have the authority to specify the route to be followed by such vehicles within the park.

Title 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans Administration

PART 36—LOAN GUARANTY

Release of Liability

The Veterans Administration is amending §§ 36.4323 and 36.4508, Title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations to implement the provisions of section 204 of Public Law 92–328 (86 Stat. 393). The amendment is issued pursuant to the authority of section 210(c), Title 38, United States Code. The regulations set forth the conditions under which a veteran who has disposed of residential property securing a guaranteed, insured, or direct loan obtained by him under 38 U.S.C. Ch. 37 without receiving a release from liability with respect to such loan may, after termination of the loan, be released from liability on the resulting indebtedness.

The regulations were published in proposed form in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 24, 1972 (37 F.R. 17067), with a request for comment from interested parties. The few comments received approved the change insofar as it went but requested further extension of the new regulations. The suggested changes were beyond the scope of the law (Public Law 92–328) and therefore cannot be incorporated in the regulations.

Effective date. These VA regulations are effective on the date of approval of the Administrator.

Approved: November 6, 1972.

By direction of the Administrator.

[SEAL] FRED B. RHODES,
Deputy Administrator.

1. In § 36.4323, paragraph (g) is added to read as follows:

§ 36.4323 Subrogation and indemnity.

• • • • •

(g) If, on or after July 1, 1972, any veteran disposes of residential property securing a guaranteed or insured loan obtained by him under 38 U.S.C. Ch. 37, without receiving a release from liability with respect to such loan under 38 U.S.C. 1817(a) and a default subsequently occurs which results in liability of the veteran to the Administrator on account of the loan, the Administrator may relieve the veteran of such liability if he determines that:

(1) A transferee either immediate or remote is legally liable to the Administrator for the debt of the original veteran-borrower established after the termination of the loan, and

(2) The original loan was current at the time such transferee acquired the property, and

(3) The transferee who is liable to the Administrator is found to have been a satisfactory credit risk at the time he acquired the property.

2. In § 36.4508, paragraph (c) is added to read as follows:

§ 36.4508 Transfer of property by borrower.

• • • • •

(c) If, on or after July 1, 1972, any veteran disposes of the property securing a direct loan obtained by him under 38 U.S.C. Ch. 37, without receiving a release from liability with respect to such loan under 38 U.S.C. 1817(a) and a default subsequently occurs which results in liability of the veteran to the Administrator on account of the loan, the Administrator may relieve the veteran of such liability if he determines that:

(1) A transferee either immediate or remote is legally liable to the Administrator for the debt of the original veteran-borrower established after the termination of the loan, and

(2) The original loan was current at the time such transferee acquired the property, and

(3) The transferee who is liable to the Administrator is found to have been a satisfactory credit risk at the time he acquired the property.

PART 146—TRANSPORTATION OR STORAGE OF EXPLOSIVES OR OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES OR SUBSTANCES AND COMBUSTIBLE LIQUIDS ON BOARD CARGO VESSELS

Nitrogen Tetroxide

The purpose of this amendment is to:

1. Authorize DOT 3A, 3AA, and 3E cylinders for nitrogen tetroxide, liquid.

On Wednesday, March 1, 1972, the Coast Guard published a notice of proposed rule making containing these proposals. A public hearing was held on May 24, 1972, and interested persons were given 90 days in which to submit written comments. No comments were received on these proposals. The remaining six proposals contained in that notice will be handled in a future rule making.

In consideration of the foregoing Title 46, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 146 is amended as follows:

§ 146.25–100 [Amended]

1. In § 146.25–100 "Table H-Classification: Class A extremely dangerous poisons" for the article "Nitrogen tetroxide, liquid" by adding to column 4 the following:

(2) Not overpacked; and

(3) Durable and legibly marked in accordance with CGA Pamphlet C–7 Appendix A, dated May 15, 1971, entitled "A Guide for the Preparation of Precautionary Markings for Compressed Gas Containers."

This amendment becomes effective on February 16, 1973.

Title 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter V—National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Department of Transportation

[Docket 71–1; Notice 4]

PART 571—FEDERAL MOTOR VEHICLE SAFETY STANDARDS

Glazing Materials; Response to Petitions for Reconsideration

This notice responds to petitions for reconsideration of an amendment published June 21, 1972 (37 F.R. 12237), to Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 205, "Glazing Materials" (49 CFR 571.205). Petitions were received from the Recreational Vehicle Institute (RVI) and the California Highway Patrol. To the extent that this notice does not grant the requests of the petitioners, they are hereby denied.

In the amendment of June 21, the NHTSA changed the application section of the standard, based on FHWA Ruling 68–1 (33 F.R. 5020, March 26, 1968) to expressly include glazing for use in all campers, and defined campers to include both slide-in or "pickup" campers (including a related item, pickup covers), and chassis-mount campers (campers mounted directly onto truck chassis). The 1968 ruling held that Standard No. 205 applied to glazing for use in slide-in campers, and that glazing for use in chassis-mount campers came within the standard when the camper was ultimately attached to a chassis, as a standard applied expressly to the glazing of the completed vehicle, a multipurpose passenger vehicle. The petitioner objects to this amendment on the basis that the recreational vehicle industry has distinguished between the two camper types, and has considered the latter a motor home (a multipurpose passenger vehicle under Standard No. 205), and the former an item of motor vehicle equipment. It requests in its petition that this earlier distinction be retained in the standard.

The NHTSA has determined that the petition of RVI in this regard should be granted, and the applicability section of the standard is amended to refer specifically both to glazing for use in "slide-in campers," as that term is defined in Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 126, Truck-Camper Loading (49 CFR 571.126), and to glazing for use in pickup covers. Chassis-mount campers are included in a newly defined category of multipurpose passenger vehicle, "motor home," and glazing for use in them is subject to the standard insofar as they are incorporated into completed vehicles.

The RVI petition also requested that the requirements of the standard for glazing for use in multipurpose passenger vehicles (including chassis-mount campers and other motor homes) be clarified, suggesting that the requirements be made identical to those for passenger car glazing, with an exception in the case of motor homes for locations other than windshields, and windows directly to the right and left of the driver. It further requested that forward-facing windows of motor homes be considered to be "openings in the roof" under ANS Z.26. The NHTSA has previously, as a matter of interpretation, taken the position that is embodied in this amendment, that for the purposes of Standard No. 205 glazing for use in multipurpose passenger vehicles is subject to the requirements for glazing for use in trucks. This is based on the definition of multipurpose passenger vehicle in section 571.3: "A motor vehicle with motive power, except a trailer, designed to carry 10 persons or less, which is constructed either on a truck chassis or with special features for occasional off-road operation." The agency has decided to adhere to this position.

An exception is hereby adopted for motor home windows other than windshields, forward-facing windows, and windows directly to the right and left of the driver. Manufacturers may use in these other locations any type of glazing allowed by the standard to be used in motor vehicles. This is the position previously adopted for slide-in campers, which have a purpose and use similar to motor homes. The effect of this provision is to allow the use in motor homes, except for windshields, forward-facing windows, and windows to the immediate right and left of the driver, of any item authorized for use in motor vehicles by Standard No. 205. Windshields and windows to the immediate right and left of the driver must conform to the requirements applicable to trucks for those locations. Forward-facing windows may be manufactured of any item authorized for use by the standard except item 6 (AS 6), item 7 (AS 7), and item 13 (AS 13) flexible plastics.

The California Highway Patrol has petitioned for reconsideration of that part of the amendment which seemed to delete a requirement that persons who cut glazing material must place on the cut material the prime manufacturer's marking. Section 6 of ANS Z26 requires sections of glazing cut from pieces bearing the markings required by that section to be identically marked. The June 21 notice did not delete this provision. It deleted that part of the proposed requirements specifying that persons who cut glazing materials include the DOT symbol and the prime manufacturer's code number. The language of the preamble (p. 12238, col. 3) was intended to reflect only that fact. This amendment clarifies those requirements to make it clear that persons who cut glazing must include the markings required by section 6 of ANS Z26 on each cut piece. The amendment also provides that the prime manufacturer's DOT symbol and code number are to be affixed only to glazing items made by the prime manufacturer as components for specific vehicles, and not on sheets to be cut into components by other persons.

The marking provisions are further amended to specify that the new items of glazing material authorized by the amendment of June 21 be identified for purposes of marking by the marks "AS 12" and "AS 13". The use of these marks does not indicate approval by the American National Standards Institute, but is specified for the purpose of consistency with existing marking requirements.

In light of the above, Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 205, Glazing Materials, appearing at 49 CFR 571.205, is amended as follows:

1. Paragraph S3., Application, is revised to read as follows:

S3. Application. This standard applies to glazing materials for use in passenger cars, multipurpose passenger vehicles, trucks, buses, motorcycles, slide-in campers, and pickup covers designed to carry persons while in motion.

2. Paragraph S4., Definitions, is revised to read as follows:

Chapter X—Interstate Commerce Commission

SUBCHAPTER B—OTHER REGULATIONS RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION

[Ex Parte No. MC-83]

PART 1053—CONTRACTS FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF PROPERTY

Contract Carrier Authority; Definition of Shipper

At a General Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 19th day of October 1972.

In the matter of Administrative Ruling No. 76, No. MC-C-6786, Milton K. Morris, Inc., petition for declaratory order.

It appearing, that by notice of proposed rule making and order of October 14, 1970, this Commission instituted the above-cited rule making proceeding to consider whether and to what extent Commission policies announced informally in Administrative Ruling No. 76 in 1939, should be revised in the light of present-day conditions and practices surrounding and affecting the operations of a contract carrier by motor vehicle as defined in section 203(a)(15) of the Interstate Commerce Act; and to take such other and further action as the facts and circumstances may justify or require;

It further appearing, that the proceeding in No. MC-C-6786 was held open pending the determination in the above-cited Ex Parte proceeding;

And it further appearing, that investigation of the matters and things involved in these proceedings having been made, and the Commission having made and filed a report herein containing its findings of fact and conclusions thereon, which report is hereby made a part hereof;

It is ordered, That Part 1053 of Subchapter B of Chapter X of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations be, and it is hereby, amended by adding a new § 1053.7, reading as follows:

§ 1053.7 Contract carrier authority—definition of shipper.

Contracts of contract carriers, as required by Ex Parte No. MC-12 (1 M.C.C. 628), must be between the contract carrier and a particular shipper or shippers. The term "shipper" means the person who controls the transportation and refers to the actual shipper rather than an intermediary. Such shipper may be nominally either the consignor or consignee, but must be one or the other. The payment of the charges for the transportation is evidence that the person who pays is the person who controls the transportation and such person will be presumed to be the shipper. However, this presumption is rebuttable and can be rebutted by evidence demonstrating that a person not paying the transportation charges controls the selection of the carrier and the routing of the shipment. In such an instance, the person selecting the carrier and controlling the routing of the shipment would be presumed to be the shipper. The contract carrier may not transport property for shippers other than the shipper with whom he has a contract.

It is further ordered, That in all other respects, the petition in No. M-C-6786 be, and it is hereby, denied.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective on December 26, 1972, and shall continue in effect until the further order of this Commission.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing a copy thereof with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

Title 6—ECONOMIC STABLIZATION

Chapter II—Pay Board

PART 201—STABILIZATION OF WAGES AND SALARIES

Extension of Control Year for Nonunion Construction

The purpose of the amendment set forth below is to provide a new definition of the term "control year" for pay adjustments involving certain nonunion construction employees. Under present § 201.82(f), that term means the 12-month period beginning on November 14, 1971, and ending on November 13, 1972. The amendment would extend the definition to mean each succeeding 12-month period beginning on November 14.

Since this amendment is essential to the expeditious implementation of the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended, and Executive Order No. 11640, as amended, the Board finds that the time for submission of written comments by interested persons in accordance with the usual rule making procedure is impracticable and that good cause exists for promulgating this amendment in less than 30 days. Interested persons may submit written comments regarding the amendment. Communications should be addressed to the Office of the General Counsel, Pay Board, Washington, D.C. 20508.

(Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended (Public Law 92-210, 85 Stat. 743), Executive Order No. 11,640, 37 F.R. 1213 (1972), as amended by Executive Order No. 11,660, 37 F.R. 6175 (1972), and Cost of Living Council Order No. 3, 36 F.R. 20202 (1971), as amended)

MILK IN SOUTH TEXAS MARKETING AREA

Notice of Recommended Decision and Opportunity To File Written Exceptions on Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and to Order

Notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the South Texas marketing area.

Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, by the seventh day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate. All written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be made available for public inspection at the office of the Hearing Clerk during regular business hours (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

The above notice of filing of the decision and of opportunity to file exceptions thereto is issued pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900).

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendments, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, were formulated was conducted at Washington, D.C., on December 13, 1971, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued December 3, 1971 (36 F.R. 23222).

This hearing was held to consider certain proposed amendments to all Federal milk orders in effect, including the South Texas order. Following the issuance of a recommended decision on January 5, 1972 (37 F.R. 447), and a final decision on January 24, 1972 (37 F.R. 1368), concerning the hearing proposals, all orders except the South Texas order were amended effective February 1, 1972 (37 F.R. 2927).

A decision on the proposed amendments to the South Texas order was deferred pending the outcome of a preliminary injunction by the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia which restrained the Secretary from effectuating an order, issued July 16, 1971, terminating the South Texas order. On October 26, 1972, the court vacated its preliminary injunction and the order terminating the South Texas order was rescinded by the Assistant Secretary on November 7, 1972. These actions now permit a decision on the proposed amendments to the South Texas order.

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. Advancing the date for announcing the Class I price; and
2. Taking emergency action on Issue 1.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. Advance pricing. The South Texas order should provide that the Class I price for the month be announced by the fifth day of the preceding month, and that such price be based on the Minnesota-Wisconsin price (basic formula price) for the second preceding month. Presently, the order requires that the Class I price be announced by the fifth day of the current month, and that it be based on the Minnesota-Wisconsin price for the preceding month.

This manner of computing and announcing the Class I price was incorporated in each of the other 61 orders included in this hearing. In the January 24, 1972, decision for these orders, the following findings and conclusions were set forth:

"The Milk Industry Foundation (MIF), whose membership includes handlers under the 62 orders, proposed the earlier determination and announcement of Class I prices adopted herein. MIF claims that because handlers are unable to adjust their resale prices at the same time as, or within a reasonable period of, the change in their raw material cost, they are forced to absorb Class I price increases for extended periods before they can make necessary adjustments in their resale prices. The need for advance pricing is particularly urgent now, according to MIF, because of the requirements to which handlers are subject under the Economic Stabilization Act. Proponents claim handlers would be required to substantiate resale price increases resulting from Class I price changes in accordance with steps prescribed pursuant to that Act."

This procedure, it is argued, will extend even further the period of time between a Class I price change and the corresponding adjustment in resale prices.

"A handler who operates regulated plants under a number of orders testified in support of the MIF proposal. The witness emphasized particularly that advance pricing is needed by handlers to enable them to change resale prices at the same time the Class I price increases. He stated that handlers are now at a disadvantage in not knowing the Class I price for the month before the fifth of the month and, therefore, are unable to institute resale price changes before the greater part of the month to which the Class I price applies is over.

"National Milk Producers Federation (NMPF), which represents producer associations under the 62 orders, supported the MIF proposal. A number of producer association members of NMPF maintain milk processing and distribution operations. According to the NMPF witness, such associations have the same interest in advance Class I pricing as do proprietary handlers. The witness further stated that its other producer association members, however, fully support the proposal. He took the position that using the Minnesota-Wisconsin price for a month earlier than at present (in computing the Class I price) would not result in producers receiving any less money for their milk than they do now. He reasoned that the increases and decreases from month to month in the Class I price (due to changes in the Minnesota-Wisconsin price) would be fully reflected in returns to producers as they now are, except for a delay of 1 month.

"The spokesman for the cooperative representing producers under five orders in the Northeast stated that the cooperative had not had sufficient time to study the proposal and its effect on its members, and therefore, urged that no action be taken on it. He questioned particularly whether the principal basis of proponents for requesting advance pricing is a valid one. In this connection, he cited an earlier decision of the Secretary in which it was found that there is no basis for assuming that there is a direct relationship between changes in Class I prices and changes in prices charged to stores and to consumers.

"The rapidly changing structure of the milk distribution industry throughout the United States makes it desirable that handlers be notified at a reasonable period in advance of changes in the price they must pay for Class I milk. An increasing proportion of the milk distribution throughout the country is by large firms, including cooperative associations as well as proprietary handlers. The centralized control of these large distributors requires a longer period of time between the date a Class I price change is announced and the time when the change may be made in their resale prices.

"According to an industry witness, it is mechanically impossible to place in effect a price increase in less than 2 to 4 weeks after learning of Class I price changes. This problem is compounded by the adoption of machine accounting by both handlers and retailers. Computer programs must be changed by both parties, a new price list developed and circulated by handlers, and new pricing schedules issued to retailers by both chain and cooperative buying groups.

"The major portion of the distribution of the principal handlers in the order markets is to large volume buyers such as supermarket chains and institutions (e.g., hospitals, schools). The prices at which sales are made to these are primarily on a contractual basis, many by advance bidding. Announcing Class I prices before the month to which they apply will facilitate the resale pricing of milk sold to large volume outlets.

"Replacing the Minnesota-Wisconsin price for the month immediately preceding with that for the second preceding month for computing Class I prices need not have, as testified by producers, any significant effect on producer returns since the proposed change only involves advance setting of price and not a change in the basis of pricing Class I milk."

These findings and conclusions concerning the marketing conditions in the areas regulated by the 61 orders are equally applicable to the South Texas market. Accordingly, the manner of computing and announcing the Class I price that was adopted in the January 24, 1972, decision for the 61 orders likewise should be adopted for the South Texas order.

To maintain pricing continuity for the first month in which these changes are effective, it is necessary to specify in the order that the market administrator shall announce by the fifth day of such month the Class I price for that month as well as the Class I price for the following month. As under the new pricing arrangement, the Class I price announced for this first month should be computed by using the Minnesota-Wisconsin price for the second preceding month. Using the earlier Minnesota-Wisconsin price will result in the South Texas Class I price being coordinated with the Class I prices under other Federal orders in this first month.

No change should be made in the method of computing the Class I butterfat differential. This differential, which is announced for the current month by the fifth day of such month, is based on the average of the wholesale selling prices of 92-score butter at Chicago for the preceding month.

Proponents advocating the use of the Minnesota-Wisconsin price for the second preceding month in computing the Class I price proposed at the hearing that the Class I butterfat differential be announced by the fifth day of the preceding month and be based on the Chicago butter prices for the second preceding month. The hearing notice contained no proposal, however, for advancing the Class I butterfat differential announcements. Those proposing it urged its adoption as an appropriate corollary change.

This proposal was not adopted for the other 61 orders included in this hearing. The following findings and conclusions on this issue were set forth in the 61-market decision:

"The Class I butterfat differential changes infrequently. This is because the Chicago butter price quotations, which are strongly influenced by the prices paid for butter by the Government under the price support program, do not vary significantly from month to month. Consequently, there is no compelling need to advance the Class I butterfat differential announcement in connection with the adoption of advance Class I pricing. Moreover, proposals to revise the butterfat differential provisions in 40 of the 62 orders were considered at hearings which began in Clayton, Mo., July 14, 1970 (35 F.R. 10694), for seven orders and in Atlanta, Ga., on October 18, 1971 (36 F.R. 19604), for 33 orders. Action on the record of these hearings has not been completed. It would be inappropriate, therefore, to amend any butterfat differential provision in these orders without full consideration of the evidence on the still open records of the hearings previously held."

There is no basis on the record of this hearing for taking a different action with respect to the Class I butterfat differential under the South Texas order than was taken for the other orders that were under consideration.

The uniform provisions concerning the announcement of class prices, butterfat differentials, and uniform prices that were adopted for the 61 other orders included in this hearing should be incorporated in the South Texas order. For Class I, the price announced by the fifth day of the month would be that for the following month, while the announced butterfat differential would be that for the current month. The Class II price and butterfat differential announced by that date would be for the preceding month, as at present. The announcement date for the uniform price under this and other orders was not under consideration and is unchanged by this decision. Under the uniform provisions for price announcements the market administrator will continue to have an obligation to notify handlers and other interested parties of all price announcements.

Similarly, the uniform basic formula price provisions that were adopted for the 61 orders should be adopted for the South Texas order. As provided herein, the basic formula price would be "the average price per hundredweight for manufacturing grade milk, f.o.b. plants in Minnesota and Wisconsin, as reported by the Department for the month, adjusted to a 3.5-percent-butterfat basis and rounded to the nearest cent. For such adjustment, the butterfat differential (rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent) per one-tenth percent butterfat shall be 0.12 times the simple average of the wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department for the month. For the purpose of computing the Class I price, the resulting price shall be not less than $4.33."

As noted in the decision for the other 61 orders, no purpose is served by the variations among orders in the language used to define the basic formula price. The South Texas order, therefore, should be made uniform in this respect with the other orders. This change will not affect the level of the basic formula price now existing under the South Texas order.

In the 61-market decision, it was stated that the Class I price under all orders "is determined, directly or indirectly, by adding a differential to the basic formula price. In most orders the Class I differential is a stated amount 'plus 20 cents.' The 'plus 20 cents,' which was instituted in these orders by amendment for specified periods prior to January 1, 1969, has been effective without a termination date since then. There is, therefore, no apparent need to continue listing the 'plus 20 cents' separately from the stated Class I differential. In the amended order language here adopted, the Class I differential for each order is stated as one amount, which includes the plus 20 cents heretofore listed separately." For these same reasons, a comparable change should be made in the manner of stating the Class I price differential in the South Texas order.

2. Emergency action. Proponents requested that the recommended decision on proposed amendments to the 62 orders under consideration be omitted to facilitate prompt effectuation of the advance pricing provisions. This request, which was denied for the 61 orders dealt with in the earlier decision, likewise is denied for the South Texas order.

A primary reason advanced by proponents for emergency action is the time-consuming procedures required for making price changes under the Economic Stabilization Program (Phase II). This is not a problem distinguishable on the record from the problems faced by participants in many other industries with respect to the pricing of their goods. Also, there is uncertainty at present of the extent to which the various categories of milk handlers are affected by that program. It cannot be concluded, therefore, that the requirements of the Economic Stabilization Act per se warrant the emergency action requested.

RULINGS ON PROPOSED FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions, and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

GENERAL FINDINGS

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

RECOMMENDED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER AMENDING THE ORDER

The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended. The following order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the South Texas marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out:

1. In § 1121.22, paragraph (i) is revised as follows:

§ 1121.22 Additional duties of the market administrator.

* * * * *

(i) Publicly announce on or before:

(1) The fifth day of each month:

(i) The Class I price for the following month, and for the first month for which this paragraph is effective, the Class I price for the current month;

(ii) The Class I butterfat differential for the current month; and

(iii) The Class II price and Class II butterfat differential, both for the preceding month; and

(2) The 12th day of each month, the uniform price and the producer butterfat differential, both for the preceding month;

* * * * *

2. Section 1121.50 is revised as follows:

§ 1121.50 Basic formula price.

The "basic formula price" shall be the average price per hundredweight for manufacturing grade milk, f.o.b. plants in Minnesota and Wisconsin, as reported by the Department for the month, adjusted to a 3.5-percent-butterfat basis and rounded to the nearest cent. For such adjustment, the butterfat differential (rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent) per one-tenth percent butterfat shall be 0.12 times the simple average of the wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department for the month. For the purpose of computing the Class I price, the resulting price shall be not less than $4.33.

3. In § 1121.51, paragraph (a) is revised as follows:

§ 1121.51 Class prices.

* * * * *

(a) Class I price. The Class I price shall be the basic formula price for the second preceding month plus $2.68.

INTERSTATE MOVEMENT OF CATTLE Proposed Identification

Notice is hereby given in accordance with the administrative procedure provisions in 5 U.S.C. 553, that pursuant to the provisions of the Act of May 29, 1884, as amended, the Act of February 2, 1903, as amended, and the Act of March 3, 1905, as amended (21 U.S.C. 111–113, 114a, 114a–1, 115–117, 120–126), the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service is considering amending § 71.18 of Part 71, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations.

Section 71.18 would be amended to read:

§ 71.18 Individual identification of certain cattle 2 years of age or over for interstate movement.

(a) No cattle 2 years of age or over, except steers and spayed heifers, shall be moved interstate other than in accordance with the requirements of this section. All interstate movements of any cattle shall also comply with the other applicable provisions in this part and other parts of this subchapter.

(1) When permitted under such other provisions, cattle subject to this section:

(i) May be moved interstate from any point to any destination, if such cattle, when moved interstate, are identified by a Department-approved backtag affixed a few inches from the midline and just behind the shoulder of the animal, or by other means approved by the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, upon request in specific cases, and if such cattle are accompanied by a statement signed by the owner or shipper of the cattle, or other document,[1] stating: (a) The point from which the animals are moved interstate; (b) the destination of the animals; (c) the number of animals covered by the statement, or other document; (d) the name and address of the owner or shipper;[2] and (e) the identifying numbers of the backtags or other approved identification applied: Provided, That identification numbers are not required to be recorded on such statement or document for cattle moved from a stockyard posted under the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U.S.C. 181 et seq.), directly to a slaughtering establishment operating under the provisions of the Federal Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) or slaughtering establishment specifically approved under § 78.16 (b) of this subchapter; or

(ii) May be moved interstate only from a farm, ranch, or feedlot to a slaughtering establishment operating under the provisions of the Federal Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) or slaughtering establishment specifically approved under § 78.16(b) of this subchapter; or to a stockyard posted under the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U.S.C. 181 et seq.), for sale and shipment to such a slaughtering establishment, if such cattle are identified when received at such slaughtering establishment or stockyard by the application of Department-approved backtags or by other approved identification as prescribed in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, and, when moved interstate, are accompanied by a statement signed by the owner or shipper of the cattle, or other document[1] stating: (a) The point from which the animals are moved interstate; (b) the destination of the animals; (c) the number of animals covered by the statement or other document; and (d) the name and address of the owner or shipper: Provided, That the application of backtags is not required if such cattle are moved interstate to a federally inspected or specifically approved slaughtering establishment and if, when moved interstate, such cattle are identified by individual brands registered with an official brand inspection agency and are accompanied by an official brand inspection certificate: And provided further, That the application of backtags is not required when such cattle are moved interstate to a federally inspected or specifically approved slaughtering establishment, which maintains records of ownership of cattle by slaughter lot number;[3] or

(iii) May be moved interstate for breeding or dairy purposes if such cattle, when moved interstate are identified by Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service-approved eartags in lieu of backtags, and are accompanied by an owner's statement or other document[1] stating: (a) The point from which the animals are moved interstate, (b) the destination of the animals, (c) the number of animals covered by the statement or other document, (d) the identifying numbers of the eartags, and (e) the name and address of the owner or shipper: Provided, That identification by eartag is not required if such animals are registered purebred animals which are moved interstate for purposes other than slaughter and are identified in a manner acceptable to the appropriate breed association for registration purposes; or are identified by individual brands registered with an official brand inspection agency and are accompanied by an official brand inspection certificate as prescribed in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph.

(2) The owner's or shipper's statement or other document[1] or registered purebred identification required by this section for cattle moved under subparagraph (1) (i) or (ii) of this paragraph shall be delivered to the management of the stockyard or slaughtering establishment at the time of delivery of the cattle;[4] and documents accompanying animals moved under subparagraph (1) (iii) of this paragraph for breeding or dairy purposes shall be delivered to the consignee. All such documents shall be made available for inspection on request by a State or Federal inspector or an accredited veterinarian, as defined in § 78.1, at any time within 1 year from the date of such delivery.

(3) Each person who ships, transports, or otherwise causes the movement of the cattle interstate is responsible for the identification of the animals as required by this section. No person shall remove or tamper with an identification backtag or eartag required in this section for interstate movement of animals, except as may be authorized by the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, upon request in specific cases and under such conditions as he may impose to insure continuing identification.

The purpose of the foregoing proposed amendments would be to: (1) Require the identification by backtags or other approved means of all cattle 2 years of age or over moving interstate, except steers and spayed heifers (and certain cattle moving directly to slaughter); (2) permit cattle being moved interstate for dairy or breeding purposes to be identified by eartags in lieu of backtags; and, (3) exempt registered purebred animals being moved interstate for purposes other than slaughter from the backtagging or eartagging requirements. The proposed amendments would facilitate the identification of livestock in marketing channels and the tracing of diseased animals directly to farms of origin, which would make it possible to more efficiently control the spread of diseases by isolation and eradication of infection where found.

Great progress has been made in the control and eradication of communicable diseases of livestock, such as brucellosis, scabies, and tuberculosis. However, it is known that the contagion of brucellosis still exists in domestic animals in most States and Puerto Rico and there is reason to believe that communicable diseases of livestock may exist throughout the United States. The threat of the introduction of foot-and-mouth disease or other exotic diseases is ever present. The rapid transportation of animals in commercial channels makes it essential to locate and suppress foci of infection in the most rapid manner possible. The most efficient way to do this is to identify livestock in marketing channels and to trace diseased animals directly to farms of origin. In this manner, continued progress in disease eradication programs can be achieved; the interstate spread of diseases can be minimized by isolation and eradication of infection where found; and the probability of rapidly tracing diseases of foreign origin will be greatly strengthened.

Any person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning this proposal may do so by filing them with the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Federal Center Building, Hyattsville, Md. 20782, written 30 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

All written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be made available for public inspection at times and places and in a manner convenient to the public business (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

Done at Washington, D.C., this 7th day of November 1972.

F. J. MULHERN,
Administrator, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service.

RINDERPEST AND FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE

Proposed Prohibitions and Restrictions on Importation of Meat and Other Articles; Declaration of Uninfested Countries

Notice is hereby given in accordance with the administrative procedure provisions in 5 U.S.C. 553, that pursuant to sections 106 and 107 of the Act of May 23, 1957, section 306 of the Act of June 17, 1930, as amended, section 2 of the Act of February 2, 1903, as amended, and sections 2, 3, 4, and 11 of the Act of July 2, 1962 (7 U.S.C. 150ee, 150ff, 19 U.S.C. 1306, 21 U.S.C. 111, 134a, 134b, 134c, 134f), the Department of Agriculture is considering the following proposed amendments of Part 94, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, relating to additional prohibitions and restrictions on importation of meat and other articles:

[1] Other document means a shipping permit, an official health certificate, an official brand inspection certificate, a bill of lading, a waybill, or an invoice on which is listed information concerning the shipment as required in § 71.18(a)(1)(i).

[2] Department-approved backtags are available at such stockyards and slaughtering establishments, and from Federal and State inspectors as defined in § 78.1 of this subchapter. Information with respect to the federally inspected slaughter establishments, specifically approved slaughtering establishments, and specifically approved stockyards may be obtained as indicated in §§ 78.14 and 78.15 of this subchapter. Posted stockyards are designated by posting tariff rates at such stockyards and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[3] It is the responsibility of the person who causes the interstate movement to determine whether the establishment maintains such records. As evidence that the establishment does maintain such records such person should obtain a statement to that effect from the management of the establishment and retain it for a period of 5 years from the date of the shipment.

[4] The backtag or other identification numbers should be included on the receiving document of the stockyard or establishment for all such cattle identified by backtags or other identification after arrival at such stockyard or establishment.

1. In § 94.1, paragraph (a) and the introductory portion of paragraph (c) would be amended to read:

2. In § 94.5, the present provisions would be amended to read:

§ 94.5 Garbage.

Garbage aboard any aircraft, vessel, railroad car, or other means of conveyance that has been outside the territorial limits of the United States and Canada shall not be imported into the United States (including the territorial waters thereof) except in accordance with the following conditions: It shall not be unloaded from such means of conveyance in the United States unless such garbage is removed in tight receptacles under the supervision of an Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service inspector for sterilization in a facility approved by the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, or for incineration, or other appropriate handling in such manner and under such supervision as may, upon request in specific cases, be approved by the Administrator, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, as adequate to prevent the introduction into or dissemination within the United States of livestock, poultry, and plant diseases and plant pests. Importation into the United States of any garbage derived in whole or in part from meat originating in any country designated in § 94.1 as infected with rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease is prohibited by law (19 U.S.C. 1306).

4. Section 94.7 would be amended to read:

§ 94.7 Disposal of animals, meat, and other articles ineligible for importation.

(a) Ruminants and swine, and fresh, chilled, or frozen meats, prohibited importation under § 94.1, which come into the United States by ocean vessel and are offered for entry and refused admission into this country shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, may direct pursuant to section 306 of the Act of June 17, 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1306), unless they are exported by the consignee within 48 hours, and meanwhile are retained under such isolation and other safeguards as the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, may require to prevent the introduction or dissemination of livestock or poultry diseases into the United States.

(b) Ruminants and swine, and fresh, chilled, or frozen meats, prohibited importation under § 94.1, which come into the United States aboard an airplane or railroad car and are offered for entry and refused admission into this country shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, may direct pursuant to section 306 of the Act of June 17, 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1306), unless they are exported by the consignee within 24 hours and meanwhile are retained under such isolation and other safeguards as the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, may require to prevent the introduction or dissemination of livestock or poultry diseases into the United States.

(c) Ruminants and swine, and fresh, chilled, or frozen meats, prohibited importation under § 94.1, which come into the United States by any means other than ocean vessel, airplane, or railroad car and are offered for entry and refused admission into this country shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, may direct pursuant to section 306 of the Act of June 17, 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1306), unless they are exported by the consignee within 8 hours on the same means of conveyance and meanwhile are retained under such isolation and other safeguards as the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, may require to prevent the introduction or dissemination of livestock or poultry diseases into the United States.

(d) Ruminants and swine, and fresh, chilled, or frozen meats, prohibited importation under § 94.1, which come into the United States by any means but are not offered for entry into this country; and other animals, meats, and other articles prohibited importation under other sections of this part which come into the United States by any means, whether they are offered for entry into this country or not, shall be immediately destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, may direct at any time in accordance with section 2 of the Act of February 2, 1903, as amended, or section 2 of the Act of July 2, 1962 (21 U.S.C. 111, 134a).

§ 94.8 [Amended]

5. In § 94.8 the reference to Italy would be deleted.

6. A new § 94.11 would be added to read:

§ 94.11 Restrictions on importation of meat and other animal products from specified countries.

(a) Great Britain (England, Scotland, Wales, and the Isle of Man), Japan, Norway, and Sweden, which are declared in § 94.1 to be free of rinderpest and foot-and-mouth disease, supplement their national meat supply by the importation of fresh, chilled, or frozen meat of ruminants or swine from countries that are designated in § 94.1(a) to be infected with rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease; or have a common land border with countries designated as infected with rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease; or import ruminants or swine from countries designated as infected with rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease under conditions less restrictive than would be acceptable for importation into the United States; Thus, even though this Department has declared such countries to be free of rinderpest and foot-and-mouth disease, the meat and other animal products produced in such free countries may be commingled with the fresh, chilled, or frozen meat of animals from an infected country, resulting in an undue risk of introducing rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease into the United States. Therefore, meat of ruminants or swine, and other animals products, and ships stores, airplane meals, and baggage containing such meat or animal products originating in Great Britain (England, Scotland, Wales, or the Isle of Man), Japan, Norway, and Sweden, shall not be imported into the United States unless the following requirements in addition to other applicable requirements of this Chapter III are met. As used in this section, the term "other animal product" means all parts of the carcass of any ruminant or swine, other than meat and articles regulated under Part 95 or 96 of this chapter.

(b) All meat or other animal product from such countries, whether in personal-use amounts or commercial lots (except that which has been fully cooked by a commercial method in a rigid can which was sealed promptly after filling and before such cooking and sealing so as to result in a fully sterilized product in a hermetically sealed can which is shelf stable without refrigeration) shall have been prepared only in an inspected establishment that is eligible to have its products imported into the United States under the Federal Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) and the regulations in § 327.2, Chapter III of this title, issued thereunder, and shall be accompanied by a Department-approved meat inspection certificate prescribed in § 327.4 in Chapter III of this title, or similar certificate approved by the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, as adequate to effectuate the purposes of this section, regardless of the purpose or amount of product in the shipment.

(c) Shipments of such meat or other animal product must be accompanied by an additional certificate, signed by a full-time salaried veterinary official of the agency in the national government having responsibility for the health of animals within that country, giving the name and official establishment number of the establishment where the animals involved were slaughtered and stating that:

(1) The slaughtering establishment is not permitted to receive animals that originated in, or have ever been in, or that have been aboard a means of conveyance at the time such means of conveyance called at or landed at a port in, a country listed in § 94.1(a) as a country infected with rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease;

(2) The slaughtering establishment is not permitted to receive meat or other animal products derived from ruminants or swine which originated in such a rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease infected country, or meat or other animal products from a rinderpest and foot-and-mouth disease free country transported through a rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease infected country except in containers sealed with serially numbered seals of the national government of the noninfected country or origin;

(3) The meat or other animal product covered by the certificate was derived from animals born and raised in a country listed in § 94.1(a)(2) as free of rinderpest and foot-and-mouth disease and the meat or other animal product has never been in any country in which rinderpest or foot-and-mouth disease existed;

(4) The meat or other animal product has been processed, stored, and transported to the means of conveyance that will bring the article to the United States in a manner to preclude its being commingled or otherwise in contact with meat or other animal products that do not comply with the conditions contained in this certificate.

The proposed amendments would: (1) Clarify and simplify designation of countries with rinderpest and foot-and-mouth disease; (2) identify those countries found free of rinderpest and foot-and-mouth disease and those in this category which practice importation procedures that might constitute an undue risk of introduction of livestock disease into the United States if products from such countries were allowed into the United States, without special safeguards; (3) restrict importation of meat and other animal products, including ships stores, airplane meals, and baggage containing meat or animal products, and garbage into the United States from certain countries; (4) reduce time limitations for removal from the United States of animals, meat, and other articles ineligible for importation into the United States; and (5) delete Italy from the list of countries where African swine fever exists.

Any person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed amendments may do so by filing them with the Deputy Administrator, Veterinary Services, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Hyattsville, Md. 20782, within 30 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

All written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be made available for public inspection at the Federal Center Building, 6505 Belcrest Road, Room 370, Hyattsville, MD 20782, during regular business hours in a manner convenient to the public business (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

Done at Washington, D.C., this 7th day of November 1972.

Administrator, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service.

VESSEL BRIDGE-TO-BRIDGE RADIOTELEPHONE RULES FOR THE GREAT LAKES

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

At the request of the Lake Carriers' Association, the Coast Guard is considering amending the Vessel Bridge-to-Bridge Radiotelephone Regulations to change the radiotelephone frequency and frequency use requirements for vessels operating on the waters of the Great Lakes.

Section 7 of the Vessel Bridge-to-Bridge Radiotelephone Act provides in pertinent part that—where a local communications system fully complies with the intent of the concept of the Act, but does not conform in detail, the Secretary of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating, may issue exemptions from any provisions of the Act, on such terms and conditions as he considers appropriate. This authority is delegated to the Commandant of the Coast Guard under 49 CFR 1.46(o)(2).

Vessels operating on the waters of the Great Lakes have, for many years, used a VHF radiotelephone communications system, primarily for the purpose of increasing the safety of navigation.

Under the system in use on these waters, the operators of approaching vessels can communicate their intentions to one another through voice radio, located convenient to the operators' navigation stations—this is within the intent of the concept of the Bridge-to-Bridge Radiotelephone Act.

As required by the Act, vessels operating on these waters are equipped with multichannel VHF radiotelephone equipment, capable of transmitting and receiving on the 156–162 MHz band using emission designated by the Federal Communications Commission for the exchange of navigational information. However, the Great Lakes VHF radiotelephone system uses 156.8 MHz as a common distress, safety, and calling frequency. After establishing communication, operators may continue the exchange of information on other frequencies commonly used for the system.

The Coast Guard will hold a public hearing on Monday, December 4, 1972, at 9:30 a.m., Room 2069, Federal Building, 1240 East Ninth Street, Cleveland, OH. Interested persons are invited to attend the hearing and participate in this proposed rule making by presenting oral or written statements on the proposal. The public hearing will be informal and intended to obtain views and information from those persons affected by the proposal. There will be no cross-examination of persons presenting statements. Written comments may also be addressed to Commandant (GCMC), U.S. Coast Guard Headquarters, Room 8234, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, DC 20590.

The Coast Guard will consider each written comment received before December 15, 1972, and each oral and written comment submitted at the public hearing and then take final action on this proposal. The proposed amendment may be changed in light of comments received. Interested persons may examine all comments received by the Coast Guard at Room 8234, U.S. Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington, D.C.

The substance of the rule change is as follows:

1. The proposed amendment would apply to every vessel that is subject to the Vessel Bridge-to-Bridge Radiotelephone Act when navigating on those waters governed by the Navigation Rules for Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters (33 U.S.C. 241 et seq.).

2. The master or person in charge of a vessel to which the amendment applies would be required to maintain a listening watch on 156.8 MHz, rather than 156.65 MHz.

3. The amendment would allow the transmission and confirmation of vessel maneuvering intentions and any other information necessary for the safe navigation of vessels on 156.30 MHz or 156.40

MHz, after communications are initiated on 156.8 MHz.

Code of Federal Regulations, be amended by revising subparagraph (28-a) of paragraph (f) of § 117.245 to read as follows:

NANSEMOND RIVER, VA.

Proposed Drawbridge Operation Regulations

The Coast Guard is considering amending the regulations for the Virginia Department of Highways bridge on U.S. Route 460 across the Nansemond River at Suffolk to permit the draw to remain permanently closed to the passage of vessels; the draw is presently opened on signal if at least 12 hours notice is given. This change is being considered because the oil company located upstream from this bridge, the sole user, has converted from water to land transportation for supplying this facility and because a dam located approximately ½-mile upstream effectively prevents navigation above the dam.

Interested persons may participate in this proposed rule making by submitting written data, views, or arguments to the Commander (oan), Fifth Coast Guard District, Federal Building, 431 Crawford Street, Portsmouth, VA 23705. Each person submitting comments should include his name and address, identify the bridge, and give reasons for any recommended change in the proposal. Copies of all written communications received will be available for examination by interested persons at the office of the Commander, Fifth Coast Guard District.

The Commander, Fifth Coast Guard District, will forward any comments received before December 15, 1972, with his recommendations to the Chief, Office of Marine Environment and Systems, who will evaluate all communications received and take final action on this proposal. The proposed regulations may be changed in the light of comments received.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed that Part 117 of Title 33 of the Code of Federal Regulations, be amended by revising subparagraph (28–a) of paragraph (f) of § 117.245 to read as follows:

§ 117.245 Navigable waters discharging into the Atlantic Ocean south of and including Chesapeake Bay and into the Gulf of Mexico, except the Mississippi River and its tributaries and outlets; bridges where constant attendance of draw tenders is not required.

The draw need not open for the passage of vessels, and paragraph (b) through (e) of this section shall not apply to this bridge. However, the bridge owner shall return the draw to operable condition within 6 months after notification by the Commandant to take such action.

DANGEROUS CARGOES

Transportation or Storage

The Coast Guard is considering amending the dangerous cargoes regulations to:

1. Revise the regulation on ammonium nitrate and other nitrates.

2. Update the shipping names of certain dry chlorine compounds and to permit portable tanks to be used as packaging.

3. Permit the DOT–6D cylindrical steel overpack as a package for titanium sulfate solutions.

4. Grant exemptions for motor vehicle passenger restraint systems.

5. Grant exemptions for hydraulic-accumulators.

Interested persons may participate in this proposed rule making by submitting written data, views, or arguments to the U.S. Coast Guard (GCMC), 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, DC 20590. Each person submitting comments should include his name and address, identify the notice (CGD 72–182PH), and give reasons for any recommendations. Comments received will be available for examination by interested persons in Room 8234, Department of Transportation, Nassif Building, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, D.C.

The Coast Guard will hold a hearing on December 12, 1972, at 9:30 a.m. in Conference Room 8334, Department of Transportation, Nassif Building, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, DC. Interested persons are invited to attend the hearing and present oral or written statements on this proposal. It is requested that anyone desiring to attend the hearing notify the U.S. Coast Guard (GCMC), 400 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, DC 20590.

All communications received before December 29, 1972, will be evaluated before final action is taken on this proposal. The proposed regulations may be changed in the light of comments received.

By a separate document published at page 16108 of the August 10, 1972, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER, the Hazardous Materials Regulations Board of the Department of Transportation proposes amendments to Part 172 of Title 49, Code of Federal Regulations. For reasons fully stated in that document the Board has proposed these changes.

The hazardous materials regulations of the Department of Transportation in Title 49 apply to shippers by water, air, and land, and to carriers by air and land. The adoption of this proposed amendment to Title 46 would make the proposal of the Hazardous Materials Regulations Board applicable to carriers by water.

The Coast Guard proposes to incorporate the substance of the Board's proposal in 46 CFR Part 146.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend Part 146 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations as follows:

§ 146.04–5 [Amended]

The Jesup transition area would be designated as:

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 6.5-mile radius of Jesup-Wayne County Airport (lat. 31°33'18" N., long. 81°52'54" W.); within 3 miles each side of the 286° bearing from Slover RBN (lat. 31°33'08" N., long. 81°52'48" W.), extending from the 6.5-mile radius area to 8.5 miles west of the RBN.

[OST Docket No. 6]

STANDARD TIME ZONE BOUNDARY IN THE STATE OF INDIANA

Withdrawal of Proposed Rule Making

In Notice No. 70-2, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 7, 1970 (35 F.R. 17195), the Department of Transportation proposed that § 71.5 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations be amended to redefine the boundary line between the eastern and central standard time zones so as to include Perry County, Ind., in the central zone. The proposal was based on a petition of the Governor of Indiana. The notice stated that consideration would be given to all comments received on or before December 15, 1970.

By resolution dated December 7, 1970, the Board of County Commissioners of Perry County requested the Secretary of Transportation to defer action on the proposal until after the close of the 1971 session of the Indiana General Assembly. Under Article 4 of the constitution of the State of Indiana, the general assembly was to convene in January 1971 and could have remained in session into April 1971. The board of county commissioners made the request to defer action on the proposal because the Indiana General Assembly was expected to consider exempting the entire State of Indiana from the requirement of "advanced time" as provided for by section 3 of the Uniform Time Act of 1966 (15 U.S.C. 260a). A number of similar requests were received from local business interests and individuals.

It was clear at the time that if the Indiana General Assembly exempted the State from the requirement of advancing its time 1 hour during the summer months the views of the citizens of Perry County who favored a change to the central time zone could have been significantly altered. If a State law were to be enacted exempting Indiana from observing "advanced time", the alternatives available with respect to Perry County would then be eastern standard time the entire year or central standard time the entire year. Neither alternative would involve "advanced time" during the sumer months.

In consideration of the foregoing, by Notice No. 70-3, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 7, 1971 (36 F.R. 225), the Department extended the period for comment until April 15, 1971.

In January 1971, the Indiana General Assembly, over the veto of the Governor, exempted the entire State of Indiana from the requirement of observing advanced (daylight) time during the summer months. By its terms the Indiana exemption law (Acts 1969, Chapter 491) provided that if Federal law were ever changed to allow a State divided by a time zone boundary to exempt from the observance of advanced (daylight) time only that part of the State which is in one zone, instead of the entire State, then the Indiana law would apply only to the eastern time zone portion of the State. Until any such change in Federal law, the exemption applied to the entire State.

As it had during the 91st Congress, the Department of Transportation supported during the 92d Congress an amendment to the Uniform Time Act of 1966 to permit what the Indiana exemption law anticipated, i.e., authority for a State with parts in more than one time zone to exempt that part of the State in one time zone without requiring it to exempt the part in another time zone. If the amendment were enacted, the choices open to Perry County would be eastern nonadvanced time the entire year, or 6 months of central nonadvanced and 6 months of central advanced (daylight) time. Pending congressional consideration of the amendment, the Department decided to leave the docket open. The amendment was enacted by Congress and signed by the President on March 30, 1972. (Public Law 92-267.)

Comments received by the Department over the course of this proceeding indicate a change in the views of the citizens of Perry County following enactment of the legislative changes. Before Indiana enacted its exemption law, the majority of comments favored placing Perry County in the central time zone. Since enactment of that law, the comments, although less in number, have favored leaving Perry County in the eastern zone. The Board of County Commissioners of Perry County has declined the Department's invitation to express their official views on the matter.

In view of the foregoing, it does not appear to the Department that there is adequate basis for making any change in the present time zone boundary. Accordingly, the notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 7, 1970 (35 F.R. 17195), is hereby withdrawn.

This action is taken under the authority of the Act of March 19, 1918, as amended by the Uniform Time Act of 1966 (15 U.S.C. 260-67), section 6(e)(5) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(e)(5)), and section 1.59(a) of the regulations of the Office of the Secretary of Transportation (49 CFR 1.59(a)).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on November 6, 1972.

JOHN W. BARNUM,
General Counsel.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

[38 CFR Part 3]

SURVIVOR BENEFIT PLAN ANNUITIES

Character of Income; Exclusions and Estates

Public Law 92-425, enacted September 21, 1972, established a Survivor Benefit Plan, sections 1447 through 1455, title 10, United States Code, for retired servicemen and commissioned officers of the Public Health Service and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. This is a contributory plan which provides annuities for the surviving dependents of deceased retirees. It supersedes the Retired Serviceman's Family Protection Plan (sections 1431 through 1446, title 10, United States Code). Prior to enactment of Public Law 92-425, 38 United States Code 415(g)(1)(M) and 503(a)(17) provided for exclusion of annuities under the Retired Serviceman's Family Protection Plan from consideration as income for dependency and indemnity compensation and disability and death pension. The act amended the language of these provisions of title 38 to reflect subchaptering of Chapter 73, title 10, United States Code, and continues the exclusion. It provides, however, that annuities under the Survivor Benefit Plan shall be considered income under laws administered by the Veterans Administration. To implement the provisions of the law relating to income for Veterans Administration purposes 38 CFR Part 3 is amended as set forth below.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections regarding the proposal to the Administrator of Veterans Affairs (232H), Veterans Administration, Central Office, 810 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20420. All relevant material received not later than 30 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered. All written comments received will be available for public inspection at the above address only between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday (except holidays), during the mentioned 30-day period and for 10 days thereafter. Any person visiting Central Office for the purpose of inspecting any such comments will be received by the Central Office Veterans Assistance Unit in Room 132. Such visitors to any VA field station will be informed that the records are available for inspection only in Central Office and will be furnished the address of the above room number.

Notice is also given that it is proposed to make this regulatory change effective September 21, 1972.

It is proposed to amend § 3.261(a)(14), Part 3, Title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations to read as follows:

D. The Secretary of Commerce, pursuant to section 13(d) of Executive Order 11671 of June 5, 1972, has determined that the Committee meeting scheduled for November 21, 1972, shall be exempt from the provisions of sections 13 (a), (b), and (c), relating to public participation and record keeping, because the Committee's activities are matters which fall within policies analogous to those recognized in section 552(b) of title 5 of the United States Code, and the public interest requires such activities to be withheld from disclosure. The specific exemption is the foreign policy exemption set forth in paragraph 1 of Section 552(b).

E. Further information may be obtained from Mr. Arthur Garel, Director, Office of Textiles, Room 2815, Main Commerce Building, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230.

CERTAIN ANTI-INFECTIVE DRUGS

Drugs for Human Use; Drug Efficacy Study Implementation

In the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 7, 1971 (36 F.R. 14662), the Food and Drug Administration announced its conclusions pursuant to evaluation of reports received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, concerning the subject drugs. Among the drugs included in that announcement were the following:

1. Delvex Tablets containing dithiazanine iodide; Eli Lilly & Co., Post Office Box 618, Indianapolis, IN 42606 (NDA 11-440).

2. Lucanthone Hydrochloride Tablets; Burroughs Wellcome and Co., Inc., 3030 Cornwallis Road, Research Triangle Park, NC 27709 (NDA 12-344).

For these two drugs, the announcement required, among other things, submission of abbreviated new drug applications, abbreviated supplements, and data to assure bioavailability.

Because of the potential toxicity of these two drugs, the Commissioner concludes that the requirement for bioavailability testing is not appropriate, and that, for the same reason, abbreviated applications and supplements are not acceptable. Therefore, with respect to these two drugs, only, marketing may be continued under the conditions described in the notice entitled "Conditions for Marketing New Drugs Evaluated in Drug Efficacy Study" published in the FEDERAL REGISTER July 14, 1970 (35 F.R. 12273), as follows:

a. For holders of "deemed approved" new drug applications (i.e., an application which became effective on the basis of safety prior to October 10, 1962), the submission of a supplement for revised labeling and a supplement for updating information as described in paragraphs (a)(1) (i) and (iii) of the notice of July 14, 1970.

b. For any person who does not hold an approved or effective new drug application, the submission of a full new drug application as described in paragraph (a)(3)(iii) of that notice. The Office of Scientific Evaluation (BD-100), Bureau of Drugs should be contacted concerning the clinical studies required.

This notice is issued pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 502, 505, 52 Stat. 1050-53, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 352, 355) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (21 CFR 2.120).

[Docket No. FDC-D-533; NADA No. 11-353V]

WHITMOYER LABORATORIES, INC.

Thera-Tergent; Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

In an announcement published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 5, 1970 (35 F.R. 14168, DESI 901V), the Commissioner of Food and Drugs announced the conclusions of the Food and Drug Administration following evaluation of a report received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, on Thera-Tergent NADA (new animal drug application) No. 11-353V; marketed by Affiliated Laboratories Division, Whitmoyer Laboratories, Inc., 19 North Railroad Street, Myerstown, PA 17067 (formerly marketed by Warren-Teed Pharmaceuticals, Inc.). The announcement invited the holder of said new animal drug application and any other interested persons to submit pertinent data on the drug's effectiveness.

A satisfactory supplemental new animal drug application has not been submitted in response to said announcement and available information fails to provide substantial evidence that this drug will have the effect it purports to have when administered in accordance with the conditions of use prescribed, recommended, or suggested in its labeling.

Therefore, notice is given to Whitmoyer Laboratories, Inc., and to any other interested person who may be adversely affected that the Commissioner proposes to issue an order under the provisions of section 512 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 360b) withdrawing approval of NADA No. 11-353V, including all amendments and supplements thereto.

In accordance with the provisions of section 512 of the Act (21 U.S.C. 360b), the Commissioner hereby gives the applicant and any interested persons who would be adversely affected by an order withdrawing such approval an opportunity for a hearing at which time such persons may produce evidence and arguments to show why approval of NADA No. 11-353V should not be withdrawn. Promulgation of the order will cause any drug similar in composition to the above-cited drug product and recommended for similar conditions of use to be a new animal drug for which an approved new animal drug application is not in effect. Any such drug then on the market would be subject to appropriate regulatory action.

Within 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, such persons are required to file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Office of the General Counsel, Room 6-88, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852, a written appearance electing whether:

1. To avail themselves of the opportunity for a hearing; or

2. Not to avail themselves of the opportunity for a hearing.

If such persons elect not to avail themselves of the opportunity for a hearing, the Commissioner, without further notice, will enter a final order withdrawing approval of the new animal drug application.

Failure of such persons to file a written appearance of election within said 30 days will be construed as an election by such persons not to avail themselves of the opportunity for a hearing.

The hearing contemplated by this notice will be open to the public except that any portion of the hearing concerning a method or process that the Commissioner finds is entitled to protection as a trade secret will not be open to the public, unless the respondent specifies otherwise in his appearance.

If such persons elect to avail themselves of the opportunity for a hearing, they must file a written appearance requesting the hearing and giving the reasons why approval of the new animal drug application should not be withdrawn together with a well-organized and full-factual analysis of the clinical and other investigational data they are prepared to prove in support of their opposition to the grounds for this notice. A request for a hearing may not rest upon mere allegations or denials but must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine and substantial issue of fact requiring a hearing. When it clearly appears from the data in the application and from the reasons and factual analysis in the request for the hearing that no genuine and substantial issue of fact precludes the withdrawal of approval of the application, the Commissioner will enter an order stating his findings and conclusions of such data. If a hearing is requested, and is justified by the response to this notice, the issues will be defined, an administrative law judge will be named, and he shall issue a written notice of a time and place at which the hearing will commence.

Responses to this notice will be available for public inspection in the Office of the Hearing Clerk (address given above), during regular business hours, Monday through Friday.

This notice is issued pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 512, 82 Stat. 343-51; 21 U.S.C. 360b) and under the authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120).

Dated: November 6, 1972.

Associate Commissioner for Compliance.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

CALIFORNIUM–252

Prices, Standard Forms, and Handling Charges

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission hereby announces revisions in its present program for the sale and distribution of the neutron emitting isotope californium-252 (Cf–252). An additional standard form is being made available for the benefit of industrial source encapsulators and handling charges are being increased to reflect higher labor costs since initiation of the sale program in 1970.

Notice, entitled "Californium-252 Price Decrease", published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 29, 1970 (35 F.R. 13807) is hereby superseded.

1. The AEC will continue to offer unencapsulated californium-252 at a price of $10 per microgram. As a result of the AEC's research effort to establish an improved standard form for industial source encapsulation, palladium-californium oxide cermet ($Pd\text{-}Cf_2O_3$) will be offered, in addition to oxide, as a standard form for Cf–252 sales. The AEC will continue to offer Cf–252 in oxide form as long as sufficient demand for this material exists.

2. The palladium-californium oxide cermet will be available to both domestic and foreign customers in wire and pellet form. Initial californium concentrations in wire form will be 5, 50, and 500 micrograms per inch; however, special orders for concentrations other than these will be considered, with charges for special orders determined in individual cases. Cf–252 cermet pellets are being offered in addition to the wire form because standard 100 series double-encapsulated sources, a design currently offered by commercial source encapsulators, can hold up to 10 mg. of Cf–252 in pellet form compared to a maximum of 2 mg. of Cf–252 in wire form.

3. Because of increased labor costs since initiation of Cf–252 sales, handling charges for Cf–252 in $Pd\text{-}Cf_2O_3$ and oxide must be increased from the current rate of $1,600 per standard shipment, effective immediately. The following charges are now in effect:

$Pd\text{-}Cf_2O_3$ wire or pellets: $1,250 for capsule assembly and preparation plus $600 per inch (or fraction thereof) of 500 microgram per inch wire and $100 per inch of 50 or 5 microgram per inch wire; or $850 per pellet.

Cf–252 Oxide: $1,850 per package.

4. The minimum length of wire ordered will be one-half inch. Cf–252 supplied can be provided within ±10 percent of the quantity ordered for all forms. Specific information on material specifications for sale quantities of Cf–252 is available from the Manager, Savannah River Operations Office, Post Office Box A, Aiken, SC 29801.

(Sec. 161, 68 Stat. 948; 42 U.S.C. 2201)

Effective date. This notice is effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11–11–72).

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 6th day of November 1972.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

Secretary of the Commission.

CONGAREE BROADCASTERS, INC. ET AL.

Order Designating Applications for Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In regard applications of: Congaree Broadcasters, Inc., West Columbia, S.C., Requests: 100.1 MHz, No. 261; 3 kw. (H & V); 300 feet. West Columbia Broadcasters, Inc., West Columbia, S.C., Requests: 100.1 MHz, No. 261; 3 kw. (H & V); 300 feet. Statesville Broadcasting Co., Inc., Columbia, S.C., Requests: 100.1 MHz, No. 261; 3 kw. (H & V); 300 feet. For Construction Permits. Docket No. 19624, File No. BPH-7712; Docket No. 19625, File No. BPH-7776; Docket No. 19626, File No. BPH-7777.

1. The Commission has before it the captioned applications which are mutually exclusive in that operation by the applicants as proposed would result in mutually destructive interference. Therefore, a comparative hearing must be held.

2. The financial portion of the application of West Columbia Broadcasters, Inc. (West Columbia) indicates that it will require at least $48,800 to construct and operate its proposed FM station for 1 year.[1] This figures does not include interest and principal payments on West Columbia's projected loans from banks because such data has not been provided. To meet its first-year costs, West Columbia relies on $600 in cash, a $30,000 loan from the Bankers Trust of South Carolina located in West Columbia, and a $25,000 loan from The Lexington State Bank, which is also located in West Columbia. As to the $25,000 loan from The Lexington State Bank, that bank has not stated the interest rate or the terms of repayment for its projected loan to West Columbia, as required by paragraph 4(e), section III, FCC Form 301. The purpose of our financial standards is to provide a reasonable assurance that a particular applicant will be able to operate its proposed station on a continuing basis. A bank loan repayable in a short period is a factor that we wish to consider in making such a determination. We therefore believe that a bank commitment that fails to specify the period of time over which the loan must be repaid, without any additional data, does not adequately describe the terms of repayment and casts considerable doubt as to whether the applicant in question can meet the required payments on its loan as well as its other first-year costs. Thus, appropriate financial issues will be specified as to this loan. Concerning the $30,000 loan from the Bankers Trust of South Carolina, that bank has not stated the interest rate at which it is willing to make the loan, even though it does state that it will not require principal payments during the first year of operation of West Columbia's FM proposal. We note that where an applicant relies on a loan from a bank which has not specified the interest that it will require, but the applicant has shown the availability of sufficient funds in excess of its other first-year expenses to meet any foreseeable interest payments, we will not ordinarily specify a financial issue against it. In this case, however, since The Lexington State Bank has indicated neither the terms of repayment nor the interest required for its projected $25,000 loan to West Columbia, we do not know what figure to allow for the total amount of the applicant's other first-year operating costs. Thus, we cannot assume that West Columbia has sufficient funds available to meet these other first-year costs plus the interest payments on the loan from the Bankers Trust of South Carolina. In light of the foregoing, appropriate issues will also be specified as to the loan from the Bankers Trust of South Carolina, the total first-year operating costs of West Columbia, and the financial qualifications of the applicant.

3. Based on figures contained in its application, we find that Statesville Broadcasting Co., Inc. (Statesville) will have first-year costs of $95,300.[2] To meet these costs, Statesville relies on $21,200 in cash and a $100,000 bank loan. Although Statesville has established the availability of $21,200 in cash, it has not met our standards for showing the availability of the $100,000 bank loan. An entity which agrees to loan money to a broadcast applicant must indicate, among other things, the collateral or security required for the loan. If no collateral or security is required, the entity must so state. In this instance, although The Northwestern Bank in Statesville has stated its willingness to loan the applicant $100,000, it has not stated what security, if any, is required. We do not know, therefore, whether the applicant can meet the bank's security requirements. Thus, the availability of the bank loan has not been established. In view of the foregoing, appropriate financial issues will be specified against Statesville.

4. Statesville will not provide a 3.16 mv./m signal over the entire city of Columbia, as required by § 73.315(a) of the rules. Nevertheless, Statesville's proposed operation will provide a signal level of 3.16 mv./m or more over the city limits of California, as they existed prior to the annexation of the Fort Jackson Military Reservation. As stated by the applicant, the reservation is several times larger than the basic or "downtown" part of Columbia and has scarcely any population over much of its area. A class A station, which is the only class of station allowed on the channel for which Statesville has applied, could not be located so that its 3.16 mv./m contour would encompass all of the new city limits of Columbia, because of the size of the Fort Jackson Reservation. The applicant has determined that 97.1 percent of the total population of Columbia (including that of the reservation) will receive a signal level of 3.16 mv./m or more. In light of these facts, and since the general coverage of the city will be satisfactory, we find that a waiver of § 73.315(a) of our rules is warranted in this instance.

5. A comparison of programing proposals is warranted when one applicant proposes predominantly specialized programing, and the other, general market programing—Ward L. Jones, FCC 67-82 (1967); Policy Statement on Comparative Broadcast Hearings, 1 FCC 2d 393, footnote 9 at 397 (1965). In this case, Congaree Broadcasters, Inc., proposes predominantly religious programing, while the other two applicants propose general market programing. Therefore, this aspect of the programing proposals of the applicants will be compared under the standard comparative issue.

6. The respective proposals would serve substantial areas in common. Consequently, in addition to determining, pursuant to section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the proposals would best provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of radio service, a contingent comparative issue will also be specified.

7. Except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicants are qualified to construct and operate as proposed. However, because the proposals are mutually exclusive, they must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding.

8. Accordingly, it is ordered, That pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent Order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine with respect to the application of West Columbia Broadcasters, Inc.:

(a) The interest and terms of repayment required for the $25,000 loan from The Lexington State Bank, West Columbia, S.C.;

(b) The interest terms for the $30,000 loan from the Bankers Trust of South Carolina, West Columbia, S.C.;

(c) The total first-year operating costs for the applicant's FM proposal; and

(d) Whether, in light of the evidence adduced under the preceding issues, the applicant is financially qualified.

2. To determine with respect to the application of Statesville Broadcasting Co., Inc.:

(a) The security required for a $100,000 bank loan from The Northwestern Bank, Statesville, N.C., whether the applicant and/or its principals can meet the bank's security requirements, and, therefore, whether the bank loan will be available to the applicant;

(b) Whether, in light of the evidence adduced under the preceding issue, the applicant is financially qualified.

3. To determine the areas and populations which would receive FM service of 1 mv./m or greater intensity from the respective proposals together with the availability of other primary (1 mv./m or better for FM) aural services in such areas.

4. To determine, in light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the proposals would best provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

5. To determine, in the event it is concluded that a choice between applications should not be based solely on 307(b) considerations, which of the proposals would best serve the public interest.

6. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced under the preceding issues, which application should be granted.

9. It is further ordered, That if the application of Statesville Broadcasting Co., Inc., is granted, the construction permit shall specify that the provisions of § 73.315(a) of our rules are waived to permit a signal level of less than 3.16 mv./m over the entire city of Columbia, S.C.

10. It is further ordered, That each of the applicants shall file a written appearance stating an intention to appear and present evidence on the specified issues, within the time and in the manner required by § 1.221(c) of our rules.

11. It is further ordered, That the applicants shall give notice of the hearing, within the time and in the manner specified in § 1.594 of our rules, and shall seasonably file the statement required by § 1.594(g).

[Project 2317]

APPALACHIAN POWER CO.

Order Reopening Proceeding and Requiring Further Procedures Implementing National Environmental Policy Act

NOVEMBER 2, 1972.

In this proceeding the Appalachian Power Co. seeks a license to build the Modified Blue Ridge project, a combined conventional and pumped storage hydroelectric project to be located in southwestern Virginia and northwestern North Carolina. The application has been the subject of extensive hearings, commencing in May 1967. The Presiding Examiner has issued two decisions, an Initial Decision on October 1, 1969, and a Supplemental Initial Decision on June 21, 1971. Exceptions to each and briefs opposing exceptions have been filed, and two oral arguments have been held. The matter is now pending before us for decision.

We have frequently indicated our desire that this case proceed with reasonable expedition, for it is an important case and we are anxious to take action concerning it. We remain so minded. We have concluded, however, that we cannot decide the case now, in advance of a further hearing.

On October 10, 1972, the Supreme Court denied this Commission's petition for a writ of certiorari to review the decision of the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in Greene County Planning Board v. FPC, 455 F. 2d 412 (1972). FPC v. Greene County Planning Board, Sup. Ct. No. 71-1597, —— U.S. —— (1972). Accordingly, we apply the conclusions expressed by the Court of Appeals in that case. Those conclusions concern this Commission's procedures with respect to the implementation of the National Environmental Policy Act, and in particular the court held that an environmental statement must be prepared by our staff in advance of hearing, and that such statement must be "subject to the full scrutiny of the hearing process."

A draft environmental statement was prepared by our staff in this proceeding, but that statement has not been subjected to cross-examination. In light of the Greene County decision, and because a contested application is here involved, we think that an opportunity to cross-examine must be afforded to the parties to this proceeding. For that reason, we are remanding this case to the Presiding Administrative Law Judge, so that the requirements of the Greene County decision can be met fully. A further hearing will be required to achieve that result.

Our favorable action on the application which forms the basis for this proceeding would, in our view, clearly constitute a "major" Federal action "significantly affecting the quality of the human environment," as that phrase is used in section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act. Recognizing that to be so, the Appalachian Power Co., at the conclusion of the most recent hearing on December 11, 1970, and at the direction of the Presiding Examiner, filed on January 25, 1971, its environmental statement. We accept that statement as constituting the applicant's report of the environmental factors involved in the project. Similarly, we are prepared to accord to the environmental statement filed by our staff on April 21, 1971, as part of the staff initial brief to the Examiner, the status of a draft environmental statement, but the staff should be afforded the opportunity to modify it, if it chooses to do so. Beyond that, it will be necessary that notice be given of the availability of the staff statement; that it be made available to the tion of the issues raised in the motions to reopen, as described above, to the extent that such issues are raised by or ronmental Policy Act, as construed in Greene County Planning Board v. F.P.C., supra, it is necessary that the proceed-

that, it will be necessary that notice be given of the availability of the staff statement; that it be made available to the parties, to the Council on Environmental Quality, to other appropriate governmental bodies, and to the public, for comment; that after consideration of the comments received, the staff revise as necessary and finalize its environmental statement, prior to hearing; and that such staff statement, as revised and finalized, be offered in evidence at the reopened hearing.

At earlier stages of this proceeding, a total of nine motions to reopen the record were filed, and to these we have not yet spoken. Six were filed by the State of West Virginia on August 20, 1971, and one each were filed by the Alleghany Farm Bureau and the North Carolina Farm Bureau on September 23, 1971, by the Appalachian Research and Defense Fund, Inc., and the Congress for Appalachian Development, on September 30, 1971, and by Grayson County, Va., on October 1, 1971. To the extent that each such motion seeks reopening of the record to permit the further exploration of environmental issues, our action herein has the effect of granting the motions.

More particularly, the six motions of the State of West Virginia seek reopening to afford a further opportunity (1) for the examination of environmental statements already prepared, (2) for the admission of evidence concerning the recreational and environmental impact of the project on 230 miles of the New-Kanawaha River, (3) to study the effects of the project as it relates to the operation of other projects in the pertinent basins, (4) to explore the "impropriety and illegality" of proposed low-flow augmentation, (5) to permit further testimony on the availability of at-source waste treatment technology, and (6) to determine the amount of low-flow augmentation required of the project. The Farm Bureaus' motion is for the purpose of receiving further evidence relating to the project's impact "on the continuing recreational, environmental, ecological and economic stability" of the affected areas. The motion of the Appalachian Research and Defense Fund and the Congress for Appalachian Development is based, in part, upon their belief that "the environmental statement of the Commission" is inadequate, and that the water quality function of the project requires further evaluation. Grayson County's motion states that reopening is required so that there may be received further evidence "relative to the environmental impact of the construction and operation of this project".

The procedures outlined herein, in which we require a staff draft environmental statement, an opportunity for comment thereon, revision as necessary and finalization by the staff of the draft environmental statement, the introduction of such statement as revised and finalized in evidence, and the opportunity to conduct cross-examination thereon, will permit the further exploration of the issues raised in the motions to reopen, as described above, to the extent that such issues are raised by or are revelant to the environmental statement of the staff, as revised and finalized.

The motion to reopen filed by the Appalachian Research and Defense Fund and the Congress for Appalachian Development is also based on the view of these parties that further evidence is needed concerning the desirability of Federal development of Blue Ridge resources, the anticompetitive effect of our granting the license applied for, and the applicant's fitness. On all such subjects, we view the record before us now as sufficient to permit us to reach an informed decision. As to the question of the desirability of Federal development, our orders in this proceeding of October 12, 1970, December 21, 1970, and January 26, 1971, denied earlier motions of these two parties on the same subject, for the reasons therein stated. The movants do not suggest that they have further evidence to offer on any of these three issues. Accordingly, their motion of September 30, 1971, is denied, to the extent that it seeks reopening with respect to the issues of Federal development, anticompetitive effects, and the applicant's fitness.

On October 18, 1972, the Federal Water Pollution Control Act amendments of 1972 became law. Section 102(b)(6) provides that:

> No license granted by the Federal Power Commission for a hydroelectric power project shall include storage for regulation of streamflow for the purpose of water quality control unless the Administrator (of the Environmental Protection Agency) shall recommend its inclusion and such reservoir storage capacity shall not exceed such proportion of the total storage required for the water quality control plan as the drainage area of such reservoir bears to the drainage area of the river basin or basins involved in such water quality control plan.

The question whether the Blue Ridge project should be constructed, or constructed and operated, so as to provide water quality control for the lower Kanawha River, has been a prominent and highly controverted issue in this proceeding. That issue involves numerous environmental implications, as the lengthy record now before us demonstrates. The reopening of the record to permit the further examination of environmental issues will thus have the secondary effect of affording to the parties (including the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, to whom we have accorded the status of an intervenor), the opportunity to address themselves to the effect of the new law upon the Blue Ridge project. The parties will have that opportunity in connection with their comments and cross-examination on the staff environmental statement.

The Commission further finds:

(1) In order to assure that the parties to this proceeding have available to them all of the procedures and safeguards contained in the National Environmental Policy Act, as construed in Greene County Planning Board v. F.P.C., supra, it is necessary that the proceeding be remanded to the Presiding Administrative Law Judge and that the hearing be reopened so that a staff environmental statement may be received in evidence and an opportunity may be afforded for cross-examination thereon.

(2) A further hearing in this proceeding would be in the public interest.

(3) Such further hearing shall not be held until the staff draft environmental statement has been revised as necessary and finalized by the staff, following the receipt of comments on the staff's draft environmental statement, and until such statement, as so revised and finalized, has been made available to the parties for a period of time sufficient for their preparation of cross-examination. The environmental statement of the staff, as so revised and finalized, shall be introduced in evidence at the reopened hearing.

The Commission orders:

(A) The proceeding is hereby reopened so that a staff environmental statement may be received in evidence and an opportunity may be afforded for cross-examination thereon, and a further public hearing before the Presiding Administrative Law Judge shall be held thereon in Washington, D.C., commencing on such date as he may, in his discretion, prescribe. The Presiding Administrative Law Judge shall prescribe procedures for such further hearing, consistent with the decision in Greene County Planning Board v. F.P.C., supra, and with this order. At such reopened hearing, the staff's environmental statement, as revised and finalized following the receipt of comments, shall be offered in evidence, and cross-examination thereon shall be permitted.

(B) All interested persons desiring to be heard in this phase of the proceeding who are not already parties may file appropriate petitions to intervene, on, or before November 20, 1972.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. E-7784]

BOSTON EDISON CO.

Order Accepting Proposed Rates for Filing, Consolidating Proceedings and Providing for Refunds

NOVEMBER 7, 1972.

On October 3, 1972, Boston Edison Co. (Edison) tendered for filing Exhibits B-PR and C-PR to its general service for resale tariff, together with supporting data, to provide rates and conditions for partial requirements services for Edison's wholesale for resale customers.

Edison states that the proposed partial requirements rates are base dupon the same revenue requirements as Edison's Rate S-2 which has been suspended for 5 months and will become effective subject to refund January 1, 1973 in Docket No. E-7738. Edison contends that it cannot estimate its revenues under the rates for partial requirements services since it does not have any firm requests for any of the services, and the commercial operation dates of its three atomic units are not known. In its transmittal letter Edison agrees to refund from the initial date of service under the partial requirements rates filed, any amounts for firm base, intermediate or peaking load power which would be or may be found excessive if the revenue requirements in Edison's cost of service are found to be excessive by the Commission in the S-2 case. Edison also agrees that if there is any question concerning the proposed methods or rates, the Commission may consolidate this filing with the Rate S-2 hearing.

Edison proposes to make these rates effective 30 days after the October 3, 1972, submission for filing or as soon thereafter as partial requirements services are provided.

Review of the rate filing indicates that certain issues may require development in an evidentiary hearing. The proposed tariff sheets have not been shown to be just and reasonable and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) Edison's proposed rate schedule supplements should be accepted for filing

(2) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Federal Power Act that the Commission consolidate the instant Docket No. E-7784 with the proceeding presently pending in Docket No. E-7738.

(3) The disposition of this proceeding should be expedited in accordance with the following service and hearing dates established in Docket No. E-7738:

Staff Service Date	Jan. 3, 1973
Intervenor Service Date	Jan. 17, 1973
Edison Rebuttal Date	Jan. 31, 1973
Prehearing Conference Date	Feb. 7, 1973
Hearing Date	Feb. 13, 1973

(4) Edison should refund from the initial date of service under the partial requirements rates filed, any amounts for firm base, intermediate or peaking load power which may be found excessive after hearing and decision thereon in the consolidated proceedings established by this order.

(5) The placing of the tariff changes applied for in this proceeding into effect, subject to refund with interest while pending Commission determination as to their justness and reasonableness, is consistent with the purposes of the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as amended.

The Commission orders:

(A) Edison's proposed rate schedule supplements of October 3, 1972, are accepted for filing and shall become effective 30 days after the October 3, 1972, submission for filing or as soon thereafter as partial requirements services are provided, subject to the terms and conditions of this order.

(B) Because it is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Federal Power Act, Docket No. E-7784 is hereby consolidated with the proceedings presently pending in Docket No. E-7738.

(C) The disposition of this proceeding will be conducted in accordance with the service and hearing dates of Docket No. E-7738 as listed above.

(D) Edison will refund from the initial date of service under the partial requirements rates filed, any amounts for firm base, intermediate or peaking load power which may be found excessive.

(E) A Presiding Administrative Law Judge to be designated by the Chief Administrative Law Judge for that purpose (See Delegation of Authority, 18 CFR 3.5(d)), shall preside at the hearing in this proceeding, shall prescribe relevant procedural matters not herein provided, and shall control the proceeding in accordance with the policies expressed in section 2.59 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

By the Commission.

MICHIGAN WISCONSIN PIPE LINE CO.

Notice of Petition To Amend

NOVEMBER 6, 1972.

Take notice that on October 31, 1972, Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Co. Petitioner states that the revised MDQ's for City Gas Co., Michigan Power Co., North Central Public Service Co., Wisconsin Fuel and Light Co., Wisconsin Gas Co., and Wisconsin Natural Gas Co. result in no increase in annual entitlements and that the annual requirements of Community Natural Gas Co., Inc., the City of Lamoni, and West Tennessee P.U.D. are essentially the same as heretofore described in the instant docket. Petitioner states further that it can provide the requested service with existing facilities.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition to amend should on or before November 28, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). [Docket No. RP71-119, etc.]

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPELINE CO. ET AL.

Order Conditioning Temporary Modification to Settlement Agreement

NOVEMBER 6, 1972.

Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co., Docket No. RP71-119; Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., Docket No. R-386; Battle Creek Gas Co., Docket No. R-386.

On September 28, 1972, the Commission issued a Notice of a Motion filed on September 25, 1972, by Battle Creek Gas Co. (Battle Creek), 23 East Michigan Avenue, Battle Creek, MI 49016, in the above-styled proceeding, requesting that the Commission issue an order modifying commerce, that such gas will be used exclusively within Michigan, and that all quested by Battle Creek Gas Co.' Hence, we can only conclude that none of the customers as may from time to time be authorized hereunder.

(C) That any service made pursuant to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7

River. The parcel in question is located in the northwest quarter of section 29, above-styled proceeding, requesting that the Commission issue an order modifying or waiving for a period of several months the flexibility provisions set forth in the settlement and stipulation generally agreed to by Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co.'s (Panhandle) customers and approved by order of the Commission on June 20, 1972, in this proceeding.

Battle Creek, a natural gas distributor in the City of Battle Creek, and environs, states that Panhandle is its only source of natural gas, that it has two propane plants capable of producing 8,500 Mcf of gas per day for peak shaving, and that it has a strict curtailment policy under which it has not added any new space heating customers since December 1970 and under which it has curtailed all new service to industrial customers and has limited existing firm customers to increases within existing contracts. Battle Creek further contends that for the past 2 years it has been engaged in a program of developing a natural gas storage field in Johnstown Township, Mich., and that engineering problems and environmental considerations have required the leaching of the cavern at a slower rate than anticipated so that the cavern will not be ready to receive gas until fall of 1973.

Battle Creek alleges that, based upon the anticipated curtailment of Panhandle as set forth in its schedule of July 1972, Panhandle's peak day responsibility to it in January 1973 will be 45,994 Mcf of natural gas which, when added to Battle Creek's propane production, provides a peak day availability of 54,494 Mcf of gas. Battle Creek then notes that its peak day requirements for firm gas might reach 62,356 Mcf in the winter of 1972–73 and that it will have a deficiency, based upon a winter colder than normal, of 7,862 Mcf of gas. If a colder than normal winter does in fact occur, it alleges that it will be required to curtail its firm industrial customers and large commercial users which will cause many businesses in the area to cease operations and will cause extreme hardship upon the citizens of the area.

In order to alleviate its supply problem for the 1972–73 heating season, Battle Creek has contracted with Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. (Consolidated) to receive from Panhandle at Consolidated's River Rouge Station in Melvindale, Mich., up to 200,000 Mcf of Battle Creek's gas between October 1, 1972, and November 30, 1972, at a rate not to exceed 10,000 Mcf per day. Battle Creek would cause such gas to be available by interrupting its interruptible customers earlier than it would otherwise do. Consolidated would redeliver gas to Panhandle for delivery to Battle Creek at a rate not to exceed 8,000 Mcf per day from December 1972 through April 1973. The gas would be delivered by displacement of other gas delivered by Panhandle at the River Rouge station during the heating season. Any gas not utilized by Battle Creek prior to April 30, 1973, would be redelivered to it as soon as practical thereafter. Battle Creek alleges that no gas delivered by Panhandle and stored by Consolidated will reenter interstate commerce, that such gas will be used exclusively within Michigan, and that all physical facilities necessary to carry out the proposal are in existence.

It is requested that the Commission approve the subject proposal as an exception to the flexibility provisions of the stipulation and agreement of May 8, 1972, by requiring Panhandle to deliver the gas as proposed and to find that the proposal will not affect the nonjurisdictional status of Battle Creek or Consolidated under the Natural Gas Act.

The arrangement is purely temporary in nature and will not result in Battle Creek's taking more gas from Panhandle than it normally would during the period October 1 through November 30, 1972. Additionally, since the takes will not exceed those contemplated under normal circumstances, the proposed request made by Battle Creek will not permit Battle Creek to pre-empt any capacity in Panhandle's pipeline to which it is not entitled. It is thus evidence that all of the facilities that will be utilized under this modification of the settlement agreement are presently installed.

However, since the service that Consolidated has agreed to undertake for Battle Creek falls within the purview of the Natural Gas Act our authorization is premised upon the condition that it be undertaken only if there is full compliance with our Rules and Regulations. In permitting this emergency service, we note that our rules and regulations under the act only recognize an emergency service of the nature requested when it is limited to a single period of not more than 60 days and when the other requirements prescribed in § 2.68 of our General Rules under the Act have been met. We shall therefore treat Battle Creek's motion and the attached agreement, for purposes of expedition, as a filing pursuant to § 2.68.

Hence, the Commission will approve the instant temporary modification requested by Battle Creek to the aforementioned stipulation and agreement to the extent that it is able within the provisions of section 2.68 of the Commission's general rules under the act. The rendition of the above noted emergency service shall not jeopardize the status that Battle Creek and Consolidated presently enjoy under section 1(c) of the act as long as it is being rendered in complete conformity and compliance with the provisions of the aforementioned section of our general rules. If the emergency service requested will have a duration of longer than 60 days, Consolidated shall obtain an advance statement from the Commission, prior to the termination of the 60-day period, in order to preserve their exempt status under section 1(c) of the act.

In the aforementioned notice relating to this motion issued on September 28, 1972, we afforded any person desiring either to be heard thereon or to make protest thereto until October 16, 1972, to do so. We have received only two responses to this motion and they did not voice opposition to the modification requested by Battle Creek Gas Co.[1] Hence, we can only conclude that none of the parties oppose the modification proposed in the aforementioned motion filed by Battle Creek.

The Commission finds:

(1) The public convenience and necessity requires that the flexibility provisions in the currently effective interim stipulation and agreement providing for curtailed service during times of gas supply deficiency on the Panhandle System, adopted by the Commission in its Order Approving Settlement on June 20, 1972, be modified to permit the emergency storage arrangement between Battle Creek Gas Co. and Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., which is fully set forth in their letter agreement dated September 18, 1972.

(2) The public convenience and necessity requires that Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. make appropriate deliveries, as the occasion may require, to either Battle Creek Gas Co. or Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. in order to provide for service under the modification to the approved settlement requirement which is described in the body of this order, as the Commission may authorize consistent with Battle Creek's motion.

(3) The aforementioned agreement and the deliveries hereunder are both temporary and emergency in nature. Hence, the temporary arrangement between Battle Creek Gas Co. and Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. will not be regarded as affecting their continued exemption under section 1(c) of the Natural Gas Act, provided such service is rendered in conformity and compliance with § 2.68 of our general rules under the act.

(4) That the service recommended is suitable to alleviate the emergency that exists and is, therefore, required by the public convenience and necessity.

The Commission orders:

(A) That the flexibility provisions reflected in the currently effective interim Stipulation and Agreement relating to gas supply deficiency curtailments on the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line System which the Commission approved in its Order Approving Settlement, issued on June 20, 1972, be modified and/or waived to the extent necessary to provide for the emergency arrangement set forth in the body of this order and in the motion filed by Battle Creek Gas Co. on September 25, 1972.

(B) That Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. make the necessary deliveries to either Battle Creek Gas Co. or Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. as contemplated under the aforementioned modification and/or waiver of the flexibility provisions to the Interim stipulation and agreement, noted above, between Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. and its customers as may from time to time be authorized hereunder.

(C) That any service made pursuant to this modification shall be in conformity with the delivery schedules both with respect to volumes and time as prescribed in the body of this order.

(D) The service rendered under this temporary, emergency arrangement will in no way affect the status that Battle Creek Gas Co. and Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. presently enjoy under section 1 of the Natural Gas Act provided that during the period of time in which this service is being rendered that the provisions in § 2.68 of the Commission's general rules are fully complied with.

By the Commission.

BANKS OF IOWA, INC.

Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

Banks of Iowa, Inc., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire 80 percent or more of the voting shares of First National Bank, Burlington, Iowa (Bank).

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and none has been timely received. The Board has considered the application in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant controls four banks with deposits of approximately $345 million, representing 4.7 percent of the total commercial bank deposits in the State, and is the second largest banking organization and bank holding company in Iowa. (All banking data are as of December 31, 1971, adjusted to reflect bank holding company formations and acquisitions approved by the Board through September 30, 1972.) Applicant's acquisition of Bank ($34.5 million in deposits) would increase Applicant's share of deposits in the State by one-half of 1 percentage point, without changing its ranking in the State.

Bank is the largest of seven banking organizations serving the Burlington

Bank is the largest of seven banking organizations serving the Burlington banking market with 30.7 percent of total commercial bank deposits therein. Inasmuch as this proposal represents Applicant's initial entry into the market, no existing competition would be eliminated. Furthermore, the development of any meaningful competition between any of Applicant's existing subsidiaries and Bank appears unlikely in light of the distances involved (Applicant's closest subsidiary is about 73 miles west of Bank), the large number of banks in the intervening area, and the State's restrictive branching law.

Although Applicant proposes to acquire the largest bank in the market, it appears unlikely that Applicant would acquire one of the smaller banks in the Burlington banking market. Three of the competing banks are located in West Burlington and cannot branch into Burlington proper, and thus are not attractive for acquisition. The other three banks in the market do not appear to be available for acquisition because of existing relationships with other banking groups. Applicant possesses the resources for meaningful de novo entry into the market; however, the city of Burlington, which has experienced no population growth since 1960, is not a major Iowa financial center, and the area's economy has been characterized by fluctuations in employment levels in the past. On the basis of the facts of record, the Board concludes that consummation of Applicant's proposal may have a slightly adverse effect on potential competition, but would not eliminate significant existing competition and, therefore, competitive considerations are consistent with approval of the application.

Affiliation with Applicant would increase Bank's lending capabilities through participations with Applicant's subsidiaries and special emphasis would be given to expansion of Bank's activities in trust administration, investment counseling, bond financing, and international banking. Considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the communities to be served lend some weight toward approval of the application.

Considerations relating to financial and managerial resources and prospects as they relate to Applicant and its subsidiaries are regarded as satisfactory. The same conclusions apply generally with respect to Bank, except that Bank has not provided for adequate successor management. Applicant's capabilities for finding competent and experienced officers for Bank as needed lend some weight in favor of approval. It is the Board's judgment that consummation of the proposed acquisition would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be consummated: (a) Before the 30th calendar day following the effective date of this order, or (b) later than 3 months after the effective date of this order, unless such period is extended for good cause by the Board, or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago pursuant to delegated authority.

By order of the Board of Governors,[1] effective November 2, 1972.

Secretary of the Board.

TEXAS COMMERCE BANCSHARES, INC.

Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

Texas Commerce Bancshares, Inc., Houston, Tex., a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire all of the voting shares (less directors' qualifying shares) of Bank Plaza del Oro, N.A., Houston, Tex. (Bank), a proposed new bank.

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired and the Board has considered the application and all comments received in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant controls six banks located in the Houston and Beaumont, Tex., areas with aggregate deposits of $1.4 billion, representing 4.7 percent of total deposits of commercial banks in the State.[2] Applicant, the fourth largest banking organization in Texas, is the second largest banking organization in the Houston banking market with four subsidiary banks controlling approximately 17.9 percent of deposits of commercial banks. In addition, applicant holds, through a subsidiary, between 20 and 24 percent of each of three other banks located in the Houston area. These three banks hold aggregate deposits of $77.2 million representing 1.1 percent of the total deposits of commercial banks in the Houston area. (All banking data are as of December 31, 1971, and reflect holding company formations and acquisitions approved through September 30, 1972.[3]) Acquisition of Bank, a proposed new bank, will not affect applicant's ranking among banking organizations in the State.

Bank is to be located in a new residential-commercial complex being developed in the southern portion of the city of Houston approximately 5 miles from that city's central business district in which applicant's lead Bank is located. Applicant's other subsidiary banks in the Houston market are all located to the north of the central business district. An affiliate of applicant, Chemical Bank & Trust Co. ($31 million of deposits), is located approximately 4 miles from Bank's proposed location.[4] There are presently two unaffiliated banks located in Bank's proposed service area and three other unaffiliated banks located adjacent to that service area. As the development of the southern portion of the city of Houston continues, it can be expected that a number of additional banks will seek to locate in this area. Prospects for opening other banks throughout the rapidly growing Houston area (including the area in which Bank is proposed to be located) appear favorable and approval of this proposal would not serve to foreclose the opportunity for entry by other banking organizations into these areas. Applicant's acquisition of Bank should serve neither to eliminate existing or future competition nor have any adverse effect on the concentration of bank resources in the Houston area. On the contrary, the proposal herein, by adding an additional banking alternative, may serve to promote competition among those banks now located in or near Bank's proposed service area.

The financial and managerial resources of applicant and its subsidiary banks are regarded as satisfactory and prospects for the group appear favorable. Bank has no financial or operating history. However, as a subsidiary of applicant, Bank's prospects appear favorable. Banking factors are consistent with approval of the application. The development in which Bank is proposed to be opened is located on a site of more than 500 acres on which are to be constructed numerous office and apartment buildings, shopping centers, and professional facilities. As these projects are completed, the need for additional banking services will grow. To the extent Bank will be able to provide an additional alternative source of these services for persons using these facilities, considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the community are consistent with approval of the application. It is the Board's judgment that the proposed acquisition would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be consummated: (a) Before the 30th calendar day following the effective date of this order; or (b) later than 3 months after the effective date of this order; and [2] On Aug. 31, 1972, the Board approved applicant's application to acquire American National Bank of Beaumont, Beaumont, Tex. As a condition to Board approval of that application, applicant is required to divest its interest in Beaumont State Bank, Beaumont, Tex., within 2 years of its acquisition of American National Bank.

[3] In addition to the present application, applicant has filed applications for approval to acquire two other proposed new banks in the Houston area. On Oct. 6, 1972, the Board announced the approval of applicant's application to acquire San Angelo National Bank of San Angelo, San Angelo, Tex. ($70 million of deposits).

[4] Applicant presently owns 20.9 percent of the voting shares of Chemical Bank and has stated its intention to file application to acquire control of this bank in the near future.

(c) Bank Plaza del Oro, N.A., Houston, Tex., shall be opened for business not later than 6 months after the date of this order. Each of the periods described in (b) and (c) may be extended for good cause by the Board, or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas pursuant to delegated authority.

CENTRAL AND SOUTH WEST CORP. AND CENTRAL POWER AND LIGHT CO.

Notice of Proposed Amendment of Charter

NOVEMBER 6, 1972.

Notice is hereby given that Central and South West Corp., 120 North Chaparral Street, Corpus Christi, TX 78403 (Central), a registered holding company, and one of its electric utility subsidiary companies, Central Power and Light Co. (CP&L), have filed an application-declaration with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (Act), designating sections 6(a), 7, 9, 10, and 12(f) of the act and rules 50, 62, and 65 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions. All interested persons are referred to the application-declaration, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transactions.

CP&L proposes to amend its articles of incorporation to increase the par value of its 6 million authorized (issued and unissued) shares of common stock from $17 per share to $25 per share and to transfer from earned surplus to the common stock capital account the sum of $39,644,280—the equivalent of $8 per share for each of the 4,955,535 shares of common stock ($17 par value) now outstanding. At August 31, 1972, the common stock capital and the earned surplus of CP&L amounted to $84,244,095 and $60,992,830, respectively. Giving effect to the proposed transfer, common stock capital would be increased to $123,888,375 and earned surplus would be reduced to $21,348,550. The transactions are proposed for the stated purpose of achieving a better balance in the capital accounts of the company. Each of the outstanding common shares having a par value of $17 will, after the proposed transactions, constitute a common share having a par value of $25.

CP&L also proposes to amend its charter to increase the authorized shares of its preferred stock from 175,000 shares to 675,000 shares and to issue and sell, subject to the competitive bidding requirements of rule 50 under the act, 260,000 shares of its authorized but unissued ------ percent preferred stock (cumulative, $100 par value). The dividend rate (which shall be a multiple of .04 percent) and the price (exclusive of accrued dividends) to be paid to CP&L (which shall be not less than $100 or more than $102.75 per share), will be determined by the competitive bidding. The terms of the preferred stock include a 5-year prohibition against refunding the preferred stock, directly or indirectly, with funds derived from the issuance of debt securities at a lower effective interest cost or other preferred stock at a lower effective dividend cost.

It is stated that the net proceeds to be derived by CP&L from the issuance and sale of the preferred stock will be used to pay outstanding short-term loans, estimated at $25 million at the time of issuance of the preferred stock, and to finance, in part, future construction expenditures, estimated at about $31,200,000 for the period July 1–December 31, 1972, and at $82 million for 1973.

It is stated that under Texas law, the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of common stock, voting separately as a class, is required for the adoption of the proposed amendment increasing the par value of the shares of common stock and that the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of preferred stock, voting separately as a class, and, in addition, the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the total outstanding shares of preferred stock and common stock, is required for the adoption of the proposed amendment to increase the total authorized preferred stock from 175,000 shares to 675,000 shares. Central, owner of all of the common stock of CP&L, has indicated that it will vote its shares in favor of the proposed amendments.

CP&L intends to submit the proposed transactions to its stockholders for their approval at a special meeting of stockholders which is to be held on or about December 12, 1972. In connection therewith, CP&L proposes, pursuant to rule 62 under the act, to solicit proxies from holders of its outstanding common stock and preferred stock.

Expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated at $57,000, including counsel fees of $15,000 and accountants' fees of $3,500. The application-declaration states that no State commission and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

CP&L has requested that the effectiveness of its declaration with respect to the solicitation of proxies from holders of its preferred stock be accelerated as provided in rule 62.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 4, 1972, request in writing that a hearing be held with respect to the proposed amendment of the articles of incorporation and the proposed issue and sale of preferred stock, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicants-declarants at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the application-declaration, as filed or as it may be amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

It appearing that CP&L's declaration regarding the proposed solicitation of proxies should be permitted to become effective forthwith pursuant to rules 62 and 65:

It is ordered, That the declaration regarding the proposed solicitation of proxies be, and it hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith pursuant to rules 62 and 65 and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in rule 24 under the act.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

underwriter of VA–1 and VA–2 (collectively called "Applicants"), have filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Act for an order exempting applicants from the provisions of sections 26(a) and 27(c)(2) of the Act to the extent noted below. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations contained therein, which are summarized below.

VA–1 and VA–2 were established by Guardian in connection with the proposed sale of three types of individual variable annuity contracts. VA–1 is used for purchasers who are qualified for special tax treatment under sections 401 or 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, and VA–2 for purchasers who are not so qualified for special tax treatment. Registration statements covering the proposed sale of these securities have been filed with the Commission.

The contracts are sold by persons who are registered representatives of GLICOA and who are also insurance agents or brokers for Guardian. These persons generally will also be agents or brokers of The Guardian Life Insurance Company of America (Guardian Life).

Guardian and GLICOA are both wholly owned subsidiaries of Guardian Life. The assets of VA–1 and VA–2 are invested exclusively in the shares of The Guardian Park Ave. Fund, Inc. (Fund).

Hartford National Bank & Trust Co., Hartford, Conn., is the custodian for VA–1 and VA–2 and is also the custodian and transfer agent for the Fund.

Sections 26(a) and 27(c)(2), as here pertinent, provide in substance that a registered unit investment trust and any depositor and underwriter for the trust are prohibited from selling periodic payment plan certificates unless the proceeds of all payments other than the sales load are deposited with a qualified bank as trustee or custodian, and held under an indenture or agreement containing specified provisions. Such agreement must provide, inter alia, that the bank (i) shall have possession of all property of the unit investment trust and segregate and hold the same in trust subject only to the charges and collections specifically allowed under clauses (A), (B), and (C) of section 26(a)(2) until distribution to the security holders of the trust; (ii) shall not resign until the trust has been liquidated or a successor has been appointed, (iii) may collect from the income and, if necessary, from the corpus of the trust such fees for services performed and reimbursement of expenses incurred as are provided for in the agreement, and (iv) shall not allow as an expense any payment to the depositor or principal underwriter except a fee, not exceeding such reasonable amount as the Commission may prescribe, for performing bookkeeping and other administrative services of a character normally performed by the bank itself. An exemption is requested from the foregoing provisions to the extent necessary to permit such assets to be held in the custody of the sponsor company Guardian.

In support of the requested exemption from the foregoing provisions of the Act, applicants state that all of the assets of VA–1 and VA–2 will be invested in book shares of The Guardian Park Ave. Fund, Inc. The evidence of ownership will consist of confirmations only, thus making the duties of the custodian minimal. Due to the nature of the asset, applicants maintain that there is no possibility of these being lost or disposed of except on the basis of an application properly presented to the custodian for the Fund by authorized personnel of the sponsor company. Applicants also assert that they are subject to extensive supervision and control by the New York and Delaware Superintendents of Insurance which includes filing required reports to the superintendents and being subject to review or examination by the superintendents and their agents at all times. It is further maintained that VA–1 and VA–2 have been established pursuant to a Delaware law which provides that their assets shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business Guardian may conduct and all obligations arising under contracts participating in VA–1 and VA–2 are, nevertheless, general obligations of Guardian and Guardian may not abrogate its obligations under such contracts. Applicants contend that the functions of the custodian of VA–1 and VA–2 can be handled by Guardian itself at less cost and without any diminution of the quality of the safekeeping arrangements in regard to the assets, so held.

Applicants have consented to the requested exemptions being subject to the following conditions:

1. That the charges to contract holders under the contracts for administrative services shall not exceed such reasonable amount as the Commission shall prescribe, and that the Commission may reserve jurisdiction for such purpose; and

2. That the payment of sums and charges out of the assets of VA–1 and VA–2 shall not be deemed to be exempted from regulation by the Commission by reason of the order, provided that the applicants' consent to this condition shall not be deemed to be a concession to the Commission of authority to regulate the payment of sums and charges out of VA–1 and VA–2 other than charges for administrative services, and applicants reserve the right, in any proceeding before the Commission or in any suit or action in any court, to assert that the Commission has no authority to regulate the payment of such other sums and charges.

Section 6(c) authorizes the Commission to exempt any person, security, or transaction, or any class or classes of persons, securities, or transactions, from the provisions of the Act and rules promulgated thereunder if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 30, 1972, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon applicants at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney at law by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule 0–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the information stated in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered and any postponements thereof.

PART 143—GUIDANCE AND COUNSELING, AND TESTING; IDENTIFICATION AND ENCOURAGEMENT OF ABLE STUDENTS—STATE PROGRAMS

Assistance to States

Notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 5, 1972, in 37 F.R. 2779, setting forth rules and standards for State plan programs authorized under title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. Comments were received with respect to inclusion of an example of services for handicapped children (§ 118.26(c)), the inclusion of a copyright provision (§ 118.58), the strengthening of requirements for guidance, counseling, and testing programs or the elimination of such programs (§ 118.11), the elimination of the public junior colleges and technical institutes from the regulations (§§ 118.10–118.11), permission to reallocate to other States unused funds provided under section 306 of Public Law 91–230, and adding reference to Public Law 91–646, Uniform Relocation Act. Following review of the comments, the following changes were made:

A. Summary of changes based on comments received. 1. Section 118.26(c) has been amended to include an additional example of services available to handicapped children.

2. Section 118.58 has been included to add a copyright and patent provision to cover situations where copyrightable or patentable materials are developed under a title III program or project. This provision was omitted from the earlier regulations which were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

3. Section 118.42(r) was added to include the provisions of Public Law 91–646, the Uniform Relocation Act.

4. Other minor changes have been made, either to correct typographical errors or to effect solely technical matters.

B. Summary of comments. 1. A comment was received proposing that public junior colleges and technical institutes (§§ 118.10–118.11) be removed from the regulations because they weaken the original Act (Public Law 89–10). In most State educational agencies, the public junior colleges and technical institutes do not participate in the title III program. However, the statute makes it possible for junior colleges and technical institutes to participate in the guidance, counseling, and testing portion of title III only if an SEA elects to permit their participation.

2. A comment was received asking that the requirements for guidance, counseling, and testing programs be strengthened or such programs be eliminated. State educational agencies presently have the option to use the full title III approach (which includes regulatory criteria for innovative programs) or to use the modified approach (which combines a part of the regulatory criteria for innovative programs with additional criteria established by the States).

3. One comment proposes that the U.S. Commissioner of Education be given permission to reallocate to other States the unused decretionary funds provided under section 306 of Public Law 91–230. Such a proposal would require amending the legislation since the reallotment provision is explicit in the Act.

After consideration of the above comments, Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by revoking Part 143 and by revising Part 118 as set forth below.

Effective date. As appears from the above summary, the modifications do not involve any changes of a substantial nature from the provisions which were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 5, 1972, as proposed rule making. Accordingly, these regulations shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11–11–72).

Dated: July 27, 1972.

S. P. MARLAND, JR.,
Commissioner of Education.

Approved: November 3, 1972.

(f) Commingling of funds. The State plan shall set forth policies and procedures which assure that funds made available under title III of the Act for programs and projects for any fiscal year will not be so commingled with State or local funds as to lose their identity as title III funds.

(g) State aid. The State plan shall contain adequate assurance that, in determining the eligibility of any local educational agency for State aid or the amount of such aid, grants to that agency under title III of the Act will not be taken into consideration. (c) In fulfilling the requirements of this section, the State educational agency may provide services at the State level, make arrangements with local educational agencies or other appropriate local or State agencies, or contract with public or private nonprofit institutions, agencies, or individuals, for the provision of services consistent with the State's responsibilities under these regulations. Such program shall serve to advise students regarding courses of study best suited to their abilities, aptitudes and skills, the type of educational program they should pursue, the vocation they should train for and enter, and the job opportunities in the various fields, as well as to encourage students with outstanding aptitudes and abilities to complete their secondary school education, take the necessary courses for admission to institutions of higher education, and enter such institutions. Such programs may include short-term training sessions for persons engaged in guidance and counseling in elementary and secondary schools, junior colleges, and technical institutes in the State.

(b) Guidance and counseling services under the State plan shall be provided by qualified counselors through appropriate individual and group processes. Such processes shall be coordinated with other pupil personnel services and guidance and counseling resources both within and outside the school setting, and shall include referral assistance, working with other staff members in planning curriculum content and changes, and consulting both teachers and parents with regard to the learning and developmental needs of pupils.

(c) The program set forth under paragraph (a) of this section shall make provision for supervision and leadership activities by the State educational agency with regard to the establishment, maintenance, and improvement of guidance and counseling services under the State plan. Such activities shall include the assessment of other Federal and State programs (such as titles I and V of the Act, part B of the Education of the Handicapped Act, and the Vocational Education Act of 1963) where there may be need for State level supervision and leadership with respect to guidance and counseling, and the development of procedures for determining how these various programs and sources of funds can be coordinated to provide for strong leadership in the area of guidance and counseling.

(d) In addition to the activities set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, the program set forth under paragraph (a) of this section may also include the provision of services at the State level, through arrangements (including project grants under paragraph (e) of this section) with local educational agencies or other appropriate local or State agencies, or through contracts with public or private nonprofit institutions, agencies, or individuals, which are consistent with the State's responsibilities under these regulations.

Application of the factors set forth in this section shall not result in the approval by the State educational agency of programs or projects which fail to meet any of the requirements contained in this part.

§ 118.13 Special consideration for certain local educational agencies.

The State plan shall provide for giving special consideration, in approving applications for title III programs and projects, to applications submitted by local educational agencies (a) that are making a reasonable tax effort but are unable to meet critical educational needs (including preschool and bilingual education) because some or all of its schools are seriously overcrowded, obsolete, or unsafe; or (b) whose proposed program or project was planned with funds made available under title III of the Act. Application of the factors set forth in this section shall not result in the approval by the State educational agency of programs or projects which fail to meet any of the requirements contained in this part. (20 U.S.C. 844a(b) (4) and (5))

§ 118.14 Percentage requirements regarding uses of funds.

(20 U.S.C. 844a(b) (7) and (8), 844a note)

§ 118.15 Participation by private school children.

(a) The State plan shall contain satisfactory assurances that each local educational agency receiving funds under title III of the Act will provide for the effective participation in its title III program or projects, on an equitable basis, by children enrolled in private schools in the areas to be served whose educational needs are of the type which the program or project is designed to meet. The number of such children to be served, in relation to the total number of such children, shall be consistent with the number of public school children to be served in relation to the total number of public school children in the area served with educational needs of the type the program or project is designed to meet.

(b) Whenever practicable, educational services shall be provided to private school children on publicly controlled premises. Any project to be carried out in public facilities which involves joint participation by children enrolled in private schools and children enrolled in public schools shall include such provisions as are necessary to avoid the separation of participating children by school enrollment or religious affiliation.

(c) Provisions for serving private school children shall not include (1) the payment of salaries to teachers or other employees of private schools except for services performed outside regular hours of duty and under public supervision and control, (2) financing of the existing level of instruction in private schools, (3) the placement of equipment on private school premises other than portable or mobile equipment which is capable of being removed from the premises each day, or (4) the construction of facilities for private schools. None of the funds made available under the Act may be used for religious worship or instruction.

(d) The State educational agency shall require that every project application submitted to it by a local educational agency under § 118.23 shall describe how the local educational agency will fulfill the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section. This description shall contain information indicating: (1) The number of private schools in the area to be served by the project and the number of children enrolled in such schools in the grades to be served by the project; (2) the existence of any factors which limit the appropriateness of the project for private school children; (3) the manner in which and extent to which representatives of private school children participated in the development of the project proposal (including participation in the determinations required under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph); (4) the provisions which have been made for effective liaison with representatives of private school children in regard to operation and review of the project; (5) the places at which and methods by which private school children will be served in accordance with the requirements of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section; and (6) the differences, if any, in the kind and extent of services to be provided private school children as compared with those to be provided public school children, and the reasons for such differences. (20 U.S.C. 844a(b)(11))

§ 118.17 Supplementary nature of projects.

(a) The State plan shall set forth policies and procedures for assuring that funds made available under title III of the Act for any fiscal year will be used to supplement and, to the extent practical, increase (1) the fiscal effort which each local educational agency receiving title III funds would have made in the absence of such funds, for that fiscal year for educational purposes, as required by section 305(b)(9) of the Act (20 U.S.C. 844a(b)(9)), and (2) the level of funds which each local educational agency receiving title III funds and each participating school would have made available in the absence of such funds, for that fiscal year for the purposes described in section 303(b) of the Act, as required by section 304(a)(3) of the Act, 20 U.S.C. 844(a)(3)).

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a)(1) of this section, fiscal effort of a local educational agency for educational purposes shall be determined by the State educational agency on the basis of the amount of expenditures per pupil of the local educational agency from State and local funds; or in the event of a decrease of such expenditures, on the basis of the ratio between the total expenditures of the local educational agency from State and local funds and the wealth of the local educational agency as measured by the equalized assessed valuation of taxable property, per capita income, or other such indices as appropriate. (20 U.S.C. 844(a)(3), 844a (b)(9)(B))

§ 118.18 Approval of State plans.

(a) Full approval or disapproval. The Commissioner will review each State plan or amendment thereto submitted under § 118.7, and approve those plans and amendments which he determines to meet the requirements of title III of the Act and these regulations. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the Commissioner will disapprove a plan which fails to comply with such requirements.

(b) Partial approval. If the Commissioner finds that a State plan submitted under § 118.6 for any fiscal year ending prior to July 1, 1973, is in substantial compliance with title III of the Act and these regulations, but fails to adequately provide for one of the programs required by section 305(b) of the Act (20 U.S.C. 844a(b)) or for some specific requirement (such as participation of private schoolchildren) pertaining to such programs, or is otherwise unapprovable in any other identifiable part, he may approve that part of the plan which he determines to be in compliance with title III of the Act and the regulations in this part. In such a case, the Commissioner will make available to the State that part of its allotment which he determines to be necessary to carry out the approved part of its State plan. The remainder of the amount the State is eligible to receive may be made available to the State only when the unapproved portion of its State plan is so modified as to bring the plan into compliance with title III of the Act and the regulations in this part. The amount made available to a State pursuant to this subsection may not be less than 50 percent of the maximum amount which the State is eligible to receive under paragraph (f) of this section.

(c) Effect of State plan. The State plan, as approved by the Commissioner under this section, will constitute the basis on which Federal grants are made, and the basis for determining the propriety of expenditures of grant funds. The administration of the title III program shall be kept in conformity with the approved plan.

(d) Effective date of the State plan. The effective date of the State plan or any amendment thereto shall be the date on which such plan or amendment is received by the Commissioner in substantially approvable form, but no earlier than July 1 of the fiscal year for which the plan or amendment is submitted.

(e) Notice and opportunity for hearing. No final action under this section other than one of full approval will be taken by the Commissioner until he first notifies the State educational agency of his proposed action and affords the State educational agency a reasonable opportunity for a hearing.

(f) Maximum funding level. A State whose State plan has been approved under this section for any fiscal year may receive, for the purpose of carrying out such plan, an amount not in excess of 85 percent of its allotment under section 302 of the Act. (20 U.S.C. 844a (b), (c), (d), (e)(1))

§ 118.19 Inability or failure to serve private school children.

(a) In any State in which the Commissioner determines under § 118.18(b) that the State plan is approvable except that (1) no State agency is authorized by law to provide, or (2) there has been a substantial failure to provide, for effective participation on an equitable basis by private schoolchildren enrolled in any one or more private elementary or secondary schools in the areas served by programs or projects funded under title III of the Act, as required by § 118.10(a), § 118.11(a), or § 118.15, the Commissioner will arrange for the provision of title III services to such children on an equitable basis.

(b) The costs of services provided in any fiscal year under paragraph (a) of this section will be paid out of the affected State's allotment for that fiscal year. In determining the amount to be withheld, the Commissioner will take into account (1) the number of private schoolchildren in the affected area or areas who are excluded from effective participation in title III programs or projects and who, except for such exclusion, might reasonably have been expected to participate; (2) the number of teachers that would reasonably have been required to serve such children, and (3) the nature and extent of services being provided to public schoolchildren in the affected area by the programs or projects in which private schoolchildren are denied effective participation.

(c) In any case where the State alleges that no State agency is authorized by law to provide for the effective participation of private schoolchildren as required by § 118.10(a), § 118.11(a), or § 118.15, the State shall provide the Commissioner with a written statement signed by the State Attorney General or other appropriate State legal officer setting forth the constitutional and statutory provisions, and case law, which in his opinion prevent the State from so serving private schoolchildren.

(d) In determining whether there has been a "substantial failure" under paragraph (a) of this section, the Commissioner (1) will first consult the affected State educational agency and ask it to provide information concerning the alleged failure, and (2) will consider all acts or omissions of the State, or a local educational agency or other political subdivision thereof, or of any individual acting for or on behalf of such entities, in the process of assessing educational needs and planning, approving, conducting, and monitoring programs and projects under title III of the Act and these regulations, which have the effect of (a) preventing, discouraging, or otherwise limiting in any manner the effective participation by any eligible private school child in the operation of the program or project serving the area in which his private school is located, or (b) not affording private school representatives the opportunity for effective participation in the planning and development of any program or project in which private schoolchildren are eligible to participate. (20 U.S.C. 845(f))

§ 118.20 Operational noncompliance.

Whenever the Commissioner, after affording the State educational agency reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing, finds that in the operation or administration of its State plan there has been a failure to comply substantially with (a) any provision of title III of the Act and the regulations in this part, (b) any requirement set forth in the plan of that State as approved under § 118.18, or (c) any requirement set forth in an application of one of the State's local educational agencies as approved under § 118.23, he will notify the State educational agency that further payments will not be made to the State under title III of the Act, or that the State educational agency may not make further payments under title III of the Act to specified local educational agencies affected by the failure, until he is satisfied that there is no longer any such failure to comply. (20 U.S.C. 844a(e)(2))

Subpart D—Program Requirements

This subpart sets forth various program requirements to which each State educational agency shall adhere in administering the educational programs described in its approved State plan and in implementing the provisions of such plan. The policies, procedures, and criteria developed by the State under this subpart shall be set forth in writing and shall be available for inspection at reasonable times and places by the Commissioner or his delegate and by interested parties in the general public. (2) The State plan and amendments thereto which the State educational agency submits to the Commissioner under § 118.6 and the periodic reports which it submits to the Commissioner under §§ 118.53 and 118.54 shall first be submitted to the Governor of the State for his review and comments (if any) on the relationship of title III programs and projects to, and coordination with, State comprehensive plans and State plans in related Federal programs. The Governor shall be given a period of up to 45 days, if necessary, to make such comments. (d) On-site evaluation of projects. The State educational agency shall develop procedures and criteria for the on-site evaluation, at least annually, of all title III projects in the State. Such procedures shall indicate the role of the State educational agency staff in the evaluation process and the relationship between its functions under this subsection and the functions of the State advisory council under §§ 118.4(a)(3) and 118.8(a). Such procedures shall also provide for incorporation into the affected projects of recommendations made as a result of on-site evaluations and for followup methods to insure proper implementation.

(e) Construction. The State educational agency shall establish (1) criteria for determining the conditions under which the construction of facilities for use in a title III program or project is consistent with the educational programs set forth in the State plan and necessary to the efficient operation of the program or project, and (2) procedures for the submission of construction requests by local educational agencies and the review of such requests, in accordance with the provisions of § 118.42 and the criteria established under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, by the State educational agency and other interested State agencies.

(f) Conflicts of interests. The State educational agency shall establish procedures which insure that no board or staff member of the State educational agency, the State advisory council, or a local educational agency will participate in or make recommendations concerning an administrative decision or action involving a program or project under title III of the Act, if such decision or action may reasonably be expected to result in any fee, royalty, commission, remuneration, or other benefit to him or to any member of his immediate family.

(g) List of projects funded. The State educational agency shall maintain a list identifying each local project it is funding under title III of the Act, which shall include for each such project (1) the project number, (2) a title or description by which the project may be easily identified, (3) the amount of the current grant, (4) the proposed level of funding for the portion of the project period remaining after expiration of the current grant, (5) the amount of grant funds to be expended in each project for guidance and counseling under § 118.11 or for testing under § 118.10, and (6) the amount of grant funds to be expended in each project for the education of handicapped children under § 118.26 broken down by type of handicap.

(h) Participation of students in junior colleges and technical institutes. Participation in title III programs or projects by students enrolled in junior colleges and technical institutes in a State shall be limited to participation in guidance, counseling, and testing programs or projects established under §§ 118.10 and 118.11. (20 U.S.C. 843(b)(4), 844a(a)(1) and (b)(1)(B)(i) and (ii), 883)

§ 118.23 Applications from local educational agencies.

(a) Solicitation and submission. The State educational agency shall establish procedures to stimulate the submission of applications for funds under title III of the Act by all local educational agencies in the State that have educational needs of the type which the State has identified and determined to serve under § 118.9. Such procedures shall include (1) the statewide dissemination of information concerning the purposes and provisions of title III of the Act and these regulations and of the educational program which the State proposes to conduct under its State plan; (2) the establishment of cutoff dates for submission of applications and notifications to all local educational agencies of such dates; and (3) the development of solicitation techniques designed to insure that title III funds are equitably distributed as required by § 118.12 and that applications are submitted by local educational agencies deserving special consideration under § 118.13. The State shall not establish methods or procedures which have the effect of excluding the eligibility of any otherwise eligible local educational agency to apply for and receive grants under this part.

(b) Content of applications. Each project application submitted to the State educational agency shall set forth a proposal for carrying out one or more of the purposes described in section 303(b) of the Act (20 U.S.C. 843(b)) in accordance with the provisions of title III of the Act and these regulations. Such applications shall:

(1) Provide that the services and activities for which title III funds are sought will be administered by or under the supervision of the applicant, and provide (i) such methods of administration as are necessary for the proper and efficient operation of the project, and (ii) such fiscal control and fund accounting procedures as are necessary to assure proper disbursement of and accounting for title III funds paid to the applicant;

(2) Set forth policies and procedures which assure that funds made available for the project for any fiscal year will supplement and not supplant State and local funds in accordance with § 118.17(a);

(3) Set forth, in the case of an application which includes construction as part of the proposed project, the assurances required by § 118.42(e) and such other information as the State educational agency shall require in fulfilling the requirements of § 118.22(e);

(4) Provide for making such financial reports, annual reports, and other reports, and for keeping and allowing access to such records relating thereto, as the State educational agency may reasonably require to assure compliance with the reports and records requirements in §§ 118.54 to 118.56 and to otherwise carry out its functions under title III of the Act and these regulations;

(5) Set forth the information regarding participation of private schoolchildren which is required by § 118.15(d); and

(6) Contain such other information as the State educational agency may reasonably require to apply the criteria for reviewing project applications set forth in § 118.24.

(c) Panel of experts. The State educational agency shall establish a panel of experts, consisting of persons who are not officers or employees of the State educational agency, or the State advisory council to review all local project applications prior to their approval or other disposition. The State educational agency shall determine the number of experts to be utilized and the qualifications to be required of such experts (including one or more experts in the education of handicapped children and one or more experts in guidance, counseling, and testing) and shall establish procedures for selecting the panel.

(d) Approval of applications. The State educational agency shall establish procedures for review and disposition of local project applications in accordance with the requirements of title III of the Act and these regulations. Such procedures shall provide for coordinating the roles of the State advisory council (under § 118.4(a)(2)) and the panel of experts (under paragraph (c) of this section) with the role of the State educational agency. Such procedures shall also assure that no application will be approved or renewed by the State educational agency unless it is specifically found to meet the requirements for participation of private school children under § 118.15 and each of the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section, and has been evaluated in terms of the criteria set forth in § 118.24. (20 U.S.C. 844)

(e) Hearings. The State educational agency shall develop procedures for a hearing in accordance with § 118.8(e)(2) for any applicant whose application (or amendment thereto) the State educational agency proposes not to approve. (20 U.S.C. 844)

§ 118.24 Criteria for review of project applications.

(a) Supplementary educational centers and services. The State educational agency shall establish the criteria to be used in reviewing project applications from local educational agencies under § 118.9. Such criteria shall be applied in conjunction with the special criteria developed by the State educational agency under §§ 118.12 and 118.13, and shall include the following criteria for determining the extent to which the proposal includes:

(1) Evidence that it is designed to demonstrate solutions to identified critical educational needs and will substantially increase the educational opportunities of children in the area of the State to be served;

(8) Provisions for staff with professional qualifications adequate to achieve the project's stated objectives;

(11) Provisions for dissemination of information about the proposed project which are appropriate and adequate for the area to be served.

(b) Guidance and counseling. The State educational agency shall establish the criteria to be used in reviewing applications for guidance and counseling programs and projects under § 118.11. A State educational agency may elect to apply all criteria in paragraph (a) of this section to guidance and counseling programs and projects. However, at least those criteria set forth in §§ 118.12 and 118.13 and those required by paragraph (a)(4) through (11) of this section shall be applicable to all such programs or projects.

(c) Additional criteria. If the State educational agency establishes criteria for the review of project applications in addition to those specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, it shall list such additional criteria in its State plan in accordance with § 118.8(e)(11). (20 U.S.C. 844)

(b) Establish or expand innovative and exemplary programs and projects (including dual enrollment programs and the lease or construction of necessary facilities) for the purpose of stimulating the adoption of new educational programs, including special programs for handicapped children and programs such as those described in section 503(4) of the Act, in the schools of the State. (20 U.S.C. 844a(b)(7))

The State educational agency shall also establish procedures which assure that such activities will be coordinated with other Federal, State, and local programs and projects for the education of handicapped children, such as title I of the Act, the Education of the Handicapped Act the Developmental Disabilities Services and Facilities Construction Act, and the State shall also establish procedures whereby appropriate State education agency personnel responsible for the education of handicapped children shall review and make recommendations relating to all parts of the State plan which pertain to handicapped children. (20 U.S.C. 844a(b)(8))

§ 118.27 Amendment, continuation, and termination of projects.

(a) Project period. The State educational agency shall establish a project period for projects funded under title III of the Act and shall establish procedures for continuing the funding of promising projects throughout the project period, subject to the availability of title III funds, on the basis of evaluations under § 118.22(d) and other periodic reviews which demonstrate that the project is being operated in compliance with all the requirements of title III of the Act and these regulations.

(b) Amendment of project applications. The State educational agency shall establish procedures for reviewing requests from grantees to amend project applications and alter projects during the project period and for assuring that such amendments and alterations are fully consistent with the requirements of title III of the Act and these regulations. Whenever the proposed amendment or alteration would involve significant changes in the content, design, or funding level of the project, the review procedures utilized shall conform to the requirements of § 118.23(d).

(c) Costs of continuation. If the costs to the State for any fiscal year of continuing projects under this section would exceed the amount of funds available to the State to carry out its State plan for that fiscal year, the State educational agency may request that the Commissioner provide funds to meet such excess costs under section 306 of the Act (20 U.S.C. 344b) and Part 126 of this chapter. V 37 I 219 NOV 11 72 XUM

(c) Use by State agency for local projects. A use of funds under title III of the Act for local projects shall be determined by the issuance of a grant award document by the State educational agency to a local educational agency. Funds so obligated by the State educational agency shall remain available for expenditure by the local educational agency during the period for which the grant was awarded, as determined pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, which period shall not extend beyond the end of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the grant is awarded. The obligation recorded by the State educational agency shall be adjusted and the grant award amended whenever the amount obligated is determined to be at variance with amounts actually expended by the local educational agency.

(d) Expenditures by local educational agencies. For the purpose of paragraph (c) of this section, the expenditure of funds under title III of the Act by local educational agencies shall be determined on the basis of documentary evidence of binding commitments for the acquisition of goods or property, the construction of school facilities, or the performance of work; except that funds for personal services, for services performed by public utilities, for travel, and for rental of equipment and facilities shall be considered to have been expended as of the time such services were rendered, such travel was performed, and such rented equipment and facilities were used, respectively. In the case of funds to be used for administrative activities in connection with the completion of a project, such as evaluation and auditing activities, expenditures may also be determined on the basis of documentary evidence of a specific reservation of funds for the purpose. (20 U.S.C. 1225(b), 31 U.S.C. 200)

(e) Liquidations of obligations. An obligation entered into by the State educational agency pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section or LEA pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section and payable out of funds under title III of the Act shall be liquidated by the end of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the obligation was incurred unless prior to the end of that following fiscal year the State educational agency determines for good cause that the time for liquidating a particular obligation will be extended and so notifies the Commissioner.

§ 118.32 Grant awards.

In all cases where the State educational agency makes grants under title III of the Act to local educational agencies, it shall award such grants for specified budget periods on the basis of applications which have been approved in accordance with § 118.23. All grant awards shall be in writing and shall set forth the amount of funds granted and the budget period during which such funds are available for expenditure, and shall specify the anticipated length of the project period. (20 U.S.C. 843(a)) § 118.33 Federal fiscal audits.

All records of the State educational agency and of local agencies receiving title III funds which relate to program or administrative expenditures under title III of the Act shall be subject to periodic audit by the Department and the Comptroller General of the United States, or his duly authorized representative, to assure that the State has properly used and accounted for Federal funds. Such records shall be maintained and be accessible in accordance with § 118.55, and otherwise be adequate to permit an accurate and expeditious audit of the State's title III program. (20 U.S.C. 1232c)

(15) Construction or major structural alteration of buildings and facilities, where undertaken by a local educational agency with funds provided under section 307(a) of the Act after having been specifically approved by the State educational agency under § 118.22(e).

(c) Proration of costs. In situations where an expenditure otherwise allowable under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section is incurred in part for purposes other than the administration or operation of programs and projects under title III of the Act, title III funds shall be available only for that portion of the cost which is fairly attributable to the administration or operation of title III programs and projects. The State educational agency shall establish procedures for prorating costs and for maintaining fully documented records to substantiate prorations of costs for items such as salaries, travel, rent, and equipment. In the case of proration of costs for salaries, such records shall be documented on a before-and-after-the-fact basis. All such records shall be maintained in accordance with § 118.55. (20

§§ 118.46–118.50 [Reserved]

Subpart G—General Provisions

§ 118.51 Payment of funds.

(a) From its allotment under section 302 of the Act for any fiscal year, the Commissioner will pay to each State, either in advance or by way of reimbursement, amounts equal to the sums necessary for current expenditures by the State under an approved State plan for (1) grants to local educational agencies for supplementary educational centers and services, and (2) guidance, counseling, and testing programs.

(b) The payment of funds under title III of the Act will be limited to the maximum funding level established in § 118.18(f); and the funding of partially approved State plans is further subject to the limitations set forth in § 118.18(b).

(c) The Commissioner will pay additional sums to each State receiving funds under paragraph (a) of this section for administration of the State plan, activities of the State advisory council, and evaluation and dissemination activities. In no case will the amount paid to a State for such activities for any fiscal year exceed an amount equal to 7½ percent of its allotment for that fiscal year or $150,000 ($50,000 in the case of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands), whichever is greater. Of the funds available to any State for such activities during any fiscal year, the amount paid for administration of the State plan shall not exceed an amount equal to 5 percent of the State's allotment for that fiscal year or $100,000 ($35,000 in the case of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands), whichever is greater (20 U.S.C. 843(a), 845, 1232d)

(d) No payments will be made by the Commissioner to a State under title III of the Act for any fiscal year unless the Commissioner determines that the amount of State aid per pupil with respect to the provision of free public education in that State for the preceding fiscal year was not less than the amount of such State per pupil aid for the second preceding fiscal year.

§ 118.52 Reallotment.

(a) General. The amount of any State's allotment under title III of the Act for any fiscal year which the Commissioner determines will not be required by such State for the period for which that amount is available shall be available for grants pursuant to section 306 of the Act (20 U.S.C. 844b) and Part 126 of this title (special grants made directly by the Commissioner) in such State. If the Commissioner further determines that the amount is not needed in such State for grants pursuant to section 306 of the Act, that amount may, in the Commissioner's discretion, either be used for grants pursuant to section 306 in other States or reallotted to other States. Funds may be reallotted from time to time, during the period for which they are available, on such dates as the Commissioner may fix, among other States in proportion to the amounts of their respective original allotments for that year, but with the proportionate amount for any of the other States being reduced to the extent it exceeds the sum the Commissioner estimates the respective State needs and will be able to use during the period for which the funds are available. Funds available due to such reductions may be similarly reallotted among the States whose proportionate amounts were not so reduced. Any amount reallotted to a State from funds appropriated pursuant to section 301 of the Act (20 U.S.C. 841) for any fiscal year will be deemed to be a part of the amount allotted to it under section 302 of the Act (20 U.S.C. 842) for that year.

(b) Statements of anticipated need. In order to provide a basis for reallotment of funds by the Commissioner pursuant to this section, each State agency shall, if requested, submit to the Commissioner, by such date or dates as he may specify, a statement or statements showing the anticipated need for the funds previously allotted during the period for which such funds are available, or any amount needed to be added thereto by reallotment. Such further information as the Commissioner may request for the purpose of making reallotments shall be reflected in such statements. (20 U.S.C. 842)

§ 118.53 Financial reports.

Each State educational agency shall submit in accordance with procedures established by the Commissioner: (a) A report following the end of any fiscal year of the total expenditures made under the State plan during that fiscal year including a breakdown of expenditures for handicapped children by type of handicap; and (b) such other reports as are periodically required by the Commissioner to account properly for title III funds. (20 U.S.C. 844a(b)(11))

§ 118.54 Annual and other reports.

The State educational agency shall make an annual report and such other reports containing such information (including copies of project applications approved under § 118.23(d)) as the Commissioner may reasonably require to carry out his functions under title III of the Act and to determine the extent to which funds provided under title III of the Act have been effective in improving the educational opportunities of persons in the areas served by programs or projects supported under the State plan and in the State as a whole. Information about programs funded under § 118.14(b) shall be reported by type of handicap. The annual report shall include an evaluation made in accordance with objective measurements to determine the extent to which critical educational needs identified in the State plan have been met and an evaluation of the effectiveness of projects funded for that fiscal year under title III of the Act. The State shall also keep such records and afford access thereto as the Commissioner may find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports. (20 U.S.C. 844a(b)(11))

§ 118.55 Records.

(a) Each State and local educational agency receiving funds under title III of the Act shall keep intact and accessible all records relating to receipt and expenditure of such funds, including records which substantiate direct and indirect costs charged to the grant activities and which fully disclose the amount of funds received and the disposition thereof by the recipient, the cost of each program or project for which title III funds are used, and the amount of the cost of each such program or project supplied by other sources (including records relating to the use of consultants, and a breakdown of expenditures for the education of handicapped children by type of handicap).

(b) Except as otherwise provided for inventory records in § 118.41(c), all records required by paragraph (a) of this section shall be retained for 3 years after the close of the period during which the expenditures were made or if an audit has not occurred by that time, such records shall be maintained until (1) the State educational agency has been notified of the completion of the Federal audit, or (2) 5 years after the end of the fiscal year in which the expenditure was made, whichever is earlier.

(c) In cases where there is an audit irregularity, all records regarding the questioned expenditures shall be maintained until its resolution. The Department and the Comptroller General of the United States, or his duly authorized representatives, shall have access for the purposes of audit and examination to all such records and to any other books, documents, or papers of the recipient that are pertinent to the expenditure being questioned. (20 U.S.C. 844a(b)(11), 1232c)

§ 118.56 Contracts for services.

The State educational agency, and local educational agencies if approved by the State educational agency, may enter into contracts or agreements (to the extent permitted by State and local law and consistent with the approved State plan) for the provision by other appropriate public or private agencies, organizations, or institutions of a portion of the services to be provided under a title III program or project. Such contract or agreement shall describe the services to be provided by the agency or institution, shall incorporate the standards and requirements of title III of the Act and these regulations, and shall contain provisions assuring that the State or local educational agency will retain administrative supervision and control over the provision of services under the contract. Where a local educational agency proposes to contract for services, such services shall be specified in the project application or an amendment thereto, and the proposed contract shall be submitted to the State educational agency for approval. All contracts and agreements entered into pursuant to this section shall be in writing, and copies shall be maintained in accordance with § 118.56. (20 U.S.C. 843)

§ 118.57 Applicability of civil rights regulation.

Federal financial assistance under this part is subject to the requirements of title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, approved July 2, 1964 (Public Law 88–352, 78 Stat. 252, 42 U.S.C. 2000d et seq.). Section 601 of that Act provides that no person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under, any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance. Therefore, Federal financial assistance pursuant to this part is subject to the regulation set forth in Part 80 of this title. (42 U.S.C. 2000d et seq.)

§ 118.58 Copyrights and patents.

(a) If a copyright is obtained on materials produced with financial assistance under title III of the Act, the Federal Government shall be granted a nonexclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free license to reproduce and publish the materials so copyrighted, including the power to sublicense, for all governmental purposes.

(b) Any materials of a patentable nature produced through a project with financial assistance under title III of the Act shall be subject to the provisions of Parts 6 and 8 of this title. (20 U.S.C. 841)

STATE PROGRAM ELEMENTS NECESSARY FOR PARTICIPATION IN NATIONAL POLLUTANT DISCHARGE ELIMINATION SYSTEM

Proposed Guidelines

Notice is hereby given that the guidelines set forth in tentative form below are proposed by the Environmental Protection Agency. The proposed guidelines describe, pursuant to the authority contained in section 304(h)(2) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972 (86 Stat. 816; 33 U.S.C. — (1972)) (hereinafter referred to as the "Act"), the minimum procedural and other elements of any State programs under section 402 of the Act.

Section 402 of the Act creates a National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System under which the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency may, after opportunity for public hearing, issue permits for the discharge of any pollutant or combination of pollutants, upon condition that such discharge will meet all applicable requirements of the Act relating to effluent limitations, water quality standards and implementation plans, new source performance standards, toxic and pretreatment effluent standards, inspections, monitoring and entry provisions, and guidelines establishing ocean discharge criteria. Section 402 also provides that States desiring to administer their own permit programs may submit a full and complete description of such a program to the Administrator for approval. The Administrator is to approve a State's program, and suspend issuance of permits under section 402, unless he determines that the State does not possess adequate authority to perform certain acts detailed in 402(b) of the Act. In general terms, the State must have authority to (a) issue permits for terms not exceeding 5 years upon the same conditions relating to effluent limitations and water quality standards as are applicable to permits issued by the Administrator; (b) adequately notify members of the public, other States, and the Secretary of the Army of pending permit applications; (c) abate violations of permits, including civil and criminal penalties; (d) insure that the State permitting agency receive adequate notice of new introductions or substantial changes in the volume or character of pollutants introduced into publicly-owned treatment works; and (e) to insure that any industrial user of publicly-owned treatment works compiles with pretreatment effluent standards and other requirements. The State also must have an approved continuing planning process under section 303(e) of the Act before approval of its permit program can be granted. In addition to these requirements, a State permit program cannot be approved unless it conforms to guidelines issued under section 304(h)(2) of the Act prescribing minimum procedural and other elements of any State program under section 402. These guidelines, which are the subject of this notice, must include, but are not limited to, monitoring and reporting requirements (including procedures to make information available to the public), enforcement provisions, and requirements for funding, personnel qualifications, and manpower.

Prior to the adoption of the proposed guidelines, consideration will be given to any comments, suggestions, or objections thereto which are submitted in writing to the Office of Enforcement and General Counsel, Washington, D.C. 20460, within a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: November 3, 1972.

(g) The term "National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES)" means the national system for the issuance of permits under section 402 of the Act and includes any State or interstate program which has been approved by the Administrator, in whole or in part, pursuant to section 402 of the Act.

(h) The term "NPDES application" means the uniform national forms (including subsequent additions, revisions, or modifications duly promulgated by the Administrator pursuant to the Act) for application for an NPDES permit.

to monitoring and other conditions of NPDES permits.

(j) The term "NPDES permit" means any permit or equivalent document or requirements issued by the Administrator, or, where appropriate, by the Director, after enactment of the Federal Water Pollution Control Amendments of 1972, to regulate the discharge of pollutants pursuant to section 402 of the Act.

(l) The term "Refuse Act application" means the application for a permit under the Refuse Act.

(m) The term "Refuse Act permit" means any permit issued under the Refuse Act.

(n) The definitions of the following terms contained in section 502 of the Act shall be applicable to such terms as used in this part unless the context otherwise requires: "State water pollution control agency (referred to herein as 'State agency')," "interstate agency," "State," "municipality," "person," "pollutant," "navigable waters," "territorial seas," "contiguous zone," "ocean," "effluent limitations," "discharge of a pollutant," "toxic pollutant," "pot source," "biological monitoring," "discharge," "schedule of compliance," "industrial user," and "pollution."

(o) The term "national data bank" means a facility or system established or to be established by the Administrator for the purposes of assembling, organizing, and analyzing data pertaining to water quality and the discharge of pollutants.

(p) The term "applicable water quality standards" means all water quality standards to which a discharge is subject under the Act and which have been (1) approved or permitted to remain in effect by the Administrator following submission to him pursuant to section 303(a) of the Act, or (2) promulgated by the Administrator pursuant to section 303(b) or 303(c) of the Act.

(q) The term "applicable effluent standards and limitations" means all State and Federal effluent standards and limitations to which a discharge is subject under the Act, including, but not limited to, effluent limitations, standards of performance, toxic effluent standards and prohibitions, and pretreatment standards.

§ 124.2 Scope and purpose.

(a) This part establishes guidelines specifying procedural and other elements which must be present in a State or interstate program in order to obtain approval of the Administrator pursuant to section 402 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, 86 Stat. 816, 33 U.S.C. ____.

(b) A submitted State or interstate program which conforms to the guidelines of this part and which meets the requirements of section 402 of the Act shall be approved by the Administrator. Upon approval, the Administrator shall suspend his issuance of NPDES permits as to those point sources subject to such approved program.

(c) Any State program which obtains the approval of the Administrator pursuant to section 402 of the Act shall at all times be in accordance with section 402 and the guidelines contained in this part.

Subpart B—Prohibition of Discharges of Pollutants

§ 124.10 Prohibition of discharges into State waters.

Any State or interstate program participating in the NPDES must have a statute or regulation, enforceable in State courts, which prohibits discharges of pollutants by any person, except as authorized pursuant to an NPDES permit.

(Comment. For the purposes of this subpart, a State or interstate program shall qualify for participation in the NPDES if it prohibits discharges of pollutants to the same extent such discharges are prohibited in section 301(a) of the Act. It is recognized that some State or interstate programs presently exempt or exclude certain categories, types, or sizes of point sources from the general prohibition of the unauthorized discharge of pollutants or from the requirement of obtaining a permit. Other States have in effect "grandfather" clauses which either exempt discharges already in existence or provide for automatic issuance of a permit to existing dischargers. Exceptions to the general prohibition cannot be approved. Depending on their scope and nature, any such exceptions will either (1) constitute grounds for withholding approval of the entire submitted program until such time as the State or interstate agency revises or modifies its program to conform to this subpart, or (2) constitute categories, types, or sizes of point sources for which the Administrator will not suspend the issuance of NPDES permits. In the latter case, the Administrator will issue NPDES permits for those point sources not subject to the State or interstate agency's authority.)

Subpart C—Acquisition of Data

§ 124.21 Application for NPDES permit.

Procedures of any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall insure that every applicant for an NPDES permit complies with NPDES filing requirements. Such procedures and requirements shall include the following:

(a) A requirement that any person discharging pollutants must:

(1) Have filed a complete Refuse Act application; or,

(2) File a complete NPDES application no later than 60 days following receipt by the applicant of notice from the Director that the applicant's previously filed Refuse Act application is so deficient as not to have satisfied the filing requirements; or,

(3) File a complete NPDES application within a stated period, not to exceed any applicable periods specified in Federal regulations for persons filing under the NPDES (40 CFR ——).

(Comment. Federal filing requirements for the NPDES include the timely filing of a properly completed Refuse Act or NPDES application form. State and interstate agencies may specify, where necessary, additional filing requirements such as the submission of engineering reports, plans, and specifications for present or proposed treatment or control of discharges of pollutants. While duplication should be avoided, the Administrator recognizes that the NPDES application form may not by itself satisfy the needs of every participating program.)

(b) A requirement that any person wishing to commence discharges of pollutants after the applicable period in paragraph (a)(3) of this section, must file a complete NPDES application either (1) no less than 180 days in advance of the date on which it is desired to commence the discharge of pollutants, or (2) in sufficient time prior to the commencement of the discharge of pollutants to insure compliance with the requirements of section 306 of the Act and any other applicable water quality standards and applicable effluent standards and limitations.

(Comment. The purpose of this requirement is to insure that the Director has sufficient time to examine applications from new sources of discharge of pollutants and to apply standards of performance without unnecessarily delaying scheduled startup. The sooner the Director can specify requirements for new sources, the more easily the applicant can modify his plans, if necessary, without disruption and waste. Those State or interstate agencies which begin review at the planning stages of a new project are in the best position to insure orderly compliance with new source standards.)

(c) Procedures which (1) enable the Director to require the submission of additional information after a Refuse Act or an NPDES application has been filed, and (2) insure that, if a Refuse Act or NPDES application is incomplete or otherwise deficient, processing of the application shall not be completed until such time as the applicant has supplied the missing information or otherwise corrected the deficiency.

(Comment. The Director may find he needs information other than that initially filed by the applicant in order to make a permit decision. The Director should not hesitate to go back to the applicant for further information. In some cases, nothing less than an on-site inspection of an applicant's pollution control technology and practices will suffice.

No NPDES permit should be issued until the applicant has fully complied with the filing requirements specified in this subpart. If an applicant fails or refuses to correct deficiencies in his NPDES application form, the Director should take timely enforcement action.)

§ 124.22 Receipt and use of Federal data.

Each State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall receive any relevant data collected by the Regional Administrator prior to such agency's participation in the NPDES in such manner as the Director and the Regional Administrator shall agree. Any agreement between the State or interstate agency and the Regional Administrator for receipt of such data shall be consistent with applicable laws and regulations.

(Comment. Section 308 of the Act requires the Administrator to make available to the States any information obtained by him pursuant to section 308 of the Act. Section 308 also requires that upon request, effluent data shall be available to the public, subject to the provisions of section 1905 of Title 18 of the United States Code.)

§ 124.23 Transmission of data to Regional Administrator.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the Director shall transmit to the Regional Administrator a copy of each NPDES application, NPDES form, and any other information relating to such application or form which the Regional Administrator may request.

(b) For each category of sources and discharges and for each class and type of pollutant which the Regional Administrator and the Director agree will not be subject to permits in the State, the Director shall transmit to the Regional Administrator only such information as the Regional Administrator and the Director may agree upon.

§ 124.24 Identity of signatories to NPDES forms.

(a) All NPDES applications shall be signed by a responsible corporate officer, by a general partner or the proprietor, or by a duly authorized representative of such person.

(b) All reports required by NPDES permits and other information requested by the Director shall be signed by a person described in paragraph (a) of this section or by a duly authorized representative of such person.

(c) Changes to authorization. If an authorization under paragraph (b) of this section is no longer accurate because a different individual or position has responsibility for the overall operation of the facility, a new authorization satisfying the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section must be submitted to the Director prior to or together with any reports, information, or applications to be signed by an authorized representative.

(d) Certification. Any person signing a document under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall make the following certification:

"I certify under penalty of law that this document and all attachments were prepared under my direction or supervision in accordance with a system designed to assure that qualified personnel properly gather and evaluate the information submitted. Based on my inquiry of the person or persons who manage the system, or those persons directly responsible for gathering the information, the information submitted is, to the best of my knowledge and belief, true, accurate, and complete. I am aware that there are significant penalties for submitting false information, including the possibility of fine and imprisonment."

Subpart D—Notice and Public Participation

§ 124.31 Formulation of tentative determinations.

Procedures of any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall insure that, before issuing an NPDES permit, the Director shall formulate tentative determinations with respect to the proposed issuance of the permit. Such procedures shall include the following:

(a) Tentative determinations shall include:

(1) Proposed effluent limitations for those pollutants proposed to be limited;

(2) A proposed schedule of compliance, including interim dates and requirements, for meeting the proposed effluent limitations;

(3) A brief description of any proposed special conditions which will have a significant impact upon the discharge described in the NPDES application;

(4) A brief description of the reasons why the applicable standards and requirements will be met by the proposed permit;

(5) Any calculations or other necessary explanation of the derivation of specific effluent limitations and conditions or standards for sewage sludge use or disposal, including a citation to applicable effluent standards and limitations, water quality standards, and other requirements; and

(6) A brief description of the procedures for the formulation of final determinations, including the 30-day comment period required by § 124.32 and any other procedures by which the public may participate in the formulation of the final determinations.

(b) Tentative determinations shall be accompanied by a fact sheet prepared in accordance with § 124.33.

(c) Tentative determinations shall be accompanied by a draft permit containing the proposed conditions (including effluent limitations and schedules of compliance) which the Director intends to impose in the NPDES permit.

(d) Tentative determinations shall be made by the Director after receipt of the NPDES application and any other information requested by the Director.

§ 124.32 Public Notice.

Procedures of any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall insure that, before issuing an NPDES permit, the Director shall give public notice that a permit application has been tentatively approved. Such procedures shall include the following:

(a) Public notice of every complete NPDES application shall be circulated in a manner designed to inform interested persons of the proposed discharge and of the proposed determination to issue or deny the application. Procedures for the circulation of public notice shall include all reasonable methods to give actual notice of the opportunity for a public hearing and the proposed determination to issue or deny the application. Such procedures shall include:

(1) Mailing notice to the Regional Administrator, to other affected States, and to any known interested persons;

(2) Publication of notice in a daily or weekly newspaper within the area affected by the proposed discharge;

(3) Posting of notice in a conspicuous place near the proposed discharge and near the building in which the permit application is filed; and

(4) Publication of notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, in lists and periodicals of the State, and through other media, if necessary to assure adequate notice to the affected public.

(b) The contents of public notice of applications shall include at least the following:

(1) Name and address of the office processing the permit action for which notice is given;

(2) Name and address of each applicant, except that for publication in a newspaper, the city or county where each discharge is located may be substituted for the address;

(3) A brief description of each applicant's activities or operations which result in the discharge described in the NPDES application;

(4) Name of waterway to which each discharge is made and a short description of the location of each discharge on the waterway, indicating whether such discharge is associated with municipal or industrial wastewater treatment, storm runoff, or a combined sewer system;

(5) A statement of the tentative determination to issue or deny an NPDES permit for the discharge described in the NPDES application;

(6) A brief description of the procedures for the formulation of final determinations, including the 30-day comment period required by § 124.32 and any other procedures by which the public may participate in the formulation of the final determinations;

(7) Address and phone number of premises at which interested persons may obtain further information, request a copy of the draft permit prepared pursuant to § 124.31, request a copy of the fact sheet prepared pursuant to § 124.33, and inspect and copy NPDES forms and related documents;

(8) A brief description of the comment procedures required by § 124.34 and the time and place of any hearing that will be held, including a statement of procedures to request a hearing (unless a hearing has already been scheduled); and

(9) Any additional information considered necessary or proper by the Director.

(c) In addition to general public notice described in paragraph (a) of this section, all persons identified in (a)(1) of this section shall be mailed a copy of the fact sheet prepared pursuant to § 124.33, the draft permit prepared pursuant to § 124.31, and any calculations or other necessary explanation of the derivation of specific effluent limitations and conditions or standards for sewage sludge use or disposal.

§ 124.33 Fact sheets.

Procedures of any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall insure that, before issuing an NPDES permit, the Director shall prepare a fact sheet for every draft permit. Such procedures shall include the following:

(a) Fact sheets shall include, when applicable:

(1) A brief description of the type of facility or activity which is the subject of the draft permit;

(2) A quantitative description of the discharge described in the NPDES application which is the subject of the draft permit;

(3) The tentative determination of the Director to issue or deny the NPDES application;

(4) A brief description of the procedures for the formulation of final determinations, including the 30-day comment period required by § 124.32 and any other procedures by which the public may participate in the formulation of the final determinations;

(5) Reasons why any requested variances or alternatives to required standards do or do not appear justified;

(6) A description of the procedures for effluent limitations, including a description of the type of information which is lacking and needed by the Director to determine applicable effluent limitations and the rationale for the selection of the tentative schedule of compliance;

(7) A description of the procedures for the implementation of any water quality standards which may be applicable, including reasonably available information on the level of water quality which will be achieved by the proposed effluent limitations and the expected impact of the proposed discharge upon water quality;

(8) For every NPDES application for a new source, a statement of the factors considered in making a determination of the availability of in-plant control measures and the application of effluent limitations and standards of performance to the new source;

(9) For every NPDES application for a new source, a statement of the factors considered in making a determination of the extent to which the construction or operation of the new source will cause or contribute to violations of water quality standards;

(10) For every NPDES application for a new source, a statement of the factors considered in making a determination of the extent to which the new source must comply with treatment standards more stringent than those required by § 124.45) which will have a significant impact upon the discharge described in the NPDES titled to protection as trade secrets of such person. If, however, the information being considered for confidential agreement between the State or interstate agency and the Regional Administrator shall provide for at least the following:

(a) Prompt transmittal to the Director from the Regional Administrator of copies of any Refuse Act applications, NPDES applications, or other relevant data collected by the Regional Administrator prior to the State or interstate agency's participation in the NPDES; and

(b) A procedure to insure that the Director will not issue an NPDES permit on the basis of any Refuse Act or NPDES application received from the Regional Administrator which the Regional Administrator has identified as incomplete or otherwise deficient until the Director receives information sufficient to correct the deficiency to the satisfaction of the Regional Administrator.

(Comment. The two purposes of this section are: (1) To provide for the transfer of data bearing on NPDES permit determinations from the Federal Government to the participating State or interstate agencies, and (2) to insure that any deficiencies in the transferred NPDES forms will be corrected prior to issuance of an NPDES permit. The "agreement" mechanism allows flexibility in achieving both purposes. Time and manner of transfer can be worked out by each participating agency and the Regional Administrator. If agreed upon, deficient applications could either be retained by the Regional Administrator until completed or be transferred with the satisfactory applications. If the Director prefers to receive and correct deficient applications, the agreement could provide for the forwarding to the Regional Administrator of the information necessary to correct the deficiency.)

§ 124.23 Transmission of data to Regional Administrator.

Each State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall transmit to the Regional Administrator copies of NPDES forms received by the State or interstate agency in such manner as the Director and Regional Administrator shall agree. Any agreement between the State or interstate agency and the Regional Administrator shall provide for at least the following:

(a) Prompt transmittal to the Regional Administrator of a complete copy of any NPDES form received by the State or interstate agency;

(b) Procedures for the transmittal to the national data bank of a complete copy, or relevant portions thereof, of any appropriate NPDES form received by the State or interstate agency;

(c) Procedures for acting on the Regional Administrator's written waiver, if any, of his rights to receive copies of NPDES forms with respect to classes, types, and sizes within any category of point sources and with respect to discharges to particular navigable waters or parts thereof; and,

(d) An opportunity for the Regional Administrator to object in writing to deficiencies in any NPDES application or reporting form received by him and to have such deficiency corrected. If the Regional Administrator's objection relates to an NPDES application, the Director shall send the Regional Administrator any information necessary to correct the deficiency and shall, if the Regional Administrator so requests, not issue the NPDES permit until he receives notice from the Regional Administrator that the deficiency has been corrected.

§ 124.24 Identity of Signatories to NPDES forms.

Any State or interstate program participating in the NPDES shall require that any NPDES form submitted to the Director be signed as follows:

(a) In the case of corporations, by a principal executive officer of at least the level of vice president.

(b) In the case of a partnership, by a general partner.

(c) In the case of a sole proprietorship, by the proprietor.

(d) In the case of publicly owned treatment works; by the official having responsibility for the overall operation of the treatment works.

Subpart D—Notice and Public Participation

(Comment. Section 101(e) of the Act provides that public participation shall be "provided for, encouraged, and assisted by the Administrator and the States." Section 402(b)(3) of the Act further calls upon State and interstate agencies participating in the NPDES "to insure that the public, and any other State the waters of which may be affected, receive notice of each application for a permit and to provide an opportunity for public hearing before a ruling on each such application." This subpart specifies certain procedures to be following by all participating State and interstate agencies to insure national uniformity in the quality of public participation in NPDES permit determinations. Each State or interstate agency may devise additional procedures and means by which effective and constructive public participation may be enhanced.)

§ 124.31 Formulation of tentative determinations.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall formulate and prepare tentative determinations with respect to a Refuse Act or NPDES application in advance of public notice of the proposed issuance or denial of an NPDES permit. Such tentative determinations shall include at least the following:

(a) A proposed determination to issue or deny an NPDES permit for the discharge described in the Refuse Act or NPDES application; and,

(b) If the determination proposed in paragraph (a) of this section is to issue the NPDES permit, the following additional tentative determinations:

(1) Proposed effluent limitations, identified pursuant to §§ 124.42 and 124.43, for those pollutants proposed to be limited;

(2) A proposed schedule of compliance, including interim dates and requirements, for meeting the proposed effluent limitations, identified pursuant to § 124.44; and

(3) A brief description of any other proposed special conditions (other than those required in § 124.45) which will have a significant impact upon the discharge described in the NPDES application.

§ 124.32 Public notice.

(a) Public notice of every complete application for an NPDES permit shall be circulated in a manner designed to inform interested and potentially interested persons of the proposed discharge and of the proposed determination to issue or deny an NPDES permit for the proposed discharge. Procedures for the circulation of public notice shall include at least the following:

(1) Notice shall be circulated within the geographical area of the proposed discharge; such circulation may include any or all of the following:

(i) Posting in the post office and public places of the municipality nearest the premises of the applicant in which the effluent source is located;

(ii) Posting near the entrance to the applicant's premises and in nearby places; and

(iii) Publishing in local newspapers and periodicals, or, if the local newspaper is not a daily newspaper, in a daily newspaper of general circulation;

(2) Notice shall be mailed to any person or group upon request; and

(3) The Director shall add the name of any person or group upon request to a mailing list to receive copies of notices for all NPDES applications within the State or within a certain geographical area.

(b) The Director shall provide a period of not less than thirty (30) days following the date of the public notice during which time interested persons may submit their written views on the tentative determinations with respect to the NPDES application. All written comments submitted during the 30-day comment period shall be retained by the Director and considered in the formulation of his final determinations with respect to the NPDES application.

(c) The contents of public notice of applications for NPDES permits shall include at least the following (See Appendix A to this part for a sample public notice which meets the requirements of this section.):

(1) Name, address, phone number of agency issuing the public notice;

(2) Name and address of each applicant;

(3) Brief description of each applicant's activities or operations which result in the discharge described in the NPDES application (e.g., municipal waste treatment plant, steel manufacturing, drainage from mining activities);

(4) Name of waterway to which each discharge is made and a short description of the location of each discharge on the waterway;

(5) A statement of the Director's tentative determination to issue or deny an NPDES permit for the discharge described in the NPDES application;

(6) A brief description of the procedures for the formulation of final determinations, including the 30-day comment period required by paragraph (b) of this section and any other means by which interested persons may influence or comment upon those determinations; and

(7) Address and phone number of premises at which interested persons may obtain further information, request a copy of the fact sheet described in § 124.33, and inspect and copy NPDES forms and related documents.

§ 124.33 Fact sheets.

Prior to issuance of public notice the Director shall prepare and, following public notice, shall send, upon request to any person a fact sheet with respect to the application described in the public notice. The contents of such fact sheets shall include at least the following information (see Appendix B to this part for a sample fact sheet which meets the requirements of this section):

(a) A sketch or detailed description of the location of the discharge described in the NPDES application;

(b) A quantitative description of the discharge described in the NPDES application which includes at least the following:

(1) The rate or frequency of the proposed discharge; if the discharge is continuous, the average daily flow in gallons per day or million gallons per day;

(2) For thermal discharges subject to limitation under the Act, the average summer and winter temperatures in degrees Fahrenheit; and

(3) The average daily discharge in pounds per day of any pollutants which are present in significant quantities or which are subject to limitations or prohibition under sections 301, 302, 306, or 307 of the Act and regulations published thereunder;

(c) The tentative determinations required under § 124.31;

(d) A brief citation, including a brief identification of the uses for which the receiving waters have been classified, of the water quality standards and effluent standards and limitations applied to the proposed discharge; and

(e) A fuller description of the procedures for the formulation of final determinations than that given in the public notice including:

(1) The 30-day comment period required by § 124.32(b);

(2) Procedures for requesting a public hearing and the nature thereof; and

(3) Any other procedures by which the public may participate in the formulation of the final determinations.

§ 124.34 Notice to other Government agencies.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall notify other appropriate Government agencies of each complete application for an NPDES permit and shall provide such agencies an opportunity to submit their written views and recommendations. Procedures for such notification shall include the following:

(a) At the time of issuance of public notice pursuant to § 124.32, transmission of a fact sheet to any other States whose waters may be affected by the issuance of an NPDES permit and, upon request, providing such States with a copy of the NPDES application. Each affected State shall be afforded an opportunity to submit written recommendations to the Director and to the Regional Administrator which the Director may incorporate into the permit if issued. Should the Director fail to incorporate any written recommendations thus received, he shall provide to the affected State or States (and to the Regional Administrator) a written explanation of his reasons for failing to accept any of the written recommendations.

(b) A procedure, similar to paragraph (a) of this section, for notifying any interstate agency having water quality control authority over waters which may be affected by the issuance of a permit.

(c) At the time of issuance of public notice pursuant to § 124.32, transmission of a fact sheet to the Chief of Engineers of the Army Corps of Engineers of each application for an NPDES permit to discharge pollutants into navigable waters

(d) A procedure for mailing copies of public notice (or upon specific request, copies of fact sheets) for application for NPDES permits to any other Federal, State, or local agency upon request, and providing such agencies an opportunity to respond, comment, or request a public hearing pursuant to § 124.36. Such agencies shall include at least the following:

(1) The agency responsible for the preparation of an approved plan pursuant to section 208(b) of the Act; and

(2) The State or interstate agency responsible for the preparation of a plan pursuant to an approved continuous planning process under section 303(e) of the Act, unless such agency is under the supervision of the Director.

(e) Procedures for notice to and coordination with appropriate public health agencies for the purpose of assisting the applicant in coordinating the applicable requirements of the Act with any applicable requirements of such public health agencies.

§ 124.35 Public access to information.

(a) Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall insure that any NPDES forms or any public comment upon those forms pursuant to § 124.32(b) shall be available to the public for inspection and copying. The Director, in his discretion, may also make available to the public any other records, reports, plans, or information obtained by the State or interstate agency pursuant to its participation in the NPDES.

(b) The Director may protect any information (other than effluent data) contained in such NPDES form, or other records, reports, or plans as confidential upon a showing by any person that such information if made public would divulge methods of processes entitled to protection as trade secrets of such person. If, however, the information being considered for confidential treatment is contained in an NPDES form, the Director shall forward such information to the Regional Administrator for his concurrence in any determination of confidentiality. If the Regional Administrator does not concur that all of the information being considered for confidential treatment merits such protection and so notifies the Director in writing, the Director shall make available to the public that information for which the Regional Administrator withheld his concurrence.

(c) Any information accorded confidential status, whether or not contained in an NPDES form, shall be disclosed, upon request, to the Regional Administrator, or his authorized representative, who shall maintain the disclosed information as confidential.

(d) The Director shall provide facilities for the inspection of information relating to NPDES forms and shall insure that State employees honor requests for such inspection promptly without undue requirements or restrictions. The Director shall either (1) insure that a machine or device for the copying of papers and documents is available for a reasonable fee, or (2) otherwise provide for or coordinate with copying facilities or services such that requests for copies of nonconfidential documents may be honored promptly.

§ 124.36 Public hearings.

The Director shall provide an opportunity for the applicant, any affected State, any affected interstate agency, the Regional Administrator, or any interested agency, person, or group of persons to request or petition for a public hearing with respect to the NPDES application. Any hearing brought pursuant to this section shall be held in the geographical area (or, if facilities for a proper hearing in the immediate vicinity are not available, in another suitable accessible location) of the proposed discharge.

§ 124.37 Public notice of public hearings.

(a) Public notice of any hearing held pursuant to section 124.36 above shall be circulated at least as widely as was the notice of the NPDES application. Procedures for the circulation of public notice for hearings held under § 124.36 shall include at least the following:

(1) Notice shall be published in at least one newspaper of general circulation within the geographical area of the discharge;

(2) Notice shall be sent to all persons and Government agencies which received a copy of the notice or the fact sheet for the NPDES application;

(3) Notice shall be mailed to any person or group upon request; and

(4) Notice shall be effected pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (3) of this paragraph at least thirty (30) days in advance of the hearing.

(b) The contents of public notice of any hearing held pursuant to § 124.36 shall include at least the following (see Appendix C to this part for a sample hearing notice which meets the requirements of this section:

(1) Name, address, and phone number of agency holding the public hearing;

(2) Name and address of applicant;

(3) Name of waterway to which discharge is made and a short description of the location of the discharge on the waterway;

(4) A brief reference to the public notice issued for the NPDES application, including identification number and date of issuance;

(5) Information regarding the time and location for the hearing;

(6) The purpose of the hearing;

(7) A concise statement of the issues raised by the persons requesting the hearing;

(8) Address and phone number of premises at which interested persons may obtain further information, request a copy of the fact sheet described in § 124.33, and inspect and copy NPDES forms and related documents; and

(9) A brief description of the nature of the hearing, including the rules and procedures to be followed.

Subpart E—Terms and Conditions of NPDES Permits

§ 124.41 Prohibited discharges.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall insure that no permit shall be issued authorizing any of the following discharges:

(a) The discharge of any radiological, chemical, or biological warfare agent or high-level radioactive waste into navigable waters;

(b) Any discharge which the Secretary of the Army acting through the chief of engineers finds would substantially impair anchorage and navigation;

(c) Any discharge to which the Regional Administrator has objected in writing pursuant to any right to object provided the Administrator in section 402(d) of the Act; and

(d) Any discharge from a point source which is in conflict with a plan approved pursuant to section 208(b) of the Act.

§ 124.42 Application of effluent standards and limitations, water quality standards, and other requirements.

Procedures for any State or interstate program participating in the NPDES must insure that the terms and conditions of each issued NPDES permit apply and insure compliance with all of the following, whenever applicable:

(a) Effluent limitations under sections 301 and 302 of the Act;

(b) Standards of performance for new sources under section 306 of the Act;

(c) Effluent standards, effluent prohibitions, and pretreatment standards under section 307 of the Act;

(d) Any more stringent limitation, including those (1) necessary to meet water quality standards, treatment standards, or schedules of compliance, established pursuant to any State law or regulation (under authority preserved by section 510), or (2) necessary to meet any other Federal law or regulation, or (3) required to implement any applicable water quality standards; such limitations to include any legally applicable requirements necessary to implement total maximum daily loads established pursuant to a continuing planning process approved under section 303(e);

(e) Any more stringent legally applicable requirements necessary to comply with a plan approved pursuant to section 208(b) of the Act; and

(f) Prior to promulgation by the Administrator of applicable effluent standards and limitations pursuant to sections 301, 302, 306, and 307, effluent limitations designed to achieve the requirements of section 301(b) of the Act.

(Comment. The House Committee Print states: "The Committee points out, as it did in the discussion of section 401, that the term 'applicable' used in section 402 has two meanings. It means that the requirement which the term 'applicable' refers to must be pertinent and apply to the activity and the requirement must be in existence by having been promulgated or implemented.")

§ 124.43 Effluent limitations in issued NPDES permits.

In the application of effluent standards and limitations, water quality standards, and other legally applicable requirements, pursuant to § 124.42, any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall, for each issued NPDES permit, specify average and maximum daily quantitative limitations for the level of pollutants in the authorized discharge in terms of weight (except pH, temperature, radiation, and any other pollutants not appropriately expressed by weight).

(Comment. The manner in which effluent limitations are expressed will depend upon the nature of the discharge. Continuous discharges may be limited by daily loading figures. Batch discharges should be more particularly described and limited in terms of (i) frequency (e.g., to occur not more than once every 3 weeks), (ii) total weight (e.g., not to exceed 300 pounds per batch discharge), (iii) minimum time period for completion of discharge (e.g., to be discharged over a period of not less than 12 hours), and (iv) limitation or prohibition of specified pollutants (e.g., shall not contain more than 15 p.p.m. BOD or 10 pounds of lead). Other intermittent discharges such as recirculation blowdown should be particularly limited to comply with any applicable water quality standards and effluent standards and limitations.)

§ 124.44 Schedules of compliance in issued NPDES permits.

In addition to the application of the effluent standards and limitations, water quality standards, and other legally applicable requirements, pursuant to § 124.42, any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall follow the following procedures in setting schedules in NPDES permit conditions to achieve compliance with applicable effluent standards and limitations, water quality standards, and other legally applicable requirements;

(a) With respect to any discharge which is not in compliance with applicable effluent standards and limitations, applicable water quality standards, or other legally applicable requirements listed in § 124.42 (d) and (e), the permittee shall be required to take specific steps to achieve compliance with the following:

(1) In accordance with any legally applicable schedule of compliance contained in:

(i) Applicable effluent standards and limitations;

(ii) If more stringent, water quality standards; or,

(iii) If more stringent, legally applicable requirements listed in § 124.42 (d) and (e); or,

(2) In the absence of any legally applicable schedule of compliance, in the shortest, reasonable period of time, such period not to extend beyond July 1, 1977.

(b) In any case where the period of time for compliance specified in paragraph (a) of this section exceeds 9 months, one or more interim dates shall be specified for which the permittee shall have achieved interim requirements; in no event shall more than 9 months elapse between interim dates.

(Comment. Certain interim requirements such as the submission of preliminary or final plans often require less than 9 months and thus a shorter interval should be specified. Other requirements such as the construction of treatment facilities may require several years for completion and may not readily subdivide into 9-month intervals. Long-term interim requirements should nonetheless be subdivided into intervals not longer than 9 months at which the permittee is required to report his progress to the Director pursuant to § 124.44(c).)

(c) Either before or up to fourteen (14) days following each interim date and the final date of compliance the permittee shall provide the Director with written notice of the permittee's compliance or noncompliance with the interim or final requirement.

(d) If the permittee fails or refuses to comply with an interim or final requirement or if the permittee fails or refuses to notify the Director of compliance or noncompliance with each interim date requirement, the Director shall notify the Regional Administrator of such failure or refusal by the permittee within 30 days of the elapsed interim or final date.

(e) If a permittee fails or refuses to comply with an interim or final requirement in an NPDES permit such noncompliance shall constitute a violation of the permit for which the Director may, pursuant to Subpart H of this part suspend or revoke the permit or take direct enforcement action.

§ 124.45 Other terms and conditions of issued NPDES permits.

In addition to the requirements of §§ 124.42, 124.43, and 124.44, procedures of any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES must insure that the terms and conditions of each issued NPDES permit provide for and insure the following:

(a) That all discharges authorized by the NPDES permit shall be consistent with the terms and conditions of the permit; that facility expansions, production increases, or process modifications which result in new or increased discharges of pollutants must be reported by submitting a new NPDES application; that the discharge of any pollutant not identified and authorized by the NPDES permit or the discharge of any pollutant more frequently than or at a level in excess of that identified and authorized by the permit shall constitute a violation of the terms and conditions of the permit;

(b) That the permit may be modified, suspended, or revoked in whole or in part during its term for cause including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Violation of any terms or conditions of the permit;

(2) Obtaining a permit by misrepresentation or failure to disclose fully all relevant facts; and,

(3) A change in conditions or the existence of a condition which requires either a temporary or permanent reduction or elimination of the authorized discharge;

(c) That the permittee shall permit the Director or his authorized representative, upon the presentation of his credentials:

(1) To enter upon permittee's premises in which an effluent source is located or in which any records are required to be kept under terms and conditions of the permit;

(2) To have access to and copy any records required to be kept under terms and conditions of the permit;

(3) To inspect any monitoring equipment or method required in the permit; or,

(4) To sample any discharge of pollutants.

(d) That, if the permit is for a discharge from a publicly owned treatment works, the permittee shall provide notice to the Director of the following:

(1) Any new introduction of pollutants into such treatment works from a source which would be a new source as defined in section 306 of the Act if such source were discharging pollutants;

(2) Any new introduction of pollutants into such treatment works from a source which would be subject to section 301 of the Act if such source were discharging pollutants; and,

(3) Any substantial change in volume or character of pollutants being introduced into such treatment works by a source introducing pollutants into such works at the time of issuance of the permit.

Such notice shall include information on (i) the quality and quantity of effluent to be introduced into such treatment works and (ii) any anticipated impact of such change in the quantity or quality of effluent to be discharged from such publicly owned treatment works. See Appendix D to this part for sample permit conditions for provision of notice pursuant to this paragraph.

(e) That, if the permit is for a discharge from a publicly owned treatment works, the permittee shall require any industrial user of such treatment works to comply with the requirements of sections 204(b), 307, and 308 of the Act. As a means of insuring such compliance, the permittee shall require of each industrial user subject to the requirements of section 307 of the Act and shall forward a copy to the Director periodic notice (over intervals not to exceed nine months) of progress towards full compliance with section 307 requirements. See Appendix E for sample permit conditions for provisions of notice pursuant to this paragraph.

(f) That the permit may not be transferred to a third party without the prior written approval of the Director.

(g) That the permittee at all times shall maintain in good working order and operate at maximum efficiency any facilities or systems of control installed by the permittee to achieve compliance with the terms and conditions of the permit.

§ 124.46 Transmission to Regional Administrator of proposed NPDES permits.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall transmit to the Regional Administrator copies of NPDES permits proposed to be issued by such agency in such manner as the Director and Regional Administrator shall agree upon. Any agreement between the State or interstate agency and the Regional Administrator shall provide for at least the following:

(a) Except as waived pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, the transmission by the Director of any and all terms, conditions, requirements, or documents which are a part of the proposed permit or which affect the authorization by the proposed permit of the discharge of pollutants;

(b) A period of time (up to 90 days) in which the Regional Administrator, pursuant to any right to object provided in section 402(d)(2) of the Act, may comment upon, object to, or make recommendations with respect to the proposed permit; and

(c) Any written waiver by the Regional Administrator of his rights to receive, review, object to, or comment upon proposed NPDES permits for classes, types, or sizes within any category of point sources.

§ 124.47 Transmission to Regional Administrator of issued NPDES permits.

Each State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall transmit to the Regional Administrator a copy of every issued NPDES permit, immediately following issuance, along with any and all terms, conditions, requirements, or documents which are a part of such permit or which affect the authorization by the permit of the discharge of pollutants.

Subpart F—Duration and Review of NPDES Permits

§ 124.51 Duration of issued NPDES permits.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall provide that each issued NPDES permit shall have a fixed term not to exceed 5 years.

(Comment. The term of an NPDES permit may extend beyond the time for compliance specified pursuant to § 124.44. The time for compliance shall be that dictated by (i) effluent standards and limitations, or (ii) if more stringent, water quality standards, or (iii) if more stringent, other legally applicable requirements such as those listed in § 124.42 (d) and (e). The term of the NPDES permit may extend beyond the final deadline for compliance, except that the term may not exceed 5 years. Failure to comply with the permit schedule of compliance, including interim and final requirements, as provided in § 124.44(e), is a violation of the permit for which the Director may take Subpart H of this part enforcement action.)

§ 124.52 Reissuance of NPDES permits.

(a) Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall maintain procedures for the review of applications for reissuance of NPDES permits. Such review procedures shall require, and the Director shall so notify the permittee, that any permittee who wishes to continue to discharge after the expiration date of his NPDES permit must file for reissuance of his permit at least 180 days prior to its expiration. The filing requirements for reissuance shall be determined by the State or interstate agency and may range from a simple written request for reissuance to submission of all NPDES and State or interstate forms.

(b) The scope and manner of any review of an application for reissuance of an NPDES permit shall be within the discretion of the State or interstate agency but shall be sufficiently detailed as to insure the following:

(1) That the permittee is in compliance with or has substantially complied with all the terms, conditions, requirements, and schedules of compliance of the expired NPDES permit;

(2) That the Director has up-to-date information on the nature, contents, and frequency of permittee's discharge, either pursuant to the submission of new forms and applications or pursuant to monitoring records and reports submitted to the Director by the permittee; and,

(3) That the discharge is consistent with applicable effluent standards and limitations, water quality standards, and other legally applicable requirements listed in § 124.42, including any additions to, or revisions or modifications of such effluent standards and limitations, water quality standards, or other legally applicable requirements during the term of the permit.

(c) State or interstate agency notice and public participation procedures for reissuance of the NPDES permit shall be those specified in Subpart D of this part.

Subpart G—Monitoring, Recording, and Reporting

§ 124.61 Monitoring.

Procedures of any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES for the monitoring of any discharge authorized by an NPDES permit shall be consistent with the following:

(a) Any discharge authorized by an NPDES permit may be subject to such monitoring requirements as may be reasonably required by the Director, including the installation, use, and maintenance of monitoring equipment or methods (including, where appropriate, biological monitoring methods).

(b) Any discharge authorized by an NPDES permit may be subject to such periodic reporting (at a frequency of not less than once per year) on the proper NPDES reporting form of monitoring tions of the NPDES permit. If the Director determines that any condition of the permit is violated, he shall notify the other civil relief as may be appropriate for the violation by any person of (1) any effluent standards and limitations or pollutants into wells. Any such disposal shall be sufficiently controlled to protect the public health and welfare and to methods (including, where appropriate, biological monitoring methods).

(i) Estimated numbers of point sources within such category which are required to file for an NPDES permit;

(b) Any discharge authorized by an NPDES permit which (1) averages more than 50,000-gallons-per-operating day, (2) the Regional Administrator requests, in writing, be monitored, or (3) contains toxic pollutants for which an effluent standard has been established by the Administrator pursuant to section 307(a) of the Act, shall be monitored by the permittee for at least the following:

(i) Flow (in gallons per day); and,

(ii) All of the following pollutants:

(a) Pollutants (either directly or indirectly through the use of accepted correlation coefficients or equivalent measurements) which are subject to reduction or elimination under the terms and conditions of the permit;

(b) Pollutants which the Director finds, on the basis of information available to him, could have a significant impact on the quality of navigable waters;

(c) Pollutants specified by the Administrator, in regulations issued pursuant to the Act, as subject to monitoring; and,

(d) Any pollutants in addition to the above which the Regional Administrator requests, in writing, be monitored.

(c) Each effluent flow or pollutant required to be monitored pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall be monitored at intervals sufficiently frequent to yield data which reasonably characterizes the nature of the discharge of the monitored effluent flow or pollutant. Variable effluent flows and pollutant levels shall be monitored at more frequent intervals than relatively constant effluent flows and pollutant levels which may be monitored at less frequent intervals.

§ 124.62 Recording of monitoring activities and results.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall specify the following recording requirements for any NPDES permit which requires monitoring of the authorized discharge:

(a) The permittee shall maintain records of all information resulting from any monitoring activities required of him in his NPDES permit;

(b) Any records of monitoring activities and results shall include for all samples: (1) The date, exact place, and time of sampling; (2) the dates analyses were performed; (3) who performed the analyses; (4) the analytical techniques/methods used; and, (5) the results of such analyses; and,

(c) The permittee shall be required to retain for a minimum of 3 years any records of monitoring activities and results including all original strip chart recording for continuous monitoring instrumentation and calibration and maintenance records. This period of retention shall be extended during the course of any unresolved litigation regarding the discharge of pollutants by the permittee or when requested by the Director or Regional Administrator.

§ 124.63 Reporting of monitoring results.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall require periodic reporting (at a frequency of not less than once per year) on the proper NPDES reporting form of monitoring results obtained by a permittee pursuant to monitoring requirements in an NPDES permit. In addition to the NPDES reporting form, the Director in his discretion may require submission of such other information regarding monitoring results as he determines to be necessary.

(Comment. Reporting frequency, as with monitoring frequency, depends upon the nature and impact of the discharge. Annual report submission is sufficient for small cooling water discharges. Discharges for which more frequent, even monthly, reporting is desirable include variable discharges, major, including municipal, discharges, and discharges for which new treatment or control methods are being applied. Reporting frequency should correspond with administrative capability to evaluate the reports as they come in.)

§ 124.64 NPDES monitoring, recording, and reporting requirements.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall adopt procedures consistent with any national monitoring, recording, and reporting requirements specified by the Administrator in regulations issued pursuant to the Act.

Subpart H—Enforcement Provisions

§ 124.71 Receipt and followup of notifications and reports.

(a) Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall have the procedures and the capability for the receipt, evaluation, and investigatory followup for possible enforcement or remedial action of all notices and reports required of permittees including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Reports from industrial users of progress towards compliance with the requirements of section 307, submitted pursuant to § 124.45(e);

(2) Notifications (or failure to notify) from permittees of compliance or noncompliance with interim requirements specified in NPDES permit schedules of compliance pursuant to § 124.44; and,

(3) Data submitted by permittees in NPDES reporting forms and other forms supplying monitoring data, pursuant to Subpart G of this part.

(b) Any such reports or notifications received by the Director pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall: (1) Constitute information available to the Director and (2) if forwarded to the Regional Administrator pursuant to the provisions of this part shall constitute information available to the Administrator within the meaning of section 309 of the Act.

(c) Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall have similar procedures and capability for the receipt and evaluation of notices (relating to new introductions or changes in the volume or character of pollutants introduced into publicly owned treatment works) submitted by permittees which are publicly owned treatment works, pursuant to § 124.45(d), for possible violation of the terms and conditions of the NPDES permit. If the Director determines that any condition of the permit is violated, he shall notify the Regional Administrator and consider taking action under section 402(h) of the Act. (relating to proceedings to restrict or prohibit the introduction of pollutants into treatment works).

§ 124.72 Modification, suspension, and revocation of NPDES permits.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall insure that any permit issued under the NPDES can be modified, suspended, or revoked in whole or in part during its term for cause including, but not limited to, the causes listed in § 124.45(b) or for failure or refusal of the permittee to carry out the requirements of § 124.45(c).

§ 124.73 Enforcement.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall have such powers and procedures and such recourse to criminal, civil, and civil injunctive remedies as to insure the following ways and means are available to protect, maintain, and enhance water quality:

(a) Procedures which enable the Director to require compliance with (1) any violated effluent standards and limitations or water quality standards, (2) any NPDES permit or term or condition thereof, (3) any NPDES filing requirements, (4) any duty to permit or carry out inspection, entry, or monitoring activities, or (5) any rules or regulations issued by the Director either pursuant to orders issued by the Director, court actions, or both;

(b) Procedures which enable the Director to immediately and effectively halt or eliminate any imminant or substantial endangerments to the health or welfare of persons resulting from the discharge of pollutants (1) by an order or suit in the appropriate State court to immediately restrain any person causing or contributing to the discharge of pollutants or to take such other action as may be necessary, or (2) by a procedure for the immediate telephonic notice to the Regional Administrator of any actual or threatened endangerments to the health or welfare of persons resulting from the discharge of pollutants;

(c) Procedures which enable the Director to sue in competent courts to enjoin any threatened or continuing violations of any NPDES permits or conditions thereof without the necessity of a prior revocation of the permit;

(d) Procedures which enable the Director to enter any premises in which an effluent source is located or in which records are required to be kept under terms or conditions of a permit and otherwise be able to investigate, inspect, or monitor any suspected violations of water quality standards or effluent standards and limitations or of NPDES permits or terms or conditions thereof;

(e) Procedures which enable the Director to assess or to sue to recover in court, such civil fines, penalties, and other civil relief as may be appropriate for the violation by any person of (1) any effluent standards and limitations or water quality standards, (2) any NPDES permit or term or condition thereof, (3) any NPDES filing requirements, (4) any duty to permit or carry out inspection, entry, or monitoring activities, (5) any order issued by the Director under paragraph (a) of this section, or (6) any rules, regulations, or orders issued by the Director;

(f) Procedures which enable the Director to seek criminal fines for the willful or negligent violation by such persons of (1) any effluent standards and limitations or water quality standards, (2) any NPDES permit or term or condition thereof, (3) any NPDES filing requirements, or (4) any order issued by the Director under paragraph (a) of this section; and,

(g) The maximum civil penalties and criminal fines recoverable by the Director pursuant to paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section shall (1) be comparable to similar maximum amounts recoverable by the Regional Administrator under section 309 or (2) represent an actual and substantial economic deterrent to the actions for which they are assessed or levied. Such civil penalties or criminal fines shall be assessable up to the maximum amounts for each violation specified in paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section, or, if the violation is a continuous discharge, assessable for each day the discharge occurs.

(Comment. It is understood that in many States the Director will be represented in State courts by the State attorney general or other appropriate legal officer. While the Director need not appear in court actions under this subpart, he should have the power to request that such actions be brought.

The following enforcement options, while not mandatory, are highly recommended as means not only for compelling compliance but also for providing additional funds to State or interstate program efforts:

(1) Procedures for assessment by the Director or by a State court of any violator for the costs of an investigation, inspection, or monitoring survey which led to the establishment of the violation;

(2) Procedures which enable the Director to assess or to sue any persons for any expenses incurred by the State in removing, correcting, or terminating any adverse effects upon water quality resulting from the unauthorized discharge of pollutants, whether or not accidental; and,

(3) Procedures which enable the Director to sue for compensation for any loss or destruction of wildlife, fish or aquatic life, and for any other actual damages caused by an unauthorized discharge of pollutants, either for the State, for any residents of the State who are directly aggrieved by the unauthorized discharge of pollutants, or both.)

Subpart I—Disposal of Pollutants Into Wells

§ 124.80 Control of disposal of pollutants into wells.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall have procedures which control the disposal of pollutants into wells. Any such disposal shall be sufficiently controlled to protect the public health and, welfare and to prevent pollution of ground and surface waters.

(a) If an applicant for an NPDES permit proposes to dispose of pollutants into wells as part of a program to meet the proposed terms and conditions of an NPDES permit, the Director shall specify additional terms and conditions in the final NPDES permit which shall (1) prohibit the proposed disposal, or (2) control the proposed disposal in order to prevent pollution of ground and surface waters and to protect the public health and welfare.

(b) A State agency participating in the NPDES shall have procedures to prohibit or control through the issuance of permits all other proposed disposals of pollutants into wells. Following approval of the Administrator of a State program pursuant to section 402 of the Act, the Director shall permit no uncontrolled disposals of pollutants into wells within the State.

Subpart J—Resources, Planning and Other Requirements

§ 124.91 Availability of resources.

(a) Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall, in submitting its program description pursuant to section 402(b) of the Act, provide information regarding funding and manpower appropriated for the use of the program proposed to be established and administered under State law or under an interstate compact. Such information shall include the following:

(1) A description of all full-time and part-time employees who will be engaged in carrying out the State permit program, including information on the qualifications and functions of such employees.

(2) A list of the proposed costs and expenses of establishing and administering the program described in the program description, including (i) wages and salaries of the personnel listed in (1) above, (ii) cost of administrative support (such as office space and supplies, computer time, vehicles, notice and hearing procedures, etc), and (iii) cost of technical support (such as laboratory space and supplies, vehicles, watercraft, etc.). Such estimate of costs and expenses shall include the cost and expense of carrying out the procedures and requirements contained in this part;

(3) A description of the funding available to the Director to meet the costs and expenses listed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph including any restrictions or limitations upon such funding; and

(4) A list of categories and sizes of all point sources (e.g., major industrial, minor industrial, minor municipal, major feedlot, irrigation return flow, shopping centers and subdivisions, etc.) to which the Director proposes to issue permits under the Act. For each category, the following information shall be given:

(i) Estimated numbers of point sources within such category which are required to file for an NPDES permit; and

(ii) Number and percent of point sources within each category for which the State has already issued a State permit or equivalent document regulating the discharge of pollutants.

(b) The Regional Administrator and the Administrator shall review the information submitted by the Director pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section in order to determine whether the Director has resources available to him which will enable him to carry out the program described in the program description submitted pursuant to section 402(b) and the procedures contained in this part. Such a determination shall be based upon an examination of criteria which shall include the following:

(1) Whether there are a sufficient number of employees to process NPDES applications and issue NPDES permits in sufficient time to allow permittees to attain effluent limitations which will achieve the July 1, 1977 goal specified in section 301(b) of the Act;

(2) Whether the employees of the Director have sufficient expertise and experience for the proper specification of terms and conditions of NPDES permits pursuant to the requirements of subpart E of this part;

(3) Whether the employees of the Director have sufficient administrative and technical support and resources, including funding, to enable the Director to carry out his duties under this part and section 402 of the Act;

(4) The number, location, and kinds of point sources which constitute major sources of discharge of pollutants within the State or interstate area; and

(5) The quality of navigable waters within the State or subject to the authority of the interstate agency.

§ 124.92 Inspection and surveillance support for NPDES permits.

Any State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall have the funding, qualified personnel, and other resources necessary to support NPDES permits with inspection and surveillance procedures which will determine, independent of information supplied by applicants and permittees, compliance or noncompliance with applicable effluent standards and limitations, water quality standards, NPDES filing requirements, and issued NPDES permits or terms or conditions thereof. Such surveillance and inspection support procedures shall include the following:

(a) A supporting survey program with sufficient capability to make systematic, on-the-spot, comprehensive surveys of all waters subject to the Director's authority in order to identify and locate all point sources subject to NPDES filing requirements. Any compilation, index, or inventory of point sources shall be made available to the Regional Administrator or his authorized representative upon request;

(b) A supporting inspection program for the periodic inspection (to be per-for a permit" shall not include officials or employees who work full time for any

(b) A supporting inspection program for the periodic inspection (to be performed not less than once every year for each major point source) of discharges of pollutants from point sources and facilities for the treatment and control of such discharges of pollutants. Such inspections shall determine compliance or noncompliance with issued NPDES permits or terms or conditions thereof and, in particular, compliance or noncompliance with specific effluent limitations and schedules of compliance in such NPDES permits;

(c) A supporting surveillance program with sufficient capability for the random sampling and analysis of discharges for the purpose of identifying occasional and continuing violations of permit conditions or terms or conditions thereof and the accuracy of information submitted by permittees in NPDES reporting forms and other forms supplying monitoring data; and

(d) A supporting program for the purpose of following up evidence of violations of applicable effluent standards and limitations and water quality standards, NPDES filing requirements, or issued NPDES permits or terms or conditions thereof indicated by reports and notifications evaluated pursuant to § 124.71 above or by survey, inspection, and surveillance activities in paragraphs (a)–(c) of this section. The taking of samples and other information shall be performed with sufficient care as to produce evidence admissible in an enforcement proceeding or in court should the follow-up indicate a violation of applicable effluent standards and limitations and water quality standards or issued NPDES permits or terms or conditions thereof.

§ 124.93 Continuing planning process.

Any State or interstate program participating in the NPDES must have an approved continuing planning process pursuant to section 303(e) of the Act and must assure that its approved planning process is at all times consistent with the Act.

§ 124.94 Agency Board membership.

Each State or interstate agency participating in the NPDES shall insure that any board or body which approves NPDES permit applications or portions thereof shall not include as a member, any person who receives, or has during the previous 2 years received, a significant portion of his income directly or indirectly from permit holders or applicants for a permit.

(a) For the purposes of this section, the term "board or body" does not refer to the Director or any employee of the Director.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the term "significant portion of his income" shall mean 20 percent of gross personal income for a calendar year, except that it shall mean 50 percent of gross personal income for a calendar year if the recipient is over 60 years of age and is receiving such portion pursuant to retirement, pension, or similar arrangement.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the term "permit holders or applicants for a permit" shall not include officials or employees who work full time for any department or agency of a State government, such as a Director of Parks or a Director of Fish and Wildlife.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the term "income" includes retirement benefits, consultant fees, and stock dividends.

NOTICE—ANNOUNCEMENT OF PUBLIC HEARING ON APPLICATION OF ACME PAPER PRODUCTS TO DISCHARGE POLLUTANTS INTO MARTIN CREEK NEAR WHITEHALL BAY, CAPE ROCKAWAY, EDWARDS COUNTY, STATE

Acme Paper Products, Inc., 11345 North Fremont Street, Cape Rockaway, State (ZIP), has applied for a Department of Environmental Protection permit to discharge pollutants into Martin Creek one-half mile upstream from Whitehall Bay. The discharge and the Department's proposed determinations have been previously described in Public Notice No. OPP–72–301, dated August 12, 1973. Due to numerous comments received concerning the application, the filing of several petitions requesting a hearing, and the likelihood that information may be presented which will assist the Department in the formulation of final determinations regarding the application, the Director of the Department of Environmental Protection will hold a public hearing at the time and place stated below:

Hearing to be held at 7 p.m., on September 30, 1973, in Center High School Gymnasium, 2171 Furlong Avenue, Cape Rockaway, State (ZIP).

Some of the issues to be considered at the hearing are as follows:

(1) Do the Department's proposed effluent limitations for the applicant's discharge No. 002 represent a proper application of industrial effluent guidelines to the applicant's industrial processes.

(2) Do related water quality or environmental factors require the specification of stricter effluent limitations, additional requirements, or particular methods of treatment or control. In particular,

(a) Will the Department's proposed effluent limitations, if met, restore uncontaminated shellfish populations in Whitehall Bay (water quality standards classify Whitehall Bay for propagation of fish and shellfish).

(b) Does contamination of subsurface wells and water supplies of adjacent home and cottage owners result from leaks in applicant's treatment lagoons. If so, does the Department have the authority to require the applicant (i) to repair the leaks, and (ii) to compensate the adjacent home and cottage owners for damages resulting from the contamination of the subsurface wells and water supplies.

(c) Does the Department have the authority to control the manner in which the applicant utilizes adjoining marshes and wetlands as additional treatment lagoons in order to meet the Department's proposed effluent limitations. If so, what measures can be taken by the applicant to minimize any harmful effects to adjoining wetlands and fish and wildlife habitats therein.

All interested parties are invited to be present or to be represented to express their views on these and other issues relating to the above application. Parties making presentations are urged to address their statements to the above stated issues. Oral statements will be heard, but, for the accuracy of the record, all important testimony should be submitted in writing. Oral statements should summarize any extensive written material so there will be time for all interested parties to be heard.

The application, related documents, the Department's proposed limitations, and all comments and petitions received are on file and may be inspected and copied in Room 814, 1616 Court House Drive, Capital City, State (ZIP), at any time between 8:15 a.m. and 4:45 p.m., Monday through Friday. Copies of public notice OPP–72–301 are available at the above address or by calling the Office of Permit Processing at 307—445–8922.

Please bring the foregoing to the attention of persons whom you know would be interested in this matter.

PART 221—CREDIT BY BANKS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PURCHASING OR CARRYING MARGIN STOCKS

Computation of Time Periods by Block Positioners

Part 221 of title 12 is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

§ 221.121 Computation of time periods for acquiring and holding blocks of stock by block positioners.

(a) The Board recently considered two questions in connection with § 221.3 (z) (2) and (3) of Regulation U providing for bank credit to block positioners which is exempt from the normal margin requirements as prescribed from time to time in that regulation.

(b) The first question pertained to the period of time in which a block positioner, in order to qualify for the exemption, must position a block of stock when such positioning results from several transactions at approximately the same time from a single source, as set forth in § 221.3(z) (2) (ii).

(c) The Board is of the view that the aggregate of several transactions from a single source would ordinarily be carried out within a timespan of one-half hour in order for such aggregate to be considered one block of stock eligible for exempt credit. In extraordinary circumstances, however, the block positioner could consult the Reserve Bank in whose district its office is situated as to whether stock positioned over a slightly longer period constitutes a single block in such a case the block positioner should, of course, disclose all relevant circumstances to the Reserve Bank.

(d) The second question related to the computation of the period of 20 business days, specified in § 221.3(z)(3), in which exempt credit may remain outstanding for positioning a block of stock.

(e) The Board is of the view that the computation of such 20-day period shall commence on the business day following the date of trade.

[Reg. Z]

PART 226—TRUTH IN LENDING

Exemption of Certain State Regulated Transactions

1. Effective November 6, 1972, Supplement III to Regulation Z (§ 226.12—Supplement) is amended by adding paragraph (f) as follows:

§ 226.12 Exemption of certain State regulated transactions.

• • • • • •

(f) Wyoming. Except as provided in § 226.12(c), all classes of credit transactions within the State of Wyoming are hereby granted an exemption from the requirements of Chapter 2 of the Truth in Lending Act effective November 6, 1972, with the following exceptions:

(1) Transactions in which a federally chartered institution is a creditor;

(2) Consumer credit sales of insurance by an insurer in which the insurer is a creditor;

(3) Transactions in which a common carrier is a creditor; and,

(4) Consumer loan transactions in which a licensed pawnbroker is a creditor.

2a. The purpose of this amendment is to exempt certain credit transactions in the State of Wyoming from the requirements of Chapter 2 of the Truth in Lending Act (Title I of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1601ff)).

b. Pursuant to the provisions of 12 CFR 226.12 (Supplement II to Part 226 (Regulation Z)), the State of Wyoming applied to the Board for an exemption from the Truth in Lending Act; notice of receipt of the application was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 10, 1972 (37 F.R. 16134). The Board granted this exemption after consideration of all relevant material, including communications from interested persons. The effective date of the exemption was deferred for less than the 30-day period referred to in section 553(d) of title 5, United States Code. The Board found that the amendment essentially involves no change in a substantive rule and deferral of the date beyond that adopted by the Board would serve no useful purpose.

By order of the Board of Governors, October 31, 1972.

Assistant Secretary of the Board.

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Transportation

[Docket No. 12341; Amdt. 39-1558]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

SIAI Marchetti Model S.205 Airplanes

There have been reports of cracks in the weld area of the reinforcement sheet for the longer cross members of the main landing gear on SIAI Marchetti Model S. 205 airplanes that could result in failure of the main landing gear on landing. Since this condition is likely to exist or develop in other airplanes of the same type design, an airworthiness directive is being issued to require inspections of these cross members for cracking in the type design, an airworthiness directive is being issued to require inspections of these cross members for cracking in the weld area of the reinforcement sheets and replacement, as necessary, on SIAI Marchetti Model S.205 airplanes.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of this regulation, it is found that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and contrary to the public interest and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR § 11.89), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

SIAI MARCHETTI. Applies to all models of SIAI Marchetti S.205 airplanes, serial numbers 001 thru 003; 101 thru 399; 4–101 thru 4–282, and 4–285, except serial numbers which incorporate new design main landing gear cross members P/N's 205–9–012–05 and 205–9–013–05 or main landing gear cross members which have been reinforced by SIAI Marchetti in accordance with SIAI Marchetti Service Bulletin No. 205B36, dated June 28, 1972. Compliance required as indicated.

To detect cracks in the main landing gear cross members, P/N's 205–9–012 and 205–9–013, in the weld area of the longer cross member reinforcement sheet, accomplish the following:

(a) Before further flight, install a placard in clear view of the pilot prohibiting flight after a hard landing until the inspection and repairs required by this AD have been accomplished.

(b) Within the next 10 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished within the last 90 hours' time in service, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 100 hours' time in service from the last inspection, inspect the weld area of the reinforcement sheet of the longer arm of each of the main landing gear cross members, P/N's 205–9–012 and 205–9–013, for cracks using dye penetrant in accordance with SIAI Marchetti Service Bulletin No. 205B36, dated June 28, 1972, or an FAA-approved equivalent.

(c) If cracks equal to or longer than 0.79 inch are found during an inspection required by paragraph (b) or (e) of this section, before further flight, replace main landing gear cross members, P/N's 205–9–012 and 205–9–013 with either—

(1) New design main landing gear cross members, P/N's 205–9–012–05 and 205–9–013–05; or

(2) Main landing gear cross members, P/N's 205–9–012 and 205–9–013, which have been reinforced by SIAI Marchetti in accordance with SIAI Marchetti Service Bulletin No. 205B36, dated June 28, 1972; or

(3) An equivalent installation that has been approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch of an FAA Region (or in the case of the Western Region, the Chief, Aircraft Engineering Division).

(d) If cracks less than 0.79 inches are found during an inspection required by paragraph (b) or (e) of this section, replace main landing gear cross members in accordance with paragraph (c) within the next 10 hours' time in service following the inspection.

(e) After each hard landing, before further flight, inspect the weld area of the longer reinforcement sheet of the main landing gear cross members, P/N's 205–9–012 and 205–9–013, for cracks using dye penetrant in accordance with SIAI Marchetti Service Bulletin No. 205B36, dated June 28, 1972, or an FAA-approved equivalent.

(f) The repetitive inspections required by this AD may be discontinued, and the placard required by this AD may be removed when—

(1) New design main landing gear cross members, P/N's 205–9–012–05 and 205–9–013–05 are installed, or

(2) Main landing gear cross members, P/N's 205–9–012 and 205–9–013, which have been reinforced by SIAI Marchetti in accordance with SIAI Marchetti Service Bulletin No. 205B36, dated June 28, 1972, are installed; or

(3) There has been an equivalent installation that has been approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch of an FAA Region (or in the case of the Western Region, the Chief, Aircraft Engineering Division).

This amendment becomes effective November 20, 1972.

In view of the foregoing, amend the Westhampton Beach, N.Y., control zone effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11–10–72) by deleting the date October 12, 1972, and inserting in lieu thereof the date December 7, 1972.

Alteration of Transition Area

On September 9, 1972, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 18396), stating that the Federal Aviation Administration was considering an amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that alter the Laurinburg, N.C., transition area.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the rule making through the submission of comments. All comments received were favorable.

Subsequent to publication of the notice, the geographic coordinates of the Rocky Ford RBN was refined to "latitude 34°45'28" N., longitude 79°24'40" W., and the procedure turn bearing was refined to the "225°" from Rocky Ford RBN. It is necessary to alter the description to reflect these changes. Since these amendments are minor in nature, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0901 G.m.t., February 1, 1973, as hereinafter set forth.

In § 71.181 (37 F.R. 2143), the Laurinburg, N.C., transition area is amended as follows:

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Designation of Terminal Control Area at San Francisco, Calif.

On October 17, 1972, F.R. Doc. 72–17641 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (37 F.R. 21928), designating the San Francisco, Calif., Group I Terminal Control Area (TCA) effective December 11, 1972.

In the description of Area A, a portion of the airspace to be excluded was incorrectly identified as "• • • excluding that airspace within Area K." The correct entry should have been "• • • excluding that airspace west of the Pacific coast shoreline." Action is taken herein to correct the error

Since this amendment is editorial in nature and no substantive change in the regulation is effected, notice and public procedure thereon are unnecessary, and good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than 30-day notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, F.R. Doc. 72–17641 (37 F.R. 21928) is amended, effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (11–10–72) as hereinafter set forth.

In Area A, line 11 delete "excluding that airspace within Area K." and substitute "excluding that airspace west of the Pacific coast shoreline." therefor.

Section 1471.2 How assignment is made is amended as follows:

1. Paragraph (b) is amended by deleting the second and fourth sentences thereof.

2. Paragraph (d) is amended by deleting the second sentence thereof.

PART 1472—CONDUCT OF RENEGOTIATION

Section 1472.3 Conduct of renegotiation by Regional Board is deleted in its entirety and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 1472.3 Conduct of renegotiation by Regional Board.

(a) Submission of additional information; preliminary meetings. After a case has been assigned to a Regional Board for renegotiation, the Regional Board personnel assigned to the case will examine the Standard Form of Contractor's Report and other information submitted by the contractor and will determine what additional information is needed. When necessary, a preliminary meeting or meetings will be held with the contractor to discuss the information and data to be submitted by the contractor and the manner in which it is to be submitted. The contractor shall also be entitled in any case to submit, and in cases deemed appropriate will be invited at an appropriate stage in the proceedings to submit, a statement setting forth such further information, data, and representations as it may desire to have taken into consideration under the factors prescribed in section 103(e) of the act, and explained in Parts 1460 and 1490 of this chapter. A reasonable opportunity will be provided for the submission of any information, data or representations that the contractor may be requested or invited to submit.

(b) Disputed issues. Before completing the reports described in paragraphs (e), (f), (g), and (i) of this section, the Regional Board personnel assigned to the case will endeavor to resolve with the contractor any issues or disputed matters of fact, law, or accounting. Upon its request, the contractor will be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present to such Regional Board personnel, both orally and in writing, any statements or arguments which the contractor desires to submit in support of its position on any such issues or matters.

(c) Plant inspection. In cases deemed appropriate or, in any event, in any case in which there exists a possibility of excessive profits, Regional Board personnel will, whenever practicable, with the consent of the contractor, visit and inspect the appropriate plant or site of the contractor, unless a visit of reasonably recent date was made to such plant or site in connection with the renegotiation of the contractor for an earlier fiscal year. Generally, a plant visit, if undertaken, will be made before the completion of the Renegotiation Report pursuant to paragraph (i) of this section.

(d) Regional Board member as renegotiator. A Regional Board member who serves as the assigned renegotiator in a case will not be eligible thereafter to serve as a member of a panel of the Regional Board constituted pursuant to paragraph (l) of this section or to vote as a member of the Regional Board in the final disposition of the case.

(e) Accounting Report. Except as provided in paragraph (g) of this section, after all relevant financial, accounting and related information has been obtained, the Regional Board accountant assigned to a case will prepare an Accounting Report which will include pertinent financial schedules and accounting data. A copy of the Accounting Report will be furnished to the contractor by the Director, Division of Accounting, after his approval thereof and after such furnishing is authorized by the Chairman of the Regional Board. The letter transmitting the Accounting Report will request the contractor to state, within a fixed time, its concurrence in or its objections to the Statement of Income (Schedule A) included in such report, and will invite its comments upon any other matters set forth therein. A copy of any modification thereafter made of the Accounting Report will be furnished to the contractor by the Director, Division of Accounting, after his approval thereof and after such furnishing is authorized by the Chairman of the Regional Board. The contractor will be requested to state its concurrence in or its objections to such modification.

(f) Clearance Recommendation by renegotiator. Except as provided in paragraph (g) of this section, if the renegotiator assigned to a case, after considering the Accounting Report, all information and data submitted by the contractor, and all relevant procurement, performance and other information that shall have been obtained, concludes that the contractor did not realize excessive profits in the fiscal year under review, he will prepare a Clearance Recommendation which will include an analysis of the case under the statutory factors. A Clearance Recommendation will not be furnished to the contractor.

(g) Clearance Notice Report. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (e) or (f) of this section, and in lieu of preparing an Accounting Report and a Clearance Recommendation as provided therein, the renegotiator and accountant assigned to a case will prepare a Clearance Notice Report (i.e., a short form recommendation of clearance) in any case in which they consider such a report appropriate. A Clearance Notice Report will not be furnished to the contractor.

(h) Clearance finding by Regional Board. A Clearance Recommendation or a Clearance Notice Report will, upon its approval by the Director, Division of Renegotiating, be submitted by him to the Regional Board for consideration. If the Regional Board approves the Clearance Recommendation or the Clearance Notice Report and finds that the contractor did not realize any excessive profits, it will notify the contractor to that effect by registered mail and at the same time will provide the contractor with a Memorandum of Decision stating the basis for the finding, as provided in § 1477.3 of this chapter. Thereupon, the clearance procedure set forth in Part 1473 of this chapter will be followed. If the Regional Board declines to approve a Clearance Recommendation, an Accounting Report and a Renegotiation Report will be prepared, which will be subject to the provisions of paragraphs (e) and (i) of this section.

(i) Renegotiation Report. If the renegotiator assigned to the case, after considering the Accounting Report, all information and data submitted by the contractor, and all relevant procurement, performance and other information that shall have been obtained, concludes that the contractor realized excessive profits in the fiscal year under review, he will prepare a Renegotiation Report which will include an analysis and evaluation of the case under the statutory factors and a recommendation with respect to the amount of such excessive profits. Similarly, if the Regional Board declines to approve a Clearance Recommendation or a Clearance Notice Report submitted pursuant to paragraph (h) of this section, a Renegotiation Report will be prepared. A copy of the Renegotiation Report will be furnished to the contractor by the Director, Division of Renegotiating, after his approval thereof and after such furnishing is authorized by the Chairman of the Regional Board.

(j) Renegotiation conference. After the Renegotiation Report has been furnished to the contractor, a renegotiation conference will be held with the contractor by the Regional Board personnel assigned to the case, unless the contractor fails or declines to attend such a conference. At the conference the contractor will be afforded an opportunity to discuss the Renegotiation Report and any accounting adjustments reflected in the Accounting Report, as well as any information and data previously submitted by the contractor or otherwise obtained by the Regional Board, and any other matters considered pertinent to the case; and the possibilities of an agreement to eliminate excessive profits will be explored by the contractor. Whether or not a renegotiation conference is held, the contractor will be requested to state in writing, within a fixed time, whether the contractor is or is not willing to enter into an agreement to eliminate excessive profits.

(k) Regional Board action without panel meeting. (1) After such notification from the contractor, and any further negotiations with the contractor, or upon the failure of the contractor to furnish such notification within the time fixed therefor, the Director, Division of Accounting, will submit the Accounting Report and the Director, Division of Renegotiating, will submit the Renegotiation Report to the Regional Board, including any modifications of either thereof made as a result of the renegotiation conference or otherwise. At the same time, the Director, Division of Renegotiating, will notify the contractor in writing of the submission of such reports to the Regional Board, including the recommendation with respect to the existence and amount of excessive profits. Unless the contractor shall have advised that it is willing to enter into an agreement to eliminate excessive profits in the amount of such recommendation, or unless the recommendation is a clearance recommendation, the letter of notification to the contractor will request the contractor to state, within a fixed time, whether it desires to meet with a panel of the Regional Board as provided in paragraph (l) of this section.

(2) If the contractor shall have advised that it is willing to enter into an agreement to eliminate excessive profits in the amount recommended to the Regional Board, and the Regional Board approves such recommendation, the procedure set forth in Part 1474 of this chapter for the making of an agreement will be followed.

(3) If the contractor shall have advised that it is willing to enter into an agreement to eliminate excessive profits in the amount recommended to the Regional Board, but the Regional Board declines to approve such recommendation, the Regional Board will notify the contractor in writing to that effect, and of its reasons for such action, and will request the contractor to state, within a fixed time, whether it desires to meet with a panel of the Regional Board as provided in paragraph (l) of this section.

(4)(i) If within the time fixed therefor the contractor does not request a meeting with a panel, the Regional Board will, when appropriate, explore with the contractor the possibilities of an agreement to eliminate excessive profits, and, if agreement is reached, will follow the procedure set forth in part 1474 of this chapter for the making of an agreement. Otherwise, the Regional Board will make a finding with respect to the amount of excessive profits, if any, of the contractor for the fiscal year under review, and will notify the contractor by registered mail of such finding. At the same time, the Regional Board will provide the contractor with a Memorandum of Decision stating the basis for such finding, as provided in § 1477.3 of this chapter. The finding of the Regional Board may be in an amount greater than, equal to, or less than the amount recommended to the Regional Board.

(ii) If the finding of the Regional Board is that the contractor did not realize any excessive profits, the clearance procedure set forth in part 1473 of this chapter will be followed.

(iii) If the finding of the Regional Board is that the contractor realized excessive profits, it will afford the contractor a reasonable time, to be fixed by the Regional Board, to notify the Regional Board whether it is or is not willing to enter into a refund agreement. If agreement is reached, the procedure set forth in part 1474 of this chapter for the making of an agreement will be followed. If agreement is not reached, or upon the failure of the contractor to furnish the requested notification within the time fixed therefor by the Regional Board, the procedure set forth in part 1475 of this chapter will be followed.

(l) Panel meeting. In any case in which the contractor has not indicated its willingness to enter into an agreement to eliminate excessive profits in the amount recommended in the Renegotiation Report, or in which the Regional Board has declined to approve the recommendation made therein and agreed to by the contractor, the contractor shall be entitled at its request, made within the time fixed pursuant to paragraph (k) (1) or (3) of this section, to meet with a panel of the Regional Board. Any written argument or other presentation which the contractor desires to submit to a panel, in addition to the material previously submitted by the contractor, should, whenever possible, be filed with the chairman of the panel reasonably in advance of the meeting. At the meeting the contractor will be afforded an opportunity to be heard on all matters considered pertinent to the case, including any unresolved issues or matters of fact, law or accounting; and again, when appropriate, the possibilities of an agreement to eliminate excessive profits will be explored with the contractor.

(m) Regional Board action after panel meeting. (1) After the panel meeting provided in paragraph (l) of this section has been held, the panel will submit to the Regional Board its recommendation for final disposition of the case. If the contractor shall have advised that it is willing to enter into an agreement to eliminate excessive profits in the amount recommended to the Regional Board by the panel, and the Regional Board approves such recommendation, or if agreement is otherwise reached by the Regional Board and the contractor with respect to the amount of excessive profits to be eliminated, the procedure set forth in Part 1474 of this chapter for the making of an agreement will be followed. Otherwise, the Regional Board will make a finding with respect to the amount of excessive profits, if any, for the fiscal year under review, and will notify the contractor by registered mail of such finding; and at the same time, the Regional Board will provide the contractor with a Memorandum of Decision stating the basis for the finding, as provided in § 1477.3 of this chapter. The finding of the Regional Board may be in an amount greater than, equal to, or less than the amount recommended by the panel.

(2) If the finding of the Regional Board is that the contractor did not realize any excessive profits, the clearance procedure set forth in part 1473 of this chapter will be followed.

(3) If the finding of the Regional Board is that the contractor realized excessive profits, it will afford the contractor a reasonable time, to be fixed by the Regional Board, to notify the Regional Board whether it is or is not willing to enter into a refund agreement. If agreement is reached, the procedure set forth in part 1474 of this chapter for the making of an agreement will be followed. If agreement is not reached, or upon the failure of the contractor to furnish the requested notification within the time fixed therefor by the Regional Board, the procedure set forth in part 1475 of this chapter will be followed.

(n) Finality of Regional Board action. Except as provided in § 1473.1 of this chapter, the action of the Regional Board in finding that the contractor did not realize excessive profits, or in finding that the contractor realized excessive profits and in eliminating such profits by agreement, shall be final, and no appeal may be taken therefrom.

(o) Order of Board. If the Regional Board finds that the contractor realized excessive profits and is unwilling to enter into an agreement to eliminate such profits, the Regional Board will submit to the Board its recommendation for final disposition of the case. The Board will thereupon enter an order determining the amount of excessive profits, if any, realized by the contractor for the fiscal year under review, and will notify the contractor by registered mail of such order. At the same time, the Board will provide the contractor with a Memorandum of Decision stating the basis for such order, as provided in § 1477.3 of this chapter. The order of the Board may be in an amount greater than, equal to, or less than the amount recommended by the Regional Board.

(p) Finality of Board action. Except as provided in § 1473.1 of this chapter, the action of the Board in finding that the contractor did not realize excessive profits, or in finding that the contractor realized excessive profits and in eliminating such profits by agreement, shall be final, and no appeal may be taken therefrom.

(q) Order of Board. If the Board finds that the contractor realized excessive profits and is unwilling to enter into an agreement to eliminate such profits, the Board will enter an order determining the amount of excessive profits, if any, realized by the contractor for the fiscal year under review, and will notify the contractor by registered mail of such order. At the same time, the Board will provide the contractor with a Memorandum of Decision stating the basis for such order, as provided in § 1477.3 of this chapter. The order of the Board may be in an amount greater than, equal to, or less than the amount recommended by the Regional Board.

greater than, equal to, or less than the amount recommended by the panel.

(2) If the finding of the Regional Board is that the contractor did not realize any excessive profits, the clearance procedure set forth in Part 1473 of this chapter will be followed.

(3) If the finding of the Regional Board is that the contractor realized excessive profits, it will afford the contractor a reasonable time to notify the Regional Board whether it is or is not willing to enter into a refund agreement. If agreement is reached, the procedure set forth in Part 1474 of this chapter for the making of an agreement will be followed. If agreement is not reached, or upon the failure of the contractor to furnish the requested notification within the time fixed therefor by the Regional Board, the procedure set forth in Part 1475 of this chapter will be followed.

Section 1472.4 Conduct of renegotiation by Board is deleted in its entirety and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 1472.4 Conduct of renegotiation by Board.

(a) Reasons for reassignment from a Regional Board. A case will be reassigned from a Regional Board to the Board for further proceedings when (1) a Regional Board in a Class A case makes a clearance recommendation or a refund recommendation (see §§ 1472.2(a), 1474.3 (b), and 1475.3 of this chapter); or (2) when a Regional Board makes a finding of excessive profits in a Class B case and the contractor declines to enter into a refund agreement; or (3) the Board considers for any other reason that the further proceedings in the case should be conducted by the Board rather than by the Regional Board to which the case has been previously assigned.

(b) Proceedings before the Board or a division of the Board.—(1) Assignment and processing. Generally, once a case has been reassigned from a Regional Board, it will be assigned to the Board itself or to a division of the Board. The Board or the division will study the information and data assembled by the Regional Board and will determine what additional information or data, if any, is needed. Such additional information and data will be secured and an independent study of the case will be conducted. The Board or the division, as the case may be, will not be bound or limited in any manner by any evaluation or recommendation of the Regional Board.

(2) Meeting with the Board or a division of the Board. In every case reassigned pursuant to § 1475.3 of this chapter or paragraph (a)(3) of this section, the contractor will be afforded an opportunity to meet with the Board or the assigned division of the Board before the final disposition of the case. Prior to such meeting, a Notice of Points for Presentation will or may be sent to the contractor as provided in § 1472.5(a) of this chapter. Any written argument or other presentation which the contractor desires to submit for consideration by the Board or the division, in addition to the material previously submitted by the contractor to the Regional Board, should, whenever possible, be filed with the Director, Office of Review, reasonably in advance of the meeting. Failure of the contractor to file information or arguments prior to the meeting will not preclude presentation thereof at the meeting. At the meeting the contractor will be afforded an opportunity to be heard on all matters considered pertinent to the case, including any unresolved issues or matters of fact, law of accounting. Also, when appropriate, the Board or the division will explore with the contractor the possibilities of an agreement to eliminate excessive profits.

(c) Board action. (1) After the meeting with the Board or a division of the Board as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, or after it has been determined that no such meeting is required, the Board will take under consideration the final disposition of the case. In a case that has been assigned to a division, the division will submit a report to the Board, including the recommendation of the division and any proposals made by the contractor. If the contractor shall have advised that it is willing to enter into an agreement to eliminate excessive profits in the amount recommended to the Board by the division, and the Board approves such recommendation, or if agreement is reached by the Board and the contractor with respect to the amount of excessive profits to be eliminated, the procedure set forth in Part 1474 of this chapter for the making of an agreement will be followed. Otherwise, the Board will make a finding with respect to the amount of excessive profits, if any, for the fiscal year under review, and will notify the contractor by registered mail of such finding; and at the same time, the Board will provide the contractor with a Memorandum of Decision stating the basis for the finding, as provided in § 1477.3 of this chapter. The finding of the Board may be in an amount greater than, equal to, or less than the amount recommended by the division.

(2) If the finding of the Board is that the contractor did not realize any excessive profits, the clearance procedure set forth in Part 1473 of this chapter will be followed.

(3) If the finding of the Board is that the contractor realized excessive profits, it will afford the contractor a reasonable time to notify the Board whether it is or is not willing to enter into a refund agreement. If agreement is reached, the procedure set forth in Part 1474 of this chapter for the making of an agreement will be followed. If agreement is not reached, or upon the failure of the contractor to furnish the requested notification within the time fixed therefor by the Board, the procedure set forth in Part 1475 of this chapter for the issuance of an order will be followed. In the event of the issuance of an order, the contractor will be entitled, upon request, to a statement of the determination, of the facts used as a basis therefor, and of the reasons for such determination, as provided in § 1477.2 of this chapter.

Coordination Product of Zinc Ion and Maneb; Correction

As the result of a misinterpretation over what the petitioner was requesting, F.R. Doc. 72-12693 appearing on page 16178 of the issue of Friday, August 11, 1972, amended § 180.176 by: (a) Reducing the tolerance for residues of the coordination product of zinc ion and maneb on corn grain from 0.5 part per million to 0.1 part per million; and (b) by deleting the tolerance of 0.5 part per million "corn grain (including popcorn)" and "fresh corn including sweet corn (kernels plus cob with husks removed)."

The petitioner, however, was merely requesting a reduction on corn grain other than popcorn grain and was not requesting the deletion of the 0.5 part per million tolerance on fresh corn including sweet corn (kernels plus cob with husks removed).

Accordingly, the paragraphs "0.5 part per million * * *" and "0.1 part per million in or on corn grain" are corrected as follows:

§ 180.176 Coordination product of zinc ion and maneb; tolerances for residues.

0.5 part per million in or on popcorn grain, fresh corn including sweet corn (kernels plus cob with husk removed), cottonseed, kidney, liver, onions (dry bulb), and peanuts.

PART 180—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

Carbofuran

A petition (PP 2F1219) was filed by FMC Corp., 100 Niagara Street, Middleport, NY 14105, in accordance with provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 346a), proposing establishment of a tolerance for combined residues of the insecticide carbofuran and its metabolite 2,3-dihydro-2,2-dimethyl-3-hydroxy-7-benzofuranyl N-methylcarbamate in or on the raw agricultural commodity peppers at 1 part per million.

Based on consideration given data submitted in the petition and other relevant material, it is concluded that:

1. The insecticide is useful for the purpose for which the tolerance is being established.

2. There is no reasonable expectation of residues in eggs, meat, milk, or poultry, and § 180.6(a)(3) applies.

3. The tolerance established by this order will protect the public health.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408(d)(2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U.S.C. 346a(d)(2)), the authority transferred to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency (36 F.R. 15623), and the authority delegated by the Administrator to the Deputy Assistant Administrator for Pesticide Programs (36 F.R. 9038), § 180.254 is amended by revising the paragraph "1 part per million * * *," as follows:

Chapter 101—Federal Property Management Regulations

SUBCHAPTER E—SUPPLY AND PROCUREMENT

PART 101-26—PROCUREMENT SOURCES AND PROGRAMS

PART 101-33—GOVERNMENT SOURCES AVAILABLE TO GRANTEES AND CONTRACTORS

Use of GSA Supply Sources by Federal Grantees

On June 1, 1972, the General Services Administration (GSA) published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a proposed amendment to the Federal Property Management Regulations which, if adopted, would discontinue the use of GSA sources of supply and services, including excess property, by Federal grantees. Interested parties were invited to comment on this proposal within 30 days. The deadline for comments was extended to July 31, 1972, to accommodate numerous requests for an extension. Comments on the proposed amendment have been evaluated. Based on this evaluation it has been determined, in concert with the Office of Management and Budget, that the interests of the country would best be served by discontinuing this grantee program with respect to the use of GSA sources of supply and services. The policy on acquisition and use of excess property, however, will continue unchanged, and a study will be conducted and a determination made as to the desirability for modification of this policy. (Cost-reimbursement type contractors will continue to be permitted to use GSA supply sources under the provisions of Subparts 1-5.5 and 1-5.9 of the Federal Procurement Regulations.) On the basis of these decisions the following amendments to Subchapter E are set forth.

Section 101-26.000 is revised to read as follows:

§ 101-26.000 Scope of part.

This part sets forth policies and procedures regarding the procurement of personal property and nonpersonal services from or through supply sources which are established by law or other competent authority. It does not include policies and procedures pertaining to the purchasing and contracting for property or services obtained from commercial sources without recourse or use of Federal Supply Schedules or other GSA established contracts. (These are provided in the Federal Procurement Regulations.) The extent to which the sources of supply included in this Part 101-26 are to be used by Government agencies is prescribed in the specific subpart or section covering the subject matter involved. Included as eligible to use GSA supply sources are certain civilian and military commissaries and nonappropriated fund activities, generally buying for their own use but not for resale, except as authorized by the individual Federal agency and concurred in by GSA.

Subpart 101-26.5—GSA Procurement Programs

1. Section 101-26.508 is revised to read as follows:

§ 101-26.508 Electronic data processing tape.

Procurement by Federal agencies of electronic data processing (EDP) tape shall be accomplished in accordance with the provisions of this § 101-26.508.

2. Section 101-26.509 is revised to read as follows:

§ 101-26.509 Tabulating machine cards.

Procurement by Federal agencies of tabulating machine cards shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this § 101-26.509.

Subpart 101-26.6—Procurement Sources Other Than GSA

Section 101-26.604 is revised to read as follows:

§ 101-26.604 Marginally punched continuous forms.

The U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO) has been delegated authority by GSA to procure all marginally punched continuous forms for use by Federal agencies, except those procured by GSA for stock. Therefore, all Federal agencies shall submit their requirements for such forms in accordance with the provisions of this § 101-26.604.

Order. In the matter of editorial amendment of § 87.115 of the FCC rules and regulations.

1. By this order, it is intended to clarify § 87.115(e)(1)(i) of the rules, namely that it is not necessary for an aircraft station subject to that subparagraph to include the prefix "N" in its identification when it is identifying itself by use of its registration marking.

2. Because the rule presently is ambiguous concerning whether or not inclusion of the prefix letter "N" is required in identifying by registration marking, and because considerable confusion has resulted from that ambiguity, the words "omitting the prefix letter 'N'" will be added to the subparagraph in order to clarify the intent of the requirement.

3. Authority for this amendment appears in sections 4(i) and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and in § 0.231(d) of the Commission's rules and regulations. Since the amendment is editorial in nature, intended merely to clarify the requirement and not to substantively alter it, the prior notice and effective date provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 553, do not apply.

4. In view of the above, It is ordered, That the rule amendment set forth below shall be adopted effective November 15, 1972.

PART 971—LETTUCE GROWN IN LOWER RIO GRANDE VALLEY IN SOUTH TEXAS

Limitation of Shipments

Notice of rule making with respect to a proposed limitation of shipments regulation to be made effective under Marketing Agreement No. 144 and Order No. 971 (7 CFR Part 971), regulating the handling of lettuce grown in the Lower Rio Grande Valley in South Texas was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, November 3, 1972 (37 F.R. 23436). This program is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674).

The notice afforded interested persons an opportunity to file written data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto not later than November 8, 1972. None was filed.

Findings. After consideration of all relevant matters, including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice which was recommended by the South Texas Lettuce Committee, established pursuant to the said marketing agreement and order, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments regulation, as hereinafter set forth, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

This proposal is in accord with the committee's marketing policy and reflects its appraisal of the 1972–73 lettuce crop and marketing prospects for the season.

Texas harvested 5,000 acres of winter lettuce in 1972, with a production of 850,000 hundredweight, for which they received a seasonal average price of $8.20 per hundredweight. The 1971 comparison was 7,200 acres, 900,000 hundredweight production and a $5.12 price.

There is presently no official estimate of 1973 U.S. winter lettuce production. The committee estimates that planted acreage in the Lower Rio Grande Valley will amount to 7,000 acres compared to 3,969 acres last year.

It is not likely that the favorable combination of marketing factors that existed for South Texas lettuce during the 1972 winter season will be repeated in 1973. Their 1973 season average price is not expected to exceed parity.

The South Texas lettuce industry has found a 6-day shipping week most practical and that "packaging holidays" on Sundays and Christmas contribute to the improvements of growers prices and are beneficial in promoting more orderly marketing.

The pack and container requirements are needed to maintain the accepted commercial practices of the South Texas lettuce industry of packing specified numbers of heads of lettuce in specific sized containers to avoid deceptive packs and limit them to those found acceptable to the trade for safe transportation of the lettuce.

No purpose would be served by regulating the pack or requiring the inspection and assessment of insignificant quantities of lettuce. Therefore quantities up to two cartons of lettuce per day may be handled without regard to such requirements.

Provisions for special purpose shipments, including export, are designed to meet the different requirements for other than domestic commercial channels of trade. Since these shipments have a negligible effect on the domestic market, they should be permitted provided certain safeguard requirements are met.

It is hereby found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date of this section 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) in that: (1) Shipments of lettuce grown in the production area will begin on or about the effective date specified herein, (2) to maximize benefits to producers, this regulation should apply to as many shipments as possible during the effective period, (3) information regarding the provisions of this regulation has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area, and (4) compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by such effective date.

The regulation is as follows:

§ 971.313 Limitation of shipments.

During the period November 15, 1972, through March 31, 1973, no person shall handle any lot of lettuce grown in the production area unless such lettuce meets the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section, or unless such lettuce is handled in accordance with paragraphs (e) or (f) of this section. Further, no person may package lettuce during the above period on any Sunday or on Christmas Day.

(a) [Reserved]

(b) Pack. (1) Lettuce heads, packed in container Nos. 7303, 7306, or 7313, if wrapped may be packed only 18, 20, 22, 24, or 30 heads per container; if not wrapped, only 18, 24, or 30 heads per container.

(2) Lettuce heads in container No. 85–40 may be packed only 24 or 30 heads per container.

(c) Containers. Containers may be only—

(1) Cartons with inside dimensions of 10 inches by 14¼ inches by 21$^{5}/_{16}$ inches (designated as carrier container No. 7303), or

(2) Cartons with inside dimensions of 9¾ inches by 14 inches by 21 inches (designated as carrier container Nos. 7306 and 7313), or

(3) Cartons with inside dimensions of 21½ by 16⅛ inches by 10¾ inches (designated as carrier container No. 85–40—flat pack).

(d) Inspection. (1) No handler shall handle lettuce unless such lettuce is inspected by the Texas-Federal Inspection Service and an appropriate inspection certificate has been issued with respect thereto, except when relieved of such requirement pursuant to paragraphs (e) or (f) of this section.

(2) No handler may transport, or cause the transportation of, any shipment of lettuce by motor vehicle, for which inspection is required unless each such shipment is accompanied by a copy of an appropriate inspection certificate or shipment release form (SPI–23) furnished by the inspection service verifying that such shipment meets the current grade, pack, and container requirements of this section. A copy of such inspection certificate or shipment release form shall be available and surrendered upon request to authorities designated by the committee.

(3) For administration of this part, such inspection certificate or shipment release form required by the committee as evidence of inspection is valid for only 72 hours following completion of inspection, as shown on such certificate or form.

(e) Minimum quantity. Any person may handle up to, but not to exceed two cartons of lettuce a day without regard to inspection, assessment, grade, and pack requirements, but must meet container requirements. This exception may not be applied to any shipment of over two cartons of lettuce.

(f) Special purpose shipments. Lettuce not meeting grade, pack, or container requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), or (c), of this section may be handled for any purpose listed, if handled as prescribed in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph. Inspection and assessments are not required on such shipments. These special purpose shipments are as follow:

(1) For relief, charity, experimental purposes, or export to Mexico, if, prior to handling, the handler pursuant to §§ 971.120–971.125 obtains a Certificate of Privilege applicable thereto and reports thereon; and

(2) For export to Mexico, if the handler of such lettuce loads and transports it only in a vehicle bearing Mexican registration (license).

(g) Definitions. (1) "Wrapped" heads of lettuce refers to those which are enclosed individually in parchment, plastic, or other commercial film (Cf AMS 481) and then packed in cartons or other containers.

(2) Other terms used in this section have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 144 and this part.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

CONTRACT MARKETS

Eligibility for Continued Designation

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Provisions of 5 U.S.C. section 553 that the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority of sections 5, 6, 8, and 8a of the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. 7, 8, 12, 12a), proposes to issue a regulation setting forth certain conditions and requirements which must be met by contract markets in order for them to remain eligible for continued designation as such. The text of the proposed regulation is set forth below.

§ 1.50 Eligibility for continued designation as contract market.

(a) Without limitation of other conditions and requirements imposed by the Act, each contract market shall, at all times while so designated, have in effect provisions to assure that its future contracts meet the following requirements, and if the contract at any time fails to meet any one of such requirements, no trading shall be started in that contract for any delivery month for which trading has not already commenced. This provision shall in no way limit the authority of the contract market to terminate trading in any or all contracts.

(1) There must be assured an adequate means of delivery on the futures contract, i.e., a sufficient number of warehouses, or other delivery facilities; sufficient capacity of facilities for delivery on the futures contract; sufficient transportation facilities and a sufficient number of futures contract delivery points which fit into the normal marketing outlets of the commodity and allowance for appropriate freight differentials between delivery points.

(2) The futures contract must be protected from price manipulation or corners by adequate deliverable supplies available for futures delivery and not committed for commercial purposes and such supplies must be readily bought and sold at the delivery points. The commodity must be generally available from a substantial number of suppliers.

(3) The cash commodity of the kind specified in the futures contract must be traded in sufficient volume in the cash market and under such conditions as to reflect fairly the general value of that commodity and the resulting cash values must be publicly disseminated and representative.

(4) The differentials for allowable variations of grades from par delivery specifications must be reasonable and not conflict with commercial values.

(5) The commodity, as specified by the futures contract, must be representative of the cash commodity moving to market in terms of characteristics such as quality, grade, form, packaging, and location, and there must be no impediments to delivery resulting from inappropriate contract specifications.

(b) Each contract market shall file with the Commodity Exchange Authority a statement with supporting data showing the provisions it has made to carry out the above listed conditions and requirements. Such statements shall be filed within 5 years but not less than 90 days after the effective date of this regulation in accordance with a schedule established by the Act Administrator and which will be provided by him to each contract market, and every 5 years after the date of the first filing: Provided, That a contract market need not file earlier than 5 years after the effective date of its designation, unless so requested upon special call by the Act Administrator.

(c) The information required in paragraph (b) also shall be filed within 90 days after a special call by the Act Administrator.

(d) The statement and data shall be filed with the office of the Commodity Exchange Authority in the city where the contract market is located: Provided, That if there is no Commodity Exchange Authority office in such city, the information shall be transmitted in accordance with the instructions of the Commodity Exchange Authority.

If any interested person desires a hearing with reference to this proposed regulation, he should make a request to that effect stating the reasons therefor, addressed to the Administrator, Commodity Exchange Authority, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, on or before January 15, 1973.

Written statements with reference to the subject matter of this proposal may be submitted by any interested person. Such statements should be mailed to the Administrator of the Commodity Exchange Authority prior to January 15, 1973.

The transcript of the proceedings at any hearing which may be held and all written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be made available for public inspection in the Office of the Administrator, Commodity Exchange Authority, during regular business hours (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

Issued: November 9, 1972.

LOW-ACID FOODS IN HERMETICALLY SEALED CONTAINERS

Notice of Availability of Tentative Final Order and Opportunity for Further Comment

Pursuant to a petition filed by the National Canners Association, 1133 20th Street NW., Washington, DC 20036, requesting the establishment of requirements and conditions for exemption from the emergency permit control provisions of section 404 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, a notice of proposed rule making regarding low-acid foods in hermetically sealed containers was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 12, 1971 (37 F.R. 21688). Interested persons were invited to file written comments within 60 days.

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs has evaluated all comments and has concluded that regulations should immediately be promulgated to specify good manufacturing practices to be followed in the manufacture, processing, or packing of thermally processed low-acid foods

Subpart 3–18.50—Contracting for Architect-Engineer Services

§ 3–18.5000 Scope of subpart.

This subpart provides policy and procedures for the procurement of architect-engineer services for designs, plans, drawings, specifications, or for other work relating to the planning, construction, repair, or alteration of real property.

§ 3–18.5001 Authority to enter into contracts.

The delegation of authority within the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare to enter into contracts for professional engineering, architectural, and landscape architectural services is prescribed in Subpart 3–75.1, Procurement Authority, of the HEW Procurement Regulations (Part 3 of this title). The procurement of such services in connection with a "public building," as that term is defined in section 13 of the Public Buildings Act of 1959 (40 U.S.C. 612), may be exercised only under the conditions prescribed in § 101–17.402(c) of this title and subject to standards prescribed by the Administrator of General Services pursuant to § 101–17.502 of this title. The procurement of such services in connection with special purpose space such as schools, hospitals, laboratories, and research centers is subject to the requirements and conditions prescribed by section 302(c)(4) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (41 U.S.C. 252(c)(4)) and § 1–3.204 of this title.

§ 3–18.5002 Definitions.

(a) "Architect-engineer services" means architectural and/or engineering services related to construction.

(b) "Off-site architect-engineer services" means architectural and/or engineering services performed in the contractor's central or branch office.

(c) "Job-site architect-engineer services" means architectural and/or engineering services where performance of the services requires relatively complete staffing for the contract work (including design, engineering, inspection) at an office or location other than the central or branch office of the contractor, and where a minimum of support is required from the contractor's central or branch office staff.

§ 3–18.5003 Selection of architect-engineer firms.

§ 3–18.5003–1 Selection policy.

The selection of architect-engineer firms for the preparation of drawings and specifications or for other technical and professional services, e.g., master planning, architectural or engineering studies, and investigations shall be accomplished in accordance with the procedures set forth in this subpart. Such selection shall not be based on competitive bidding procedures, but rather on the professional qualifications necessary for the satisfactory performance of the service required subject to the following additional considerations:

(a) Specialized experience of the firm in the type of work required;

(b) Capacity of the firm to accomplish the work in the required time;

(c) Past experience, if any, of the firm with respect to performance on HEW contracts;

(d) Volume of work previously awarded to the firm by HEW, with the objective of effecting an equitable distribution of contracts among qualified architect-engineer firms;

(e) Location of the firm in the general geographical area of the project, provided there is an appropriate number of qualified firms in that area.

§ 3–18.5003–2 Selection procedures.

(a) All selection actions, including preselection, shall be performed by selection boards of the Facilities Engineering and Construction Agency (FECA).

(b) Each regional selection board shall consist of five licensed professional architects or engineers (with the Regional Engineer or his representative serving as Chairman), one progam or administrative representative, one nonvoting contracting officer, and one nonvoting recording secretary. A minimum number of three licensed architects or engineers shall be present at all regional selection board meetings.

(c) The makeup of selection boards in the Office of the Director, FECA, is determined by the Director, FECA, so as to meet varying requirements.

(d) Selection boards shall prepare preselection lists of the maximum practicable number of qualified firms, from the data developed under § 3–18.5003 and from other pertinent information which may be available. The lists shall be approved by the Director, Facilities Engineering and Construction Agency, Office of the Secretary, or his designee.

(e) Selection boards shall review the qualifications and performance of each of the firms on the preselection lists in accordance with the policy established in § 3–18.5003–1, and shall recommend, in order of preference, a minimum of three firms to the contracting officer for negotiations in accordance with § 3–18.5005.

(f) All preselection and selection actions shall be fully documented.

§ 3–18.5003–3 Special approval of selections.

The approval of the Director, FECA, OS, or his designee is required when:

(a) The estimated cost of the basic fee of the proposed contract exceeds $60,000;

(b) The award of more than one contract will cause a firm's total fees to exceed $200,000 during a calendar year;

(c) Any modification to an existing contract would increase the total fee by more than 50 percent.

§ 3–18.5003–4 Release of information on architect-engineer selections.

After the required approvals for the selection have been obtained, information may be released by the contracting officer identifying only the architect-engineer firm selected, and describing the work in general terms. If negotiations are terminated without consummating a contract, the contracting officer may release such information and state that negotiations will be undertaken with another (named) architect-engineer. When an award has been made, the contracting officer may release this information, but the estimated construction cost of the facilities involved shall not be divulged.

§ 3–18.5004 Architect-engineer qualifications data.

§ 3–18.5004–1 Filing.

(a) Firms desiring to be considered for HEW architect-engineer contracts in a given area must file Standard Form 251, "U.S. Government Architect-Engineer Questionnaire" with the Facilities Engineering and Construction Agency in HEW Regional Offices or with the Office of Architectural and Engineering Services, FECA, Office of the Secretary, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, DC 20201, depending on their geographical area of interest.

(b) Architect-engineer firms shall normally be selected from the region in which the project is to be accomplished. However, if sufficient qualified firms are not available in a region for consideration for a particular contract, firms from other regions shall be considered.

§ 3–18.5004–2 Utilization of data.

FECA offices shall review all Forms 251 received and classify each firm with respect to:

(a) Location;
(b) Specialized experience;
(c) Professional capabilities; and
(d) Capacity with respect to scope of work that can be undertaken; and shall utilize these data files in the required selection procedures.

§ 3–18.5005 Negotiations.

§ 3–18.5005–1 General.

(a) All requests for proposals shall be in writing over the signature of the cognizant contracting officer, or his authorized representative, who shall have been provided with copies of the preselection and selection reports and with evidence of such approvals as may be required by § 3–18.5003.3.

(b) Negotiations shall be conducted with the first-selected architect-engineer firm to establish a fair and reasonable price which is not to exceed the Government estimate by more than 10 percent. Where negotiations result in a price in excess of this limitation, the contracting officer shall terminate the negotiations and request a proposal from the architect-engineer next in order of preference.

(c) A negotiation report including the details and reasons for all project cost estimate revisions shall be prepared in each case.

§ 3–18.5005–2 Preparation for negotiation.

(a) A Government estimate for architect-engineer contracts shall be prepared in detail in every instance.

(b) The proposal and cost or pricing data submitted by potential contractors shall be evaluated, analyzed, and compared with the Government estimate.

(c) Where the proposal for an architect-engineer contract is less than the Government estimate, the contracting officer shall insure that there is a complete understanding of the scope of the work. Where the proposed price is considered unreasonable, additional data may be requested from the prospective contractor. If he refuses to furnish such data, negotiations with him will be terminated and a proposal will be requested from the architect-engineer selected next in preference.

§ 3–18.5005–3 Types of contracts.

(a) Fixed price. In no event shall a firm fixed-price type contract for architect-engineer services for the preparation of designs, plans, drawings, and specifications exceed the statutory basic fee limitation of six (6) percent of the Government-estimated construction costs of the project to which the architect-engineer services apply. If, however, the contract also covers any type services other than the preparation of designs, plans, drawings and specifications, that part of the contract price for such other services shall not be subject to the six (6) percent limitation.

(b) Cost reimbursement. This type of contract shall be used in cases of extreme urgency. In negotiating an architect-engineer contract, the contract price, which includes the fee plus the estimated total reimbursable costs to be paid to the architect-engineer, shall not exceed the statutory limitation set forth in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 3–18.5005–4 Contract forms.

The forms prescribed for use in the procurement of architect-engineer professional services by negotiation are set forth in FPR 1–16.7.

§ 3–18.5006 Additional work under fixed-price architect-engineer contracts.

(a) The principles set forth above in § 3–18.5005–2 (b) and (c), (Preparation for negotiation) with respect to submission of cost or pricing data and insuring that the prospective architect-engineer has a complete understanding of the scope of work is likewise applicable to modifications to the contract.

(b) If the work to be performed under the modification is within the general scope of the contract, the contracting officer shall, under the provisions of the "Changes" clause, by written order, with or without prior negotiation, direct that the changes be made. Where such action causes an increase or decrease in the contractor's cost or time required for performance of the contract, an equitable adjustment shall be made. Where there is a failure to agree as to the equitable adjustment, the provisions of the "Disputes" clause will be followed.

(c) Where the modification involves work not initially included in the contract the statutory limitation is applicable, consistent with the following provisions to the revised total estimated construction costs. Where redesign is required and the contract is modified, the following methods shall be used in determining the amount of the basic fee to be paid the architect:

(1) The estimated construction cost of the redesigned features will be added to the original estimated construction cost;

(2) The contract cost for the original design will be added to the contract for redesign; and

(3) The total contract design cost obtained by subparagraph (a) of this paragraph will be divided by the total construction cost obtained by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(4) If, however, the resulting percentage would exceed the 6-percent limitation and the Government has unilaterally determined a need to increase the architect's basic fee work over and above that contemplated by the original contract, and the additional architect's effort would have an insignificant effect on the original cost of the work, the amount of the architect's basic fee for rerforming this additional work shall be the subject of further negotiations between the parties. Thereafter, an applicable supplemental agreement shall be entered into between the parties setting forth the additional work to be performed and specifying a separate and distinct architect-engineer fee therefor.

(5) If, on the other hand, the additional basic fee work to be performed by the architect would exceed the 6-percent limitation and would have a significant effect on the original cost of the work, the contract should be terminated for the convenience of the Government pursuant to Article 4 of Standard Form 253, General Provisions, and a new contract negotiated.

The official docket will be available for examination by interested parties at the Office of Regional Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amend-

AIR CRUISER LIFE JACKETS

Proposed Airworthiness Directive

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending § 39.13 of the Federal Aviation Regulations so as to issue an airworthiness directive applicable to Air Cruiser Co. Model AD–8 life jackets installed on civil aircraft.

During a crew-training exercise one of the subject life jackets was inflated only to have one of the two bottles of CO_2 detach from the jacket, thereby causing its deflation. Further investigation established other defective jackets.

Since the foregoing deficiency can exist on other jackets of similar design, it is proposed to issue an airworthiness directive requiring alteration of the subject jackets. However, in view of the effect on safety equipment for aircraft, it is found that only a 15-day period of comment is practical under the circumstances.

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting written data or views. Communications should identify the docket number and be submitted in duplicate to the Office of Regional Counsel, FAA, Federal Building, John F. Kennedy International Airport, Jamaica, N.Y. 11430.

All communications received within 15 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before taking action upon the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in light of comments received. All comments will be available in the Office of Regional Counsel for examination by interested parties.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to issue a new airworthiness directive as hereinafter set forth:

1. Amend § 39.13 of the Federal Aviation Regulations so as to add a new airworthiness directive described as follows:

AIR CRUISERS CO. Applies to all Model AD–8 life jackets manufactured on or before 15 October 1971.

Compliance required within 90 days after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished.

To preclude air chamber deflation from defective inflator manifold stem assemblies, accomplish alteration of the aforementioned life jackets in accordance with either:

a. Air Cruisers Co. Service Bulletin No. 112–72–1, dated 6 March 1972; or

b. Any other method approved as equivalent by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA, Eastern Region.

Upon request submitted through a maintenance inspector, accompanied by substantiating data, the compliance time specified in the AD may be increased by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA, Eastern Region.

This amendment is made under the authority of sections 313(a), 601 and 603 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423), and section 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

Issued in Jamaica, N.Y., on November 6, 1972.

Acting Director, Eastern Region.

CONTROL ZONE AND TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending §§ 71.171 and 71.181 of part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations so as to alter the Wilmington, Del., Control Zone (37 F.R. 2140) and Transition Area (37 F.R. 2306).

A review of the subject terminal airspace will require alterations so as to conform to the criteria of the Terminal Instrument Procedures (TERPs).

Interested parties may submit such written data or views as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Eastern Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Department of Transportation, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, John F. Kennedy International Airport, Jamaica, N.Y. 11430. All communications received within 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements may be made for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Administration officials by contacting the Chief, Airspace and Procedures Branch, Eastern Region.

Any data or views presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official docket will be available for examination by interested parties at the Office of Regional Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, Federal Building, John F. Kennedy International Airport, Jamaica, N.Y.

The Federal Aviation Administration, having completed a review of the airspace requirements for the terminal area of Wilmington, Delaware, proposes the airspace action hereinafter set forth:

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD

[12 CFR Part 561]

[No. 72-1265]

FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN INSURANCE CORPORATION

"Scheduled Items"

OCTOBER 31, 1972.

Section 561.15(d)(1) of the rules and regulations for Insurance of Accounts requires that certain loans and sales contracts be included in "scheduled items" during the period that such loans or contracts have unexpired maturity periods exceeding the maturity limitations permitted under otherwise applicable lending regulations, or, in the absence of such limitations, in excess of 30 years. The Board now considers it advisable to propose an exception to this requirement. Also, the Board proposes to add a parenthetical phrase in § 561.15 (d)(2)(iii) providing that "all contractually required payments" shall include payments for insurance and taxes, whether or not in escrow. Accordingly, it is hereby proposed to amend said § 561.15 by revising subparagraph (1) and subdivision (iii) of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (d) thereof to read as set forth below.

In substance, the exception proposed to be added in § 561.15(d)(1) would provide that only 20 percent of any such loan or contract will be included in "scheduled items" so long as the following requirements are met:

1. The real estate securing the loan or contract is residential estate;

2. The loan or contract requires monthly amortization of principal and interest;

3. All required payments on such loan or contract have been made for at least the immediately preceding 5 years without a delay of more than 30 days in the making of any one of the last 12 of such payments;

4. The remaining term of such loan or contract does not exceed 35 years; and

5. The insured institution has certain certifications regarding the trend of the value of the real estate securing such loan or contract.

If 80 percent of such a loan or contract has been excluded from "scheduled items" and thereafter any contractually required payment thereon is not made when due or within 30 days after such due date, all of such loan or contract will again become a "scheduled item" for a minimum period of at least 1 year even if the "missed" payment is subsequently "caught-up". Also new certifications of value would be required.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments to the Office of the Secretary, Federal Home Loan Bank Board, 101 Indiana Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20552, by December 11, 1972, as to whether this proposal should be adopted, rejected or modified. Written material submitted will be available for public inspection at the above address unless confidential treatment is requested or the material would not be made available to the public or otherwise disclosed under § 505.6 of the general regulations of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (12 CFR 505.6).

§ 561.15 Scheduled items.

The term "scheduled items" means:

* * * * *

(d) Loans secured by, and contracts for the sale of, real estate described in paragraph (c) of this section and real estate previously owned or held by an insured institution for development or investment purposes (other than insured loans, guaranteed loans, or contracts or loans having the benefit of a guaranty by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation) during the period that such loans or contracts—

(1) Have remaining periods to the expiration of their terms in excess of the maximum terms permitted under otherwise applicable lending limitations, or, in the absence of otherwise applicable lending limitations, in excess of 30 years; except that only 20 percent of the unpaid principal balance of any such loan or contract will be included in "scheduled items" if all of the following requirements are met:

(i) The real estate securing the loan or sold under the contract is residential real estate (as defined in § 563.9-1(d)(2) of this subchapter);

(ii) The loan or contract requires equal, or substantially equal, regular monthly payments which include both principal and interest, sufficient to amortize the entire debt, principal and interest, within the term of the loan or contract;

(iii) All contractually required payments (including payments for insurance and taxes, whether or not in escrow) have been made for a continuous period of 60 months without a delay of more than 30 days in the making of any one of the last 12 of such payments;

(iv) The loan or contract has a remaining term of not more than 35 years; and

(v) An officer of the insured institution owning such loan or contract and an appraiser who meets the requirements of paragraph (a) of § 563.10 of this subchapter have certified (as of the time such loan or contract last became eligible for this exceptional treatment) to the effect that (a) the real estate securing the loan or sold under the contract has an economic life commensurate with the remaining term of such loan or contract and has a current value in an amount sufficient to protect such insured institution against loss on such loan or contract if the borrower or purchaser ceases to make payments on such loan or contract and (b) the value of the real estate securing the loan or sold under the contract has not decreased during the immediately preceding 3-year period of time and the expected trend is not downward; or

(2) Have unpaid principal balances in excess of the maximum amounts permitted under otherwise applicable lending limitations, or, in the absence of otherwise applicable lending limitatons, in excess of 90 percent of the value of the real estate securing such loans or sold under such contracts; except that only 20 percent of the unpaid principal balance of any such loan or contract will be included in "scheduled items" if all of the following requirements are met:

* * * * *

(iii) All contractually required payments (including payments for insurance and taxes, whether or not in escrow) have been made for a continuous period of 36 months without a delay of more than 30 days in the making of any one of the last 12 of such payments.

UNECONOMIC PRODUCTION DUE TO CERTAIN FACTORS

Rate Review Applications

NOVEMBER 8, 1972.

1. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 551, et seq. Supp. V, (1967) and sections 4, 5, 7, 8, 15, and 16 of the Natural Gas Act (52 Stat. 822, 823, 824, 825, 829, 830; 56 Stat. 83, 84; 61 Stat. 459; 76 Stat. 72; 15 U.S.C. 717c, 717d, 717f, 717g, 717n, 717o), the Commission gives notice that it will consider adopting a policy providing for examination of applications by independent producers for special relief from area rates with respect to sales of natural gas from reservoirs where reduced pressures, the need for reconditioning the producing wells or for deeper drilling in the producing reservoirs make further production uneconomic at existing prices.

2. Abandonment for economic reasons results from a depletion of gas reserves in a reservoir with an attendant diminution in wellhead pressure. The gas must be compressed from the wellhead pressure to the pressure of the purchasing pipeline's transmission line. The producer or the pipeline company must decide whether the price obtainable for the gas will justify the installation of costly compressors. Further, abandonment may result from a need to expend moneys for reconditioning of producing wells or to drill deeper wells to maintain production. Alternatively, the reservoirs may be abandoned or the gas sold locally at wellhead pressure after the producer has obtained abandonment authorization pursuant to section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act.

3. In these situations a producer may require a price in excess of the area rate to justify the installation of the necessary compression equipment, the reconditioning of the producing wells, or the drilling into deeper horizons. The amount of gas that might be anticipated under a favorable pricing policy with respect to these sales is not readily calculable on the basis of information available to us at the present time, nor is the price level which would warrant further production readily ascertainable, as this price would vary from reservoir to reservoir.

4. We will consider applications for special relief with respect to existing producer sales for contractually authorized rate increases above the applicable area ceiling rate, Permian Basin Area Rate Proceeding, 34 FPC 159 at 225 et seq. Our purpose here is to emphasize that producers who have been selling gas from wells where reduced pressures, the need for reconditioning, or deeper drilling make further production uneconomic at the applicable area rate, in lieu of seeking abandonment authorization under

§ 2.76 Policy with respect to sales where reduced pressures, need for reconditioning or deeper drilling make further production uneconomic at existing prices.

(a) With respect to reservoirs where reduced pressures, need for reconditioning of the wells or deeper drilling make further production uneconomic at existing rates, it will be the general policy of the Commission, in order to promote the optimum recovery of gas reserves, to accept for consideration applications by independent producers seeking special relief in the form of contractually authorized rate increases, or rate increases where the contract term has expired, in excess of the applicable area ceiling rate.

(b) Applicants shall establish the economic justification for their request, including, where appropriate, information on additional costs, and the amount of gas to be recovered and sold to the interstate market for sales that would otherwise be abandoned.

7. Any interested person may submit to the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, not later than December 27, 1972, views, comments, or suggestions in writing, concerning all or part of the procedures proposed herein. Written submittals will be placed in the Commission's public files and will be available for public inspection at the Commission's Office of Public Information, Washington, D.C. 20426, during regular business hours. The Commission will consider all such written submittals before action on the matters proposed herein. An original and 14 conformed copies should be filed with the Secretary of the Commission. Docket No. 72-00632-33-46040. Applicant: City Hospital Center at Elmhurst, 79-01 Broadway, Elmhurst, NY 11373. Article: Electron Microscope, Model HS-8 Mark II. Manufacturer: Hitachi Ltd., Japan. Intended use of article: The article is intended to be used to study the complicated and chronic changes involved in human renal diseases using a newly developed technique in which lanthium hydroxide is injected on a tracer. In addition, protein-labeled antibodies have been obtained and will be used as an adjunct to these studies. The study of human placental membranes especially in toxemia of pregnancy using a recently developed technique for isolating placental basement membrane will also be carried out. The isolation techniques will also be used to obtain antibodies in experimental animals and to determine the possible role of immunological mechanisms in placental disease. The article will also be used for the instruction of electron microscopy techniques to residents, educational fellows, medical and premedical students. Application received by Commissioner of Customs: June 16, 1972. Advice submitted by Department of Health, Education, and Welfare on: October 20, 1972.

Docket No. 72-00640-33-46040. Applicant: University of Kentucky, Department of Pathology, MS-305, Medical Science Building, Lexington, Ky. 40506. Article: Electron Microscope, Model EM 9S-2. Manufacturer: Carl Zeiss, West Germany. Intended use of article: The article is intended to be used for research and diagnostic work to be conducted in the following areas: (a) Metabolic disorders, (b) renal pathology with particular study of specimens from glomerulonephrities and renal transplantation, (c) neuropathology material, including brain, peripheral nerve, and skeletal muscle, including the study of degenerative disorders and aging related processes, (d) study of premalignant and malignant lesions of the female genital organs. The article will also be used in the teaching and training of technicians, students, residents, postdoctoral fellows, and senior staff in electron microscopy. Application received by Commissioner of Customs: June 26, 1972. Advice submitted by Department of Health Education, and Welfare on: October 20, 1972.

Comments: No comments have been received with respect to any of the foregoing applications. Decision: Applications approved. No instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign articles, for such purposes as these articles are intended to be used, is being manufactured in the United States. Reasons: Each applicant requires an electron microscope which is suitable for instruction in the basic principles of electron microscopy. Each of the foreign articles to which the foregoing applications relate is a relatively simple, medium resolution electron microscope designed for confident use by beginning students with a minimum of detailed programing. The most closely comparable domestic instrument is the Model EMU-4C electron microscope which is a relatively complex instrument designed primarily for research, which requires a skilled electron microscopist for its operation. We are advised by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in its respectively cited memoranda, that the relative simplicity of design and ease of operation of the foreign articles described above are pertinent to the applicants' educational purposes. We, therefore, find that the Forgflo Model EMU-4C electron microscope is not of equivalent scientific value to any of the foreign articles described above for such purposes as these articles are intended to be used.

The Department of Commerce knows of no other instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to any of the foreign articles to which the foregoing applications relate, for such purposes as these articles are intended to be used, which is being manufactured in the United States.

Docket No. 72-00641-00-46040. Applicant: Emory University, Purchasing Department, Atlanta, Ga. 30322. Article: Electromagnetic Shutter with Exposure Meter. Manufacturer: Siemens AG, West Germany. Intended use of article: The articles are accessories to an existing electron microscope being used in various biomedical research projects including: (1) Ultrastructural evaluation of tumors of nonhuman primates; (2) electron microscopy of muscle and blood specimens of primates to be used in space flight studies; (3) evaluation of liver biopsy specimens from primates receiving alcohol; (4) characterization of the ultrastructural features of the central nervous system tissues of normal primates and following induced lesions; and (5) ultrastructural evaluation of spontaneous virus diseases of primates or diseases suspected of being caused by virus infections.

Comments: No comments have been received with respect to this application.

Decision: Application approved. No instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article, for such purposes as this article is intended to be used, is being manufactured in the United States.

Reasons: The application relates to a compatible accessory for an instrument that had been previously imported for the use of the applicant institution. The article is being furnished by the manufacturer which produced the instrument with which the article is intended to be used and is pertinent to the applicant's purposes.

Notice of Decision on Application for Duty-Free Entry of Scientific Article

The following is a decision on an application for duty-free entry of a scientific article pursuant to section 6(c) of the Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Materials Importation Act of 1966 (Public Law 89-651, 80 Stat. 897) and the regulations issued thereunder as amended (37 F.R. 3892, et seq.).

A copy of the record pertaining to this decision is available for public review during ordinary business hours of the Department of Commerce, at the Office of Import Programs, Department of Commerce, Washington, DC.

Docket No. 72-00628-33-46040. Applicant: Oak Ridge Associated Universities, Post Office Box 117, Oak Ridge, TN 37380. Article: Electron Microscope, Model Elmiskop 101. Manufacturer: Siemens AG, West Germany. Intended use of article: The article is intended to be used to examine the fine structure and isolated molecular components of normal and malignant human and experimental animal tissues. The experiments to be conducted include studies on the cellular and subcellular localization of the tumor-localizing raidonuclide 67Ga, using high-resolution autoradiography on tissue sections and on isolated cellular components: similar materials in experimental animals after wholebody acute and chronic x-irradiation to determine, the effect of x-irradiation on the ability of cells and and their molecular components to concentrate or localize 67Ga.

Comments: No comments have been received with respect to this application.

Decision: Application approved. No instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article, for such purposes as this article is intended to be used, is being manufactured in the United States. Reasons: The foreign article has a specified resolving capability of 3.5 Angstroms. The most closely comparable domestic instrument is the Model EMU-4C electron microscope manufactured by the Forgflo Corp. The Model EMU-4C has a specified resolving capability of 5 Angstroms. (The lower the numerical rating in terms of Angstrom units, the better the resolving capability.) We are advised by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in its memorandum dated October 20, 1972, that the additional resolving capability of the foreign article is pertinent to the purposes for which the foreign article is intended to be used. We, therefore, find that the Model EMU-4C is not of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article for such purposes as the article is intended to be used.

The Department of Commerce knows of no other instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article, for such purposes as this article is intended to be used, which is being manufactured in the United States.

Docket No. 71-00472-75-14200. Applicant: University of California, Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, Post Office Box 990, Los Alamos, NM 87544. Article: Image analyzing computer, Model 720. Manufacturer: Metals Research Ltd., United Kingdom. Intended use of article: The article will be used to study radioactive ceramic materials containing Pu^{238} being used or being considered for use as fuels in SNAP generators. The particle sizes and size distributions contained in samples of these materials will be studied. Solid samples will be exposed to various mechanical and thermal environments and the fine particles formed during the exposures will be counted and sized.

Comments: Comments dated July 8, 1971, were received from Bausch and Lomb, Inc. (B&L) which allege inter alia, "It is apparent that our Quantitative Metallurgical System, Model QMS, is of scientific equivalence to the requested foreign product [the foreign article]."

Decision: Application approved. No instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article, for such purposes as this article is intended to be used, was being manufactured in the United States at the time the foreign article was ordered (May 26, 1970).

Reasons: This application is a resubmission of Docket No. 71-00230-65-14200 which was denied without prejudice to resubmission on March 8, 1971, due to informational deficiencies. As to the captioned application, the National Bureau of Standards (NBS) advises in its memorandum dated April 18, 1972, that the capability of analyzing photographs is pertinent within the meaning of Section 701.2(n) of the regulations to minimizing radiation contamination in the applicant's analysis of radioactive materials. B&L, in its comments relating to the captioned application, as well as those of January 25, 1971, relating to the applicant's prior application, states that its Model QMS can be equipped with a "Macro Facilities" accessory which has the capability of analyzing photographs. Neither of B&L's comments, however, contain documentation indicating when this accessory became available. In fact, the first printed reference which B&L has provided the Department of Commerce wherein the Marco Facility accessory is offered for sale is dated October 1971. In correspondence with B&L officials dated August 11, 1972, it was noted that "Based on the information enclosed with your letter of August 3, we [Commerce] would have to assume the * * * macro facility * * * [was] available in October 1971 * * *. In the absence of such evidence [documentation which verifies the availability of the accessory prior to October 1971] we must rely upon our evaluation of the best information we have at our disposal." B&L failed to respond to this letter with documentation supporting a date of availability prior to October 1971. Furthermore, the applicant alleged in the captioned application and the prior application that B&L was sent a formal invitation to bid, neither of which was responded to. In its comments on both applications, B&L did not refute this allegation. Finally, NBS advises "It is our understanding that Bausch & Lomb did not offer the Macro Facilities accessory as of the foreign article's order date of May 26, 1970." Accordingly, we find that B&L's QMS was not of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article for such purposes as the article is intended to be used at the time the foreign article was ordered because the Macro Facility accessory was unavailable at the time the foreign article was ordered (May 26, 1970).

The Department of Commerce knows of no other instrument or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign article, for such purposes as this article is intended to be used, which was being manufactured in the United States at the time the foreign article was ordered.

Manufacturer: Hitachi, Ltd., Japan. Intended use of article: The article is intended to be used for monitoring purity, cytochemical and ultrastructural studies and autoradiography wherever required in various research projects including:

(1) Subcellular fractions of brain nuclei and nervous tissues,
(2) Kidney and liver lysosomes,
(3) Brain subcellular fractions,
(4) Neurosecretory granule fractions from beef pituitary,
(5) Storage granules of beef adenohypophysins,

Comments: No comments have been received with respect to this application. Decision: Application approved. The most closely comparable domestic instrument is the Model EMU-4C electron microscope manufactured by the Forgflo Corp. The Model EMU-4C has a specified resolving capability of 5 angstroms. (The lower the numerical rating in terms of angstrom units, the better the resolving capability.) We are advised by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in its memorandum dated October 20, 1972, that the additional resolving capability of the foreign article is pertinent to the purposes for which the foreign article is intended to be used. EAGLE TERMINAL TANKERS, INC. AND SEA TRANSPORT CORP.

Notice of Multiple Applications

Notice is hereby given that the following corporations have filed application for an operating-differential subsidy contract to carry bulk cargoes to expire on June 30, 1973 (unless extended only for subsidized voyages in progress on that date). The bulk cargo carrying vessels proposed to be subsidized and the trades in which each proposes to engage are presented also.

Operator's name and address	Type of ship	Name of ship
Eagle Terminal Tankers, Inc., 250 Park Ave., New York, NY 10017.	Tanker.	SS Eagle Charger.
	...do.....	SS Eagle Leader.
	...do.....	SS Eagle Courier.
	...do.....	SS Eagle Transporter.
Sea Transport Corp., 250 Park Ave., New York, NY 10017.	...do.....	SS Eagle Traveler.
	...do.....	SS Eagle Voyager.

The foregoing applications may be inspected in the Office of the Secretary, Maritime Subsidy Board, Maritime Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C., during regular working hours.

These vessels are to engage in the carriage of export bulk raw and processed agricultural commodities in the foreign commerce of the United States (U.S.) from ports in the U.S. to ports in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (U.S.S.R.), or other permissible ports of discharge. Liquid and dry bulk cargoes may be carried from U.S.S.R. and other foreign ports inbound to U.S. ports during voyages subsidized for carriage of export bulk raw and processed agricultural commodities to the U.S.S.R.

Full details concerning the U.S.-U.S.S.R. export bulk raw and processed agricultural commodities subsidy program, including terms, conditions, and restrictions upon both the subsidized operators and vessels, appear in the regulations published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 21, 1972 (37 F.R. 22747).

For purposes of section 605(c), Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended (Act), it should be assumed that each vessel named will engage in the trades described on a full-time basis through June 30, 1973 (with extension to termination of approved subsidized voyages in progress on that date). Each voyage must be approved for subsidy before commencement of the voyage. The Maritime Subsidy Board (Board) will act on each request for a subsidized voyage as an administrative matter under the terms of the individual operating-differential subsidy contract for which there is no requirement for further notices under section 605(c) of the Act.

Any person having an interest in the granting of one or any of such applications and who would contest a finding of the Board that the service now provided by vessels of U.S. registry for the carriage of cargoes as previously specified is inadequate, must, on or before November 20, 1972, notify the Board's Secretary, in writing, of his interest and of his position, and file a petition for leave to intervene in accordance with the Board's rules of practice and procedure (46 CFR Part 201). Each such statement of interest and petition to intervene shall state whether a hearing is requested under section 605(c) of the Act and with as much specificity as possible the facts that the intervenor would undertake to prove at such hearing. Further, each such statement shall identify the applicant or applicants against which the intervention is lodged.

In the event a hearing under section 605(c) of the Act is ordered to be held with respect to any application(s), the purpose of such hearing will be to receive evidence relevant to (1) whether the application(s) hereinabove described is one with respect to vessels to be operated in an essential service, served by citizens of the U.S. which would be in addition to the existing service, or services, and if so, whether the service already provided by vessels of U.S. registry is inadequate and (2) whether in the accomplishment of the purposes and policy of the Act additional vessels should be operated thereon.

If no request for hearing and petition for leave to intervene is received within the specified time, or if the Board determines that petitions for leave to intervene filed within the specified time do not demonstrate sufficient interest to warrant a hearing, the Board will take such action as may be deemed appropriate.

By order of the Maritime Subsidy Board.

Dated: November 10, 1972.

Acting Secretary.

EAGLE TERMINAL TANKERS, INC. AND SEA TRANSPORT CORP.

Notice of Multiple Applications

Notice is hereby given that applications have been filed under the Merchant Marine Act of 1936, as amended, for operating-differential subsidy with respect to bulk cargo carrying service in the U.S. foreign trade, principally between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, to expire on June 30, 1973 (unless extended only for subsidized voyages in progress on that date). Inasmuch as the below listed applicants, and/or related persons or firms, employ ships in the domestic, intercoastal, or coastwise service, written permission of the Maritime Administration under section 805(a) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended will be required for each such applicant if its application for operating-differential subsidy is granted.

The following applicants have requested permission involving the domestic, intercoastal, or coastwide services described below:

Name of applicants:

Sea Transport Corp. (Sea Trans.)
Eagle Terminal Tankers, Inc. (Eagle)

Description of domestic service and vessels: The applicants, Sea Trans. and Eagle, affiliates of one another and of the owning company listed hereafter, have each requested written permission for the continuance of domestic, intercoastal, and coastwise service for the following vessels owned by each of the affiliates:

Ship:	Owner
Eagle Charger	Eagle.
Eagle Leader	Eagle.
Eagle Courier	Eagle.
Eagle Transporter	Eagle.
Eagle Traveler	Sea Trans.
Eagle Voyager	Sea Trans.
Nashbulk	Nashbulk, Inc.

Written permission is now required by the applicants (Sea Trans. and Eagle) notwithstanding that a voyage in the proposed service for which subsidy is sought would not be eligible for subsidy if the vessel carried domestic commerce of the United States on that voyage.

Interested parties may inspect these applications in the Office of the Secretary, Maritime Subsidy Board, Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce Building, 14th and E Streets NW., Washington, DC 20235.

Any person, firm, or corporation having any interest (within the meaning of section 805(a)) in any application and desiring to be heard on issues pertinent to section 805(a) or desiring to submit comments or views concerning the application must, by close of business on November 20, 1972, file same with the Maritime Subsidy Board/Maritime Administration, in writing, in triplicate, together with petition for leave to intervene which shall state clearly and concisely the grounds of interest, and the alleged facts relied on for relief.

If no petitions for leave to intervene are received within the specified time or if it is determined that petitions filed do not demonstrate sufficient interest to warrant a hearing, the Maritime Subsidy Board/Maritime Administration will take such action as may be deemed appropriate.

In the event petitions regarding the relevant section 805(a) issues are received from parties with standing to be heard, a hearing has been tentatively scheduled for 10 a.m., November 22, 1972, in Room 4896, Department of Commerce Building, 14th and E Streets NW., Washington, DC 20235. The purpose of the hearing will be to receive evidence under section 805(a) relative to whether the proposed operation (a) could result in unfair competition to any person, firm, or corporation operating exclusively in the coastwise or intercoastal services, or (b) would be prejudicial to the objects and policy of the Act.

By order of the Maritime Subsidy Board/Maritime Administration.

Dated: November 10, 1972.

Acting Secretary.

The following applicants have requested permission involving the domestic, intercoastal, or coastwise services described below:

Name of applicant: Freighters, Inc. (Freighters).

Description of domestic service and vessels: The applicant, Freighters, owns and operates the SS American Wheat, which vessel has from time to time tramped in the U.S. coastwise trade, particularly in the carriage of bulk sugar from the State of Hawaii to the U.S. Gulf, and has requested written permission to continue domestic coastwise service for that vessel.

Written permission is now required by the applicant, Freighters, notwithstanding that a voyage in the proposed service for which subsidy is sought would not be eligible for subsidy if the vessel carried domestic commerce of the United States on that voyage.

Name of applicant: American Rice Steamship Co. (Rice).

Description of domestic service and vessels: The same as for Freighters inasmuch as Freighters is the parent of Rice.

Written permission is required by this applicant (Rice) as a related company to Freighters.

Name of applicant: Mathiasen's Tanker Industries, Inc. (Mathiasen's).

Description of domestic service and vessels: The applicant, Mathiasen's, owns or charters a total of five vessels which are eligible to participate in domestic, coastwise, and intercoastal trades. These vessels are operated in tramp services. The applicant has requested written permission for the continuance of such domestic, coastwise, and intercoastal service for the following vessels owned or bareboat chartered by Mathiasen's:

Prairie Grove	Owned.
Tampico	Owned.
Joseph D. Potts	Bareboat chartered.
Sohio Intrepid	Bareboat chartered.
Sohio Resolute	Bareboat chartered.

Written permission is now required by the applicant, Mathiasen's, notwithstanding that a voyage in the proposed service for which subsidy is sought would not be eligible for subsidy if the vessels carried domestic commerce of the United States on that voyage.

Interested parties may inspect these applications in the Office of the Secretary, Maritime Subsidy Board, Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce Building, 14th and E Streets NW., Washington, D.C. 20235.

Any person, firm, or corporation having any interest (within the meaning of section 805(a)) in any application and desiring to be heard on issues pertinent to section 805(a) or desiring to submit comments or views concerning the application must, by close of business on November 20, 1972, file same with the Maritime Subsidy Board/Maritime Administration, in writing, in triplicate, together with petition for leave to intervene which shall state clearly and concisely the grounds of interest, and the alleged facts relied on for relief.

If no petitions for leave to intervene are received within the specified time or if it is determined that petitions filed do not demonstrate sufficient interest to warrant a hearing, the Maritime Subsidy Board/Maritime Administration will take such action as may be deemed appropriate.

In the event petitions regarding the relevant section 805(a) issues are received from parties with standing to be heard, a hearing has been tentatively scheduled for 10 a.m., November 22, 1972, in Room 4896, Department of Commerce Building, 14th and E Streets NW., Washington, D.C. 20235. DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Federal Aviation Administration

[OE Docket No. 71-SO-3]

REVIEW AND DETERMINATION OF HAZARD TO AIR NAVIGATION

Notice of Review of Determinations

The Federal Aviation Administration was notified by FAA Form 7460-1, Notice of Proposed Construction or Alteration, dated July 29, 1971, that WSUN, Inc., St. Petersburg, Fla., proposed the construction of a guyed television antenna tower 1,500 feet above ground level (AGL), 1,525 feet above mean sea level (AMSL). The proposed structure would be located near Parrish, Fla., at latitude 27°33'37" north, longitude 82°-21'54" west.

The FAA Southern Region, Atlanta, Ga., conducted an aeronautical study in accordance with Part 77 of the Federal Aviation Regulations. The aeronautical study was concluded on November 9, 1971, with the issuance of a Determination of No Hazard to Air Navigation (71-SO-798-OE).

The Administrator was petitioned for a review of the determination by the Air Line Pilots Association, the city of Lakeland, Fla., and the State of Florida, Department of Transportation. By notice issued January 18, 1972, the review was granted.

Responses to the notice granting a review were filed by the construction sponsor, individual pilots, and representatives for the Air Line Pilots Association, Sarasota-Bradenton Airport, Birdsong Tampa Downs Airport, Vandenberg Airport, Florida Flying Farmers, Inc., Florida Yankee, Inc., and the State of Florida, Department of Transportation.

The record shows that during the aeronautical study, the FAA Southern Regional Office circularized a notice concerning the proposal. Copies of the notice were sent to known interested persons inviting comment with respect to the effect the tower would have on aeronautical operations, procedures, and minimum flight altitudes. Nevertheless, many objections have been raised during the review that were not raised at the regional level.

Examination of the file, developed during the region's aeronautical study, revealed that objections received were aimed largely at the adverse effect the proposed tower would have on operations conducted in accordance with instrument flight rules. The objections pertaining to the effect on visual flight rules operations were general in nature with only one response containing supporting material. With respect to VFR operations, the study disclosed that the tower would be within 2 miles of a direct route between Sarasota and Lakeland. A survey conducted by the Sarasota Flight Service Station found an average of 14 flights daily along the route. It was concluded, however, that the proposed tower would not significantly add to the burden on the pilot since sufficient altitude or lateral clearance would be necessary in order to avoid an existing 1,549-foot AMSL tower located near the route.

The material received in response to the grant of review, contrary to that submitted during the regional study, focused on the effect the tower would have on visual flight rules operations. As a result, a much broader picture of the VFR operations in the Parrish, Fla., area was presented than was available in the aeronautical study. The overall picture of the traffic presented pertaining to the tower site was that it would be on a heavily traveled route between Sarasota and Lakeland but, of equal importance, as being in the primary corridor for local and transient aircraft operating north-south in the western part of the Florida peninsula. Pilots, airport operators, and other aviation interests reported that north-south VFR operations are channeled into this area because of the swamps on the east and the coastline with its congested areas and numerous large airports on the west.

In further support of the frequent use of the area, it was reported that at a spring meeting of the Florida Suncoast 99's, held at the Hidden River Airport, eight of the nine aircraft arriving passed the site of the proposed tower. Another pilot reported that he flew through the area weekly at an altitude of 1,000 to 1,500 feet. It was also reported that the 14 daily flights between Sarasota and Lakeland, disclosed in the aeronautical study, would actually be substantially larger as most pilots do not file flight plans for such flights. The opposition to the proposed tower location also results from its placing tall towers on both sides of the heavily traveled Sarasota-Lakeland route.

Local operators also reported that to avoid intermixing with the heavy commercial and military traffic, the VFR pilots found it advantageous to fly at the lower altitudes. That the lower altitudes are used in the area was attested to by the President of the Florida Flying Farmers, Inc., who stated that the tower would project into the north-south corridor and that aircraft operate in the corridor at altitudes of 1,000 and 2,000 feet.

It was also maintained that local pilot training is conducted in the corridor for the same reason that transient aircraft prefer to operate there. It is conceded that flight training may be conducted north or south of the proposed tower site, but that the tower would be in the heart of the corridor and would have a substantial adverse effect on that activity.

Finally, the weather and terrain were introduced as important factors to be considered in evaluating the effect of such a structure on VFR operations. It was said that the character of the terrain in the area of concern and on the Florida peninsula favors low altitude flight operations. In conjunction with the flat terrain the cloud formations throughout the year also influence and, to a large extent, require aircraft operating in accordance with VFR to fly at low altitudes where they are most affected by tall guyed towers.

With respect to IFR operations, the review disclosed that the increase from 1,600 to 2,500 feet in the procedure turn altitude for SIAP VOR runway 22, Sarasota-Bradenton Airport, would not increase the minimum descent altitude. Further, the increase from 2,000 feet to 2,500 feet in the minimum en route altitude between South Bay and Gibson Intersections on VOR Federal Airway 97–492 and the increase in the radar vectoring altitude from 1,700 to 2,500 MSL within 3 nautical miles of the structure would not compromise the flexibility of air traffic control. Therefore, it was found that the structure would not have a substantial adverse effect on IFR operations. As for the proposed regional airport, there were no plans on file with the FAA at the time the notice of proposed construction was filed. Accordingly, the airport was not subject to consideration in the review.

In summary, we find that the material received in response to the grant of review provided more adequate evidence concerning the nature of the area around the proposed tower with respect to VFR operations than was available in the regional consideration. The review disclosed that a substantial number of VFR operations are routinely conducted in the area, that these flights operate at altitudes that would be adversely affected by construction of the proposed tower and that there would be no positive means of circumnavigating the tower.

Based on the review, it is the finding of the FAA that the proposed television tower, because of its adverse effect on VFR operations, would have a substantial adverse effect upon the safe and efficient use of the navigable airspace. Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (30 F.R. 13023), the regional determination of no hazard (71–SO–798–OE) is hereby reversed, and a final Determination of Hazard to Air Navigation is hereby entered in accordance with § 77.37 of the Federal Aviation Regulations, with respect to the proposal by WSUN, Inc., to construct a television tower to a height 1,500 feet AGL (1,525 feet AMSL), at latitude 27°33'37" north, longitude 82°21'54" west.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on November 1, 1972.

COMMITTEE FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF TEXTILE AGREEMENTS

CERTAIN COTTON TEXTILE PRODUCTS PRODUCED OR MANUFACTURED IN GHANA

Entry or Withdrawal From Warehouse for Consumption

NOVEMBER 10, 1972.

On September 13, 1972, the U.S. Government requested the Government of Ghana to enter into consultations under Articles 3 and 6(c) of the Long-Term Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Cotten Textiles done at Geneva on February 9, 1962, concerning exports to the United States of cotton textile products in Category 22 produced or manufactured in Ghana. Public notice of this request was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 23, 1972 (37 F.R. 20050). Since no solution has been mutually agreed upon, the U.S. Government, in furtherance of the objectives of, and under the terms of the Long-Term Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Cotton Textiles done at Geneva on February 9, 1962, including Articles 3 and 6(c), which relate to nonparticipants, is establishing a restraint at the requested level of 440,000 square yards for the period beginning September 13, 1972, and extending through September 12, 1973. This restraint does not apply to cotton textile products in Category 22, produced or manufactured in Ghana and exported to the United States prior to September 13, 1972.

There is published below a letter of November 10, 1972, from the chairman of the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements to the Commissioner of Customs, directing that the amount of cotton textile products in Category 22, produced or manufactured in Ghana, which may be entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption in the United States for the 12-month period beginning September 13, 1972, be limited to 440,000 square yards.

STANLEY NEHMER,
Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements, and Deputy Assistant Secretary and Director, Bureau of Resources and Trade Assistance.

COMMITTEE FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF TEXTILE AGREEMENTS

COMMISSIONER OF CUSTOMS,
Department of the Treasury,
Washington, D.C. 20226.

NOVEMBER 10, 1972.

DEAR MR. COMMISSIONER: Under the terms of the long-term arrangement regarding International Trade in Cotton Textiles done at Geneva on February 9, 1962, including Article 6(c) thereof relating to nonparticipants, and in accordance with the procedures of Executive Order 11651 of March 3, 1972, you are directed to prohibit, effective as soon as possible, and for the 12-month period beginning September 13, 1972, and extending through September 12, 1973, entry into the United States for consumption and withdrawal from warehouse for consumption, of cotton textile products in Category 22, produced or manufactured in Ghana, in excess of a level of restraint for the period of 440,000 square yards.[1]

Entries of cotton textile products in Category 22, produced or manufactured in Ghana and which have been exported to the United States from Ghana prior to September 13, 1972, shall not be subject to this directive.

Cotton textile products in Category 22 which have been released from the custody of the Bureau of Customs under the provisions of 19 U.S.C. 1448(b) prior to the effective date of this directive shall not be denied entry under this directive.

A detailed description of Category 22 in terms of T.S.U.S.A. numbers was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 29, 1972 (37 F.R. 8802).

In carrying out the above directions, entry into the United States for consumption shall be construed to include entry for consumption into the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

The actions taken with respect to the Government of Ghana and with respect to imports of cotton textile products from Ghana have been determined by the Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements to involve foreign affairs functions of the United States. Therefore, the directions to the Commissioner of Customs, being necessary to the implementation of such actions, fall within the foreign affairs exception to the rule making provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553. This letter will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Notice to Licensees and Operators of Ship

OCTOBER 31, 1972.

The Commission has exempted public coast station KCC, Corpus Christi, Tex., from the requirement for maintenance of a watch on the frequency 2182 kHz for an initial period of 1 year from October 6, 1972.

This action was taken with the concurrence of the U.S. Coast Guard at the request of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., the licensee of station KCC. Application by the Telephone Co., was made pursuant to § 81.191(c)(1) of the Commission's rules, which provides that any coast station may be exempted from this watch requirement if the Commission considers that the frequency 2182 kHz is adequately guarded by other stations. The U.S. Coast Guard radio facilities in the Port Aransas, Tex., and Port Isabel, Tex., areas maintain a continuous watch on 2182 kHz and have been shown, as a result of cooperative measurements and tests conducted by the Coast Guard and the Telephone Co., to have a coverage on 2182 kHz equal to or greater than the existing coverage of station KCC.

The exemption has been limited to a 1-year period, ending October 6, 1973, in order to afford the licensees of affected ship stations an opportunity to evaluate the discontinuance of the watch by station KCC under actual operating conditions.

Any interested person who is of the opinion that the continuance of the above-mentioned exemption beyond October 6, 1973, is not in the public interest, may file with the Secretary, Federal

ARKANSAS LOUISIANA GAS CO.

Proposed Changes in Rates and Charges

NOVEMBER 9, 1972.

Take notice that on October 26, 1972, Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. (Ark-La) tendered for filing proposed changes in its FPC gas tariff, Original Volume No. 3, to become effective November 26, 1972. The proposed changes would increase jurisdictional revenues by approximately $200,000 annually to Cities Service Gas Co. (Cities) under Rate Schedule X-26 based on sales made to Cities during the 12-month period ended September 30, 1972.

Ark-La states that the increase in price from 23.45¢ to 24.27¢ per Mcf is based entirely on its increase in the cost of purchased gas and is in accordance with the aforementioned rate schedule which is contractual in form.

Copies of the filing were served upon Cities Service Gas Co., the only customer taking service under Rate Schedule No. X-26.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before November 16, 1972. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

UNITED GAS PIPE LINE CO. ET AL.

Petition for Declaratory Order, Order Directing Compliance, and Motion for Consolidation

NOVEMBER 8, 1972.

Take notice that on November 2, 1972, United Gas Pipe Line Co. (Petitioner) filed in Docket No. CP73-123, pursuant to § 1.7(c) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and section 554 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, a petition for declaratory order and for order directing compliance, requesting the Commission to order Humble Oil & Refining Co. (Humble) and Isaac Arnold, et al. (Arnold) to desist from reducing deliveries to Petitioner under a 1958 contract, as amended in 1963, between Humble and Arnold as sellers, and Petitioner as buyer, all as more fully set forth in the petition which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Concurrently, Petitioner filed a motion for consolidation of the instant docket with the previously consolidated proceedings in Texas Gas Exploration Corp., Docket No. CI72-674, Gulf Oil Corp., Docket No. CI62-965, and Southern Natural Gas Co., Docket No. CP73-72.

At issue in the above-mentioned consolidated proceedings are contractual rights to the gas produced from the Garden City Field, St. Mary Parish, La., which gas is the subject of the petition for declaratory order filed by Petitioner herein.

It appears reasonable and consistent with the public interest in this case to prescribe a period shorter than 15 days for the filing of protests and petitions to intervene. Therefore, any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before November 20, 1972, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

BANK OF IDAHO

Order Approving Application for Merger of Banks

Bank of Idaho, Boise, Idaho (Boise Bank, a member State bank of the Federal Reserve System, has applied for the Board's approval pursuant to the Bank Merger Act (12 U.S.C. 1828(c)) of the merger of that bank with Cassia National Bank, Burley, Idaho (Cassia Bank), under the charter and title of Boise Bank. As an incident to the merger, the three present offices of Cassia Bank and an approved but unopened branch would become branches of the resulting bank.

As required by the Act, notice of the proposed merger, in form approved by the Board, has been published, and the Board has requested reports on competitive factors from the Attorney General, the Comptroller of the Currency, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The Department of Justice commented on the proposed transaction, concluding that it might have an adverse competitive effect. Justice stated that it believed that the merger would not eliminate any significant existing competition. However, Justice declared that Boise Bank would be eliminated as the most likely potential entrant into the Burley area and, further, that acquisition of Cassia Bank by Boise Bank would lead to further concentration at the statewide level. Boise Bank responded to Justice's comments by arguing that the Burley area was unattractive for de novo entry. Moreover, Boise Bank stated that the proposed merger could enhance competition in the Burley area by making Cassia Bank a more positive competitive force. Boise Bank concluded by indicating its belief that consummation of the merger would have little effect on statewide concentration and would not serve as a precedent for future mergers that might lead to undue concentration in Idaho.

The Board has considered the application and all comments and reports received in the light of the factors set forth in the Act, and finds that:

Boise Bank (deposits of about $205 million) operates 25 banking offices throughout Idaho and controls about 12 percent of the deposits of commercial banks in the State. (Boise Bank is a subsidiary of Western Bancorporation which, as of March 31, 1972, controlled 23 banks in 11 Western States with aggregate resources of $13.1 billion.) Acquisition of Cassia Bank (deposits of about $15 million) would add about 1 percent of Boise Bank's share of statewide deposits and would not result in a significant increase in the concentration of banking resources in Idaho.[1]

Cassia Bank ranks third among four banks in Burley, as measured by area deposits, with approximately 22 percent of such deposits. There is no existing substantial competition between Boise Bank and Cassia Bank, nor does there seem to be a reasonable probability of significant potential competition developing between the two. The closest banking office of Boise Bank to the Burley area is about 39 miles away and there are banks in the intervening area. The closest banking office of Boise Bank to Lava Hot Springs, where Cassia Bank has a branch, is 38 miles north and west of Lava Hot Springs in Pocatello. The area between Pocatello and Lava Hot Springs is sparsely populated and is not an attractive area for an additional bank or branch. Boise Bank has attempted within the last 2 years to establish a de novo branch in Burley, but was turned down by the Board due to the Board's belief that the Burley area could not economically support an additional banking office. Subsequent to the Board's decision, an additional branch by another banking organization was established in Burley so that it seems even more unlikely now that Boise Bank would be permitted to establish a de novo branch in Burley. Because of these several factors the Board concludes that the merger would not have an adverse effect upon competition in any relevant area.

The financial and managerial resources of Boise Bank are generally satisfactory, and the prospects for the resulting bank appear favorable, particularly in light of Boise Bank's commitment to add $4 million in equity capital within the next 4 months. Considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the communities to be served lend some weight toward approval since Boise Bank plans to considerably expand real estate loans in the Burley area, a service that Cassia Bank has not provided to a significant degree. Based upon the foregoing it is the Board's judgment that consummation of the proposal would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above.[2] The transaction shall not be consummated: (a) Before the 30th calendar day following the effective date of this order, or (b) later than 3 months after the effective date of this order, unless such period is extended for good cause by the Board, or by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco pursuant to delegated authority.

FIRST AT ORLANDO CORP.

Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

First at Orlando Corp., Orlando, Fla., a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire 90 percent or more of the voting shares of Community National Bank & Trust Co., Bal Harbour, Fla. (Bank).

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and none has been timely received. The Board has considered the application in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant controls 26 banks with aggregate deposits of $904.6 million, representing 5.6 percent of the deposits held by commercial banks in Florida. (All banking data are as of December 31, 1971, and reflect holding company formations and acquisitions approved by the Board through August 31, 1972.) Applicant has three subsidiary banks (aggregate deposits of $88.6 million) located in the Miami banking market, approximated by Dade County and the southern third of Broward County, and holds 2.2 percent of the total commercial bank deposits therein. Applicant presently ranks as the 12th largest of the 50 banking organizations in the Miami market. Bank ($42.6 million in deposits) also operates in the Miami banking market and holds 1 percent of total market deposits, thereby ranking as the 27th largest of the 90 banks in the market and 22d largest of the 50 banking organizations in the market. Upon consummation of the proposed transaction, Applicant would become the market's eighth largest banking organization and would control 3.3 percent of deposits therein. Applicant's subsidiary bank closest to Bank is located in downtown Miami, 14 miles southwest of Bank. The service areas of the two banks slightly overlap; however, it does not appear that a significant amount of existing competition would be eliminated by consummation of the proposed transaction.

Although the three largest banking organizations in the Miami market control approximately 41 percent of the deposits in that market, there are, in addition to Bank, 28 unaffiliated banks, including five, each with deposits exceeding $35 million, operating in the market. As each of these is a vehicle for potential entry, removal of Bank as an alternative means of entry is not likely to significantly lessen opportunities for other bank hold-

of these is a vehicle for potential entry, removal of Bank as an alternative means of entry is not likely to significantly lessen opportunities for other bank holding companies, not represented in the market to enter the Miami area. Furthermore, consummation of the proposed transaction is unlikely to have an adverse effect on potential competition in the market due to the existence of several banks in the intervening areas between Bank and Applicant's subidiaries, Florida's restrictive branching laws, and the existence of Biscayne Bay physically separating Bank from Applicant's Miami subsidiaries. On the basis of the foregoing and the facts of record, the Board concludes that the competitive considerations with respect to Applicant's proposal are consistent with approval of the application.

The financial conditions of Applicant and its subsidiaries are considered to be generally satisfactory in view of Applicant's commitment to increase the equity capital positions of certain of its subsidiary banks. (See Board's order of September 26, 1972, approving Applicant's applications to acquire shares of The City Bank & Trust Co., of St. Petersburg and the Suncoast City Bank of St. Petersburg.) The managerial resources and future prospects of Applicant and its subsidiaries are considered satisfactory and consistent with approval of the application. The same conclusions apply generally with respect to the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Bank. The banking needs of the communities are being adequately served at present, and consummation of the proposed transaction would not result in the availability of any new services. However, consummation is expected to enhance Bank's ability to compete with the larger banking organizations operating in the market. Accordingly, considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the communities to be served are consistent with approval of the application. It is the Board's judgment that consummation of the proposed transaction would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be consummated: (a) Before the 30th calendar day following the effective date of this order, or (b) later than 3 months after the effective date of this order, unless such period is extended for good cause by the Board, or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta pursuant to delegated authority.

NEW JERSEY NATIONAL CORP.

Proposed Acquisition of Underwood Mortgage & Title Co.

New Jersey National Corp., Trenton, N.J., has applied, pursuant to section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and § 225.4(b)(2) of the Board's Regulation Y, for permission to acquire all of the outstanding voting shares of Underwood Mortgage & Title Co., Irvington, N.J. Notice of the application was published on September 27, 1972, in the Star Ledger, a newspaper circulated in Irvington, N. J.

Applicant states that the proposed subsidiary would engage in the activities of making and acquiring, for its own account or for the account of others, loans and other extensions of credit principally secured by mortgages. Such activities have been specified by the Board in § 225.4(a) of Regulation Y as permissible for bank holding companies, subject to Board approval of individual proposals in accordance with the procedures of § 225.4(b).

The applicant further states that the proposed subsidiary would engage in the activity of acting as insurance agent or broker in offices at which the holding company or its subsidiaries are otherwise engaged in business with respect to (1) insurance for the holding company or its subsidiaries; (2) insurance directly related to an extension of credit or the provision of other financial services by the holding company or its subsidiaries; and (3) insurance otherwise sold as a matter of convenience to the purchaser. Under certain circumstances specified in the Board's interpretation (12 CFR 225.128) of § 225.4(a)(9) of Regulation Y, such activities may be permissible for bank holding companies, subject to Board approval of individual proposals in accordance with the procedures of § 225.4(b).

Interested persons may express their views on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any request for a hearing on this question should be accompanied by a statement summarizing the evidence the person requesting the hearing proposes to submit or to elicit at the hearing and a statement of the reasons why this matter should not be resolved without a hearing.

The application may be inspected at the offices of the Board of Governors or at the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia.

ADVISORY COUNCIL ON HISTORIC PRESERVATION

NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES

Protection of Properties; Procedures for Compliance

Pursuant to the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (80 Stat. 915, 16 U.S.C. 470), the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation has undertaken steps to implement the purposes of that Act through the revision of Procedures for Compliance previously set forth in paragraphs II A through C (37 F.R. 5430) of the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 15, 1972. In addition, the role and functions of the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation have been more clearly defined. Proposed revisions and clarifications were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 15, 1972 (37 F.R. 14007) and 30 days were allowed for comment.

It is the purpose of this notice, through publication of the revised procedures, to apprise the public as well as governmental agencies, associations, and all other organizations and individuals interested in historic preservation, that the following procedures are hereby adopted as set forth below and will take effect 30 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Inquiries regarding the substance of, and compliance with, the procedures should be directed to the Executive Secretary, Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, Suite 430, 1522 K Street NW., Washington, DC 20005.

THOMAS FLYNN,
Executive Director, Advisory Council on Historic Preservation.

PROTECTION OF PROPERTIES IN THE NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES

Introduction. The National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 created the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, an independent agency of the Executive branch of the Federal Government, to advise the President and Congress on matters involving historic preservation. Its members are the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, the Secretary of Treasury, the Secretary of Commerce, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Transportation, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Administrator of the General Services Administration, the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, the Chairman of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and 10 citizen members selected on the basis of their outstanding service in the field of historic preservation.

The Council is authorized to review and comment upon undertakings carried out, licensed, or financially assisted by the Federal Government which have an effect upon properties listed on the National Register; to recommend measures to coordinate activities of Federal, State, and local agencies and private institutions and individuals relating to historic preservation; and to secure from the appropriate Federal agencies certain information necessary to the performance of these duties.

I. PROCEDURES FOR COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 106

The Council exercises an important function by reviewing and commenting upon undertakings carried out, licensed, or financially assisted by the Federal Government when the undertaking will affect a property listed on the National Register. This authority derives from section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act, which provides that:

> The head of any Federal agency having direct or indirect jurisdiction over a proposed Federal or federally assisted undertaking in any State and the head of any Federal department or independent agency having authority to license any undertaking shall, prior to the approval of the expenditure of any Federal funds on the undertaking or prior to the issuance of any license, as the case may be, take into account the effect of the undertaking on any district, site, building, structure, or object that is included in the National Register. The head of any such Federal agency shall afford the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation established under Title II of this Act a reasonable opportunity to comment with regard to such undertaking.

The Advisory Council desires to provide maximum assistance to Federal agencies in connection with section 106. Normally the Council anticipates that its comments will be required in only the most complex situations, and it requests that Federal agencies fulfill their obligations under section 106 by the use of the following procedures:

PROCEDURES FOR COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 106 NATIONAL HISTORIC PRESERVATION ACT OF 1966

The Advisory Council on Historic Preservation hereby establishes the following procedures for agencies of the Federal Government having direct or indirect jurisdiction or authority over a Federal or federally financed or licensed undertaking for compliance with section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966.

A. Definitions. As used in these procedures:

1. "National Historic Preservation Act" means Public Law 89-665, approved October 15, 1966, an "Act to establish a program for the preservation of additional historic properties throughout the Nation and for other purposes," 80 Stat. 915, 16 U.S.C. 470, hereinafter referred to as "the Act."

2. "Undertaking" means any Federal action, activity, or program, or the approval, sanction, assistance, or support of any other action, activity, or program, such as the issuance of a license or permit, the granting of funds, or the development or funding of master or regional plans.

3. "National Register" means the National Register of Historic Places, which is a register of districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects, significant in American history, architecture, archeology, and culture, maintained by the Secretary of the Interior under authority of section 2(b) of the Historic Sites Act of 1935 (49 Stat. 666, 16 U.S.C. 461) and section 101(a)(1) of the National Historic Preservation Act. The National Register is published in its entirety in the FEDERAL REGISTER each year in February. Addenda are published monthly.

4. "National Register Property" means a district, site, building, structure, or object, listed in the National Register.

5. "National Register Criteria" means the following criteria established by the Secretary of the Interior for use in evaluating and determining the eligibility of properties for listing in the National Register:

The quality of significance in American history, architecture, archeology, and culture, is present in districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects of State and local importance that possess integrity of location, design, setting, materials, workmanship, feeling and association and:

a. That are associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our history; or

b. That are associated with the lives of persons significant in our past; or

c. That embody the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction, or that represent the work of a master, or that possess high artistic values, or that represent a significant and distinguishable entity whose components may lack individual distinction; or

d. That have yielded, or may be likely to yield, information important in prehistory or history.

Criteria considerations. Ordinarily cemeteries, birthplaces, or graves of historical figures, properties owned by religious institutions or used for religious purposes, structures that have been moved from their original locations, reconstructed historic buildings, properties primarily commemorative in nature, and properties that have achieved significance within the past 50 years shall not be considered eligible for the National Register. However, such properties will qualify if they are integral parts of districts that do meet the criteria or if they fall within the following categories:

(1) A religious property deriving primary significance from architectural or artistic distinction or historical importance.

(2) A building or structure removed from its original location but which is significant primarily for architectural value, or which is the surviving structure most importantly associated with a historic person or event.

(3) A birthplace or grave of a historical figure of outstanding importance if there is no appropriate site or building directly associated with his productive life.

(4) A cemetery which derives its primary significance from graves of persons of transcendent importance, from age, from distinctive design features, or from association with historic events.

(5) A reconstructed building when accurately executed in a suitable environment and presented in a dignified manner as part of a restoration master plan, and when no other building or structure with the same association has survived.

(6) A property primarily commemorative in intent if design, age, tradition, or symbolic value has invested it with its own historical significance.

(7) A property achieving significance within the past 50 years if it is of exceptional importance.

6. "Criteria for Effect" means the following criteria established by the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation for use in determining the effect of an undertaking upon a National Register property:

A federally financed or licensed undertaking shall be considered to have an effect on a National Register listing (districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects, including their settings) when any condition of the undertaking causes or may cause any change in the quality of the historical, architectural, archeological, or cultural character that qualified the property under the National Register criteria for listing in the National Register.

Generally, adverse effects occur under conditions which include but are not limited to:

a. Destruction or alteration of all or part of a property;

b. Isolation from or alteration of its surrounding environment;

c. Introduction of visual, audible, or atmospheric elements that are out of character with the property and its setting.

7. "Agency Official" means the head of the Federal Agency having responsibility for the undertaking or a subordinate employee of the Federal Agency to whom authority with respect to the evaluation of the effect of the proposed undertaking has been delegated.

8. "Executive Director" means the Executive Director of the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation established by Section 205 of the Act, or his designated representative.

9. "State Liaison Officer" means the official within each State, authorized by the State at the request of the Secretary of the Interior, to act as liaison for purposes of implementing the Act, or his designated representative.

B. Agency procedures—1. Consideration of effect. At the earliest stage of planning or consideration of a proposed undertaking, including master and regional planning, the Agency Official shall: (a) Consult the National Register to determine if a National Register property is invoved in the undertaking; and (b) upon finding involvement, apply the "Criteria for Effect." Upon applying the criteria and finding no effect, the undertaking may proceed.

2. Effect established. Upon finding that the undertaking will have an effect upon a National Register property, the Agency Official shall: (a) Notify the State Liaison Officer and the Executive Director; and (b) in joint consultation with them, determine whether or not the effect will be adverse.

3. Finding of no adversity. Upon finding the effect not to be adverse, the Agency Official, the State Liaison Officer and the Executive Director shall execute a joint memorandum acknowledging no adversity and forward the document to the Chairman of the Advisory Council for review pursuant to section C(1).

4. Finding of adversity. If any of the consulting parties find the effect to be adverse, the Agency Official shall consult further with the State Liaison Officer and the Executive Director to determine whether there is a feasible and prudent alternative to remove or satisfactorily mitigate the adverse effect.

5. Removal of adversity. If the Agency Official, the State Liaison Officer, and the Executive Director select and unanimously agree upon a feasible and prudent alternative to remove the adverse effect of the undertaking, they shall execute a joint memorandum acknowledging no adversity. This document shall be forwarded to the Chairman of the Advisory Council for review pursuant to section C(1).

6. Mitigation of adversity. If the consulting parties are unable to unanimously agree upon a feasible and prudent alternative to remove the adversity, the Agency Official shall consult with the State Liaison Officer and the Executive Director to determine whether there is a feasible and prudent alternative to satisfactorily mitigate the adverse effect of the undertaking. Upon finding and unanimously agreeing to such an alternative, they shall execute a joint memorandum acknowledging satisfactory mitigation of effect. This document shall be forwarded to the Chairman of the Advisory Council for review pursuant to section C(1).

7. Failure to remove or mitigate adversity. Upon the failure of the consulting parties to find and unanimously agree upon a feasible and prudent alternative to remove or satisfactorily mitigate the adverse effect, the Agency Official shall delay further processing of the undertaking and provide written notice affording the Advisory Council an opportunity to comment upon the proposed undertaking. Such notice shall include a record of the status of the proposal in the planning and funding sequence and an account of actions taken in accordance with the Procedures for Compliance. Upon request, the Agency Official shall submit a report of the undertaking to the Advisory Council.

C. Council procedures—1. Review of joint memorandum. Upon receipt from the Agency Official of a joint memorandum acknowledging either no adversity or satisfactory mitigation of effect, the Chairman of the Council shall review the content of the document. Unless the Chairman, or in his absence a citizen member of the Council appointed by the membership for this purpose, shall notify the Agency Official that the matter has been placed on the agenda of the Council for final review and comment, the joint memorandum shall become final in 30 days and the undertaking may proceed. The Chairman, or in his absence the Council's appointee, may waive all or part of the 30-day review period by notice to the Agency Official, at which time the joint memorandum shall become final and the undertaking may proceed.

2. Preliminary action on notice affording opportunity for comment. Upon receipt of a written notice from an agency affording the Advisory Council an opportunity to comment pursuant to section B(7) of these procedures, the notice shall be acknowledged and a 30-day review period instituted during which:

a. It shall be determined whether the Procedures for Compliance have been observed;

b. The Federal Agency, the State Liaison Officer and the Executive Director shall provide such information as may be requested by the Council; and

c. The Chairman, or in his absence the Council's appointee under section C(1), shall determine whether or not the Council will comment. If the Council decides not to comment, the undertaking may proceed.

3. Decision to comment. Upon determination to comment upon an undertaking, the Council shall:

a. Schedule the matter for consideration at a regular meeting no less than 60 days from the date the notice was received, or in exceptional cases, schedule the matter for consideration in an unassembled or special meeting;

b. Notify the Federal Agency of the date on which comments will be considered; and

c. Authorize preparation of a section 106 report.

4. Content of section 106 report. For purposes of arriving at comments under section 106 of the Act, the Advisory Council prescribes that certain reports be made available to it and accepts reports and statements from other interested parties. Specific informational requirements are enumerated below. Generally, the requirements represent an explication or elaboration of principles contained in the "Criteria for Effect." The Council notes, however, the Act recognizes that historical and cultural resources should be preserved "as a living part of our community life and development." Consequently, in arriving at final comments, the Council considers those elements in an undertaking that have revelance beyond historical and cultural concerns. To assist it in weighing the public interest, the Council welcomes information not only bearing upon physical, sensory, or esthetic effects but information concerning economic, social, and other benefits or detriments that will result from the undertaking.

5. Elements of the section 106 report. The report on which the Council relies for comment shall consist of:

a. A report from the Executive Director to include a verification of the legal and historical status of the National Register property; an assessment of the historical, architectural, archeological, or cultural significance of the National Register property; a statement indicating the special value of features to be most affected; a description of the undertaking's adverse effects; and a description of the Federal Agency's efforts to avoid, reduce, or mitigate adverse effects.

b. Comments of the State Liaison Officer.

c. Comments of the Federal Agency.

d. Any other information deemed necessary or appropriate to the Council's comment.

6. Comment. Comments of the Council shall be transmitted to the Federal Agency, the Agency Official shall submit a written report to the Council containing: (a) A description of actions taken by the Federal Agency subsequent

e. Other pertinent reports, statements, correspondence, transcripts, minutes, and documents, received by the Council from any and all parties, public or private.

6. Report by recivient or potential recipient. When the Federal Agency requests comment upon an application for funds, a grant, or license or some other form of Federal approval, sanction, assistance, or support, the Council will welcome the submission and presentation of a report by the applicant or potential recipient. Arrangements for the submission and presentation of reports by applicants or potential recipients should be made through the Federal Agency having jurisdiction in the matter.

7. Coordination of section 106 reports and statements.

a. In considerations involving, either directly or indirectly, more than one Federal department, the agency requesting comment shall act as a coordinator in arranging for a full assessment and discussion of all interdepartmental facets of the problem and prepare a record of such coordination to be made available to the Council.

b. The Council may request the State Liaison Officer or other State officials to accept the responsibility for notifying appropriate governmental units and public and private organizations within the State of the pending comments of the Council, and to coordinate the presentation of written statements to the Council.

8. Council meetings. The Council will not hold formal hearings on section 106 matters. All meetings will be open except as otherwise ordered by the Chairman. Regular meetings of the Council occur on the first Wednesday and Thursday of February, May, August, and November.

9. Oral statements to the Council. A schedule shall provide for oral statements from the Executive Director; the referring Federal Agency presently or potentially involved; the recipient or potential recipient; the State Liaison Officer; and representatives of national, State, or local units of government and public and private organizations. The Council requests that parties wishing to make oral remarks submit written statements of position in advance to the Council staff.

10. Comments by the Council. The comments of the Council shall take the form of a three-part statement, including an introduction, findings, and a conclusion. The statement shall include notice to the Federal Agency of the report required under section C(11) of these procedures. Comments shall be made to the head of the Federal Agency requesting comment or having responsibility in the matter. Immediately thereafter, the comments of the Council will be forwarded to the President and the Congress as a special report under authority of section 202(b) of the Act and published as soon as possible in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

11. Report of agency action in response to Council comments. When a final decision on the undertaking is reached by the Federal Agency, the Agency Official shall submit a written report to the Council containing: (a) A description of actions taken by the Federal Agency subsequent to the Council's comments; (b) a description of actions taken by other parties pursuant to the actions of the Federal Agency; and (c) the ultimate effect of such actions on the National Register property involved. The Council may request supplementary reports if the nature of the undertaking requires them.

12. Records of the Council. The records of the Council shall consist of an oral transcript of the proceedings at each meeting, the section 106 report prepared by the Executive Director, and all other reports, statements, transcripts, correspondence, and documents received. Records shall be maintained in the office of the Council.

13. Continuing review jurisdiction. When the Council has formally commented pursuant to sections C(2) through C(10) or has approved a joint memorandum pursuant to section C(1) concerning an undertaking, such as a master plan, which by its nature requires subsequent action by the Federal Agency, the Council will consider its comments or approval to extend only to the undertaking as reviewed. The Agency Official shall insure that subsequent action related to the undertaking is submitted to the Council for review in accordance with these procedures when that action is found to have an effect on a National Register property.

II. OTHER POWERS OF THE COUNCIL

A. Comment or report upon non-Federal undertaking. The Council will exercise the broader advisory powers, vested by section 202(a)(1) of the Act, to comment or report upon a non-Federal undertaking that will adversely affect a National Register property or any other property determined by the Secretary of the Interior to meet the National Register criteria: (1) Upon request from the President of the United States, the President of the U.S. Senate, or the Speaker of the House of Representatives, or (2) when agreed upon by a unanimous vote of the members of the Council.

B. Comment or report upon Federal undertaking in special circumstances. The Council will exercise its broader advisory powers by commenting to Federal agencies in certain special situations even though written notice that an undertaking will have an effect has not been received. For example, the Council may choose to comment in situations where an objection is made to a Federal Agency finding of "no effect."

Chapter I—Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior

SUBCHAPTER N—METAL AND NONMETALLIC MINE SAFETY

PART 58—NOTIFICATION, INVESTIGATION, REPORTS AND RECORDS OF ACCIDENTS, INJURIES AND OCCUPATIONAL ILLNESSES IN METAL AND NONMETAL MINES

In accordance with the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior under section 13 of the Federal Metal and Nonmetallic Mine Safety Act (Public Law 89–577, 30 U.S.C. 732) to require operators of mines which are subject to the Act to submit, at least annually and at such other times as the Secretary deems necessary, and in such form as he may prescribe, mandatory reports of accidents, injuries, and occupational diseases or illnesses, and related data, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on Friday, May 5, 1972 (37 F.R. 9125–9128), a notice of proposed rule making which provided for operators of all metal and nonmetallic mines subject to the Act to report directly to the Bureau of Mines an accident, injury, and occupational disease or illness, and related data, so that the Secretary may study and analyze mine health and safety conditions on the basis of accurate and comprehensive data for such purposes as evaluating the progress being made toward improved mine health and safety, framing recommendations for policies to accelerate such progress, or deciding upon which segments of the metal and nonmetallic mining industry or which individual mining operations to concentrate special inspection, enforcement, and training efforts.

Interested persons were afforded a period of 45 days from the date of publication of the notice within which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections to the Director, Bureau of Mines. In addition, interested persons could examine or obtain copies from the Bureau of Mines of the proposed Forms 6–1555 (Metal-Nonmetal Injury and Illness Report) and 6–1556 (Metal-Nonmetal Quarterly Employment Report) and, respectively, Forms 6–1555–S and 6–1556–S for use in States which have State plan agreements in effect.

A draft of Part 58 was presented to the Metal and Nonmetal Mine Safety Advisory Committee for review and comment in March 1972. After publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, public information meetings were held between June 5 and 15 in seven selected cities throughout the United States. The purpose of these meetings was to allow the metal and nonmetallic mining industry, including representatives of trade associations and unions, an opportunity to discuss proposed Part 58 with Bureau representatives. As a result of the solicitation of comments in the notice of proposed rule making, from the Metal and Nonmetal Mine Safety Advisory Committee, and by Bureau personnel during the area meetings, written and oral comments, suggestions and objections were received. All of the comments, suggestions, and objections have been given careful consideration.

The Federal Metal and Nonmetallic Mine Safety Act covers underground and surface mines and mills. There are many mining companies throughout the Nation which combine mining and manufacturing and are subject to dual inspection and reporting requirements by the Department of the Interior and the Department of Labor under the Williams-Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (Public Law 91–596, 29 U.S.C. 651, et seq.) Section 24 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act provides for a broad statistical program which extends to employees to whom enforcement provisions of that Act do not apply. Therefore, the requirement that an employer must comply with the recordkeeping, reporting, and enforcement provisions under the Metal and Nonmetallic Mine Safety Act does not necessarily mean that the mine would not be subject to the reporting requirements under the Occupational Safety and Health Act. The recordkeeping and reporting requirements under the new Part 58 are essential to the Bureau of Mines program of health and safety analysis and special studies of all metal and nonmetallic mining and milling operations. All data obtained under Subpart D is to be processed and entered into a computerized data base. Since the injury information reported to the Department of Labor on the Occupational Safety and Health forms lacks the accident analysis data to be obtained by the Department of the Interior on the Bureau of Mines forms, the Bureau cannot use the Department of Labor reports. However, representatives of the Bureau of Mines have consulted with representatives of the Department of Labor in an effort to develop uniform terms and definitions. In certain instances the Bureau of mines will gather data which the Department of Labor desires and, in so doing, the Department of the Interior will furnish the Department of Labor with information the Department of Labor needs and requires in their statistics. This effort to achieve uniform definitions and form coordination is directed toward eliminating duplicate reporting and the need for the Department of Labor to contact the operators of mines and mills directly in order to secure accident, injury and illness information under the Occupational Safety and Health Act.

In response to the comments, suggestions, and objections received, the following changes in proposed Part 58 have been made:

1. In Subpart A, § 58.2 Definitions, the definition of an "accident" in paragraph (b)(1) has been expanded to include "illness" which is defined in paragraph (j). This change was made to clarify the fact that the term "accident" which is used throughout this part includes both injuries and illnesses.

Paragraph (b)(2) of § 58.2 and paragraph (b) of § 58.11 have been modified to correspond with recommendations, comments, and suggestions received, that operators immediately report to the Secretary any outbreak of fire that endangers human life or a fire underground which is not brought under control within 30 minutes.

The proposed definitions of injury and illness in paragraphs (g) through (l) have been modified and rearranged. By redefining "Nonfatal injury," the definitions of "Other injury," "Disabling injury" and "injury" have been eliminated. "Nonfatal injury" has been defined to mean all occupational injuries except fatalities and injuries and illnesses requiring only first aid treatment. The definition of "First aid treatment" has been added and is the same as that defined by OSHA with the addition of examples of illnesses that should be considered as first aid cases.

2. In Subpart B, § 58.11 Notification by operator, paragraph (b) concerning outbreak of fire has been changed to "any outbreak of fire that endangers human life or a fire underground which is not brought under control within 30 minutes."

3. In Subpart C, § 58.23 Maintenance of records, the term "interested persons" contained in §§ 58.23, 58.30, and 58.31 have been deleted and in lieu thereof the regulations specify those persons who shall have access to the operator's records at the mine or nearest mine office to be the Secretary of the Interior and his duly authorized representatives, authorized representatives of the official mine inspection agency of the State in which the mine is located, representatives of the mine workers, and the worker who is the subject of the report or his legal representative. The operator shall either maintain the written record or a true legible facsimile (microfilm or other) of the record for the required 3-year period.

In accordance with section 13 of the Act, the Metal-Nonmetal Injury and Illness Report and the Metal-Nonmetal Quarterly Employment Report forms filed by each operator may be published and released to any interested person, and shall be made available by the Secretary of the Interior for public inspection.

4. In Subpart D, § 58.31 Metal-Nonmetal Injury and Illness Report, the requirement that the operator submit the initial report of injury or illness on the Bureau of Mines Form 6–1555, or 6–1555–S in States in which a State plan agreement is in effect, within 72 hours of occurrence of an injury or diagnosis of an illness has been modified to allow a total of up to 10 calendar days from the date of injury or diagnosis for completion and submittal of the report. This change was made in response to comments to the effect that 72 hours would not allow operators sufficient time to
